SEVEN LAYER TACO DIP

Serve this dip with tortilla chips for dipping. Serves a crowd.

Mash peeled and seeded avocados with lemon juice and mayonnaise to taste. Add 2 - 3 tablespoons sour cream, plus 2 - 3 T. mayonnaise and mix with the packaged taco seasoning to taste. Grate the cheddar and monterey jack cheeses and chop and drain tomatoes and green onions, with tops. Layer the ingredients on a platter in the order given at right.

CLAMS OREGANATO

This is a hard recipe to ruin — you can vary the proportions of ingredients and it still tastes good.

Heat the oil and butter together over medium heat and saute the onions, garlic, and shallots until soft and translucent. Add the parsley and spices for the last few minutes of cooking. Turn off the heat and stir in the clams, bread-crumbs, and most of the cheese. Use the reserved clam juice as needed to moisten the mixture. Stir in garlic powder, salt and pepper to taste. Spread the mixture in a buttered, shallow, glass or porcelain baking dish, sprinkle the rest of the cheese on top, bake at 325° for 35 – 40 minutes. Garnish with parsley and lemon wedges.

Preheat oven to 375°. Make a white sauce by melting 8 T. butter and blending in the flour, stirring with a wire whisk. Meanwhile, bring the milk to a boil and add it gradually to the butter/flour mixture, stirring constantly. When the mixture is thickened and smooth, remove it from the heat. Add a few shakes of white pepper to taste. Remove from heat immediately. Serves 2.
