STATION 31: The "Vinegar" Bible

1717 - John Baskett's folio edition of that year was so full of mistakes it was called the "Baskett-full of Errors." The most prominent was the misprint in the heading above Luke 20: "Parable of the Vinegar" (instead of "...Vineyard"). This book shows one of two distinct states, both in the Dr. Gene Scott Collection (the other is shown with the King James Bibles at Station 27); the states vary both in the amount of ruling (this example has none) and in the engravings included.
