Gītār Gān

Bengali Poetic Edition of Bhagavad-gītā As It Is

Introduction

Last year His Master's Voice recording studio in India expressed their willingness to produce a musical presentation of Śrīla Prabhupāda's Gītār Gān and market it throughout India. We naturally became quite excited about the project. But we soon realized that it would not be possible, because the Bhaktivedanta Book Trust did not want to give the copyright to any outside organization.

The only way open to us at that time was to produce it ourselves. However, it was a large production and needed a lot of money.

My initial reaction after that was to forget the project. But then it occured to me that it would be a nice gift to offer to Śrīla Prabhupāda for his centennial. His Divine Grace was very emphatic about popularizing his Gītār Gān, among the Bengali speaking people. I realized what an impact this musical rendition of Gītār Gān would have on the music-loving Bengalis if it were professionally produced. It will undoubtedly go a long way to turn them on to the message of Bhagavad Gītā.

With the help of His Masters Voice, we got the best musicians and singers in Calcutta. About a dozen artists worked full time for about 2 months to produce these 6 tapes. The music director, an eminent sarod player, Mr Srikumar Banerjee, often stayed up until early in the morning writing the musical scores, and then went to the studio to record throughout the day. This naturally shows what a keen interest he took in composing the music.

For such a large production, one major problem is that it can become monotonous. Especially when the entire book has been written in the same poetic meter. However, Mr. Srikumar Banerjee dealt with that problem very expertly. Perfect application of different ragas with different beats maintained the novelty and excitement.

Finally we offered the tapes to Śrīla Prabhupāda on 4th February 1995, through a grand celebration in the most prestigious auditorium in Calcutta. The auditorium was packed with the elite of Calcutta. The first performance was made for Śrīla Prabhupāda's pleasure. It seems that His Divine Grace liked it. Now it is being offered to the devotees all over the world. If they like it, I will consider our endeavour has been successful.

Text 32-35: O Govinda, of what avail to us are a kingdom, happiness or even life itself when all those for whom we may desire them are now arrayed on this battlefield? O Madhusūdana, when teachers, fathers, sons, grandfathers, maternal uncles, fathers-in-law, grandsons, brothers-in-law, and other relatives are ready to give up their lives and properties and are standing before me, why should I wish to kill them, even though they might otherwise kill me? O maintainer of all living entities, I am not prepared to fight with them even in exchange for the three worlds, let alone this earth. What pleasure will we derive from killing the sons of Dhṛtarāṣṭra?

Text 36: Sin will overcome us if we slay such aggressors. Therefore it is not proper for us to kill the sons of Dhṛtarāṣṭra and our friends. What should we gain, O Kṛṣṇa, husband of the goddess of fortune, and how could we be happy by killing our own kinsmen?

Texts 37-38: O Janārdana, although these men, their hearts overtaken by greed, see no fault in killing one's family or quarreling with friends, why should we, who can see the crime in destroying a family, engage in these acts of sin?

Texts 62-63: While contemplating the objects of the senses, a person develops attachment for them, and from such attachment lust develops, and from lust anger arises. From anger, complete delusion arises, and from delusion bewilderment of memory. When memory is bewildered, intelligence is lost, and when intelligence is lost one falls down again into the material pool.

GG: Chapter 3

arjun kahilen: yadi buddhi-yoga śreṣṭha ohe janārdan ghor yuddhe niyojita kara ki kāraņ

V Diacritics

Text 1: Arjuna said: O Janārdana, O Keśava, why do You want to engage me in this ghastly warfare, if You think that intelligence is better than fruitive work?

dvyarthak kathāy buddhi mohit ye hay niścit yā hay kaha śreya upajay

Text 2: My intelligence is bewildered by Your equivocal instructions. Therefore, please tell me decisively which will be most beneficial for me.

śrī-bhagavān kahilen: dvibidha loker niṣṭhā balechi tomāre sāṁkhya ār jñāna-yog yogya adhikāre

Text 3: The Supreme Personality of Godhead said: O sinless Arjuna, I have already explained that there are two classes of men who try to realize the self. Some are inclined to understand it by empirical, philosophical speculation, and others by devotional service.

> vihita karmer niṣṭhā nā kari ārambha naiṣkarma jñān ye carcā hay eka dambha vihita karmer tyāge cittaśuddhi nay keval sannyāse kārya siddhi nāhi hay

Text 4: Not by merely abstaining from work can one achieve freedom from reaction, nor by renunciation alone can one attain perfection.

kṣaṇek samay mātra nā kariyā karma thākite pāre nā keha svābhāvik dharma prakṛtir guṇ yathā sabār nirvandha sei kārya kare yāte karamer vandha

Text 5: Everyone is forced to act helplessly according to the qualities he has acquired from the modes of material nature; therefore no one can refrain from doing something, not even for a moment.

karmendriya rodh kari manete smaraņa ihā nāhi cittaśuddhi naişkarma kāraņ ataev sei vyakti vimūḍhātmā hay indriyārtha mithyācārī śāstrete kahay

Text 6: One who restrains the senses of action but whose mind dwells on sense objects certainly deludes himself and is called a pretender.

But he who enjoys such gifts without offering them to the demigods in return is certainly a thief.

> yajñera sādhana kari anna yevā khāy muktira pathete cale pāp nāhi hay ār yebā anna pāk nija svārthe kare pāper bojhā krame bāḍe duḥkha-bhog tare

Text 13: The devotees of the Lord are released from all kinds of sins because they eat food which is offered first for sacrifice. Others, who prepare food for personal sense enjoyment, verily eat only sin.

anna kheye jīv bāṅce anna ye jīvana sei anna utpādane vṛṣṭi ye kāraṇa sei vṛṣṭi hay yadi yajña kārye hay sei yajña sādhya hay karmera kāraṇa

Text 14: All living bodies subsist on food grains, which are produced from rains. Rains are produced by performance of yajña [sacrifice], and yajña is born of prescribed duties.

> karma yāhā veda-vāņī nahe mano-dharma veda-vāņī bhagavadukti akṣarera kāraṇa ataeva karma hay īśvara-sādhanā sarva-gata brahma-nitya yajñete sthāpanā

Text 15: Regulated activities are prescribed in the Vedas, and the Vedas are directly manifested from the Supreme Personality of Godhead. Consequently the all-pervading Transcendence is eternally situated in acts of sacrifice.

sei se brahmera cakra āche pravartita se cakre ye nāhi hay viṣeśa vartita pāpera jīvana tār ati bhayaṅkara indriya prītaye kare pāpa paraspara

Text 16: My dear Arjuna, one who in human life does not follow the cycle of sacrifice thus established by the vedas certainly leads a life full of sin. Living only for the satisfaction of the senses, such a person lives in vain.

ār ye bujhiyāche ātma-tattva-sār kārya karma kichu nāi karibār tār pūrņa-jñāne bhagavāne bhakti kare yei ātma-trpta ātma-jñānī tuṣṭa ātmātei

Text 17: But for one who takes pleasure in the self, whose human life is one of self-realization, and who is satisfied in the self only, fully satiated-for him there is no duty.

arthānartha vicārādi ātma-trpta nahe kartavyā-kartavya yāhā veda-śāstra kahe se nahe kāhāra rņī nijārtha sādhane sarvasva hayeche pūrņa śaraņya śaraņe

Text 18: A self-realized man has no purpose to fulfill in the discharge of his prescribed duties, nor has he any reason not to perform such work. Nor has he any need to depend on any other living being.

ataev anāsakta haye kārya kara yukta vairāgya sei tāte hao dṛḍha anāsakta kārya kare parama padete yogya hay krame krame se pada labhite

Text 19: Therefore, without being attached to the fruits of activities, one should act as a matter of duty, for by working without attachment one attains the Supreme.

Text 26: So as not to disrupt the minds of ignorant men attached to the fruitive results of prescribed duties, a learned person should not induce them to stop work. Rather, by working in the spirit of devotion, he should engage them in all sorts of activities [for the gradual development of Kṛṣṇa consciousness].

Text 27: The spirit soul bewildered by the influence of false ego thinks himself the doer of activities that are in actuality carried out by the three modes of material nature.

tattvavit ye vidvān bujhe guņa-karma guņ dvārā kārya hay jāne sār-marma ataev guņa-kārya nā kare sajjan prakṛtir guṇa-kārya āsakta nā han

Text 28: One who is in knowledge of the Absolute Truth, O mighty-armed, does not engage himself in the senses and sense gratification, knowing well the differences between work in devotion and work for fruitive results.

> guṇa-karme āsakti se guṇete saṁmūḍha prākṛta nijeke māne sei kārye dṛḍha bhava-rogī mūḍha jane nā kari bañcan karmera yojanā hate krame jñān val

Text 29: Bewildered by the modes of material nature, the ignorant fully engage themselves in material activities and become attached. But the wise should not unsettle them, although these duties are inferior due to the performers' lack of knowledge.

ataev tumi pārtha chāḍa abhimān tomār samasta śakti kara more dān karma-phal āmā chāḍa nirmama haiyā yuddha kara āśā tyaji mūḍhatā tyajiyā

Text 30: Therefore, O Arjuna, surrendering all your works unto Me, with full knowledge of Me, without desires for profit, with no claims to proprietorship, and free from lethargy, fight.

Text 31: Those persons who execute their duties according to My injunctions and who follow this teaching faithfully, without envy, become free from the bondage of fruitive actions.

prakṛti-sadṛśa ceṣṭā kare guṇavān prakṛtir vaśe sarva kārya anuṣṭhān

Text 32: But those who, out of envy, do not regularly follow these teachings are to be considered bereft of all knowledge, befooled, and ruined in their endeavours for perfection.

vahukāl hate yārā prakrtir vaś nigraha karite nāre haiyā vivaś

Text 33: Even a man of knowledge acts according to his own nature, for everyone follows the nature he has acquired from the three modes. What can repression accomplish?

Text 34: There are principles to regulate attachment and aversion pertaining to the senses and their objects. One should not come under the control of such attachment and aversion, because they are stumbling blocks on the path of self-realization.

nija dharma śreya jāna para-dharmāpekṣā bhagavad sevā lāgi karma-yoga śikṣā svadharme nidhan bhāla nahe paradharma bhāla kari bujha tumi ei gūḍha marma

Text 35: It is far better to discharge one's prescribed duties, even though faultily, than another's duties perfectly. Destruction in the course of performing one's own duty is better than engaging in another's duties, for to follow another's path is dangerous.

arjun kahilen: he vārṣṇeya kaha tumi bujhāiyā more ki lāgi hayeche jīva yukta pāpa ghore anicchā-sattveo hay pāpe niyojita avaśa haiyā kare pāpa se garhita

Text 36: Arjuna said: O descendant of Vṛṣṇi, by what is one impelled to sinful acts, even unwillingly, as if engaged by force?

śrī-bhagavān kahilen: kām ār krodh hay rajoguņ dvārā abhibhūta baddha-jīv tri-jagate sārā jñānī-jīv ei dui mahā śatru jāne kare tāi guņātīta kārya sāvadhāne

Text 37: The Supreme Personality of Godhead said: It is lust only, Arjuna, which is born of contact with the material mode of passion and later transformed into wrath, and which is the all-devouring sinful enemy of this world.

tri-jagate kām mātra sarva āvaraņ āgunete dhūm yathā dhūsara darśan athavā jarāyu yathā garbha āvaraņ alpādhik ei sab kāmera kāraņ

Text 38: As fire is covered by smoke, as a mirror is covered by dust, or as the embryo is covered by the womb, the living entity is similarly covered by different degrees of this lust.

ei nitya vairī kare jñāna āvaraņ jīv tāhe vaddha hay nahe sādhāraņ kām hay duṣpūraņ agnira samān ataev kām lāgi hao sāvadhān

Text 39: Thus the wise living entity's pure consciousness becomes covered by his eternal enemy in the form of lust, which is never satisfied and which burns like fire.

sei kām adhiṣṭhita indriyādi mane vuddhite vasiyā āṅke nikhila bhuvane vaddha jīv se kāraņ deha abhimānī svātantryer vyavahār nāhi jāne jñānī

Text 40: The senses, the mind and the intelligence are the sitting places of this lust. Through them lust covers the real knowledge of the living entity and bewilders him.

ataev he bhārat! prathamete kām niyantrita kari hao sampūrņa niskām bhaktira dhāraņa sei kāma jaya janya se jñān vijñan-nāśī, nāhi patha anya

Text 41: Therefore, O Arjuna, best of the Bharatas, in the very beginning curb this great symbol of sin [lust] by regulating the senses, and slay this destroyer of knowledge and self-realization.

baddha-jīv jaḍa-buddhi indriya pradhān indriyādhipati man karmera bidhān man hate para-buddhi tārpar ātmā

Text 42: The working senses are superior to dull matter; mind is higher than the senses; intelligence is still higher than the mind; and he [the soul] is even higher than the intelligence.

aprākrta buddhi dvārā kara dāsya tār ghucibe sakal moha kāma vyavahār sei se upāy ek śatru jinibār kāmarūpa durāsada keha nāhi ār

Text 43: Thus knowing oneself to be transcendental to the material senses, mind and intelligence, O mighty-armed Arjuna, one should steady the mind by deliberate spiritual intelligence [Kṛṣṇa consciousness] and thus-by spiritual strength-conquer this insatiable enemy known as lust.

bhaktivedānta kahe śrī-gītāra gān śune yadi śuddha bhakta kṛṣṇagata-prāṇ

Thus Bhaktivedānta sings the song of Śrī Gītā, with the hope that hearing this, Kṛṣṇa conscious pure devotees will be pleased.

Text 34: Just try to learn the truth by approaching a spiritual master. Inquire from him submissively and render service unto him. The self-realized souls can impart knowledge unto you because they have seen the truth.

se sab jñānera kathā bujhite pārile moha ār habe nāhi hārile jitile takhana se ātmā-dṛka dekhe brahma-sama sampūrṇa darśana sei samparka se sama

Text 35: Having obtained real knowledge from a self-realized soul, you will never fall again into such illusion, for by this knowledge you will see that all living beings are but part of the Supreme, or, in other words, that they are Mine.

pāpī hate pāpī yadi haye thāka tumi tathāpi jñānera pote taribe āpani

Text 36: Even if you are considered to be the most sinful of all sinners, when you are situated in the boat of transcendental knowledge you will be able to cross over the ocean of miseries.

Text 37: As a blazing fire turns firewood to ashes, O Arjuna, so does the fire of knowledge burn to ashes all reactions to material activities.

yog-siddha sei jñān cinmaya nirmal se jñān labhile habe ānande vihval

Text 38: In this world, there is nothing so sublime and pure as transcendental knowledge. Such knowledge is the mature fruit of all mysticism. And one who has become accomplished in the practice of devotional service enjoys this knowledge within himself in due course of time.

sraddhāvān yei hay labhe sei jñān

saṁyata indriya yār tatpara se han se jñān labhile śānti acirāt pāya saṁsārera yata kleś sab mițe yāy

Text 39: A faithful man who is dedicated to transcendental knowledge and who subdues his senses is eligible to achieve such knowledge, and having achieved it he quickly attains the supreme spiritual peace.

Text 40: But ignorant and faithless persons who doubt the revealed scriptures do not attain God consciousness; they fall down. For the doubting soul there is happiness neither in this world nor in the next.

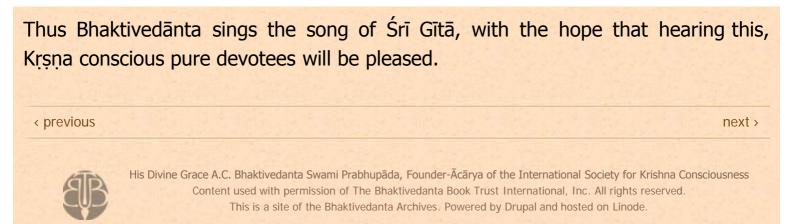

> ataeva yoga dvārā sandeha vihīna jñāna-lābha dvārā haya saṁśay vilīna ātmavān jñanavān karma hate mukta he dhanañjay! tumi sei hao nityamukta

Text 41: One who acts in devotional service, renouncing the fruits of his actions, and whose doubts have been destroyed by transcendental knowledge, is situated factually in the self. Thus he is not bound by the reactions of work, O conqueror of riches.

ajñāna-sambūta moha jñāna asi dvārā hṛdaye udaya sab haiyāche yār ei sab chinna kari jāgiyā uṭhibe he bhārat! yogotiṣṭha hao e saṁsāre

Text 42: Therefore the doubts which have arisen in your heart out of ignorance should be slashed by the weapon of knowledge. Armed with yoga, O Bharata, stand and fight.

Text 1: Arjuna said: O Kṛṣṇa, first of all You ask me to renounce work, and then again You recommend work with devotion. Now will You kindly tell me definitely which of the two is more beneficial?

śrī-bhagavān kahilen: sannyāsa ār karma-yog dui śreya hay sakala vedādi śāstre tāi se kahaya tār madhye karma-yog sannyāsa apekṣā kriyātmak jana-madhye nā kara upekṣā

Text 2: The Personality of Godhead replied: The renunciation of work and work in devotion are both good for liberation. But, of the two, work in devotional service is better than renunciation of work.

rāg-dveṣa vivarjita yevā karma-yogī anāsakta viṣayete nahe ta' se bhogī nirdvanda se mahāvāho duḥkha bandha nahe tomāre kahinu āmi kariyā niścay Text 3: One who neither hates nor desires the fruits of his activities is known to be always renounced. Such a person, free from all dualities, easily overcomes material bondage and is completely liberated, O mighty-armed Arjuna.

> sāṅkhya-yog karma-yog yevā pṛthak bale paṇḍita se nahe kabhu bālakera chale ubhaya kāryera madhye ye kona se ek ubhayer phal prāpti haibe samyak

Text 4: Only the ignorant speak of devotional service [karma-yoga] as being different from the analytical study of the material world [Sāṅkhya]. Those who are actually learned say that he who applies himself well to one of these paths achieves the results of both.

sāṅkhya-yog sādhya kari ye pada se pāy yog-siddha hale lābh tāhā upajay ataeva sāṅkhya kimvā yog ek bal buddhimān sei hay ye bujhe ek phal

Text 5: One who knows that the position reached by means of analytical study can also be attained by devotional service, and who therefore sees analytical study and devotional service to be on the same level, sees things as they are.

> sannyāsa kariyā yadi nahe karma yogī mahā-vāho ki baliba vṛthā sei tyāgī yog-yukta muni yevā brahmapada pāy acirāt sei kārya siddhi yoge hay

Text 6: Merely renouncing all activities yet not engaging in the devotional service of the Lord cannot make one happy. But a thoughtful person engaged in devotional service can achieve the Supreme without delay.

Texts 8-9: A person in the divine consciousness, although engaged in seeing, hearing, touching, smelling, eating, moving about, sleeping and breathing, always knows within himself that he actually does nothing at all. Because while speaking, evacuating, receiving, or opening or closing his eyes, he always knows that only the material senses are engaged with their objects and that he is aloof from them.

Text 12: The steadily devoted soul attains unadulterated peace because he offers the result of all activities to Me; whereas a person who is not in union with the Divine, who is greedy for the fruits of his labour, becomes entangled.

> bāhye sarva-kārya kare antare sannyās sarva-kārye suṣṭhu kari sukhete nivās nava-dvār yukta deha thāki sei pure nije kichu nāhi kare nā karāy pare

Text 13: When the embodied living being controls his nature and mentally renounces all actions, he resides happily in the city of nine gates [the material body], neither working nor causing work to be done.

anādi karma-phale bhavārņava jvale āche pade vā nā hay triāhāra srjan karma-phal yevā yog yāhā kare bhog svabhāva se kārya hay nām bhava-rog

Text 14: The embodied spirit, master of the city of his body, does not create activities, nor does he induce people to act, nor does he create the fruits of action. All this is enacted by the modes of material nature.

īśvarer datta nahe sei pāpa puņya pāp puņya yāhā kichu nija icchā janya ajñāna-janita sei bhog icchā kare pāśe thāki māyā tāre jāpațiyā dhare

Text 15: Nor does the Supreme Lord assume anyone's sinful or pious activities. Embodied beings, however, are bewildered because of the ignorance which covers their real knowledge.

> ataev jñān upajile māyā nāś ātmāra svarūpa tathā svataḥ-i prakāś sūryera prakāśe yathā andhakār yāy jñānera prakāse tathā ajñāner kṣay

Text 16: When, however, one is enlightened with the knowledge by which nescience is destroyed, then his knowledge reveals everything, as the sun lights up everything in the day time.

Text 18: The humble sages, by virtue of true knowledge, see with equal vision a learned and gentle brāhmaņa, a cow, an elephant, a dog and a dog-eater [outcaste].

jīvanmukta sei jñānī sādhāraņ nay sei sāmyasthita mane samsāra ye kṣaya samatā nirdeśa brahma tāhe brahma-sthiti brahma-jñānī yei tār sei haya rīti

Text 19: Those whose minds are established in sameness and equanimity have already conquered the conditions of birth and death. They are flawless like Brahman, and thus they are already situated in Brahman.

> priya vastu prāpya hale uţhe nā nāciyā apriya prāptite kabhu mare nā kāṅdiyā sthir buddhi brahma-vid asaṁ-mūḍha mati brahmete niyata vās nām brahma-sthiti

Text 20: A person who neither rejoices upon achieving something pleasant nor laments upon obtaining something unpleasant, who is self-intelligent, who is unbewildered, and who knows the science of God, is already situated in transcendence.

bāhya-sparśa sukha yāhā nāi ye āsakti ātmānande sevānandī ātmāte vindati sei brahma-yog yukta ātmā pāy akṣara sukhete magna sarvadā se ray

Text 21: Such a liberated person is not attracted to material sense pleasure but is always in trance, enjoying the pleasure within. In this way, the self-realised person enjoys unlimited happiness, for he concentrates on the Supreme.

> sparśa sukhe ye ānanda tāhā duḥkhamaya bhog nahe bhogī sei jāniha niścay sei sukhe ādi ante śudhu duḥkha hay buddhimān vyakti yei nā tāte ramay

Text 22: An intelligent person does not take part in the sources of misery, which are due to contact with the material senses. O son of Kuntī, such pleasures have a beginning and an end, and so the wise man does not delight in them.

śarīra chādite pūrve ye abhyāsa kare tāhāra sulabha sei anye knādi mare sadaveg jay kari gosvāmī ye hay sukhī sei nara-nārī kare dig-vijay

Text 23: Before giving up this present body, if one is able to tolerate the urges of the material senses and check the force of desire and anger, he is well situated and is happy in this world.

> bāhirer sukh chāḍi yevā antarmukh antare ramaņ kare antarjyoti-rūp brahma-bhūta hay sei brahmate nirvāņ bahirangā māyā chāḍe pāy bhagavān

Text 24: One whose happiness is within, who is active and rejoices within, and whose aim is inward is actually the perfect mystic. He is liberated in the Supreme, and ultimately he attains the Supreme.

niṣpāpa haiyā ṛṣī brahmete nirvāņ sarva-bhūta hite rata chinna dvidhā-jñān Text 25: Those who are beyond the dualities that arise from doubts, whose minds are engaged within, who are always busy working for the welfare of all living beings, and who are free from all sins achieve liberation in the Supreme.

> kām krodha vinirmukta yata citta dhīr ātma-tattva jñānī yati atīva gambīr sadasad vicāra kari brahmete nirvāņ prakṛti atīta tār brahme avasthān

Text 26: Those who are free from anger and all material desires, who are self-realised, self-disciplined and constantly endeavouring for perfection, are assured of liberation in the Supreme in the very near future.

e chādā astānga yog tāhā bali śuna abhyāsa yāhār hay atīva triguņa śavda sparša rūpa ras ār yāhā gandha bahirbāhya kari rākhi nā rākhi samvandha caksu sei bhrumadhye rākhiyā niścal prāņāpān vāyu dhari nāsā abhyantar nāsikār agrabhāg kevala daršan uttama prakriyā sei yogera sādhan indriya samyam sei yog prakaraņ man buddhi dvārā muni moksa parāyaņ se bhāve ye vīt icchā bhay ār krodh yukta hay se purus samyata nirodh

Texts 27-28: Shutting out all external sense objects, keeping the eyes and vision concentrated between the two eyebrows, suspending the inward and the outward breaths within the nostrils, and thus controlling the mind, senses and intelligence, the transcendentalist aiming at liberation becomes free from desire, fear and anger. One who is always in this state is certainly liberated.

Text 29: A person in full consciousness of Me, knowing Me to be the ultimate beneficiary of all sacrifices and austerities, the Supreme Lord of all planets and demigods, and the benefactor and well-wisher of all living entities, attains peace from the pangs of material miseries.

bhaktivedānta kahe śrī-gītāra gān śune yadi śuddha bhakta kṛṣṇagata-prāṇ

Thus Bhaktivedānta sings the song of Śrī Gītā, with the hope that hearing this, Kṛṣṇa conscious pure devotees will be pleased.

GG: Chapter 6

śrī-bhagavān kahilen: anāśrita karma-phal sei mukhya hay tāhā vinā sannyāsī ki yogī kichu nay karma-tyāg nahe mukhya karma-phal tyāg daihik ceṣṭā se tyāg nahe ta' samyak tāi se sannyāsī yogī samān ye kram karma-phal tyāg vinā dui sei bhram

Text 1: The Supreme Personality of Godhead said: One who is unattached to the fruits of his work and who works as he is obligated is in the renounced order of life, and he is the true mystic, not he who lights no fire and performs no duty.

asmnyasta sankalpa vinā nahe yogī vāhye mātra kriyāhīn antare se bhogī

Text 2: What is called renunciation you should know to be the same as yoga, or linking oneself with the Supreme, O son of Pāndu, for one can never become a yogī unless he renounces the desire for sense gratification.

sab yog hay siddha karma se kāraņ ārurukṣa muni sei śuna vivaraņ yogete ārūḍha sei śamatā kāraņ sādhaker krama panthā yogānusaraņ

Text 3: For one who is a neophyte in the eightfold yoga system, work is said to be the means; and for one who is already elevated in yoga, cessation of all material activities is said to be the means.

indriyārtha yadā karma ācarita nay sarva saṅkalpa-śūnya sannyāsī se hay yogārūḍha se avasthā śāstrera nirṇay se avasthā mukta path karaha āśray

Text 4: A person is said to be elevated in yoga when, having renounced all material desires, he neither acts for sense gratification nor engages in fruitive activities.

anāsakta viṣayete yathā karma dṛḍha saṁsāra se kūp hate nija ātmā kāḍa ātmāke uddhār karā ātmāra ucit ātmāke nāhi kabhu kara abasād ātmāi ātmār bandhu ātmāi se ripu ātmāra śatru ye hay hiraṇyakaśipu

Text 5: One must deliver himself with the help of his mind, and not degrade himself. The mind is the friend of the conditioned soul, and his enemy as well.

ye jan jinila nija man ātmajita se man ye bandhu tāhā śāstrete kathita ajita ye man sei man nija śatru apakārī hay sadā viruddha vipakṣa

Text 6: For him who has conquered the mind, the mind is the best of friends; but for one who has failed to do so, his mind will remain the greatest enemy.

praśānta ye man sei sarvadāi jita ātmajita man paramātmā samāhita grīsma śīt yata duḥkha mān apamān jita man yār tār sakali samān

Text 7: For one who has conquered the mind, the Supersoul is already reached, for he has attained tranquility. To such a man happiness and distress, heat and cold, honour and dishonour are all the same. nija tṛpta sei man jñān vijñānete kūṭastha vijitendriya nijera kāryete sama loṣṭra svarṇa yār yukta hay yogī sakala avasthāte ye sarvadāi tyāgī

Text 8: A person is said to be established in self-realization and is called a yogī [or mystic] when he is fully satisfied by virtue of acquired knowledge and realization. Such a person is situated in transcendence and is self-controlled. He sees everything-whether it be pebbles, stones or gold-as the same.

suhrd mitra nişpakşa bandhu kimbā ari sakaler prati yini sama bhuddhi kari madhyastha kimbā sādhu ye pāpīyasī hay sakaler prati sāmya śreṣṭhatā prāpay

Text 9: A person is considered still further advanced when he regards honest wellwishers, affectionate benefactors, the neutral, mediators, the envious, friends and enemies, the pious and the sinners all with an equal mind.

> ye yogī satata thāki ekākī nirjane nirāśī aparigraha cittera yatane samādhistha haye thāke adhika samay vairāgī tāhār man vaśībhūta hay

Text 10: A transcendentalist should always engage his body, mind and self in relationship with the Supreme; he should live alone in a secluded place and should always carefully control his mind. He should be free from desires and feelings of possessiveness.

pavitra sthānete basi nijāsan upare celājin vastra āsanādi paropare ati ucce nāhi base ati nīce nahe sthir man haye evā yogābhyāse rahe ekāgrataḥ man kari yata cittendriya yogābhyās kare muni viśuddha hṛday

Texts 11-12: To practice yoga, one should go to a secluded place and should lay kuśa grass on the ground and then cover it with a deerskin and a soft cloth. The seat should be neither too high nor too low and should be situated in a sacred place. The yogī should then sit on it very firmly and practice yoga to purify the heart by controlling his mind, senses and activities and fixing the mind on one point.

deha śir grīvā tin samāna kariyā acala avasthā dhīr bhāvete basiyā nāsikār agra-bhāg satata dekhiyā anya yata dṛśya-vastu kichu nā dekhiyā praśāntātmā bhay nāi brahmacārī vrata saṁyamita man yevā āmātei rata

Texts 13-14: One should hold one's body, neck and head erect in a straight line and stare steadily at the tip of the nose. Thus, with an unagitated, subdued mind, devoid of fear, completely free from sex life, one should meditate upon Me within the heart and make Me the ultimate goal of life.

se bhāve ye yoga sādhe niyata mānas sadātma sei yogī amṛta paraś nirvāṇ parama śānti hay adhikārī phire yāy mama dhāme yathā līlāhari

Text 15: Thus practising constant control of the body, mind and activities, the mystic transcendentalist, his mind regulated, attains to the kingdom of God [or the abode of Kṛṣṇa] by cessation of material existence.

ati-bhojī anāhārī yoge siddha nay ati-nidrā ati-jāgī śuna dhanañjay

Text 16: There is no possibility of one's becoming a yogī, O Arjuna, if one eats too much or eats too little, sleeps too much or does not sleep enough.

yukta-bhojī vihāra se yukta karma cestā yukta nidrā yukta jāgi yoga parāsrstā

Text 17: He who is regulated in his habits of eating, sleeping, recreation and work can mitigate all material pains by practising the yoga system.

yatātmā viniyata citta ātma-tuṣṭa nispṛha ye sarvakāme sei yoga-puṣṭa

Text 18: When the yogī, by practice of yoga, disciplines his mental activities and becomes situated in transcendence-devoid of all material desires-he is said to be well-established in yoga.

yathā dīp vinā vāyu sthir bhāve thāke uttama upamā sei yogīra nisthāke

Text 19: As a lamp in a windless place does not waver, so the transcendentalist, whose mind is controlled, remains always steady in his meditation on the transcendent self.

yogīra se ātma-sthir yoga sādhanete yogātmana tār nām yog abhyāsete viṣay bhoger uparati yogīra pramāņ niruddha se yog-sevā siddhira nidhān ātmārām yadā tuṣṭa ātmār darśane siddha sei yogī hay yogera sādhane satya ye sukh tāhā indriyatīta yev sei nāhi jāne asthira tattvataḥ ye sukh haile lābh sarva-lābh hay anya sab yata lābh kichu kāmya nay yāhāte haile sthita guru duḥkhe ati asthira nā hay thāke aṭala vicyuti yog sādhi se avasthā yadi labhya hay astāṅga yoger siddhi tāhāre kahay Texts 20-23: In the stage of perfection called trance, or samādhi, one's mind is completely restrained from material mental activities by practice of yoga. This perfection is characterized by one's ability to see the self by the pure mind and to relish and rejoice in the self. In that joyous state, one is situated in boundless transcendental happiness realized through transcendental senses. Established thus, one never departs from the truth, and upon gaining this he thinks there is no greater gain. Being situated in such a position, one is never shaken, even in the midst of greatest difficulty. This indeed is actual freedom from all miseries arising

utsāha dhairya ār nilaya ātmikā yog-siddhi lāgi chāḍi nirveda prāpikā saṅkalpa samasta dvārā nā haye kiñcit man dvārā indriyake kariyā vijit

Text 24: One should engage oneself in the practice of yoga with determination and faith and not be deviated from the path. One should abandon, without exception, all material desires born of mental speculation and thus control all the senses on all sides by the mind.

krame krame uparām viṣaya bhogete ātmasthita man kari virāma cintāte

Text 25: Gradually, step by step, one should become situated in trance by means of intelligence sustained by full conviction, and thus the mind should be fixed on the self alone and should think of nothing else.

asthira cañcal man yathā yathā dhāy ceṣṭā kari sei man vaśete rākhay ātmāra vaśete man sadāi rākhibe cañcal svabhāva tār śodhana karibe

Text 26: From wherever the mind wanders due to its flickering and unsteady nature, one must certainly withdraw it and bring it back under the control of the self.

praśānta haile man sukh uttam yogīr śānta hay rajoguņ niṣpāp śarīr niṣpāpa haile sei sattva guņe sthita brahma-bhūta nām tār śuddha samāhita Text 27: The yogi whose mind is fixed on Me verily attains the highest perfection of transcendental happiness. He is beyond the mode of passion, he realises his qualitative identity with the Supreme, and thus he is freed from all reactions to past deeds.

vidhauta samasta pāp yogī akalmaṣa sukhe brahma saṁsparśa se kramaśa kramaśa brahma sukhe magna hay se yogī takhana prākṛta guṇādi tyaji brahma anubhava brahma sparśa kivā hay kemane tā jāni sarva-bhūta brahme darśan sarva brahma jāni

Text 28: Thus the self-controlled yogī, constantly engaged in yoga practice, becomes free from all material contamination and achieves the highest stage of perfect happiness in transcendental loving service to the Lord.

sarvatra samān drṣṭi yog-yukta ātmā samādhistha sei yogī dekhe paramātmā

Text 29: A true yogī observes Me in all beings and also sees every being in Me. Indeed, the self-realised person sees Me, the same Supreme Lord, everywhere.

se dekhe āmāre sab stāvara jaṅgame anya dṛṣṭi nāhi tār nirguṇa saṅgame se hay āmār premī āmi hai tār nīrasa śuknā tarka nahe vyavahār

Text 30: For one who sees Me everywhere and sees everything in Me, I am never lost, nor is he ever lost to Me.

sarva-bhūta-sthita dekhe sarvatra āmāre bhajane āsthita haye sevaye se more se yogī nikhila bhave sarvatra thākiyā āmāte vasaye nitya āmāre bhajiyā

Text 31: Such a yogī, who engages in the worshipful service of the Supersoul, knowing that I and the Supersoul are one, remains always in Me in all circumstances.

vasudhā kuṭumba tār keha nahe par prākṛta vicāra nāi svpar apar nija sukha nija duḥkha anyete vyavahār sei se samānadarśī sarvatra pracār Text 32: He is a perfect yogī who, by comparison to his own self, sees the true equality of all beings, in both their happiness and their distress, O Arjuna!

arjun kahilen: āpani ye yoga vārta kahilen āmāre he madhusūdan! tāhā nā sambhave more mor mana cañcala se asthira se mati ataeva bujhi āmi asambhava gati

Text 33: Arjuna said: O Madhusūdana, the system of yoga which You have summarized appears impractical and unendurable to me, for the mind is restless and unsteady.

> he kṛṣṇa jāna nā kivā pramāthī manere ati balavāna sei saba paṇḍa kare tāhāra nigraha māni ati suduṣkara vāyu rodha yathā hay atyanta prakhara

Text 34: The mind is restless, turbulent, obstinate and very strong, O Kṛṣṇa, and to subdue it, I think, is more difficult than controlling the wind.

śrī-bhagavān kahilen: asaṁśaya sei kathā tumi yā kahile atyanta kaṭhina sei manera cañcale kintu yadi kare ceṣṭā śunaha kaunteya vairāgya sādhane tabe hay kārya śreya

Text 35: Lord Śrī Kṛṣṇa said: O mighty-armed son of Kuntī, it is undoubtedly very difficult to curb the restless mind, but it is possible by suitable practice and by detachment.

asaṁyata mana yār yog se duṣkar sei se āmāra mat bujaha bistar ātma-vaśi ceṣṭā kari ye kare upāy tāhāra se kārya siddhi jānaha niścay

Text 36: For one whose mind is unbridled, self-realization is difficult work. But he whose mind is controlled and who strives by appropriate means is assured of success. That is My opinion.

arjun kahilen: ceṣṭā kariyāo yadi siddha nāhi hay he kṛṣṇa! bala tār ki āche upāy sādhyamata ceṣṭā kari vicalita hay aprāpya se yoga-siddhi tāhāra niścay

Text 37: Arjuna said: O Kṛṣṇa, what is the destination of the unsuccessful transcendentalist, who in the beginning takes to the process of self-realization with faith but who later desists due to worldly-mindedness and thus does not attain perfection in mysticism?

ubhaya bhraṣṭa chinnābhra mato sarvanāś vimūḍha brahmera pathe kivā tār āś mahāvāho! e saṁśaya karaha chedan ghucāo āpani sei manera vedan

Text 38: O mighty-armed Kṛṣṇa, does not such a man, who is bewildered from the path of transcendence, fall away from both spiritual and material success and perish like a riven cloud, with no position in any sphere?

tumi kṛṣṇa se svayaṁ sab kichu jāna tumi vinā chettā kivā āche ār āna

Text 39: This is my doubt, O Kṛṣṇa, and I ask You to dispel it completely. But for You, no one is to be found who can destroy this doubt.

śrī-bhagavān kahilen: he pārtha! śunaha tumi se rūp tāhār ek-janme nahe siddha vipatti apār tāhār-o nāhi nās iha vā amutra kalyāņa kārya ye sei vijaya sarvatra

Text 40: The Supreme Personality of Godhead said: Son of Prthā, a transcendentalist engaged in auspicious activities does not meet with destruction either in this world or in the spiritual world; one who does good, My friend, is never overcome by evil.

yadivā haila bhraṣṭa yogera sādhane tathāpi se pāy sei yāhā puṇyavāne uttama brāhmaṇa dhanī vaṇikera ghare yogabhraṣṭa janma lay vidhira vicāre

Text 41: The unsuccessful yogī, after many, many years of enjoyment on the planets of the plous living entities, is born into a family of righteous people, or into a family of rich aristocracy.

athavā yogīra kule tār janma hay durlabha se saba janma kivā tār bhay se sab durlabha janma yadi keha pāy tārpar saṅga doṣe yadi nā bhramay

Text 42: Or [if unsuccessful after long practice of yoga] he takes his birth in a family of transcendentalists who are surely great in wisdom. Certainly, such a birth is rare in this world.

buddhira samyoge pūrva dehe ye sādhila he kurunandana jāna sei niścay-i bujhila tabe buddhimān kare puņah yoger sādhan dṛḍha ceṣṭa kari yogī punaḥ siddha han

Text 43: On taking such a birth, he revives the divine consciousness of his previous life, and he again tries to make further progress in order to achieve complete success, O son of Kuru.

svābhāvik bhāve sei icchāra udyam ākṛṣṭa haiyā kare se kārye udyam jijñāsu yadi vā hay yogera viṣay tathāpi se karmakāṇḍa atīta taray

Text 44: By virtue of the divine consciousness of his previous life, he automatically becomes attracted to the yogic principles—even without seeking them. Such an inquisitive transcendentalist stands always above the ritualistic principles of the scriptures.

yatna-mātra kari yogī kārya siddhi kare

janma-janmāntare siddha bhavārņava tare

Text 45: And when the yogī engages himself with sincere endeavour in making further progress, being washed of all contaminations, then ultimately, achieving perfection after many, many births of practice, he attains the supreme goal.

tapasvī se yata āche, saba-nimna yogī kāche, jñānī nahe tār samatulya karmīra ki kathā ār, kothāy tulanā tār, he arjun! yogī hao yogya

Text 46: A yogī is greater than the ascetic, greater than the empiricist and greater than the fruitive worker. Therefore, O Arjuna, in all circumstances, be a yogī.

yata yogī prakāra se śāstrete nirņay tār madhye mad-gata-prāņ yevā keha hay sabāra se śreṣṭha yogī jāniha niścay śraddhāvān yadi sei āmāre bhajay

Text 47: And of all the yogīs, the one with great faith who always abides in Me, thinks of Me within himself, and renders transcendental loving service to Me-he is the most intimately united with Me in yoga and is the highest of all. That is My opinion.

bhaktivedānta kahe śrī-gītāra gān śune yadi śuddha bhakta kṛṣṇagata-prāṇ

Thus Bhaktivedānta sings the song of Śrī Gītā, with the hope that hearing this, Kṛṣṇa conscious pure devotees will be pleased.

GG: Chapter 8

arjun kahilen: brahma kimbā adhyātma ki karma puruṣottama adhibhūta adhidaiva kaha tāra krama

V Diacritics

Text 1: Arjuna inquired: O my Lord, O Supreme Person, what is Brahman? What is the self? What are fruitive activities? What is this material manifestation? And what are the demigods? Please explain this to me.

adhiyajña kivā sei he madhusūdan kibhāve tomāke pāy prayāņa yakhan

Text 2: Who is the Lord of sacrifice, and how does He live in the body, O Madhusūdana? And how can those engaged in devotional service know You at the time of death?

śrī-bhagavān kahilen: akṣay vināś nāi ataev brahma āmi bhagavān sejanya parama-brahma paramātmā ār ye bhagavān sei ye parama-tattva sei brahma-jñān karma se kāraņ jaḍa śarīra visarga bhūtombhava yār nām śuna tār varga

Text 3: The Supreme Personality of Godhead said: The indestructible, transcendental living entity is called Brahman, and his eternal nature is called adhyātma, the self. Action pertaining to the development of the material bodies of the living entities is called karma, or fruitive activities.

padārtha ye adhibhūta kṣara bhāva nām virāṭa puruṣa sei adhidaiva nām antaryāmī āmi sei adhiyajña nām yata dehī āche tār hṛde mor dhām

Text 4: O best of the embodied beings, the physical nature, which is constantly changing, is called adhibhūta [the material manifestation]. The universal form of the Lord, which includes all the demigods, like those of the sun and moon, is called adhidaiva. And I, the Supreme Lord, represented as the Supersoul in the heart of every embodied being, am called adhiyajña [the Lord of sacrifice].

ataev antakāle āmāre smariyā yebā cali yāy ei śarīra chāḍiyā se pāy āmāra bhāv amara se hay niścaya-i kahinu ei nāhita saṁśay

Text 5: And whoever, at the end of his life, quits his body remembering Me alone at once attains My nature. Of this there is no doubt.

ye yei smaraņa kare jīva anta kāle ye-bhāve se tyāje nija jada kalevare sei sei bhāva yukta tatta lābha kare he kounteya! thāki sadā sei bhāva ghare

Text 6: Whatever state of being one remembers when he quits his body, O son of Kuntī, that state he will attain without fail.

ataeva tumi sadā āmāke smaribe kāyamana buddhi sab āmāke arpibe sebhābe thākile more pāibe niścay āmāte arpita man yadi asaṁśay

Text 7: Therefore, Arjuna, you should always think of Me in the form of Kṛṣṇa and at the same time carry out your prescribed duty of fighting. With your activities dedicated to Me and your mind and intelligence fixed on Me, you will attain Me without doubt.

kaṭhina nahe ta' ei abhyāsa karile manke anyatra sadā nāhi yete dile he pārtha se-bhāve cinti parama puruṣe niścaya-i pāibe tumi deha avaśeṣe

Text 8: He who meditates on Me as the Supreme Personality of Godhead, his mind constantly engaged in remembering Me, undeviated from the path, he, O Pārtha, is sure to reach me.

parama puruṣa dhyān śunaha tāhāra jñān, sarvajña tini se sanātana niyantā se ati sūkṣma, vidhātā se antarīkṣa, agocara jaḍa buddhi mana ye jan smaraṇa kare, nitya sei puruṣere ādityera nyāy svaprakāśa prakṛtir parapāre, ye jāne se vidhātāre svarāț tini cid vilāsa

Text 9: One should meditate upon the Supreme Person as the one who knows everything, as He who is the oldest, who is the controller, who is smaller than the smallest, who is the maintainer of everything, who is beyond all material conception, who is inconceivable, and who is always a person. He is luminous like the sun, and He is transcendental, beyond this material nature.

> acal manete yevā, prayāņa-kālete kivā, bhakti-yukta haye yoga-vale bhrur madhye rākhi prāņ, yadi hay se smaraņ divya puruṣa tāhāre mile

Text 10: One who, at the time of death, fixes his life air between the eyebrows and, by the strength of yoga, with an undeviating mind, engages himself in remembering the Supreme Lord in full devotion, will certainly attain to the Supreme Personality of Godhead.

> veda-jñānī ye akṣar, lābhe hay tatpar yāhāte praviṣṭa hay yatigaņ

vītarāg brahmacārī, sadā ācaraņa kari, se tathya bali śuna vivaraņ

Text 11: Persons who are learned the in Vedas, who utter the omkāra and who are great sages in the renounced order enter into Brahman. Desiring such perfection, one practices celibacy. I shall now briefly explain to you this process by which one may attain salvation.

samasta indriya dvār, ruddha hayeche yār, viṣayete anāsakti nām manke nirodh kari, hṛdayete sthir kari, yei jan hayeche niṣkām prāṇke bhrur mājhe, yogya sei yogī-sāje, samartha yog dhāraṇe sei

Text 12: The yogic situation is that of detachment from all sensual engagements. Closing all the doors of the senses and fixing the mind on the heart and the life air at the top of the head, one establishes himself in yoga.

> omkāra akṣara brahma, uccāraṇe yei brahma, āmāke smaraṇa kare yei se yāy śarīra chāḍi, vaikuṇṭha vihārī hari, samān lokete hay vās sei se paramā gati, śrīhari caraṇe rati, dhanya tār paramārtha āś

Text 13: After being situated in this yoga practice and vibrating the sacred syllable om, the supreme combination of letters, if one thinks of the Supreme Personality of Godhead and quits his body, he will certainly reach the spiritual planets.

ye yogī ananya citta, āmāke smaraye nitya, dṛḍhatār saha avirām tāhāra sulabha āmi, he pārtha jānaha tumi, nitya yoge tāhāra viśrām

Text 14: For one who always remembers Me without deviation, I am very easy to obtain, O son of Prtha, because of his constant engagement in devotional service.

āmāke lābh kare se mahātmā hay nahe tār punarjanma yethā duḥkhālay aśāśvata saṁsārete nahe tāra sthiti paramā gatite tār siddha avasthiti

Text 15: After attaining Me, the great souls, who are yogīs in devotion, never return to this temporary world, which is full of miseries, because they have attained the highest perfection.

> caturdaśa bhuvanete yata lok hay brahmalok paryanta se nitya keha nay se sab lokete sthān gamanā-gaman sakala lokete āche janama-maraņ bhaktira āśray yevā āmāke ye pāy kevala tāhāra mātra punarjanma nay

Text 16: From the highest planet in the material world down to the lowest, all are places of misery wherein repeated birth and death take place. But one who attains to My abode, O son of Kuntī, never takes birth again.

manușer sahasra ye caturyug yāy brahmāra se ekadin kariyā gaņay seirūp ekarātri brahmāra gaņana rātri-dina brahmāra ye karaha manana

Text 17: By human calculation, a thousand ages taken together form the duration of Brahmā's one day. And such also is the duration of his night.

sei rātri abasāne avyakta haite vyakta hay e trilok brahmāra dinete ābāra se rātri-kāle haibe pralay avyakta haite janma avyakte milāy

Text 18: At the beginning of Brahmā's day, all living entities become manifest from the unmanifest state, and thereafter, when the night falls, they are merged into the unmanifest again.

carācara yāhā kichu sei udbhav pralay

punah punah janma ār punah punah kṣay

Text 19: Again and again, when Brahmā's day arrives, all living entities come into being. And with the arrival of Brahmā's night they are helplessly annihilated.

tāhāra upare yei bhāvera nirņay sanātan sei dhām akṣaya avyay sakala sṛṣṭira nāṣ e jagate hay sanātana dhām nahe haibe pralay

Text 20: Yet there is another unmanifest nature, which is eternal and is transcendental to this manifested and unmanifested matter. It is supreme and is never annihilated. When all in this world is annihilated, that part remains as it is.

sei se avyakta nām 'akṣara' tāhār jīvera se gati nām paramā yāhār se gati haile lābh nā āse phiriyā āmāra se nitya dhām saṁsāra jiniyā

Text 21: That which the Vedāntists describe as unmanifest and infallible, that which is known as the supreme destination, that place from which, having attained it, one never returns—that is My supreme abode.

parama-purușa sei nitya dhāme vās he pārtha! ananya bhakti tāhāra prayāsa thāhār-i antarete hay samasta jagata antaryāmī se purușa sarvatra vistṛta

Text 22: The Supreme Personality of Godhead, who is greater than all, is attainable by unalloyed devotion. Although He is present in His abode, He is all-pervading, and everything is situated within Him.

> ye kālete anāvrtti yogīra sambhav balitechi śuna tāhā bharata rṣabh

Text 23: O best of the Bhāratas, I shall now explain to you the different times at which, passing away from this world, the yogī does or does not come back.

brahmavit purușa ye jyoti śubhadine

uttarāyaņa kālete karile prayāņe brahma-lābh haya tār anāvṛtti gati karmīra jñānīra sei sādhāraņa mati

Text 24: Those who know the Supreme Brahman attain that Supreme by passing away from the world during the influence of the fiery god, in the light, at an auspicious moment of the day, during the fortnight of the waxing moon, or during the six months when the sun travels in the north.

> tārā istāpūrti karme rātri krsna-pakse dhūm vā daksināyana candra jyoti lakse mārga sei āśrayete punarāgaman karma-yogī nāhi kare brahma-nirūpaņ

Text 25: The mystic who passes away from this world during the smoke, the night, the fortnight of the waning moon, or the six months when the sun passes to the south reaches the moon planet but again comes back.

ataev dui mārga śukla kṛṣṇa nām śāśvata ye dui path hai vartamān śukla-mārge yār gati tār anāvṛtti kṛṣṇa-mārge yār gati se āvṛtti

Text 26: According to Vedic opinion, there are two ways of passing from this world —one in light and one in darkness. When one passes in light, he does not come back; but when one passes in darkness, he returns.

kintu pārtha bhakta mor dui mārga jāni mohaprāpta nāhi hay bhakti-yog māni ataev he arjun! more nitya smara bhakti-yog-yukta hao kabhu nā pāsara

Text 27: Although the devotees know these two paths, O Arjuna, they are never bewildered. Therefore be always fixed in devotion.

vedādi śāstrete yāhā, yajña tapa dān tāhā, puņya-phal yāhā se pradiṣṭa se yog ye avalambe, pāy tāhā avilambe, samyaka bujhiyā nija ista

Text 28: A person who accepts the path of devotional service is not bereft of the results derived from studying the Vedas, performing austere sacrifices, giving charity or pursuing philosophical and fruitive activities. Simply by performing devotional service, he attains all these, and at the end he reaches the supreme eternal abode.

bhaktivedānta kahe śrī-gītāra gān śune yadi śuddha bhakta kṛṣṇagata-prāṇ

Thus Bhaktivedānta sings the song of Śrī Gītā, with the hope that hearing this, Kṛṣṇa conscious pure devotees will be pleased.

Text 1: The Supreme Personality of Godhead said: My dear Arjuna, because you are never envious of Me, I shall impart to you this most confidential knowledge and realization, knowing which you shall be relieved of the miseries of material existence.

rāj-vidyā ei jñān rāj guhya kahe pavitra uttam tāhā sādhāraņ nahe yāhāra sādhane hay pratyakṣānubhav susukha se dharma hay avyay baibhav

Text 2: This knowledge is the king of education, the most secret of all secrets. It is the purest knowledge, and because it gives direct perception of the self by realisation, it is the perfection of religion. It is everlasting, and it is joyfully performed.

> yāhāra se śraddhā nāi ohe parantap ei dharma vijñānete vṛthā japatap se āmāke nāhi pāy jāniha niścay mṛtyu saṁsārera pathe nirantar ray

Text 3: Those who are not faithful in this devotional service cannot attain Me, O conqueror of enemies. Therefore they return to the path of birth and death in this material world.

Text 20: Those who study the Vedas and drink the soma juice, seeking the heavenly planets, worship Me indirectly. Purified of sinful reactions, they take birth on the pious, heavenly planet of Indra, where they enjoy godly delights.

Text 21: When they have thus enjoyed vast heavenly sense pleasure and the results of their pious activities are exhausted, they return to this mortal planet again. Thus those who seek sense enjoyment by adhering to the principles of the three Vedas achieve only repeated birth and death.

As a father tolerates the impudence of his son, a friend the impertinence of a friend, or a wife the familiarity of her partner, please tolerate the wrongs I may have done You.

Text 45: After seeing this universal form, which I have never seen before, I am gladdened, but at the same time my mind is disturbed with fear. Therefore please bestow Your grace upon me and reveal again Your form as the Personality of Godhead, O Lord of lords, O abode of the universe.

śrī-bhagavān kahilen: he kaunteya! e śarīra kṣetra nām tār ihāra ye jñātā sei kṣetrajña vicār

Texts 1-2: Arjuna said: O my dear Kṛṣṇa, I wish to know about prakṛti [nature], puruṣa [the enjoyer], and the field and the knower of the field, and of knowledge and the object of knowledge.

The Supreme Personality of Godhead said: This body, O son of Kuntī, is called the field, and one who knows this body is called the knower of the field.

Texts 6-7: The five great elements, false ego, intelligence, the unmanifested, the ten senses and the mind, the five sense objects, desire, hatred, happiness, distress, the aggregate, the life symptoms, and convictions—all these are considered, in summary, to be the field of activities and its interactions.

Text 13: I shall now explain the knowable, knowing which you will taste the eternal.

Brahman, the spirit, beginningless and subordinate to Me, lies beyond the cause and effect of this material world.

> sarva-sthāne hasta-pada nahe nirākār sarva-sthāne cakṣu śir kata mukh tār sarvatra śravaṇa sarva āvaraṇa sthān tini chāḍā tribhuvane nāhi kichu āna

Text 14: Everywhere are His hands and legs, His eyes, heads and faces, and He has ears everywhere. In this way the Supersoul exists, pervading everything.

thāhā hate indriyādi hayeche prakāś jadendriya nāhi tār sarva-guņābhās anāsakta sarva-bhūt tini se nirguņ sakala guņera bhoktā tini cirantan

Text 15: The Supersoul is the original source of all senses, yet He is without senses. He is unattached, although He is the maintainer of all living beings. He transcends the modes of nature, and at the same time He is the master of all the modes of material nature.

sakala bhūtera tini antare vāhire thāhā hate hay sab cara vā acar ati sūkṣma tattva tāi avijñeya yugapat bahu dūre nikațeteo hay

Text 16: The Supreme Truth exists outside and inside of all living beings, the moving and the non-moving. Because He is subtle, He is beyond the power of the material senses to see or to know. Although far, far away, He is also near to all.

Text 1: The Supreme Personality of Godhead said: It is said that there is an imperishable banyan tree that has its roots upward and its branches down and whose leaves are the Vedic hymns. One who knows this tree is the knower of the Vedas.

vrkšera se śākhāli ūrdhva adhah-gati guņera vašete yār yathā vidhi-mati se vrkšera šākhā yata višayera bhog nija karma anusāre yata bhava-rog baddha-jīva ghure sei vrkša dāle dāle manušya-loka se bhuñje nija karmaphale

Text 2: The branches of this tree extend downward and upward, nourished by the three modes of material nature. The twigs are the objects of the senses. This tree also has roots going down, and these are bound to the fruitive actions of human society.

kşudra-buddhi manuşya se sīmā nāhi pāy ananta ākāśe tār ādi anta nay kivā rūpa se vṛkṣera tāhā nāhi bujhe ananta kālera madhye jīv yuddha yujhe se aśvattha vṛkṣa hay sudṛḍha ye mūl se mūl kāṭite hay śata śata bhul anāsakti ek astra se mūl kāṭite sei se ye dṛḍha astra saṁsāra jinite kāṭiyā se vṛkṣa-mūl satyera sandhān bhāgya-krame yār hay tāte avasthān se yāy vaikuṇṭha-loke phire nāhi āse e vṛkṣera mūl yathā se puruṣa pāśe se ādi puruṣe adya kara ye prapatti janmādi se yāhā hate prakṛti pravṛtti

Texts 3-4: The real form of this tree cannot be perceived in this world. No one can understand where it ends, where it begins, or where its foundation is. But with determination one must cut down this strongly rooted tree with the weapon of detachment. Thereafter, one must seek that place from which, having gone, one never returns, and there surrender to that Supreme Personality of Godhead from whom everything began and from whom everything has extended since time immemorial.

> nirabhimān nirmoha saṅgadoṣe mukta nityānitya buddhi yār kāmanā nivṛtta sukha duḥkha dvandva mukta jaḍa mūḍha nay vidhijña puruṣa pāy se pada avyay

Text 5: Those who are free from false prestige, illusion and false association, who understand the eternal, who are done with material lust, who are freed from the dualities of happiness and distress, and who, unbewildered, know how to surrender unto the Supreme Person attain to that eternal kingdom.

Text 7: The living entities in this conditioned world are My eternal fragmental parts. Due to conditioned life, they are struggling very hard with the six senses, which include the mind.

> bār bār kata deha se ye prāpta hay ek deha chāḍe ār anye praveśay vāyu gandha yathā yāy sthān sthānāntare karma-phal sūkṣma sei deha dehāntare

Text 8: The living entity in the material world carries his different conceptions of life from one body to another, as the air carries aromas. Thus he takes one kind of body and again quits it to take another.

> śarīrera anusār śravaņa darśan sparśana, rasana ār ghrāņ vā manan se śarīre jīva kare viṣay sevan baddha-jīva kare sei saṁsāra bhramaņ

Text 9: The living entity, thus taking another gross body, obtains a certain type of ear, eye, tongue, nose and sense of touch, which are grouped about the mind. He thus enjoys a particular set of sense objects.

mūḍhaloka nā vicāre ki bhāve ki hay utkrānti sthiti bhog kār vā kothāy yār jñāna-cakṣu āche gurura kṛpāy bhāgyavān sei jan dekhivāre pāy

Text 10: The foolish cannot understand how a living entity can quit his body, nor can they understand what sort of body he enjoys under the spell of the modes of nature. But one whose eyes are trained in knowledge can see all this.

kata yogī vaijñānik ceṣṭā vahu kare ātmajñān abhāvete vṛthā ghuri mare kintu yevā ātmajñānī ātmāvasthita dekhite samartha hay śuddha avahita

Text 11: The endeavoring transcendentalists, who are situated in self-realization, can see all this clearly. But those whose minds are not developed and who are not situated in self-realization cannot see what is taking place, though they may try.

ei ye sūryera tej akhila jagate candrera kiraņa kimbā āche bhāla-mate āmāra prabhāva sei ābhāsa se hay āmi yāke ālo di-i se ālo pāy

Text 12: The splendor of the sun, which dissipates the darkness of this whole world, comes from Me. And the splendor of the moon and the splendor of fire are also from Me.

ei ye pṛthivī yathā vāyu-madhye bhāse āmāra se śakti dhare savete praveśe āmi se ouṣadhi yata poṣaṇa karite candra-rūpe raśmi-dān kari se tāhāte

Text 13: I enter into each planet, and by My energy they stay in orbit. I become the moon and thereby supply the juice of life to all vegetables.

āmi vaiśvānara hai dehamātra vasi prāņāpān vāyuyoge bhakṣya dravya kaṣi

Text 14: I am the fire of digestion in the bodies of all living entities, and I join with the air of life, outgoing and incoming, to digest the four kinds of foodstuff.

Text 16: There are two classes of beings, the fallible and the infallible. In the material world every living entity is fallible, and in the spiritual world every living entity is called infallible.

tāhā hate ye uttam puruṣa pradhān īśvara se paramātmā thāke sarvasthān

Text 17: Besides these two, there is the greatest living personality, the Supreme Soul, the imperishable Lord Himself, who has entered the three worlds and is maintaining them.

kṣara vā akṣara hate āmi se uttam ataev ghoṣita nām puruṣottam

Text 18: Because I am transcendental, beyond both the fallible and the infallible, and because I am the greatest, I am celebrated both in the world and in the Vedas as that Supreme Person.

GG: Chapter 16

śrī-bhagavān kahilen: abhaya sattva saṁsiddhi jñāne avasthān dān dam yajña ār svādhyāy tapān saralatā satya ār ahiṁsā akrodh tyāg śānti dayā ār paranindā rodh alolupatā mṛdutā tej acapal kṣamā, dhṛti, śouca, vā hrī adroha sakal abhimān śūnyatā se chāvviśa ye guņ sampad se hay tār yār daivīte janam

Texts 1-3: The Supreme Personality of Godhead said: Fearlessness; purification of existence; cultivation of one's spiritual knowledge; charity; self-control; performance of sacrifice; study of the Vedas; austerity; simplicity; nonviolence; freedom from anger; renunciation; tranquillity; truthfulness: aversion to compassion for all living entities; freedom from covetousness; faultfinding; modesty; steady determination; vigor; forgiveness; gentleness; fortitude; cleanliness; and freedom from envy and from the passion for honor-these transcendental qualities, O son of Bharata, belong to godly men endowed with divine nature.

dambha, darpa, abhimān, krodh, niṣṭhuratā sampada āsurī hay yathā ajñānatā

Text 4: Pride, arrogance, conceit, anger, harshness and ignorance—these qualities belong to those of demoniac nature, O son of Prthā.

daivī sampada ye tār muktira kāraņ āsurī sampada hay saṁsāra vandhan tomāra cintāra kathā nāhi he pāṇḍava daivī sampade tomār hayechhe janam

Text 5: The transcendental qualities are conducive to liberation, whereas the demoniac qualities make for bondage. Do not worry, O son of Pāndu, for you are born with the divine qualities.

Text 9: Following such conclusions, the demoniac, who are lost to themselves and who have no intelligence, engage in unbeneficial, horrible works meant to destroy the world.

duṣpūra āśraya kāma dambha madānvita mohagrasta asadagrāha aśuci-vrata

Text 10: Taking shelter of insatiable lust and absorbed in the conceit of pride and false prestige, the demoniac, thus illusioned, are always sworn to unclean work, attracted by the impermanent.

Texts 11-12: They believe that to gratify the senses is the prime necessity of human civilization. Thus until the end of life their anxiety is immeasurable. Bound by a network of hundreds of thousands of desires and absorbed in lust and anger, they secure money by illegal means for sense gratification.

adya ei artha-lābh mano-ratha siddhi punarbār bhaviṣyate habe artha vṛddhi se śatru marila anya niścaya māriba āmi se īśvara dhanī se kārya sādhiva āmi bhogī siddha ār balabāna sukhī mama sama keha nahe ār saba duḥkhī āmi abhijanavān āmi dhana-ādhya āmāra samāna habe kār kivā sādhya āmi se kariba yajña āmi dān diba strī-saṅga kariyā āmi ānanda pāiba ajñāna mohita haye kata kathā bale mohajāla samāvṛta kālera kavale āsalete kāmāsakta narakera yātrī aśuci narake bās naraka vidhātṛ GG: Chapter 16 | Bhaktivedanta Vedabase

Texts 13-16: The demoniac person thinks: "So much wealth do I have today, and I will gain more according to my schemes. So much is mine now, and it will increase in the future, more and more. He is my enemy, and I have killed him, and my other enemies will also be killed. I am the lord of everything. I am the enjoyer. I am perfect, powerful and happy. I am the richest man, surrounded by aristocratic relatives. There is none so powerful and happy as I am. I shall perform sacrifices, I shall give some charity, and thus I shall rejoice." In this way, such persons are deluded by ignorance. Thus perplexed by various anxieties and bound by a network of illusions, they become too strongly attached to sense enjoyment and fall down into hell.

ātma sambhāvita mān dhanete anamra madānvita asura se sarvadā vinamra nāma-mātra yajña kare śāstre vidhi nāi dambha-mātra āche sār kevala baḍāi

Text 17: Self-complacent and always impudent, deluded by wealth and false prestige, they sometimes proudly perform sacrifices in name only, without following any rules or regulations.

ahamkār, vala, darpa, kām, krodhāśray āmāra samparke dehe dves se karay asūyār vaśe cintā svapara apare sādhura guņete dos kimbā nindā kare

Text 18: Bewildered by false ego, strength, pride, lust and anger, the demons become envious of the Supreme Personality of Godhead, who is situated in their own bodies and in the bodies of others, and blaspheme against the real religion.

> sei se vidveșī krūr narādhama gaņe nitya se ksepaņa kari samsāra gahane

Text 19: Those who are envious and mischievous, who are the lowest among men, I perpetually cast into the ocean of material existence, into various demoniac species of life.

Text 58: If you become conscious of Me, you will pass over all the obstacles of conditioned life by My grace. If, however, you do not work in such consciousness but act through false ego, not hearing Me, you will be lost.

ahaņkār kari bal yuddha nā karibe mithyā se pratijñā tumi karibe svabhāve

Text 59: If you do not act according to My direction and do not fight, then you will be falsely directed. By your nature, you will have to be engaged in warfare.

svabhāvaja karma taba avaśya sādhive kaunteya nirvandha sab nija karma-bhāve ataev mohavaśe icchā nāhi kara avaśe karibe sei tumi ataḥpara

Text 60: Under illusion you are now declining to act according to My direction. But, compelled by the work born of your own nature, you will act all the same, O son of Kuntī.

īśvara āche se sarva-bhūtera hrdaye karma karma-phala sab niyantra karaye māyāra yantrete tini sabāre ghurāy bhukti vāñchā kare jīv jei yathā cāy

Text 61: The Supreme Lord is situated in everyone's heart, O Arjuna, and is directing the wanderings of all living entities, who are seated as on a machine, made of the material energy.

thāhāra caraņe lao sarvato śaraņ prasāde haibe sarva vañchita pūraņa parā śānti pābe ār śāśvata ye sthān sarva-lābh se prasāde duḥkha nivāraņ

Text 62: O scion of Bharata, surrender unto Him utterly. By His grace you will attain transcendental peace and the supreme and eternal abode.

guhya guhyatara jñān kahilām āmi bhāla-manda vicāra ye se karibe tumi vicāra kariyā tumi yāhā icchā kara upadeś āmāra se nitya tumi smara

Text 63: Thus I have explained to you knowledge still more confidential. Deliberate on this fully, and then do what you wish to do.

tadapekṣā guhyatama ār tumi śuna atyanta se priya tumi tāi se vacana

Text 64: Because you are My very dear friend, I am speaking to you My supreme instruction, the most confidential knowledge of all. Hear this from Me, for it is for your benefit.

manmanā mad-bhakta hao more namaskār āmāke pāibe tumi pratijñā āmār

Text 65: Always think of Me, become My devotee, worship Me and offer your homage unto Me. Thus you will come to Me without fail. I promise you this because you are My very dear friend.

sarva dharma tyāgi lao āmāra śaraņ rakșiva tomāke āmi sadā sarvakṣaṇ kona cintā nā karibe pāp nāhi habe āmāra śaraṇe tumi parā śānti pābe

Text 66: Abandon all varieties of religion and just surrender unto Me. I shall deliver you from all sinful reactions. Do not fear.

abhakta vā atapaska paricaryā hīna āmāra svarūpe ei yāra śraddhā kṣīṇa upadeśa nā karibe gītāra vacan uparokta loka sab adhikārī nan

Text 67: This confidential knowledge may never be explained to those who are not austere, or devoted, or engaged in devotional service, nor to one who is envious of Me.

āmāra bhaktake yevā upadeś kare parābhakti lābh kari pāibe āmāre

Text 68: For one who explains this supreme secret to the devotees, pure devotional service is guaranteed, and at the end he will come back to Me.

tadapekṣā naraloke priya nāhi mor hay nāi habe nāi ānande bibhor

Text 69: There is no servant in this world more dear to Me than he, nor will there ever be one more dear.

āmāra e upadeś yevā vicār karibe tār jñāna-yajñe mor upāsanā habe

Text 70: And I declare that he who studies this sacred conversation of ours worships Me by his intelligence.

śraddhāvān haye yārā śravaņa karibe puņyavān tār śubha loka-prāpti habe

Text 71: And one who listens with faith and without envy becomes free from sinful reactions and attains to the auspicious planets where the pious dwell.

dhanañjay, kaha eve kivā śaṅkā hala dūr ekāgrete upadeś śuniyā pracur he pārtha, kivā tava ajñāna andhakār pranaṣṭa haiyā gela tava duḥkha bhār

Text 72: O son of Prtha, O conqueror of wealth, have you heard this with an attentive mind? And are your ignorance and illusions now dispelled?

arjun kahilen: naṣṭa moha smṛti lābha tomāra prasāde acyuta, sandeha gela nāhi se viṣāde sthita āmi nija kārye tomāra vacana niścayai kariba āmi ghucila vandhana

Text 73: Arjuna said: My dear Kṛṣṇa, O infallible one, my illusion is now gone. I have regained my memory by Your mercy. I am now firm and free from doubt and am prepared to act according to Your instructions.

sañjay kahilen: sei se śunechi āmi kṛṣṇārjuna kathā adbhuta saṁvāda romaharṣaṇa sarvathā

Text 74: Sañjaya said: Thus have I heard the conversation of two great souls, Kṛṣṇa and Arjuna. And so wonderful is that message that my hair is standing on end.

vyāsera prasāde āmi śunilām sei parama se guhyatama tulanā ye nei ei yog yogeśvara kṛṣṇa se kahila sākṣāt thāhār mukhe āmi se śunila

Text 75: By the mercy of Vyāsa, I have heard these most confidential talks directly from the master of all mysticism, Kṛṣṇa, who was speaking personally to Arjuna.

smaraṇa kariyā rājā punaḥ punaḥ sei adbhuta saṁvāda smari hṛṣṭa āmi hai keśava āra arjun kathā puṇya gītā muhūrhmuhu śune nitya sarvahite ratā Text 76: O King, as I repeatedly recall this wondrous and holy dialogue between Kṛṣṇa and Arjuna, I take pleasure, being thrilled at every moment.

smaraņa kariyā sei adbhuta svarūpa punah punah hrsta man hay aparūpa

Text 77: O King, as I remember the wonderful form of Lord Kṛṣṇa, I am struck with wonder more and more, and I rejoice again and again.

yathā yogeśvar kṛṣṇa pārtha dhanurdhar tathā śrī vijaya bhūti dhruva nirantar yei nām sei kṛṣṇa nāhi se antara śuddha nām yār hay sei dhurandhara

Text 78: Wherever there is Kṛṣṇa, the master of all mystics, and wherever there is Arjuna, the supreme archer, there will also certainly be opulence, victory, extraordinary power, and morality. That is my opinion.

bhaktivedānta kahe śrī-gītāra gān śune yadi śuddha bhakta kṛṣṇagata-prāṇ

Thus Bhaktivedānta sings the song of Śrī Gītā, with the hope that hearing this, Kṛṣṇa conscious pure devotees will be pleased.
