Additional Magickal Secrets

You can also expand your magickal powers to bring about many "extra" perks. Need to sell you home although it might be a ruff and tumble real estate market at the time? Are you looking for a new home but are unable to find exactly what you want? Do you have difficulty passing important exams or pre-employment tests?

I'll now show you the best way to accomplish all of the above, along with anything else you might be having trouble with and need to use your magickal powers to bring about the results you are striving for.

The easiest, quickest, and simplest method of achieving all that you desire consists of a combination of entering into a trance, implementing creative visualization, and stating incredibly positive affirmations.

The first step in this magickal ritual is a form of self-hypnosis that induces a trance-like or alpha state. You experience this state every night and every morning...as you fall asleep, you enter the alpha state, and just before waking up, you are in the alpha state.

Make certain you will not be distracted in any way. Close your door if there are others present in your home or apartment. Relaxing music is very helpful while you are entering this alpha state.

Lie down, gently command your body to relax every muscle and nerve, slow down your breathing, and empty your mind. An effective technique is to feel your body "dropping" each time you exhale.

When you reach the alpha, trance-like state, begin to visualize what you want to experience. You absolutely need to see it, hear it, and feel it.

Know that the subconscious does not know the difference between reality and fantasy. When you follow this magickal path, your subconscious will attract the exact circumstances you have in mind!

If you want to sell your home...first picture numerous real estate salesmen/saleswomen vying for the opportunity to list your house because they know it will sell quickly and easily.

Then picture many people coming and admiring your wonderful home, being impressed and interested in buying it, to the point of you receiving many offers...all above what you are even asking price-wise! You can use a timeline for these events...see how many days it takes from putting the house on the market to the final offer being accepted.

Need to find your new home and haven't been able to locate one that has everything you want? Visualize your perfect home, laid out exactly as you wish it to be, with every amenity you require. See yourself standing in this home, admiring it and feeling great that you've finally found what you want. Look at the color, the décor, and landscaping, and see it as being exactly how you wanted it designed.

Envision having the wonderful sensation of knowing that this is the house you feel right about...you truly feel as though you belong in this house. Then...hear the realtor telling you what the price is...which is even lower than you were prepared to offer.

You can use your magickal powers to not only pass any type of exam but to score exceptionally high on every one you take! After you reach the alpha state, visualize being in the room where the test is being held. It's important that you not only see yourself sitting in the chair, holding the pencil, and looking at the test booklet, but can actually hear the instructor talking and feel the room temperature and the tenseness in the air.

Visualization works best when you focus on projecting yourself exactly as though you are really there.

See yourself literally "whizzing" through the test, knowing all the answers, calmly laying your pencil down, taking the test sheet to the instructor, where he scans it for instant results...and you see that your score is excellent. Feel the wonderful sensations permeating through your body, knowing that you've exceeded your goal.

After visualizing your ideal scenarios, clearly state affirmations that coincide with your projected thought. For instance..."Offers for my home are higher than I expected" or, "I locate the perfect house for me and my family" or, "I receive an A+ grade on my exam." Remember that your affirmations should always be stated in the present state...these affirmations add validity to your visualizations.

Now that you have learned and understand the wonderful results you can achieve by using your magickal powers, you know that the "sky's the limit" as to what you can accomplish. Joyful, wonderful feeling, isn't it?
