Magick for Luck

If you feel that you are unlucky, or believe that the old statement of "if I didn't have any bad luck, I'd have no luck at all" applies to you, you can use your magickal powers to dramatically transform your luck.

You most likely are experiencing bad luck because that's what you're drawing to you. A simple magickal ritual will finally bring you all the luck you desire, whether it involves gambling or playing the lottery...or just being lucky finding places to park your vehicle or getting in the shortest queue at the market or bank or choosing the fastest moving lane of traffic.

By using this magickal ritual for just 15-20 minutes a day, you will notice immediately that your luck is changing for the better within only a few days.

The Simple, Effective Formula

This involves three steps that must be used together...hypnosis or trance-like state, creative visualization, and then positive, specific affirmations. If you attempt to use any of these separately, you will not be successful in bringing extraordinary magic luck into your life.

Make sure you have no distractions when going into your trance. Turn your phone off, no televisions in other rooms unless volume is so low that you can't hear them, and close the door if necessary...if others are present. You can have relaxing music playing in the background but not too loud that it will interfere with your concentration.

After completely relaxing every nerve and muscle, mentally drop your body and allow it to become limp. As you enter the alpha level, you will then begin visualizing your exceptional good luck.

Lie back and enjoy seeing yourself winning the lottery...any amount is possible. Feel the excitement and the shock of your win. Picture your friends and family being amazed at your exceptional luck! See yourself beaming while being presented with a gigantic check from the lottery officials. Imagine calling your employer and telling him you won't be coming to work again. Feel the delight as you purchase your dream home, luxury vehicle, or exotic vacation. Imagine never having to worry about money again in your life.

Or you might envision yourself being in Las Vegas at the Bellagio, playing the Megabucks slot machine for only a couple of minutes when magically you pull the handle and hit the $22 million dollar jackpot! See the throngs of casino visitors surrounding you, shocked that you have won this incredible sum of money.

You could also extend these visualizations and observe yourself being interviewed by various magazines, calling you the "luckiest person in the world." Imagine being dressed in beautiful clothing, looking fantastic and happy, on the cover of the magazines, surrounded by piles of cash, diamonds, and gold.

There's no need to limit your new-found luck to only winning the lottery or hitting jackpots while gambling. Expand your imagination to include winning races and marathons, or sporting events, such as tennis matches or body-building competitions.

Envision using this magick to attain an employment opportunity or a promotion. Imagine winning every negotiation that you're presented with, including "haggling" over prices.

See your ideal mate entering your life...visualize this person completely...physically, mentally, emotionally, and spiritually. Have in your mind exactly your idea of what you desire in your mate.

Visualize to your heart's content...there is no limit but for this magick to be effective, make sure you have a firm picture of what luck will bring you, no matter how large or small.

The next step is to state positive affirmations that coincide with whatever luck you are focusing on. If you choose a winning the lottery visualization, you might want to verbally state, "I now have won (particular amount) in the (specific) lottery," or "I now have more money than I'll ever need." If using the luck spell to bring your ideal mate into your life, you could state something like, "I now have a perfect person to spend my life with," or "My lover is wonderful to be with."

Just be certain that your statements are in the present tense. You don't want to use affirmations such as, "I'll be wealthy someday," or "I'm going to be lucky in the near future."

You can also use this magick to influence the luck of others, good or bad. This, for instance, can be used to enable your child to win the local beauty pageant or to win a race in their school gym class...or to help your husband or wife be the best or "number one" in anything they attempt.

Bad luck vibes can be sent to anyone you know, or even don't know. Your visualization might include that person being unable to finish a race or not getting a promotion or even experiencing little annoyances. I personally don't like throwing bad vibes to others because of the karma involved, but it's up to you.

Many of life's simple pleasures are a result of luck, so learning this magickal process will help you in your day-to-day routine. It truly is the little things in life that matters.
