Secret Societies

Secret Societies abound in every civilised country some are national, some exists as a form of club where men gather for pleasure, some are formed for occult purposes they are lawless .

The information given in this book came from a member of one of the most feared occult groups, the members of this group sell their souls to the Temple Master in return for favours and riches.

Spider became the manager of a Bank, was given a large House provided with a posh Car, but he was greedy and not being satisfied with these things he embezzled a large sum of money.

He not only came to an untimely end but his two young daughters (one was 10 years of age the other 12 years of age) disappeared, his Wife was evicted from the house and shortly after was found strangled and hung by her heels to a tree !

I don't know where I stand by writing this book but I too belong to a powerful society, but if you read of my sudden death... well you can draw your own conclusions.

Secrets of the Black temple

There exists a Mysterious Unknown Force

Francis Bacon AD 12/30

Francis Bacon, Magician, Occultist, Man of Mystery thought to be the Founder of the Invisible Collage, throughout the distant ages there have been, magicians, occultists, Alchemists, Inventors, Men of mystery who reputedly have been members of a closely guarded secret group or society known as the Invisible Collage

There exists a Mysterious Unknown Force

Robert Charroux, Author of books on Ancient Science.

He says, ' The Mysterious Unknown, even if it is only an experimental science that is still unknown ,is therefore not a myth.

Contemporary with the Invisible Collage is another powerful sinister group known as ' The Temple of Set ' its members are Magicians who wield great powers, its secrets have been closely guarded the penalty for revealing its inner circle secrets is DEATH it has Lodges in almost every civilised country in the world Men of Power Men of great Wealth the 'Master ' of this Temple is also known as the Master of the World

This book sets out to reveal some of those closely guarded secrets secrets that make this book probably the most dangerous book in the world.

Many many ages ago a ceremony took place on the island of Raivavac. the whole tribe of natives were gathered around a set of gigantic rock figures, the Priests selected 12 young virgins and as the ceremony advanced took them one by one tore out their hearts and sprinkled the blood on the statues while prayers and curses were laid on any who should defile the stone figures.

That night a terrible storm arose three of the statues were uprooted and fell down, they were left where they fell no native would ever go near them, only the Priests had courage to touch them.

Years later when a couple were married the girl a virgin was deflowered on one of the fallen statues her blood running over the statues head,, and those who broke the law of the Priests were slaughtered on the fallen statues it became an altar who's spirit had to fed by blood.

In the beginning of the 19th century christian missionaries converted Pomare 11 the king of Tahiti that started an era of vandalism and destruction of the stone statues that had been held sacred by the natives for centuries, by 1820 only three statues were left two were taken to Papeete leaving just one on the island.

This remaining idol or Tiki represents the God 'Tetuaranui' tradition tells that the Tikes are inhabited by the Spirits of the Dead and only members of the dead persons family may touch the statue, woe betide the stranger who disobeys the rule Death is the penalty for breaking this rule.

November 12/1933 a schooner captained by a Capt; Stevens Higgins and his first mate Tetua Mervin, brought to Papeete two large Tikis from Ravavae. which were placed in front of the Law courts.

The schooner put out to sea after landing the statues, two days later the schooner was shipwrecked all hands were drowned apart from the Captain he escaped but died of a mysterious disease 7 days later, and the workmen who put up the statues all died through mysterious accidents or from unknown illnesses.

We are told that each statue has a name ? the male statue is known as Heiata his female companion is Moanaheiata or Moana for short Heiata is considered dead and he has been castrated, originally they faced North and were worshipped as genii of the Sandy shore which they protected from the ravages of the sea.

The statues were in the way when plans were being made to build the Mama'o hospital and the taboo surrounding them caused a lot of frustration for no private firm would take on the job of removing them, and it was then that the Navy was called in to do the work they were about to. start when a Commander who had retired and lived in Tahiti warned the naval authorities not to go against local beliefs.

Finally the Works department was called in and took on the responsibilities of installing them in front of the Paul-Gauguin Museum at Papeari some 55 kms from Papeete, they engaged ten men from another island and in June 1965 the job was accomplished.

Then the evil curse came into play once again. the foreman dropped dead of an heart attack, one of the men disappeared while fishing on the lagoon ,, one foolish young man actually kicked one of the statues he was killed later that day he killed himself in an accident on his motorbike. It was probably Moana he kicked for it is she who casts the evil spells.

Evoking the Spirit of Moana

First you going to need some modelling clay, the cheapest way is to buy it from a firm who deals with Pottery making.

At a pinch you can use Plasticine .You now have to make a small effigy representing Moana, no need to be explicit just fashion it after the statues on Easter Island

See Illustration

Your Effigy should be about
6 to 8 Inches tall

Having made your effigy now you MUST take a bath in WARM WATER, for the kind of magic you are now entering cleanliness is a MUST remember that even body sweat will attract evil forces.

After your bath

Make a circle on the floor of your room, large enough to contain your table and a chair which you sit in. On the table spread a White Cloth ordinary cotton will suffice but an elaborately designed cloth of any colour would be best,

Again with RED WOOL make a circle about 18 Inches across (Dia) in this circle place your effigy and a White Candle, a piece of Coal failing to get Coal get a Stone Pebble, an empty Wine Glass and another Wine Glass containing Water, (Here again the very best water would be Rain Water, you need no more than a table spoonful catch it when it is raining and store for future use)..

Now sit quietly for 5 minutes try to relax physically and mentally, then you start the consecration of your effigy.

Dear Moana ancient Goddess of ages in chaos I do hereby consecrate you and dedicate you to the four elements of Earth, Fire , Water, and Air. I pledge myself to work with you honouring your divinity, I will respect you and offer gifts up to you,* in return all I ask is that you will work with me and use your powers against my enemies especially (Here name your immediate enemy) who hs caused me much trouble.

I now anoint thee with STAR FIRE * to seal this covenant between us, let it be, do not let me go away empty handed, now hold your hand above the candle Palm up, then move your hand over your effigy and turn it palm down saying, 'unto you the power of Fire, do this with the Pebble, and glass of Air (The empty wine glass and lastly with the glass of Water, now sit back and think of what you have done for 5 minutes, then say, ' unto you Moana be peace between us I thank you for attending this ceremony now go your way back to your own domain go quietly and in peace,' wait 1 minute then clap your hands loudly just once and say LET IT BE. Zeela *.

* Offering gifts, you should place in front of your effigy a piece of fruit, any fruit, leave it for 24 hours then throw away.

Zeela is the same as the christian Amen

Star Fire is Menstrual blood, easily obtained by women but men often have to use dubious means to obtain it, (Drink or Hypnotism) or devise their own way of obtaining it!

Working with Moana

you now need a piece of plain white paper about 1 Foot square, and a piece of Yellow or Orange paper about 3 Inches by 12 Inches, paste this on your White paper.

Next you will need a piece of Blue Paper 9 Inches by 12 paste this below the Yellow Paper, now on the Blue paper draw a few white lines (See illustration 2) This now represents the Sandy shore and the Blue Sea.

Sit at a Table and place your Effigy and Candles as illustration 3. Sit for a while thinking of why you are calling up Moana. Now say Moana you are conjured, repeat this 20 to 30 times while gazing into the candle flame either the left one or the right hand one, but do not change candles it is important that you stick to just one candle flame, after a while you may see in your mind's eye a face, that is the Spirit of Moana, now give her your instructions.

You will have to do this every evening for about ten days before you get it right, but success comes with repetition you are getting into real magic , powerful deadly magic. at the end of each session which should last at least 30 minutes repeat this prayer.

I believe in the Spirit world
 I believe in Moana.
 I believe I can now contact the Spirit World.
 I believe I can now confound my enemies,
 Moana I thank you, I thank you now return quietly to your own domain go in peace Zeela

The Latent Power in Statues

Mable Gadd was a strange woman, some swore she was a Witch, she wasn't but she surely was unusual probably a sorcerer maybe something deeper than that ! any way she had a reputation for doing some marvellous things, women who wanted babies but could not conceive would visit her and lo and behold they soon became pregnant.

Other women and young girls who were with child and wanted to be free of pregnancy only had to, visit her and sure enough they lost their unborn child, Men too visited her, many with incurable disease were given her name by caring Doctors saying ' Medicine can do no more for you but she just may be able to help and in many cases they were soon free from disease.

At night strange things happened around her house Blue balls of fire could be seen floating around her chimney pots, Blue balls of sheer energy sometimes they exploded with a loud hiss, folk swore they were ghosts and were very alarmed but she pleaded ignorance of any such happening, and then one day a very strange thing did happen.

Mable evidently fell down the stairs of her home but her head was missing ! Police swarmed all over but there was just nothing to find, her body lay at the bottom of the stairs but her head had evidently been cut off, yet all the doors were locked and bolted from the inside, the windows were fastened, there were no signs of any one breaking in, every thing in the house was normal and tidy absolutely nothing was missing except her head

Demons & Darklings

Price £10.50 or
£10 and 2 Stamps

All the information you will ever need on the safe way to invoke Demons to help you with your projects and occult endeavours.

It gives details of a novel way to invoke the aid of a Darkling to bring money into your life, this ritual has brought me many letters from delighted readers all of them acclaim remarkable results.

Gary writes ' Thank you Basil for this remarkable ritual * Arabel * money is coming in Left, Right and centre, can I use this wonderful ritual to gain other things beside money '.

Why not Gary, Money is nice but other things can be important and I think the Spirit of Arabel will be only too please to oblige.

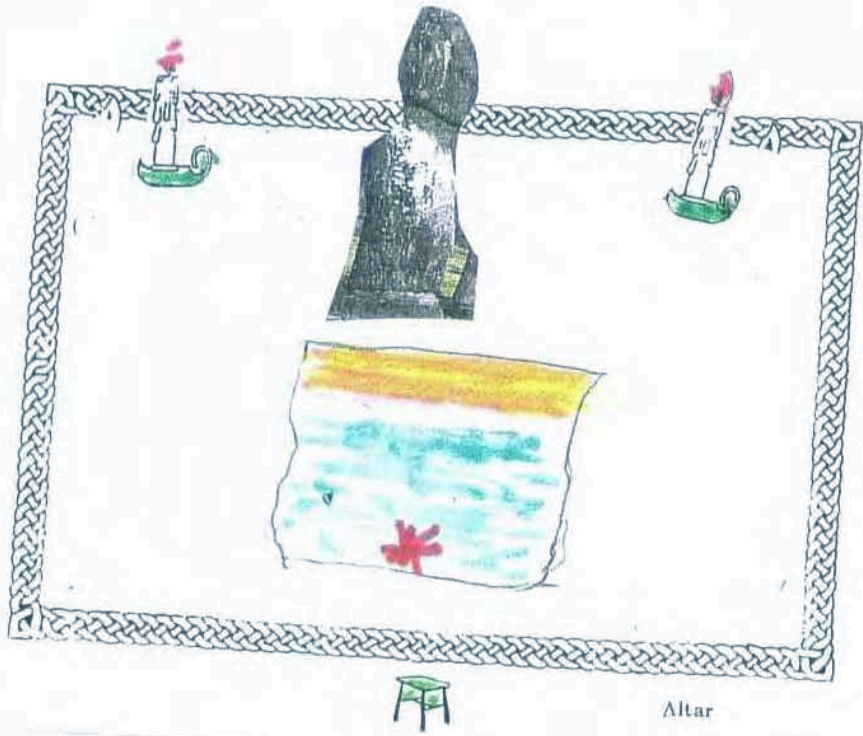

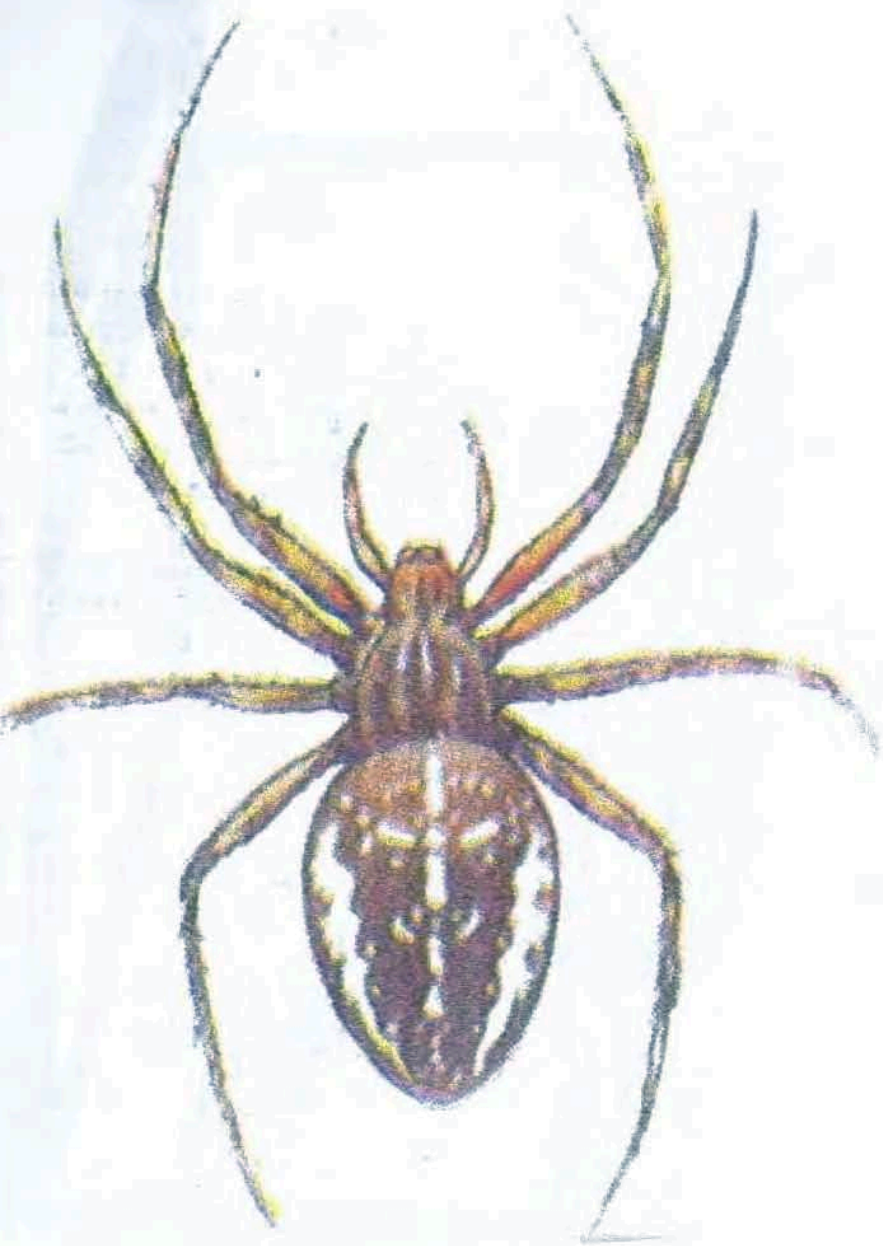

Illustration 2

Sam Levvet owned a thriving 2nd hand shop he advertised house clearance and I buy and sell furniture, in that way he became the owner of all the contents of the late Mable's house, one remarkable thing was a glass case containing some small dancing figures, he placed them in the window of his shop among other unusual attractions.

One morning as Sam was cleaning his shop window he tripped and broke his leg ! from then on trouble seemed to follow him wherever he went his business went down hill and he became a haggard looking man beset with worries , his Cat died suddenly, his dog went down with some unknown illness and Sam himself was an ill man.

Dorothy Cane was a collector of unusual dolls and spotting the dolls in the glass case she could hardly wait to buy them. She took them home and lovingly set them up by the side of her bed, spending much time adoring them.

At the next Full Moon Dorothy fell down the stairs breaking both legs, she was taken to hospital, 3 days later her ward caught fire and she suffocated in the smoke, at the inquest it came out that all the staff were certain she was removed from the ward !

A thorough investigation took place but all were certain she was removed, one Porter stated that he definitely lifted her from her bed and carried her out of the ward laying her on the grass outside the hospital, no way would he alter that statement and it was collaborated by others who, swore they saw him carry her out.

Paddy O'Brien lay in ward three in the Mary O'Toole hospital, he was slowly dying, but of what? X rays, Blood tests, Urine tests, Saliva tests all told the same story there was nothing wrong with him, Doctors Consultants all puzzled their brains to find out what was wrong all to no avail Paddy was dying and there was NOTHING they could do except to watch him die.

That was when his wife came to me with tears rolling down her cheeks, please Basil help us she cried, the next morning I went with her to the hospital, Paddy lay there eyes sunken, cheeks haggard in fact he looked ghastly, 'What's wrong Paddy' I asked, with a wan smile he shook his head too weak to speak.

I held his left hand between my hands and murmured that ancient prayer to Satan that starts with, Binan Ath Ga Wath Am Dies-i-ray dies ilea. Teste Satan Cum sib-la. Slowly our Minds intermingled and I found what was destroying him, Slowly I let go his hand he was now sleeping deeply I signalled to his wife Time to go and we left the ward.

We took a Taxi to her house, over a cup of tea I asked her 'Where is the wooden Doll your daughter plays with' she thought a while then said, 'I don't see it here she must have taken it to school with her'

'Well' I said 'we have to find it and soon if we are to save Paddy, that Wooden Doll is a carving of an ancient God it is a hand carved replica of a pillar that held up the roof of a Temple, Goes back to the time of Atlantis represents Atlas holding up the world, we have to appease it.

We can never know what God it represents possibly as it originates from the time of the Astecs it is linked to 'Quetzalcoatl' for in their religion one of the jobs of Quetzalcoatl was to hold up the sky (See illustration 4)

When her daughter came home I asked her if I might look at her doll, she didn't mind, I, was right it was a replica of a Temple pillar, after the child was tucked in bed I left taking the Doll with me, that night I performed an exorcism on the Doll, at the end of an hours hard work suddenly every picture in room fell down and the windows were cracked and a strong smell of Sulfur nearly choked me.

X The next morning Paddy woke and asked for a cup of tea saying 'You couldn't make it Beer could you' the nurses could hardly believe their eyes. he went to sleep a dying man and now he was making eyes at the nurses and asking for Beer, the Doctors were astounded!

Four days later Paddy was discharged from hospital, and Oh yes the Doll was buried deep down in Paddy's garden; over a smashing pint of Beer I asked him where it came from he said 'actually a man I work with dug it up in his garden and as he had no kids he cleaned it up and gave it my daughter.

The lesson here is beware of old ornaments that are in the shape of figurines, nearly always they can be deadly unless they are taken to a top magician to be cleared of any evil influence which has been invoked into them, do not go to any magician if you're troubled with curses make sure your magician is one of the top, ask for qualifications.

The Power of Yemenji

Dorothy W..... was a very nice happy girl of some 19 years of age, she had made good at school passed some high grades and obtained a good job on leaving school with an Insurance firm.

Just another Office girl ? well maybe but let us remember that she was always cheerful well liked by all and really was good at her appointed job, her employers were keeping a sharp eye on her with a view to upgrading her at the next company review, there is little doubt she was on her way up.but:

All good things come to an end.

Then her world fell to pieces, she became sullen un-tidy her work became slipshod she started turning up late in the mornings, her employers were perplexed but there can be little sympathy in business, you either make good or you go under, and so at the companies next review her change of habit came under discussion, and words like this were uttered, ' Strange ' , ' Beyond belief ' . ' Well promotion is definitely out ' . ' Perhaps it's time to let her go and sure enough

She received a months notice to quit.

Then she left home and began walking the streets, mixed with the riff-raff you find walking the streets in any big city, took to drink and drugs and petty crime, then came the day that the Police picked her up in a drunken stupor, she was duly charged convicted and ordered to be put in a home to dry out.and serve her sentence.

A Lucky Find

Having served her time she was returned home and now we find her a bed ridden girl seriously ill and suffering repeated nightmares, eating next to nothing and continually crying, her forgiving Mother spent hours by her bedside, and to pass the time read to her from various magazines, it was while reading to her that she picked up an old copy of Prediction Magazine and came across one of my old advertisements, and duly wrote to me asking me if I could visit her and could I help in any way.

My Visit to Dorothy.

Dorothy's Mother let me in and took me up to Dorothy's bedroom, the first thing I noticed was that every wall contained on shelves Dolls in all manner of National Dresses, I asked about them and was told that Dorothy collected dolls in National costumes, and yes there sure enough was a very pretty Fairy doll, her Mother said it was from her Christmas tree when she was 10 years old.

Then another strange looking Doll caught my eye, I recognised it as a replica of an African Goddess known as Yemenji and I wondered how Dorothy came to have that very powerful doll for I knew the dangers associated with that Voodoo Doll.

I took it in my hands and approached Dorothy with it meaning to ask her from where had it come, a look of sheer terror came in her eyes

She buried her head under the clothes and I knew that here was the source of all the trouble. The answer to the trouble was here in my hands now to find how the deadly curse had fallen on Dorothy.

VooDoo

I left telling her Mum I would return the next day at 3 PM for I wanted time to think about this for I knew that unless I could solve this Dorothy was going to Die !

as she buried her head under the clothes really startled me for a moment and I knew that here was the source of all the trouble. The answer to the trouble was here in my hands and I had to find out how the deadly curse had fallen on Dorothy,.I left telling her Mum I would return the next day at 3 PM for I wanted time to think about this for I knew that unless I could solve this Dorothy was going to Die !

VooDoo

How does this Goddess KILL ? why should SHE ?after all she is the Goddess of Home and Love and all good things, unless she has been insulted in some way, and how could Dorothy who loved dolls possibly have insulted her ? or was the curse passed on and by whom ? Where do I start looking.? I know what's wrong but who started it ?

The Hidden Killers

Have you ever heard of the ' Crawler Fiends? not many people do Know of them

There are two varieties of these things a Red one that eats good thoughts and a Black one that thrives on Evil thoughts, just think a moment how many times have you said ' I will do this that or the other ' Yet have not done it !

A Sobering Thought

How many times have you said ' I will go somewhere' but you do not go ! ' How many times have you said ' I will write that down ' but you don't , well now you know why, your thought has been eaten by a 'Crawler Fiend 'not a nice thought is it, but it explains many things, like the child who is a perfect example of what a good person should be then suddenly changes into a dropout and drifts into crime, blame the 'Crawler Fiend' for eating all his good thoughts !

Then there is the Bully, a drunkard petty thief, in and out of Prison for years who suddenly changes into a well dressed smart person helping out in charities often taking up religion ? again it's the.

who has gobbled up all his evil thoughts ,changing his life completely nasty little things causing half the troubles in 'this world, by knowing away at our every thought.But let us get back to this so called VooDoo which actually is not all bad, for those who practice certain forms of VooDoo are marvellous healers, but of course some use it for evil purposes, but there is good and bad in all things.

The VooDoo Gods

Well first we have 'Erzulie', she had a daughter named 'Yemanji', who became even greater in fame than her Mother, Yemanji' had a son named 'Shango' who is the main God in some of the most powerful religions in the world.

But to get back to Dorothy, When I returned the next afternoon Dorothy had sunk a little deeper towards death, I had that replica of Yemanji in my hands, but no way would Dorothy look at it, but I had to find the answer and quickly or it would be too late.

Her Mother did not know how or where this deadly doll came from and then over a cup of Coffee she suddenly said, ' Dorothy's boy friend may know, quickly I wrote down his name and address, jumped in my car and tore off up the road in search of him.

Lucky it was for all of us he was in when I found his house and yes he did know where the doll came from, he had won it at a Fair ?

All the Fun of the Fair

It turned out that he had taken Dorothy to a Fair in the next town, and there was a Dart Stall, you had to obtain a certain number with only three Darts, now Jimmy, Dorothy's boy friend was an excellent dart player the champion of his team and in no time he threw that sought for number and so had a choice of which prize took his fancy, and giving the choice to Dorothy she had chosen this replica of 'Yemanji' exclaiming what a cute little thing she is.

It took me two days to locate that Fair, and I had a few words with owner of the Dart Stall, at first he refused to talk to me, but after I invited him to the nearest Pub and bought him a couple of Beers he became more friendly, and we talked of this Doll which I had with me.

His story was simple after closing up one day he picked up this Doll either thrown away or dropped by some child, now although the doll was on display quite openly no one had claimed it, and the Fair moved on, not wanting the Doll himself he had placed it among the other prizes on offer and a young chap had won it and given it to his girl, which of course was Dorothy and Jimmy

..Now we had a real Problem on our hands.I had several photos taken of the Doll went back to the town where she was found and put photos in several shop windows offering a good size reward for information about the Doll.

Luck pays Off.

A few days later a letter arrived from a woman who said she knew all about the Doll and could I meet her, in due course we met and this is her story.

My husband is a devoted fisherman and every weekend he and a friend go to the Seaside, hire a boat and put to Sea for the day, enjoying a few Beers as they fish.

Well this certain day the Doll you have; got caught up on his line, he reeled her in was going to throw it back but then thought our little girl just might like it, O how I wish we had never seen it, I looked surprised then continuing she said, a few days after bringing that cursed Doll home my husband was sacked and is now out of work, Susy our four year old daughter was run over in the street outside our house and will never again be able to walk !

Last night several Tiles fell from our roof killing next door's Dog, they are going to sue us for damages, I have a letter here telling me my Mother has been killed in a accident at work.

And now my husbands dole money has been stopped they say it was his own fault he was sacked he was not doing his work as he should have been doing. For Gods sake throw that evil doll away !, But I knew better than that, lose it and the curse stays with Dorothy until she is dead and then passes on to whoever has the doll !

Now I had the facts of the matter I knew it was time to appease Yemanji and get the curse lifted from Dorothy, there was nothing I could do about the Fisherman and his family, perhaps I could stop any more misfortune falling on them but I sure would not bet on it.

So I hired a boat and rowed about 2 miles out to sea, then gently I placed Yemanji in the water and as the waves carried her away I pleaded with her, ' Dear Yemanji please forgive them, they just didn't know,' I sat watching until she had drifted out of sight and then made my way back to the shore. Ten days later Dorothy was up and about again, once more restored to the happy go lucky girl that she was before the curse took her over, needless to say her Mother and friends were delighted.

From where comes this Power

In Haiti where Yemanji is worshipped; at certain times in the year a vast candle lit procession takes place, a huge effigy of Yemanji is carried on shoulders to a point in the river where a large lake has formed, there she is put on a raft lit by a thousand candles and set sail upon the lake.

People by the hundred jump into the lake singing and chanting as the raft slowly moves to the centre of the lake and then is drawn by the river and slowly drifts out to Sea, the people cheer as invalids are made whole by the Holy Waters, illnesses are cleared up miracles are performed such is their faith in Yemanji.

At certain times in the year in Brazil a huge crowd gather at the Seashore, they light candles by the thousand and place them on the sand, many can be seen carrying miniature boats containing a lighted candle and a doll that is a replica of Yemanji.

Many of these people have spent there last penny buying these boats and dolls, but they don't care they know Yemanji will bring them business deals, good luck, and rich rewards, such is their faith in this Goddess.

As the tide turns the boats are set adrift and the ebbing tide carries them far out to sea? they have been found miles out to sea, and the Sailors knowing about them and will not touch them

A story is told among knowing Sailors that on one ship was an American tourist who swore he would get a talisman from the large raft on which sat the Effigy of Yemanji covered in flowers..

He dived overboard swam out to the raft, cut himself a large Red flower, swam back to the ship but as he clambered aboard a sailor hit him with an oar knocking him back in the sea, a passenger threw him a Life-belt but another sailor cut the rope setting the man adrift saying ' No way is he going to come back on this ship '

He drifted away and presumably drowned for he was never seen again.....I had intended to write up a ritual ceremony on this but have been advised by the that it is far too dangerous, so will have to include a ritual relating to this side of VooDoo but also on what is considered to be White Magic .

Of course there is no such thing as White magic or Black magic there is just a mysterious force to use for good or bad

The Black Temple

You cannot join the Black temple ! New Members are called by existing members, first their name is put forward then a committee is called who investigates the proposed member who has no idea this is taking place, if found unworthy all data relating to him/her are destroyed....On the other hand if the proposed person is thought fit to be a member a posse is called and the proposed member is kidnapped blind folded bundled into a car and delivered to the local Temple, here he/she undergoes a questionnaire and if he/she passes that stage he/she is offered membership and a date set for his/her initiation. So dear reader if you are into magic black and white you never know you may be called and become a 1st degree Neophyte Brother or Sister

Your own Temple

Set it up as near as you can to illustration (2)

Setting for Ceremony

In each corner of your room you need a tall Pillar at least 5 Feet tall ! you can easily construct these by using a piece of Plastic Drain pipe, cover it with paper and paint them to represent the four Elements Earth, Air, Water, Fire, For Earth use Green for Air use Grey for Water use Blue and for Fire use Red

Now we are dealing first with Yemanji so out of thin cardboard cut 4 circular pieces 6 inches in Dia, on these draw the Vever of Yemanji Figure 3 place one at each corner place on the base of your Pillar in the centre of the room make a large circle with Blue Wool make this as large as you can. Next you must get a piece of White Paper about 3 Feet Square on this draw in blue some lines See Figure 5 make sure that your paper has a star at the top drawn in Red this will represent NORTH.

Commencing ceremony.

Go to the East Pillar kneel and say ' I do stir and command the Spirit of the Graveyard known to man by the name of Omulu, to attend this ceremony Come Omulu bringing scent of Spices from lands beyond the Ocean wide

Go to, the South Pillar and say ' I do stir and summon the Spirit of the South who art known to man by the name of Exu Hot Ashes come witness this ceremony.'

Go to the West Pillar saying ' I do. call on the Spirits of the West to bring soft rains to wash this place that it be clear of any unwanted Spirits or Force '.

Go to the North Pillar and say ' I summon the Spirit of the North known far and wide as Exe Marabo dread Spirit of Hell, be with me this night and keep your hordes of demons off my back for I would consult with Yemanji Figure 6 to bring to me that which I seek 'You now speak with Yemanji, stand on the White Paper Figure 5 let your toes just touch the Blue lines and ask

Making the Pillars

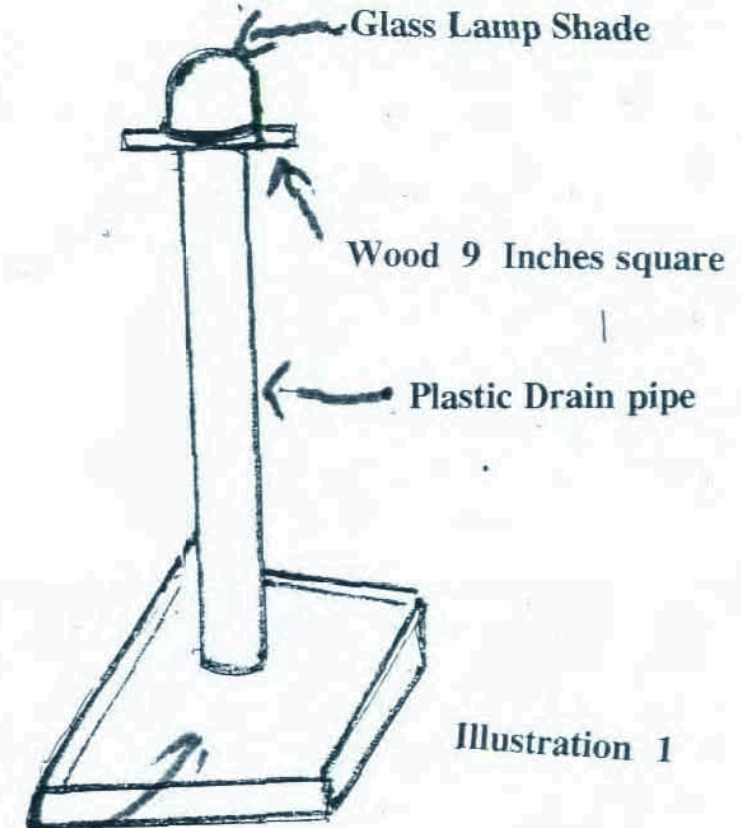

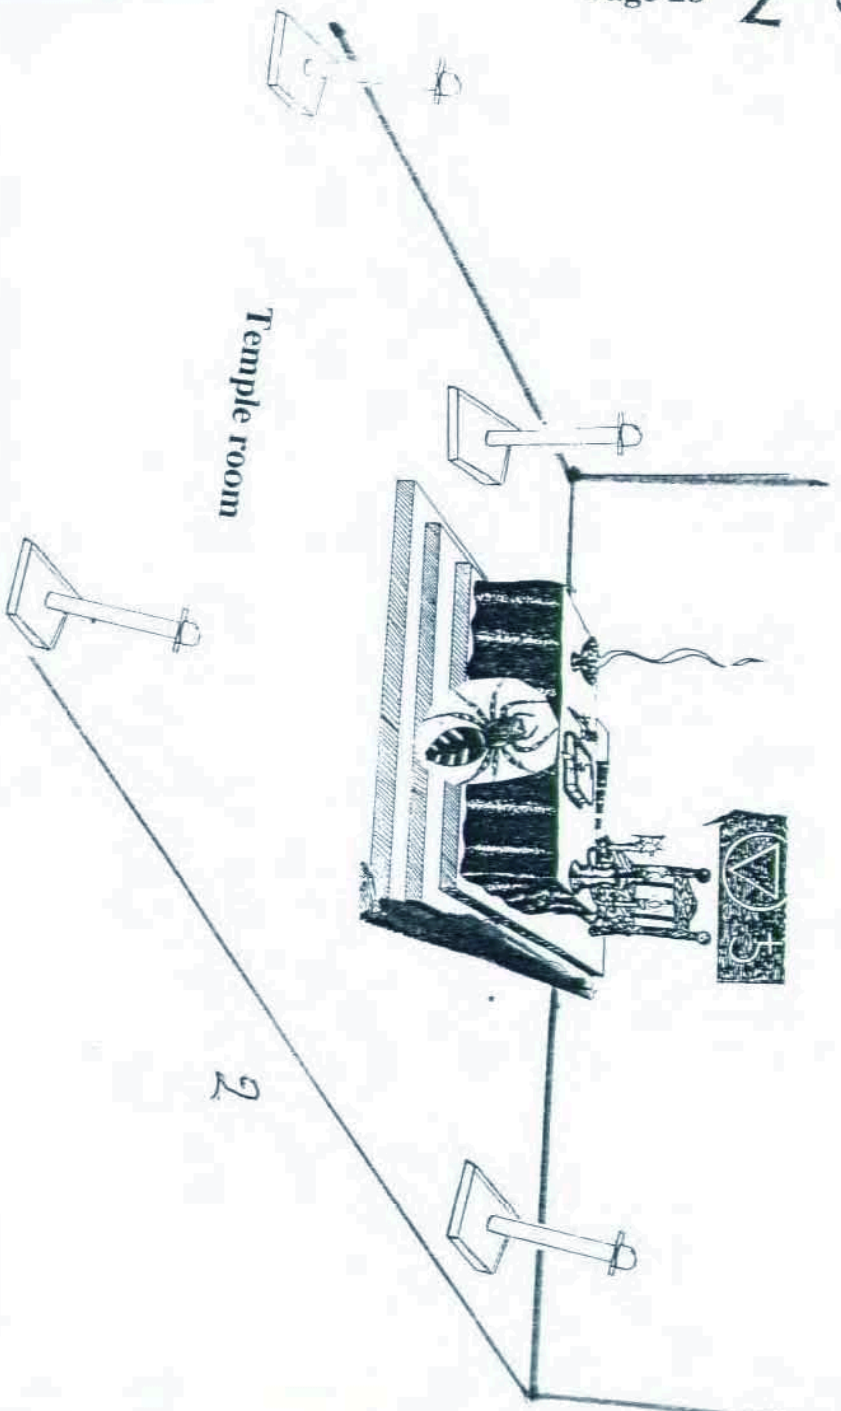

Illustration 1

Cat's litter tray

mixtur van be bought ready mixed in bags

Yemanji what is in your Mind, ask for any material object or ask for a girl or man if that is your desire.

Do not give up easily you may have to ask many times on many days but rest assured if you keep it up you will get what you ask for, remember the North American Indians when they start a chant for Rain will keep it up day and night for two or three weeks knowing that sooner or later the thunder storms will come !

Magic can perform wonders but it takes discipline only those who persist become masters of magic, my late wife could ask for and receive things in three minutes, and no matter what I ask for I receive in no more than three days

Ending the Ceremony

Hold your hands above your head saying' Yemanji I thank you for being my friend I pause now and thank the Spirits of the Loa for their help.I will give to you sweet flowers in their season at other times I will light sweet scented sticks to you .to show that I will always remember you. Zeela (Use Joss sticks)

Divination

In all religions we find the need for looking into the future, be it called ' Consultation Seance' 'Tarot Reading' or just plain

'Fortune Telling '

So let us take a journey to Cuba where most folk follow the religion called Santeria, a religion that is fast spreading in every civilised country in the world ? Well it is a powerful religion that enables it's followers to perform near miracles and not only in healing.

.Mary-Sue had a problem, she was in love with TWO men, now Mark was a rich business man but very strict and proper in all his ways but Jack was an adventurer and yes a gambler, some times rich and at times desperately hard up but he was a one heck of a lot of fun, she loved them both but which one to marry ? There lay the problem, to be rich and wear nice clothes or to live a life full of surprises and loads of fun !

So we find on one sunny day ; Mary-Sue consulting a Hougan of Santeria, her question which of the two should she marry ? Now this is a brief look into the Ceremony that took place, We will name the Hougan or High Priest ' Harri ' He ordered May-Sue to kneel, then said ' Repeat after me.

Lord Shango, blessed be your powers

I come to you with a vexatious problem I give to you Fruit and Flowers and Candy-Wine, look upon me with favour and give me your answer. . Now Harri takes a Coconut, breaks it open and selects 5 pieces, he throws 4 pieces in the air keeping the odd piece in case one of the other pieces should break.

Saying to Mary-Sue ' Name one man and say should I marry this man '? She says ' Shall I marry Mark 'They fall down showing 3 Brown sides and 1 White , Harri says.

' Shango says ' NO ' you do NOT marry Mark ' then picking up the pieces he again tosses them in the air they fall down 4 Whites, Harri claps his hands loudly and says

Lord Shango honour be your name, and to Mary-sue he says. Go marry that man and may Shango ever be near you.

Well that's the Ritual Ceremony that we are going to emulate, but we will relate it to Quetzalcoatl not Shango and by using a method of divination known only to those who live and work with Fairies, and we will use not Coconut but pieces of Bread.

 If you buy one of those small square Loaves of Bread and take one of the Crusts and cut it into 4 pieces it will resemble the Coconut being White on one side and brown on the other. On your Altar place the Picture of Quetzalcoatl give a gift to Quetzalcoatl, so a Bar of Chocolate or a Bottle of any Drink. Some Flowers, or a piece of Bread & Butter and a White Candle.*

Now hold a Bread in your Hand, ask your question, lay the Bread back on the Table and light the Candle , ask the question again as you light the candle.

Lay the used Match at the feet of 'Quetzalcoatl With . your Right hand forefinger dab his feet with Star Fire then with the same finger dipped in Star Fire touch his Head and recite the chant.

The Chant

Now you say,

A petition if I may make so bold
To light a candle and throw aloft this Bread
So that in today the future shall be read,
And to Me (Say your Name) the future will be told.

At the end of this little ceremony place all the Flowers Bread & Butter, Chocolate Bar or Bottle of Drink outside your house where some one can find them, do not try to see what happens to them, turn your back on them and try to forget them, leave it to the fairies.

Divining

You have thrown the Bread high and have written down the numbers of each throw and have added the Numbers of the White ones and the Brown ones Now White is counted as 3 and Brown is counted as 2

Write this number down, Throw the Bread up 2 more times, now add all the numbers up and reduce to one figure.

Example

First throw	3 White and 1 Brown	=	11	reduce to	2
2nd Throw	2 White and 2 Brown	=	10	"	" 1
3Rd Throw	1 White and 3 brown	=	9		9

2. 1. 9. added = 12 reduce to 3. Now our 1st number was 2 so we have 2 and 3 to read from Chart... So you read the number of your 1st throw and the total of all 3 throws.

First throw 3 white and 1 Brown = is read separately at all times.

Do not use this ritual more than once on any one day unless you are divining for more than one person, if you are having a party you may throw the Bread once for each member of the party.

A Quicky Answer to a Yes/No Question

3 or 4 White tops = YES 3 or 4 Brown tops NO. 2 White tops and 2 Brown tops the fairies are busy try again to morrow

Obtaining Star Fire

Dan Aven was a budding magician he had been consulted by a woman who wanted a man put to death. A tall order indeed, Dan took on the job for a fee of £2000, that meant he had to supply the goods !

Two weeks later the man was still alive well and hearty much to the chagrin of the woman who demanded either results or money returned.

Dan knew he had to work with Papa Nebo (See figure 8) but all his efforts resulted in nothing there was one important ingredient missing, yes you are right, it was Star Fire, Dan's trouble was in obtaining it, then he hit upon a plan,  (Please take notice of this excellent idea)

First he studied up on Hypnotism, he tried most of those advertising but there prices ranged from £500 and the course would take weeks and still did not meet the requirements of a consulting magician (He finally came to me, and got a magicians course of 5 lessons for £350, but they are the best of the lot for magicians).

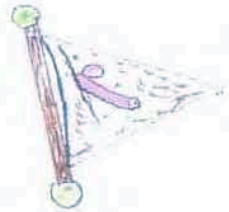

Next he placed this advert in shop windows a very cheap method of advertising especially for the sort of adverts that magicians need, there are far too many busy bodies who like to pry into our methods, They can prove to be an awful nuisance.

Dr Samual Nobody Consultant Psycho-therapist St Brts Hospital having taken up residence in this area can accept a few private patients in this evenings only. (address written here)

It was not long before would-be patients began calling on him. some he accepted remember he had studied, my course on Hypnotic treatments so he was an expert at hypnotic healing and knew exactly how to proceed and indeed he put paid to a lot of suffering, and his patients really did begin to praise him up and sent others to him.

Among these patients were the parents of a lovely school girl, let's call her Sheriden.

Sheriden is a lovely girl just 15 years of age she has a beautiful body just blossoming into women hood.

beautifully proportioned, tall for her age, dark hair and blue eyes, she had a quarrel at school over a boy, was extremely upset and was told of our psychiatrist she had an appointment for 6 O'Clock on a Thursday.

On the Friday evening she visited the psychiatrist at 9PM, throwing her arms around his neck she kissed him saying ' I want you to be the father of my child '. Kissing her he said 'Go into the bedroom undress and lie on the bed I will be with you in a few minutes.

They spent two hours in each others arms kissing and making love, at 11 O'Clock he called a taxi and sent her home, two months later it was obvious she was pregnant, there were awful rows with her parents who demanded to know the name of the man who made her pregnant but she had no idea of who it was, her parents naturally did not believe that, but it was true her memory had been wiped clean ! Such is this awful power in the wrong hands.

Now an amazing fact is, every one has this power it is just a matter of being taught how to use it, these books and lessons can teach you just that and many more things, the technique of cursing and removal of curses, how to attract money or a loved one. The whole field of magic is discussed and taught in these amazing books, going back into past history telling of the things you have always wanted to read but could never find, because publishers are afraid to print this knowledge

(See list at end of Book)

What are occult arts ?..... Well one could say a Deadly form of super psychology that allows you to manipulate other people without them being aware of any manipulation. but that is only one form, there are many forms but that all are part of one mental facility a sort or use of a higher phase of Mind. These books go into different aspects giving you secret knowledge and teachings of how to use these forces.

There is a certain man living in a large city who is looked up to and respected, let us assume he is a psychiatrist, a man in marital troubles made an appointment to visit him, at the end of the interview this man was given a revolver and certain instructions.

The next day he entered a Bank took out the gun and demanded £5000 leaving the Bank he went to our psychiatrist and gave him the cash, two days on and he tried to hold up another Bank but was thwarted by the manager.

Whipping out the revolver our man shot the manager and two girl tellers then putting the barrel of the gun in his mouth he blew out the top of his head, our psychiatrist reading about it in the paper said, Damn it now I have to find another gun !

Mental Poison

As a magician you will often be called upon by persons seeking revenge, the world is full of these people who have been wronged,so you need the correct way of placing a curse or spell.

Now Let's take a case, Smelly the magician had taken on a case. this is how he worked it.to be effective the victim must know that a spell has been placed upon him/her so having arranged his fee he proceed this way.Obtaining a spot of blood from his client,it is amazing how scared people are to lose just one drop of blood, the easy way is to pinch a persons arm then pierce it with a needle that has been passed through the flame of a candle.and wiped clean (It will be painless) after a couple of pinches.

Now is working with Gasp, a Demon from Hell- whos speciality is fomenting hate, also on his Altar he had an effigee of a skeleton (See Figure 8) he fashions him out of Pipe Cleaners, made him up with the help of Blue Tac taking his time fashioning the effigy concentrating on the purpose it is going to be used for, (I dip my finished effigies in Plaster of Paris just dip them in and out quickly,one has to quick.)

He has this skeleton and a Black Candle on his Altar, on a piece of white paper write with a Red pencil I place upon (Here says victims name) a curse on behalf of my (saying clients name) * We note the Paper he used had that spot of blood on it *

Figure 8

At this time I call upon Satanas asking for his permission to lend me the Demon Gasp from the gates of Hell to punish (here he said victims name) I command that this dark Force shall go and torment this man/woman, let much pain descend on him/her let trouble be with him/.her for as long as I wish.

My client has been wronged and I demand revenge let this cursed person suffer thrice what my client as suffered because of his/her lying and cheating ways.

Gasp I look to you, make my attack be successful let no one be able to, cancel it out , make it so strong that my victim can in no way resist it, let him/her be at my mercy, and make me strong in Mind and let it be that I shall show no mercy or pity ,let the dark forces be in command and bring him/her down on their knees in pain and remorse,all these thing s do I seek from thee and tomorrow I will start the curse working by contacting this evil person in the time honoured way of setting a curse in motion, Demon Gasp let it be. He Blows out the candle and claps his hands loudly
 Just Once ** .

Now the time honoured way of cursing is to let his victim know a curse has been placed upon them, this is done in a subtle way that poisons the Mind, so here he send his victim a letter containing only a picture of Gasp writing under it in Red The Devil is watching you the Devil is coming for you and you will soon be hearing from him.

In large letters he wrote YOU ARE DOOMED

On the 3rd day after posting the letter,he bought a bunch of flowers, seeking out a street seller he asked for a bunch that was on it's last legs. (He got them cheap) From a Stationers he got a small gift card, his victims name was Ronald, so he wrote on the gift card " Dear Ronny, now I know what love is, lets do it again, your Baby Doll."

Next he got hold of a boy, saying to him, 'Would you like to earn a Fiver ', ' Doing what 'the boy said ' Just take these flowers up to (Saying number of his victims house) just knock on the door hand these flowers to the woman and say * From the flower shop * and get away quick before she can ask you questions.

Now tore the £5 in half gave the boy one half when he had delivered the flowers he gave him the other half saying ' Any shop will change it for you . . And The Dark deed was done! The seed of trouble had been sown !

When Ron got home that evening he ran into a right royal row, his wife was frantic accusing him of every infidelity under the Sun,no way would she believe he was innocent;it ended by Ron storming out in a temper,he jumped into his car and went racing off down the road, in such a mood was he that he failed to notice the traffic light stood at red.

He tore through and collided with q woman pushing a pram ! up in the air it shot, Ron cooled down enough to wait for the Police who promptly booked him, for witnesses swore he came through a red light. He was marched off to the local police station charged then set free

TASH A Savage God of Evil

This evil creature floats over Grass without it's feet ever touching it yet where it passes the Grass is always scorched and nothing will grow on land it passes over for at least 7 years.

Smelly having hypnotised her, putting her into a deep sleep made her bend over his desk, he removed her underwear and Tampon, then taking a bottle with a long neck he inserted it in her vagina pushing it well in, then he made her stand up holding the bottle in place for an hour, by that time there was enough blood in the bottle to suit him.

He removed the bottle told the woman to replace a Tampon and told her from now on every time you have a period you will come here I will see you in 28 days time, if you fail me or try to trick me I will make you come here in 14 days later, you can guess what for, so don't think about trying to cheat. (Smelly now has a permanent source of Star Fire)

RABBITS?

In a small market town resided a tough Magistrate he handed out sentences far in excess of the crime, Poaching for instant something that many men did to catch a rabbit for dinner was likely to incur a fine of £500 or get sent to jail for 3 months !

Jimmy Dolittle was a nice young married man, being out of work and two kids to feed he often went out at night and caught a couple of Rabbits, then one night he was stopped on his way home by a Policeman, being summoned to court our magistrate sentenced him to six months HARD LABOUR ! a tough sentence by all counts.

His wife Jenny was distraught a friend visiting her told her of a man in the next town who was a good magician !

and advised her to see him which she did. He having heard all the facts said my fee is £200 which you don't have but I think we can come to some arrangement,

He led her into a back room that he had set up as his temple, made her strip and lay in a circle drawn of the floor in red chalk. then placing a wine glass between her breasts he filled it with a red wine.

Chanting ' O Tash ' (See figure 9) thou witherer of grass who scorches the Earth come we have need of thee, come and pour your venom into this wine, we would confound a certain magistrate and wound him in his heart help us destroy all that he cherishes.

Then he commanded Jenny to repeat after him. Satanus Dies a rilly. Come sucko trasho gorn.
Listes lollo cappri scorn
Grotto cun stratto anno dilly.

Then lifting the glass of wine from Jennies breasts he flung it full in her face, as she gasped and tried to gain her breath he fell on her and raped her, staying in her for nearly an hour, twice he raped her without once withdrawing his penis.

That does not concern us but we can guess what it was she felt being a nice looking young woman and he a more than middle aged chap :

After a while he let her up saying ' It had to be done magic demands a sacrifice from those who would avail themselves of the devils help

The Magistrate lived in a large house at the end of town in front of the house was a large sloping lawn, the pride and joy of the Magistrate, Lord help is two kids if he caught them playing on his precious lawn.

One dark night our magician who's name was ' Lankynob ' went to, the Magistrates house, he carried two tins of common Salt hopping over the wall of the garden he made a large circle of salt on the lawn and inside it another circle of salt then he drew a five pointed star in salt, then taking from his pocket a house brush he swept the salt into the grass so that it could not be seen.

In a few days the salt treated grass turned brown, two beautiful brown circles on that treasured lawn, The Magistrate was purple with temper, he raged and stormed threatening all and sundry with a painful death, but that did not alter the lawn it still had its brown circles.

Then someone? wrote to the local paper asking was it true that a black magic circle was operating in the town? folk read it and seeing the lawn they soon elaborated on it and putting two and two together the magistrate's name started to bandied around in the local pubs, all the threats of the Magistrate could not stop people from thinking

A week later Lankynob went to market and bought a dead rabbit, taking it home he skinned it, then cutting off the hands and feet from a doll he fastened them to the rabbits legs, now a skinned rabbit with hands and feet look just like a new born baby.

Lankynob got a stout piece of wood about 4 feet long sharpened one end into a point and nailed a cross piece to it, then in the dead of night he went back to the lawn and erected the wooden post and hung the rabbit by its neck so that it appeared to have been hung.

Then as daylight began to form he phoned the local paper saying ' If you want a scoop go to the house of this Magistrate take a photographer with you if you want a scoop, well the Paper did just that and before any one really became aware of the sight they published a photo of this hung BABY ? in a magic circle, : the Magistrate was so upset and raging up and down purple in face he suffered a stroke which left him paralysed on one side of his body. :

Jenny is still paying the price, for her husband deserted her when he came out of prison taking the kids with him he disappeared as for Jenny she still visits Lankynob, well so I was told !

Picking Winners by Davidoff

In this book I have mentioned that the Elite of the Brotherhood used a System for Horse Racing that is unique in that it is virtually impossible to lose ?

This is made possible because it is a system of scientific betting, they set out to win a certain sum each day and no matter what happens they almost always win, I say here almost, speaking of DAYS, for when occasionally they lose on a day they win it all back the next day !

It is practically impossible to experience a losing week, I myself have been using this system on and off for over two years and have yet to suffer a loss !

Now another unique system crops up with this method they have a method for picking Horses that are quoted at from 12 to 1 up to 60 to 1, now these horses show a lot of losers as you might expect, but the system allows them to regain their stake money should the horse lose no wonder they are so wealthy, just imagine that from now on every time you back a loser you get your stake money back, this is not a con but a genuine method.

You can purchase this method from Basil for only £25 another bargain from the Hon Basil.74 Hemmons Road Longsight Manchester M12 5ST

The way of Magic

Magic always works faster and better when it is given a push you will have noticed in the cases we have been reading the magician always starts the ball rolling !

The Qlipoth, the Demons from Hell are always willing and eager to help stir up trouble but they are not very intelligent, like children they have to be shown what is wanted, once you make a move they will stay with you.

Now it must be remembered that they are spiritual elements they cannot DO things on this plane but once you start they will be with you planting new ideas in your head making sure that you get away with the things you are doing, their help is always mental, that is why we call on them, they will through mental influence lead you on ; a sort of guardian angel, well there is the old saying ' The Devil looks after his own '.

Who wants a car ?

It was a common quarrel, some kids had upset old mother Bridgit, now that was not her real name and she was not old, in fact she was fairly young say about 26 or 30 ravishingly beautiful and knew it, that was her trouble, too pretty by half and it made her what is commonly known as " stuck up " that was how it all started.

Jane came weeping to 'Slatts ' a magician, he listened to her story this young lady known as Bridgit had called the Police and the Police had been to see Jane

They apparently had given her a strong lecture on how to bring up her two kids..

Slatts said ' Right, tomorrow night you are going to come here and sleep with me ' Jane protested, ' I can't do that ' Slatts giving her a steady stare, 'Oh yes you can and you will ' She Did !

That night he stripped her after hypnotising her and took several photos of her in daring positions, now she was blissfully unaware of this photo session, bringing it to an end he told her she would have no recollection of what had taken place, (A common thing with magicians is wiping a clients memory ? and substituting a false memory.))

Next he put some music on and made her dance to the music every now and again he would take a swipe at her rear end, just stinging her but not really hurting her, of course it all added up to, ' Turning her on 'at the end of the record he took her in his arms kissing her then said lets get down to business.

They knelt by the fire holding hands and he started the call, come Metatron we have drawn your Seal (Figure 10) and welcome you here by this fire, this maiden gives her body over to you to use as you wish, I too as your humble servant do dedicate my body to you so let lust begin.

He then pushed Jane on too the floor and promptly entered her thrusting deep inside her until she cried out in pain ' You are hurting me .

Temple Call

The Temple is session in (see Page 53) The Temple Master opens the Meeting. ' I call on the Knight Supreme, Holy Knight is the Temple in Order ?' Verily my Temple Master all is well and all members assembled are true members'

Temple Master. . ' Then let us proceed to business Guardian Knight at the temple door, is my door secure ?

Guardian Knight, Verily my Temple Master .

Temple Master ' Them we will proceed at once with our payer to Satanas,' All members kneel and pray,..at the end of prayer there is a one minute silence then the Temple Master sounds the gong on the Altar. All rise.

There is a knock on the door, Temple Master ,' Guardian Knight see who seeks,' the guardian Knight before opening the door challenges the seeker, ' What is your Password ' seeker answers ' My Lord is Satanas Diesilla; I the temple Marshal demands entrance.'

Guardian Knight, ' My Holy temple Master the Temple Marshal is without demanding entrance.' Temple Master Has he the Password'. Temple Marshal ' Verily he has Temple Master 'then let him enter '.

Temple Marshal enters and the door is once more secured, ' Holy Temple Master I bear pleading from some of your worthy temple members '.

Temple Master ' then let us hear said pleading.'

Temple Marshal, ' One who has been done wrong demands that the man named " Ted Sayings "' shall. be blown away and his spirit buried at the Sea shore where the tide ebbs and flows that his body shall rot in the sand !.

Temple Master, ' It shall be as our worth member desires Black Knights of Death to your stations at the end of this meeting..is there any more requests ? ' 'Yes my Holy Temple Master, Our worthy member number 34 asks that the money ritual be performed in her Regard so that money be made available to her, as she sorely needs cash .

Temple Master ' It shall be taken care of later this evening, any further requests ? ' Temple Marshal ' No mu Holy Temple Master '. Temple Master ' then let us drink to Satanus and the Queen of heaven then let us make merry for we have to night a 14 year old virgin being delivered to us that we may make Star Fire, be merry my good brothers and Sisters .

The meeting now make merry with song and dance and the telling of lewd stories, this goes on for two hours, then the Temple Master sounds the Gong and when the members quiet down he says, ' I now bring this Temple Meeting to strict order Silence please.

A knock on the door and the guardian Knight goes through the pass word business then says to the Temple Master, ' There is one without seeks entrance saying he has your permission to enter providing he brings with him a portable commode !" Temple Master ' Let him enter, he does so and places the commode in the centre of the room.

Shortly after another knock on the door this time it is a member with a 14 year girl, they enter and the girl is made welcome with a drink of Orange from a can of Orange Drink which is poured into a glass that contains 3 sleeping tablets dissolved in Gin (I warn you to be careful with this as it could be very dangerous to any one with a weak heart Publisher).

Music is put on and the girl dances but soon she is in a bewildered state, then giggling half drunk half asleep she is stripped, led to the commode the Temple Master runs his hands over her body then between her legs and suddenly he deflowers her by pushing his thumb hard into her vagina, she is immediately sat on the commode and held there but soon she slips into a drunken stupor, after half an hour she is removed and put to bed, in the morning she has no idea of what took place , she just remembers having drinks and dancing the rest is just a hazy dream !

That is a brief outline of what goes on in the Black Temple sometimes a deflowering is planned well in advance and advertised by word of mouth to certain men in clubs and public houses they are charged £50 admittance to the spectacle but men fall over themselves to see it, needless to and willingly part with their money

Needless to say before they are admitted all temple paraphernalia is hidden and the members don the normal clothes so it just looks another wild party !

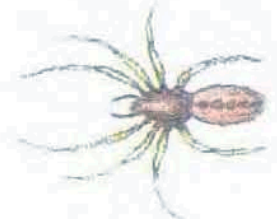

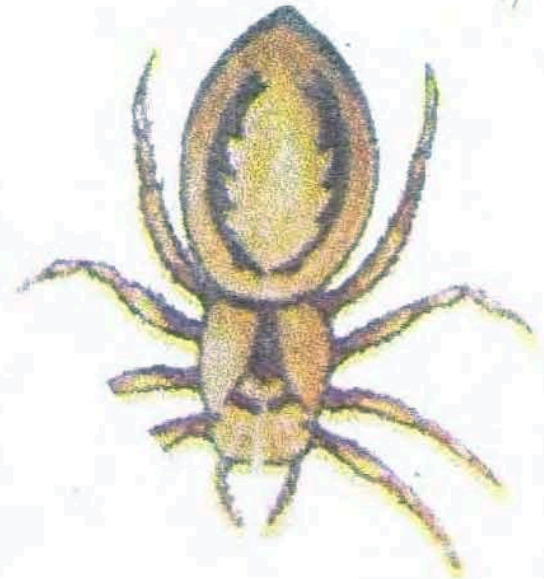

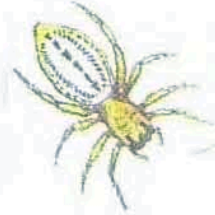

After the girl was put to bed the members gathered to consider the death sentence it was decided to put it to the ball test,, no light matter this deciding to kill a man ! in this test each member is given two small balls one White the other Black, now to pass a test there must be a majority of White balls, the balls are placed secretly in the head of a model Demon (See Figure 11.) the demon is hollow and has a small hole in its head the base being removable for extracting the balls,

Their were 17 members attending and there were 15 White Balls so the sentence was given the go ahead.

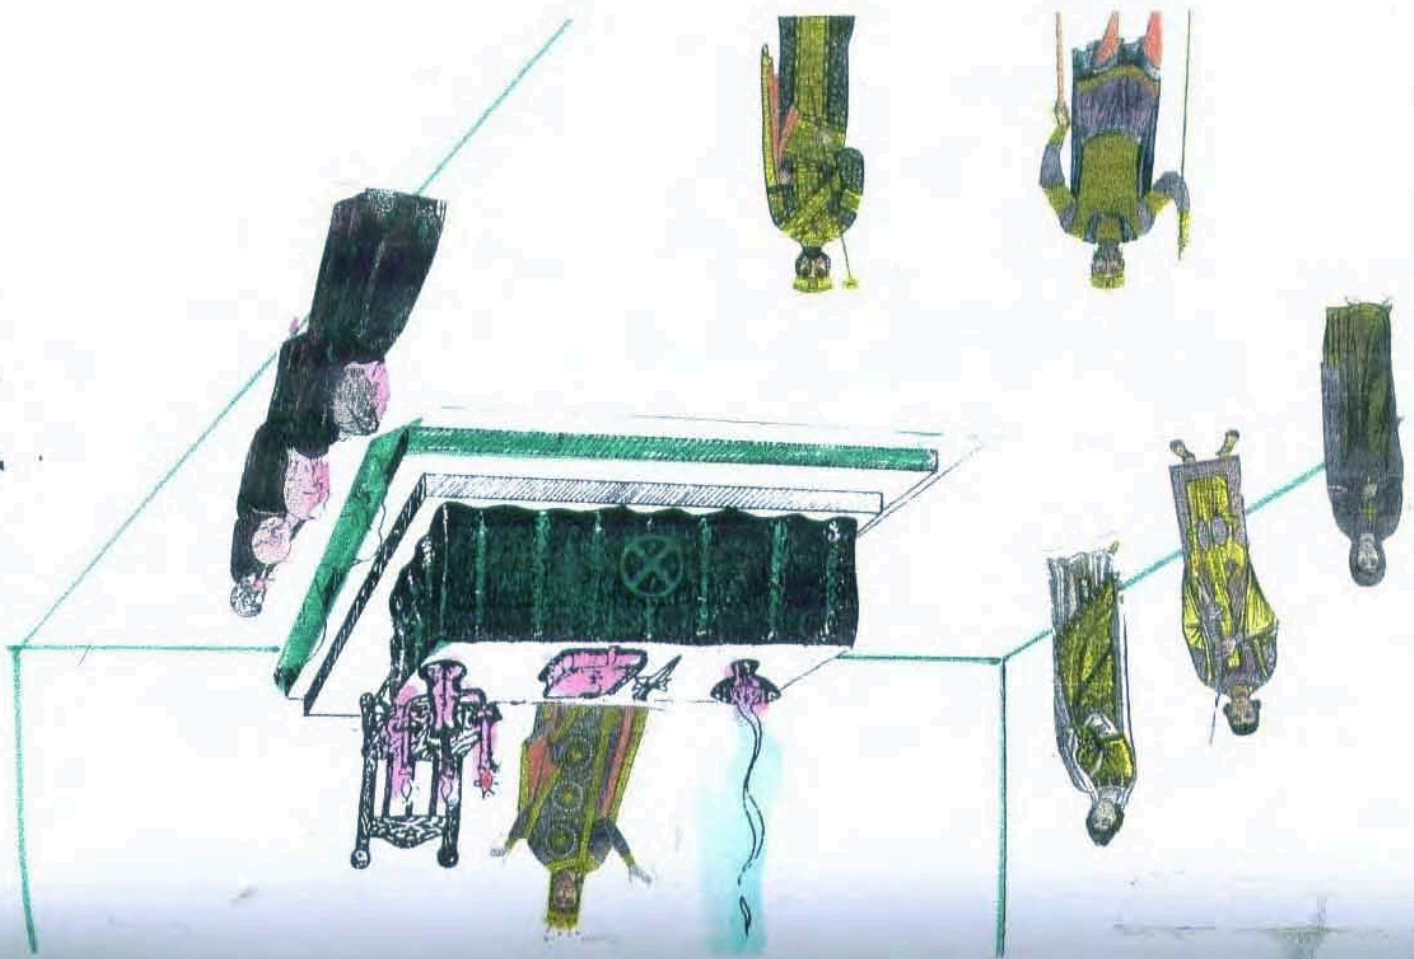

Later that night the Black Knights of Death retired to an upstairs room produced from a locked cupboard their enchanted mirrors and, made a blood pact with Satan who released a demon from hell and the Knights each sent a their evoked Demon to terrify to death the man ' Ted Sayings '.

This is far too dangerous to describe the details of this deadly form of, magic, the publisher could sell you or teach you the ritual on the promise that you never reveal it to, outsiders, only true students of the Occult can be trusted with this deadly secret

The Money Ritual.

To The Sister who asked for the Money ritual we will give the name Suzy, she was asked to attend a special sitting at which were 10 members, the members had been chosen from a number of volunteers who, could afford the time for the money pact.

They comprised 8 Brothers and 2 Sisters, While Suzy waited in a small room the others gathered in the main Temple room where they threw dice , each member threw Dice 7 times the score being noted and added, the one who threw the highest accumulated number was the winner for the evenings prize which was the seducing of Suzy on the Altar.

The two Sisters obviously could not enter Suzy but should either one win they could sell their prize to, the highest bidder.

When a winner had been established Suzy was called, she enters the room, they immediately swarm over her and in less than a minute had her stripped, she of course knowing what to expect made sure she wore only the simplest clothes ? no under clothes or bra.

She was given a glass of Red wine then stretched on the Altar her legs pulled wide apart and the winner of the evening then entered her amid cheers and hilarious advice from the others.

After that had taken place the winner being the chosen leader for the evening's ceremony called to the others

' Come Brothers and Sisters help me with this solemn ritual.

In his hands he held a metal saucer and a sharp knife, laying the saucer on Suzy's stomach he gently lifted one of her breasts, then with a quick motion he cut a one inch slit on the underside of her lifted breast, quickly he slid the saucer under her breast which he let fall in the saucer, blood welled out into the saucer Suzy moaned with the pain but lay still.

When a quantity of blood had accumulated in the saucer it was slid down on to her stomach, each member in turn came forward dipped his/her finger in the blood then licked it clean, again he/she dipped his/her fore finger in the blood and put a spot on their forehead, then a wad of cottonwool was placed under Suzy's bleeding breast and a bandage was wrapped around her, she was taken from the Altar and sat in a chair.

Now the leader speaks to her saying, ' Tell me sister Suzy why do you need money ? she answers, ' so that I may continue to live in the manner to which I am accustomed so that I may continue to entertain my friends and to treat them as worthy friends should be treated '

The leader nods his head,turns to the others and says, ' What think you brothers and sisters ' one answers ' A very noble cause indeed ' Then asks the leader ' Am I to assume you all agree ? '

All nod in the affirmative, then turning once again to Suzy he asks, 'sister Suzy, what sum of money will suit your purpose?' she answers 'I shall need £5000'.

The leader turns to the others, 'is it agreed among you that we work for the gaining of £5000?' all nod in the affirmative, he then says 'Then let us assemble around the common table and work out our command.'

Psychic Attraction

It is a well known fact in Occult Circles that where one or more act in unison and with one accord in Mind that the project they have in Mind will manifest materially, in other words if they have a certain object in Mind that object will surely be attracted to them, (Publisher.)

Leader, let us all get pencil and paper and write out the exact wording we shall use, all get the necessary items and then trash out the verbal commands; which follow.

Laus tibi Lord Satanus let Suzy be blessed with renewed prosperity, grant unto her the sum of £5000, let it be forthcoming soon, let all she touches turn to gold let all her enterprises result in added wealth. Shower her with thy blessing let all her needs be satisfied.

Let there be revealed to her the fruits of our faith in Satanus Dies illa let the fruits of success follow her footsteps, for she is good person and a worthy member of your Temple. and a true believer in your goodness

Always does she conduct herself in a manner that is pleasing unto you. Satanus dies illa

Let her Life be full of Joy and Happiness let luxury surround her that she may taste the fruits of good fortune for she is a true believer and deserves the best in life for she passes this way but once, all these various things we ask of thee Satanus Dies illa.

4000 years ago it was written in the Upanishads the Sacred Vedic books of India, that if two people united their psychic Forces they could conquer the World, yet alone a single person they are weak and of little power. (publisher)

Next to be decided is the time of chanting the verbal message, it was decided that they use the BBC programs, so on the first program after 11 O'clock, when the program, started they would set their watches and 3 minutes later start the chant, it is imperative that all speak in unison, having settled that point for the next 3 evenings they met and for 2 solid hours practiced reading the chant until all had mastered exact timing in reading.

Four days later Suzy phoned all ten members saying, I went to a Car Boot sale and purchased a picture by Rembrandt, it was a cheap copy but very good, I took it to an expert and he swears it is a genuine picture and has offered me £5000, I shall accept his offer so please discontinue the nightly chant, needless to say I am deeply touched and thank you with all my heart

She was told by the Temple Master that she should offer a gift to Satan, which she did but I fear to reveal the gift to Satan. For to upset his Highness means sudden death!

If you my distant friend belong to a group it will pay you to experiment with this plan for gaining finances, but should you work alone, I suggest you get a friend who is interested in Occult lore to join you in working the money ritual.

The Way Ahead

Having made contact with your friend first decide on timing, figure out when you both can be free for say 20 Minutes at least once a week, talk about your present state finance or health, decide which of you is in most need, what to ask for and how you are going to ask!

The results will amaze you, remember it is important that you both use the same words and you must both concentrate on what you are doing and why you are doing it. A good idea to help you in this ritual is to use a picture of what you seek, for money use Bank notes, for health use a picture of some athlete, or an advert of muscle building.

Do not waste any more time set about finding a partner right now, sit and think about your friends who would be most likely to assist you, there is no reason to stay poor or be in ill health, but silent wishing will not help you; this Temple Secret will definitely set things in motion, you were born into this world to be happy and enjoy life, it's so easy when you have the secret knowledge,

The Temple is in session (see Page 53) The Temple Master opens the Meeting

Guardian Knight at the temple door, is my door secure?

Guardian Knight, Verily my Temple Master.

Temple Master. Then guard it well let none enter for we have secret business on our agenda tonight.

Temple Master ' We will proceed at once with our prayer to Satan, ' All members kneel and pray, at the end of prayer there is a one minute silence then the Temple Master sounds the gong on the Altar. All rise.

Temple Master Our worthy member number 14 paid a visit to the Manager of xx bank he wished to secure a loan as he had a very lucrative deal in mind, sadly he was refused, now we don't take kindly to that sort of treatment and he the Manager must be taught a lesson, all agreed? a chorus of Ayes greeted that question.

Temple Master Very well 1 Now we are running low on finances so I suggest that this sourpuss of a manager be punished by supplying us with shall we say £40,000.

Now as you know full well member number 41 is a modern Svengali, we will ask him to go to work on this manager of course all this must be kept a dark secret it must not go beyond these doors, Number 41 will you please explain to us how you are going to work on this manager.

The Temple Master leaves the Rostrum and our modern Svengali steps up takes a bow and holds up his hands for silence, when all is quiet he begins to speak.

In a soft alluring voice he commences, ' A few doors away from my house lives a lady of some means, last week she set off for town in her husbands car, she parked it carefully paid the car park fee and was walking out when she was accosted by two men, one asked her politely, could you tell me the way to the railway station.

She explained he thanked her then his companion spoke up, ' ' What a charming brooch you are wearing, antique isn't it ? must be valuable, may I have a closer look ' She unfastened it and held it out to him ,he clasped her hand as he took it,stared straight in her eyes then spent a minute examining the brooch, then handing it back he said ' Yes as I thought it is an antique ' they parted the men went straight to the railway station the Lady went to her bank withdrew all her money took it to the station and handed it over to the men. She had no remembrance of doing this and was mightily surprised when the next cheque she wrote bounced, only then did she remember the men ?

Now what I really want to bring to your notice is this, not a word was spoken by either of the nmen regarding Money,one asked directions to the railway station the other admired a brooch,not a word was uttered about drawing out money or what to do with it after she had closed her account at the bank.It is this method that I shall apply to the bank manager.

Svengali ' (I trust the method that I shall reveal to you tonight shall be kept a close secret,it would not do for too many to have this devastating knowledge, which quite simply comes down to the ability to hypnotise a person without their knowledge or permission.

Now Hypnotism is nothing more than suggestion,to hypnotise a person all you need do is suggest something to that person IF that person BELIEVES what you suggest they will have hypnotised themselves, actually there is no such thing as a Hypnotist, you can hypnotise yourself but you will never hypnotise another person, for every person put in a hypnotic state puts themselves in that state, YOU suggest they hypnotise themselves and they oblige by becoming hypnotised.

So if I tell you a funny story and you laugh I have caused you to be in a light hypnotic state,, you are having a job to grasp that so try this, you are with a friend,suddenly you shout " Look Out," your friend will jump a foot in the air, they have merely obeyed your command exactly as though they were hypnotised, so to hypnotise a person the first thing to, know is an emotion must be created.

So to project your thoughts you must produce an emotional state either artificial or real Now what is not generally known is the fact that thoughts sent by hypno telepathy are stronger than commands given under hypnosis ? You doubt that, alright now think back have you ever been persuaded to buy something you did not want ? Most people have ! and the method used to. persuade you is really simple

Jim Ross had been out of work for a long time, then his luck changed and he landed a well paid job (Well yes we did help him get that job, and no more interruptions please)

Having got on his feet so to speak he became interested in getting a small car, now he had to pass a car showroom on his way to and from work and he started to look in it mornings and in the evenings on his way home from work, the car salesman noticed this and put this plan into action.

Secretly he took a snapshot of Jim and three or four times a day he would set it up on his desk and start talking to it, ' I will buy a car, from Dave's showroom I know I will buy a car, from Dave's showroom I will buy a car from Dave's From Dave's and no one else ; I will buy a car from Dave's I will buy a car from Dave's ,he kept this up for 15 minutes each session.

A week later Jim walked into the showroom but the car he had set his eyes on stood next to a open sports car a smashing model but twice what Jim had in mind to pay, but he could not take his eyes off it, the salesman drew near, now note this point carefully, he did not try to sell that car to Jim he spoke not a word. not one word passed his lips but figuratively he changed places with Jim.

Mentally he spoke to himself this way, I love that car, I must have that car, I know it's costly but I must have it, My how the blokes at work will envy me, but can I afford it No I can't but if I prune a bit off here save a bit there cut down on my smoking I could just afford it

It will pull the girls, they will swarm over me to get in it yes I've got to have it, I'll take it I won't ever get another chance like this I must have it ,got to have it, I'll take it,. Jim looked up saw the salesman and said I'LL take this car, he was led into the office signed the necessary papers came out and drove away.

Time of Regret

It was not until next morning that the worry set in and Jim wondered why he had been so rash, wonder if they will take it back he thought, how the heck am I going to meet the payments, but it is a smashing car.

He had been forced into buying it yet not a word was spoken to persuade him, if the salesman had tried to mentally influence him by saying ' you will buy that car ' that would have been trying to compel him into buying and Jim would have revolted against being forced to do something. make no mistake Brothers and Sisters do not ever try to force a deal but always put yourself in the other persons shoes and and say to yourself what you want that person to say. If you keep mentally saying, I will buy it I will buy it that is exactly what the other persons mind is picking up and as it always easier to go with a problem that fight it that person will agree with you and say what you have been saying, I WILL buy it

Well that's the end of tonight's lecture any questions I will deal with later on this evening, I now hand the rostrum back to our worth Temple Master.

(This method of mental influencing is the way the Lady lost her money, the shaking of hands is also important as it forms a physical contact, if you have been sold something by a high class salesman now you know the reason why you lost your sense of reason at the time of the sale (Publisher)

The following morning Svengali paid the bank a visit, shaking hands with the manager he said he wished to discuss a business loan, then seating himself opposite the manager he started to speak mentally to himself.

I will give this chap the loan he wants, he looks a nice guy one who, can be trusted, yes the bank will do well by financing him yes I will grant him a loan right now I will call my head clerk and arrange it, the manager rouses himself and picks up the intercom, he arranges to have £40,000 brought in, then suddenly he is made to feel ill, the upshot is he goes home and completely forgets about the transaction.

In due time all that can be found regarding a missing £40,000 is a note signed by a Mr Nobody ? it ended by the manager being fired for negligence, such is this awful power of mental influencing.

You have a small business going, and you need to improve business well each time a customer comes in mentally say, ' I am going to bring you another customer, each day I will bring you another customer .In no time all your customers will multiply. and keep multiplying

A Raising Ceremony

Before opening the temple only the Temple Master and the Master of Rolls are in the main workroom.

The Guardian Knight knocks loudly on the door, then opens it wide. he walks in takes his place by the door and raises his staff towards the Temple Master who then declares ' I now pronounce this Temple open for business '

(This is a special ceremony only Knights are allowed to participate) The ceremony consists of raising our friend Lankynob to the 10th Degree. Two knights bring him in where he kneels before the Temple Master.

Two more knights bring in a girl followed by 35 knights. the Temple Master calls to the Guardian Knight, ' Secure my door and let none enter ' the Guardian Knight closes the door and places two bolts across it, turns to the Temple Master saying, ' Worthy Temple Master your door is now secure.'

(Actually the girl is a paid call girl) she is stripped , by the assembled knights who now form a ring around Lankynob and the girl, a large piece of white paper is spread on the floor written on it are the signatures of all the Knights present, the girl is made to bend over it and while one knight takes hold of Lankynob's penis and rouses him another knight is fingering the girl both are brought to the point of ejaculation and their fluids allowed to drip on the paper. the girl straightens, turns and they kiss.

Now a toast is drank and all are seated, the Temple Master says, ' Brothers cross your arms over your chests. close your eyes and relax while we meditate for a while on peace and Harmony.'

After ten minutes he strikes a gong which is on the Altar and says ' Open your eyes and let us continue this important ceremony.

Master of the Rolls continue please' the Master of the rolls calls out, ' Come Lankynob and kneel before our worthy Temple Master. I now solemnly declare that henceforth you shall bear the pennant of a Knight of the 10th degree

Then he beckons the knights sitting with the girl, immediately two bring her to the Temple Master where she kneels with Lankynob, the Master of the rolls then says, ' Ho Rophis Ho Archaios, Ho dragon ho meergas Ho en kal ho, on kal Ho zonno atous lamonas

Metil lou cor monro tu, he turns to the Temple Master ' did I speak the true words ?' Temple Master ' rece dictum est.' ((you have spoken correctly)) all members now chant Sanctus Satanas I invoke thee Sabatius Satanas We revere thee

Sanctus Satanas Before thee we kneel, all kneel Temple Master sounds the gong all rise.

The Master of the Rolls puts a Red Carnation in the girls hair she kisses Lankynob and once more all are seated. the Master of the rolls then says

' Lankynob In the name of Aratron that which is secret shall now be revealed unto you In the name of Zaphkiel it is the truth, use this knowledge with wisdom for now we reveal to you a system of Horse Racing that is infallible no more need you ever be without money with this system you will be able to win all the money you will ever need but before I reveal this secret that girl must be killed !'

Now follows a ritual whereby the girl is laid on the Altar Svengali is called who hypnotises her and pretence is made of stabbing her actually her breasts are cut and blood is caught in a metal bowl, all the knights dip their fingers in the blood and sign their signatures on the paper by leaving an impint of their finger with the blood of the girl then lick their fingers clean. the Temple Master now says, ' At the next striking of the gong this temple meeting will close, cross your arms on your chests please,' he then says a short prayer to all absent brothers and sisters then strikes the gong three times. the meeting breaks up, Lankynob is conducted into another room and given the secret Racing System, some of the others go home some stop and have sport with the hypnotised girl several rape her but she is blissfully unaware of this.

(I gained knowledge of this racing system some two years ago since that time whenever I, have applied it not being short of cash and not wishing to cane my bookie to hard I have averaged £250 a week, in the two years there has never been a losing week, and as long as the racing rules stay as they are I cannot see it ever losing; I am prepared to reveal this system for £25 on your promise to keep it secret and use it only for your own self Publisher).

The Sexual Magic Ritual.

In most secret groups of magical workers you will find a sexual ceremony for the raising of occult power, one of the reasons behind this is the Sacrifice of the first born, not many groups are so well founded that they can with impunity sacrifice a living baby, the alternative is the sexual ritual ceremony.

Normally when sex takes place between adults a child is born, if certain steps are taken to prevent a pregnancy then the live sperm is left to die and the female egg is washed out with the females monthly periods, as we have shown the menstrual blood that is voided is the ancient Star Fire a highly potent magical fluid.

There are numerous rituals known as the sex ritual each group have worked out what is most effective in their Temple or Lodge, and of course the ritual is enacted for many purposes.

A simple one for gaining money or knowledge, we will take money first as that is generally what the participants have in mind (In several of my books I have outlined sexual rituals Publisher).

At the time of a Full Moon both the Male and Female who are going to enact this ritual go, to a cemetery, the task is to find the grave containing the body of what used to be a wealthy man.

Having found your man, light a candle and stand it on his headstone saying take heed (say his name) we have need of thy spirit, come when we call you your reward will be the body of a young girl to have to hold to fornicate with and to do all you wish, all these things we will grant unto you with the power of the universal life force, now Oh Spirit rest until we call you. Blow out the candle and bury it on his grave. Next you have to find a wishy washy semi invalid girl one who is always pale and wan who seems to linger from one illness to another there are lots of them around, find out her name and address.

Now from clay or Plasticine make up two figures one male and one female, on the night of your ritual get four Green Candles place one in each corner of your room, get some sweet smelling joss sticks, light candles and joss sticks pull the curtains, now you commence this way.

Say the girls name and continue Take up the figures start with the man, I name thee (The man's name and dedicate thee to lust, take up the female figure and repeat the words now lay the female on the floor, call on the man's spirit, saying Spirit of (Here say the mans name) I call to thee come have your will with(here say girls name) you will find her at (here say girls address)

We give her to thee lay the male figure on the female figure and put your foot on them squashing them flat.

Now you sit naked facing each other each of you have a small glass of Liquid Fire *, holding the glass in your right hand touch glasses and say 'To (the man's name) to (the girls name) may they find a night of lust.

Now drink up and start pawing each other, the man grasps the females breasts pulling a kneading them she takes hold of the males Penis rubbing it kissing it, keep this up until both are frantic with lust then the man makes a sudden lunge at the female bowls her over and enters her at the same time asking the man's spirit to reveal how to gain money, do this ritual frequently it has been known to help win the Lottery !

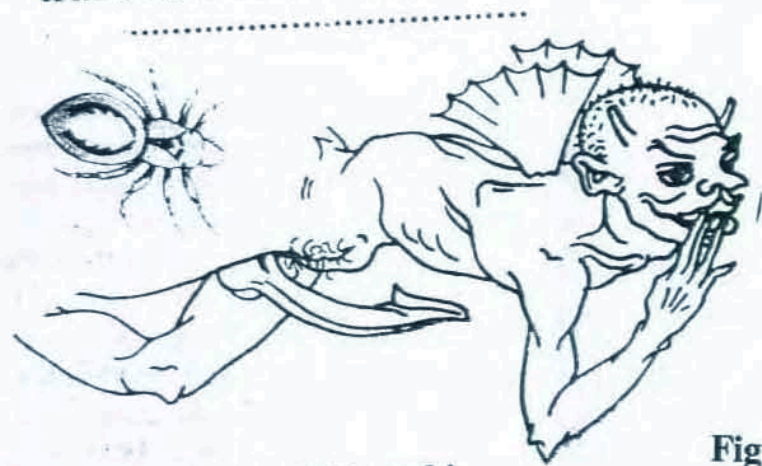

* Liquid Fire,* take a few leaves of Damiana and soak in a Pint of Vodka ,leave on a windowsill where the Moon can shine on it for 5 days andnights , strain of the Vodka and drink, but note it may make you sleepy so should only be drank during the ritual .

Although this seems but a very simple ceremony some strange side effects sometimes occur. Peter and Dawn were the founders of a Coven, they took their occult work very seriously and when they decided to use the above ritual they made a careful study of who to choose and when their research led them to the grave of a member of that well known old time group the Hell Fire Club

They had no doubt that they had chosen wisely, but little did they know the tremendous power that lay in that grave.

Next they sought for a suitable girl their search soon located a delicate weakling of a girl named Minnie. having prepared for the ceremony they commenced, in next to no time loud knocks sounded in the room they came from the walls and the floor, the candles went out, there was a loud clap and Peter fell unconscious, Dawn was subjected to violent rape from a succubi (See figure 12) and in the morning was found to covered in bruises.

During the night Minnie got up dressed and fell down the stairs breaking both of her arms in the morning she was found laying at the bottom of the stairs she was quite dead from a massive haemorrhage!

Power over People

Skints had been a Knight Commander in the temple, but a quarrel had arisen between him and a fellow member the dispute raged for several weeks and finally Skints had called on Abaddon for help, now his adversary lay lingering in hospital slowly dying.

Skints was called before the Temple Master and severely reprimanded and told to lift the curse, but a curse placed with the help of Abaddon can not be lifted it must remain until the death of the victim.

A special meeting was therefore called, it consisted of the Temple Master, the Master of the Rolls, the Guardian Knight in his uniform of an old time Knight and nine Knights wearing black robes,

The walls were draped with black cloth, on the Altar were two Black candles a large bottle of Red wine and a Fireman's Axe and the temple gong.

The Temple Master sounded the gong, the Guardian Knight opened the door, Two Knights dressed in Black brought in Skints and made him kneel in the centre of the floor.

The Temple Master spoke reprimanding Skints telling him to lift the curse, but a curse placed with the help of Abaddon can not be lifted it must remain until the death of the victim. Skints said, Worthy Temple Master I cannot lift a curse placed by Abaddon, the deed is done I may plead that I am sorry, but that would be a lie.

The Temple Master poured wine in a large metal bowl took a sip and passed it to the Master of the Rolls he in turn took a sip handed it to one of the black robed knights then each in turn took a sip and the last one took it to the Guardian Knight he took a sip then threw the remaining contents over Skints. then went back to guarding the door.

The Temple Master then tore from the wall Skints Pennant, it was burnt, then the Master of the Rolls took an axe from the Altar and smashed Skints chair, then all started to chant, some saying ' Dog 'some saying ' Cur 'some saying ' Traitor.'

The Temple Master sounds the gong, they quiet down and he says, ' Skints, you are no longer a member of this Temple, you have broken our rules and injured a fellow member, I know of the circumstances so I have refrained from passing the Death Sentence on you but should I hear of any further rules being broken then you will surely die do you understand ? ' Skints nods but keeps silent.

The Temple Master continues ' It is with a heavy heart that I have to banish a member who has been with us many years but our rules are sacred to Satan and MUST be obeyed, go now and never again try to enter this Temple never speak of this Temple or its teachings, never breath a word of its secrets, you are still considered under the oath you took when you were first admitted to our order. Now go and let Satan judge you , farewell '.Skints is led from the room, the Temple members shout after him, cries of ' Skunk ' ' Dog ' Traitor '.

It was a warm day and Skints and a pal were enjoying a glass of Beer, sitting at a table on the forecourt of a Pub, suddenly a Rolls pulls up outside the Pub, a door springs open out steps a lovely looking girl and two young men, the girls stands by the open door the men go in the pub and emerge with crates of Beer all get back in the Rolls and Chauffeur pulls away.

Skints says ' Wow what a girl, she's the girl for me yessir she is mine ' his pal. looks up saying ' Lay off Skints she is not for you, that's the the daughter of Lord S, so for your own good keep away, you go sniffing round there you will regret it '! Skints only smiles then, ' We shall see O yes we shall see '.

The next day Skints went to the office of the local paper saying ' I am writing a book about Lord S, is there any chance of obtaining photos of him and family,' soon photos are found, one of them of Lord S in Navy uniform one of his wedding two family groups and one of his daughter Jane at her 18th year birthday party.

Skints took them home, puts the photo of ' Jane the daughter on the table throws the others on the fire. now he starts a chant. (Take heed, this chant can be used to bring any person to you it is very effective) Gazing at the photo of Jane he says, Jane I am calling you Jane, you can hear me, Jane you will go to Skints, he is a nice man and very interesting, go to Skints you will love him, he is so very interesting, go to Skints.Go to Skints he is such a nice man so interesting go to Skints

He is a magician he can make spirits appear, you must go to Skints, you know you want to see the things he can do, go to Skints, at night when you are alone get a Taxi and go, to Skints go to Skints.

Next he rests and imagines that Jane is coming to see him he sees her in his arms them visualises himself kissing her she wilts in his arms he sees himself in bed with her, again he starts talking you know you have to go and see Skints you feel something stirring in you, you are feeling all hot you know you have to go to see Skints ,now go , now go now go to Skints, go to Skints, go to Skints.

He repeats this sort of chanting 3 times a day, when he gets up after breakfast, after his noon meal and before he gets into bed, he kept this chant up for two weeks then one evening there was a knock on his door, he opened it and there stood Jane he said ' Come in Jane I have been expecting you, I will not dwell on what happened that night suffice it to say she was quickly hypnotised and nine months later she bore his baby.

As for Skints, unfortunately Skints is dead, he met with a strange accident, but then when you get run over by a Rolls that belongs to a Lord there is very little done in the way of investigation as to how it happens.

Many members of the Black temple use this method to entice young girls into the Temple for sexual ceremonies many girls have found themselves married and wondered how it came about. They wonder, but you now KNOW !

The Temple is filled with flowers and sweet incense is on the Alter, the walls are draped with cloth depicting rural scenes, the members are wearing their normal outdoor clothes, the reason why no occult paraphernalia is to seen is because this is an open meeting and because it has been advertised as a health meeting there is sure to be a full house,for the Temple is known to be far in advance for herbal cures.

The Temple Master opens the meeting with, Brothers Sisters and Friends to night we will be discussing several important measures that one can take to improve health and yes my older brothers long lasting sex. A cheer goes up from the audience and a few young women flush and try to shield their faces.

When the hilarity dies down The Temple Master says, ' I am now going to hand you over to a Witch doctor from Brazil, don't worry he will not eat you.'

A young looking sprightly moving man steps up on the Rostrum, he starts by saying, Good evening my friends, now just to start the ball rolling I have £500, and I am going to give it to the person who can tell me my age and to help you if you can tell me within 10 years of my age, well he looks no more than 30-ish so between 25 and 40 must hit the prize.

Some 15 minutes pass; one by one members of the audience hand up papers with their name and their guess as to his age, all papers are collected and scrutinised

He leafs through them and shakes his head, ' sorry friends 'he said ' It seems I must pocket this £500 for no one has given my age or any where near it ! '.

He turns to The Temple Master saying, You know my age, will you reveal it to them ' The Temple Master nods then stepping up on the Rostrum by him he says, ' you my Brothers and Sisters will find this hard to believe but the good doctor here is, ' he paused for effect then ' He is 105 years old ' gasps came from th8e audience, but they know The Temple Master would not lie to them.

And now he says to startle you a little more I am going to ask a gentleman to assist me in a very amusing experiment, a pause then 3 men volunteer after some amusing attempts to choose a winner one is finally chosen, he is seated on a chair and the Witch doctor asks him if he would like a drink,saying' It is harmless and tastes quite good, what I really am after is finding out just what does it taste like. The man drinks the proffered potion.

10 minutes goes by then the man begins to wriggle around , the Vitch doctor says ' You have heard of Red Indians well here is a Red White man and don't accuse of being Irish, loud chuckles then the audience look startled for the man's face and arms have gone a bright Red he opens his shirt to try and cool off and they see all of his body is a bright Red,

The Witch Doctor says ' Do not worry my friend in a few minutes you will resume a normal colour and you will feel more healthy more alert more young than you have felt for years, and it is so ; the man's face resumes its normal complexion and he admits he feels raring to go.

And now my friends what caused that transformation ? A simple Herb you call Sunflower seed, no you won't get this startling effect by eating a few Sunflower seeds but there is an extract from them known chemically as Niacin, it is a specific for the elderly some of the common ailments it is useful for are ; Poor eyesight, bad hearing, loss of memory .sluggish Mind, senility, arthritis, heart disease, depression, for all of these conditions are linked to poor blood circulation. so my friends if you are suffering from any of these causes you need some supplementary Niacin and Vitamin C. also I think you would be well advised to take Vitamin B6 and B2 with Niacin. A natural source are Sunflower seed, rice, Green peas, and Brewers yeast .

You will forgive me ladies but I must now speak to the elderly gentlemen, for I do receive a lot of letters asking me what can be done about impotence , it is not generically known that t least 6 out of every elderly men are suffering from that malady.

Most men seem to think that if they lose their ability to have sex they are no longer men, they measure their competence by their sexual ability and once they lose that they are driven to despair, their worry only makes the situation worse ,but cheer up my friends senility does not mean all pleasure has departed from you .

There is a plant in Africa that causes men much trouble it is named Yohimbe, men working near that plant suffer from a huge erection it gets so large, so painful that they are forced to visit a hospital for surgical treatment.

It has become one of the best cures for impotence ever known it is also claimed to be a perfect aphrodisiac it contains a substance called Yohimbine, it can be procured in this country as a reddish brown bark, it will excite a genuine sexual arousal in less than an hour several of our universities have claimed it is the perfect aphrodisiac.

Yohimbine contains many alkaloids I won't go into them as most of you are not interested in the chemical contents only the results of taking it, the crude bark or an extract of the bark work the same, if you obtain the extract it will be in the form of a white powder, you will be able to dissolve that under your tongue or you can snort it.

But I must warn you that Yohimbine must be used with care it must not be used if you are taking sedatives, Anti histamines, alcohol, Cocoa, Diet Pills, Pineapple, Bananas, if you suffer from Diabetes, Liver trouble, Heart disease, Kidney disease, you must stay away from Yohimbine.

But if you are going to use it you don't have run around naked with a Bone stuck through your nose wielding an Axe looking for a Yohimbe tree to chop down, (, Chuckles from the audience) all you need is to get some powdered herb from your herbal supplier, place two or three teaspoonsfuls in a pint of water and simmer for ten minutes ,let it cool down then add 1000 Mg of Vitamin C.

Add some Honey for flavour and making sure your girl is sitting next to you and is willing just sip a glassful.

Technically when you add Vitamin C to the water you form a compound known as Yohimbine ascorbate, it is far less likely to have side effects, there is a compound known as Yohimbine hydrochloride, it will change a persons mood in a negative manner, very nasty but if you have an un-welcome guest at your next party, I will say no more !

And now you elderly folk, there are Herbs that will help you, you don't have to get old and feeble so let's look at what can be had, on maintaining virility besides those already discussed; there is the Herb Thyme or Gingsen which is an excellent tonic it improves vitality and helps with anxiety and stress, also it helps prevent infection.

An alternative to gingsen is Withania, it is a tonic herb that prevents slow aging. for failing memory and lack of concentration you should take Ginkgo, and Garlic will help your blood pressure back to normal just a couple of tablets a day should do the trick.

Gentian will help your digestion but not if you have an Ulcer or acid digestion, it is helpful with Arthritis and Gout.

The humble Porridge is what you need for breakfast if you are suffering from Nervous exhaustion or stress.

Time is catching up on me so, briefly a word for women ;to aid conception take the Herb Agnus Castas you can obtain tablets or take 20-30 drops of the, extract.

If you are plagued with a low sex drive then the Herb Schicsandra is what you need, soak a small handful of berries over night strain and boil the liquid for 15 minutes take daily but it will take 100 days before reults.

There are many Herbs for pregnancy, if you are having trouble come to my Sanctuary for a private interview there will be no charge made for an interview, just phone my secretary for an appointment, and with that my good friends I must end this lecture, thanking you for listening to me and I hope that I will be here again in the near future.

After the Temple closed Seven people were waiting in the outer room asking if they could join the Temple, they were given questionares and told to send them to the Temple by post as there were two vacancies, Four peole were never hear from again; they were scared stiff to learn that the Temple worked under Satan.

Three completed the questionnaire and their names handed over to the investigating committee, two were rejected and one qualified and was taken in on probation for three months.

Quite a few of the audience becamne clients of the witch Doctor. xxx

A Deadly Potion

Off the coast of Japan the sea contains among a variety of fish a specie named Puffer Fish, it is a delicacy and highly sought for because eaten raw it is a specific for impotency, BUT it is also a deadly poison and only an expert can see and cut out the poisonous parts, it is recorded that every year about 3500 men die from eating this fish no mouthful and you are dead in ONE MINUTE there is no known cure.

It is one of the ingredients of VOO DOO, the Hougan of VooDoo roasts the fish then pounds it to a fine powder, a little of this powder blown in a persons face immediately turns them into a Zombie, the same happens if just a small portion is eaten.

Jimmy Claus was a 24th degree Adeptus Major so he had knowledge of this fish and how to procure the deadly powder, he had a married Sister who had two children a girl of 9 years and a girl of 11 years, at weekends and summer evenings Jimmy would take the girls to the park and play with them but his playing was a deadly plot to gain the confidence of other young girls.

He would always have sweets or chocolates with him and when the kids sort of made friends with other gills he would give them chocolates and said, ' Would your friend like a chocolate ' Of course she would

So one wold be given to the friend but her chocolate contained a minute part of the powder of Puffer fish, she would immediately lose all sense of her mind and become a hypnagogic Zombie.

Jimmy wold then instruct her ' Tonight after your Mum and Dad have gone to bed you will get up and quietly sneak out of the house I will be waiting for with Ellen(his sisters daughter) and we will go for a ride to the Seaside,and you can ride on the Donkeys and go on the Merry-go-round.1

He would park about a hundred yards up the road from the girls house and when he saw a small white robed girl come out (The girl in her white Nightdress) would he cruise down and Ellen would open the car door and beckon her in, then they would drive to a private air field where Jimmy's accomplice would be waiting, Another woman member of the Temple would be there and Hellen put to bed but the abducted girl was loaded on A plane and off they flew to a private airfield in France that belonged to some wealthy Arabs, a £1000 would change hands,the plane would be refuelled free and the pilot Jimmy's friend handed £500 and back to England they flew, not a bad night's work ! and the girl,why in foreign brothel or some private harem !

and Jimmy alas Jimmy is dead ! he got caught up in a private feud and accidentally shot ?? or was it an accident ?

Well funny things happen to members of the temple if they step out o f line and it's not only members who, at time run foul of these sinister groups.

A few years ago the Sunday News Papers carried a story that went something like this. Two teenagers having borrowed a shot gun set forth to shoot Rabbits, they entered a private wood and stumbled across a log cabin, breaking in they found themselves in a black Magic temple, scared they fled touching nothing.

That evening they were talking about it in the local Pub and it got to the ears of a newspaper reporter,he questioned the lads and a little money changed hands and the teenagers led him and a photographer to the cabin, now that wood belonged to a prominent M P of course he claimed to be ignorant of such a place and swore he would have it demolished.

What did NOT come out in the Papers was this,4 days later the two teenagers were found dead in a field it appeared they may have quarrelled one was shot-at close range and the other appeared to have placed the gun in his mouth and blown the top of his head off..

The news paper reporter died in hospital from Snake bite,funny thing is he was bitten on the Throat and neck, snakes in England have never been known to jump and strike,so he must have been lying down, BUT WHERE ?

The photographer having some photos he thought might sell to London papers set off for Fleet Street unfortunately he fell in from of a moving Tube Train?

Funny things happen to those who dabb ɿ in Black magic

A Barbaric Ceremony.

The Temple is in session. Temple Master to Guardian Knight ' Is my door secure ?' Guardian Knight, Yes my Worthy Temple Master all is secured ' ' Temple Master then let us proceed with this important gathering ; as you know it is now the month of June and at the Witches Moon next month is the birthing of our next Royal Priest or Priestess. I shall now hand over the Rostrum to our worthy Knight Exan who keeps the royal Records ' the Temple Master steps down.

Exan, ' Worthy Brothers and Sisters as our worthy Temple Master has just told you the full moon in July is a very important time, and we must now prepare for the solemn ceremony ,but first I will relate to you a little part of long past history.

It is known that either Peter or Joseph of Arimathea came to England after the supposed crucifixion, I say ' Supposed ' because writers of those times tell how Joseph of Arimathea did go to Pilate and received permission to take the man Jesus off the cross and brought him to Glastonbury.

That is why the Romans have no record of crucifying Jesus, the local King of Glaston, 'Aviragus' welcomed them and granted them 12 Hides of land, they then built the first christian church in England, but ages before that time Glastonbury was a seat of the old religion, it is in memory of that religion that we hold that ceremony. In olden times it was held evry seven years.

We endeavour to enact that ancient ceremony as the, Witches or Druids would have performed it.

Now although the stupid christians were 12 in number we know that the old true ceremony was held partly in honour of Dianā goddess of the Moon and there is normally 13 Moons in the year so the ritual calls for 13 pairs of participants 13 Male and 13 Female, it is our purpose now to draw lots from among you members present, and we will proceed to do so in our time honoured way.

In this box on the Altar are 4 sets of coloured balls each ball is wrapped in paper so no one can tell the colour of any ball, each set of coloured balls contains 13 in number now I want each of you to step forward and select a ball but do not unwrap it yet, the balls are chosen .

Now I will ask * our Temple Master * to step up and choose a ball from this velvet bag again each ball is wrapped in paper there 4 balls here and each one is of a different colour, the coloured ball that our Worth Temple Master selects will indicate the 13 Males, after that is settled and their names recorded it will be the turn of the Ladies, again our worthy Temple Master will indicate the winners by drawing a coloured ball.

* Exan forgot to, say WORTHY and was fined £10 * finally we have to find the Priestess of the ceremony we will do that by vote, from among those who have failed to qualify for the pairing, those who have been chosen will be asked to vote.

You will do this, by writing the name of the member you wish to be the priestess on a piece of paper and handing it to the Master of the Rolls he will announce the name of the Lady who has been chosen by the majority of you.

After the choosing Exan once more ascended the Rostrum ' I will explain the working of the ceremony, a virgin is laid naked on the Altar, the Males are bound by a cord around their middle to a stake that is driven in the ground, (See XXX turn back to Page 70) by each male who by the way is naked, stand his female partner she also is naked.

The Priestess stand by the altar holding a Cow's horn at the tip of the horn a small hole has been drilled after a prayer has been offered * the first female in line on the left side of the Altar begins to stimulate her Male by fondling and rubbing his Penis shortly afterwards the next in line commences to do the same to her Male.

Now this must be performed in strict rotation and the males must be made to ejaculate one after the other, the Priestess goes to each one in rotation and catches the Sperm in the Cow's horn then quickly she must go to the Altar and Ram the horn into the virgins vagina then kneeling she blows hard into the horn forcing the Sperm into the female., Often the injury to the female is so great that she either bleeds to death or dies giving birth to the child. it's a matter of luck or Diana's choice if she lives and successfully gives birth to the child who becomes the High priest or High priestess of the group.

You are warned It surely is a barbaric ceremony.

It will be appreciated that the males ejaculation must be perfectly timed or the sperm will have grown cold, so I suggest that you get in some practice, (loud guffaws and and a few hands start grabbing,) ' All right, all right you horny lot of tossers, wait until the gathering comes to it's close then you can go to it '.

Exan stepped down from the Rostrum an a slight robed and masked man took his place, slowly he removed robe and mask a cheer went up as most of the members recognised him as the Witch Doctor from Brazil.

He made a slight bow then, ' From what I hear some of you randy Billy Goats are getting worried that your manly tool is, getting to the state where it would rather lay down than stand up ! Many nudges and guffaws greeted that statement.

As you know full well I specialise in Herbs so you may b4e interested in learning of a few Herbs that will help you overcome impotence, I have already toldy6ou of Damage and well here then are a few more easily obtainable herbs.

Arrach, Betal, Camphor, Carline Thistle, False Unicorn, Coca, Nux vomica, Saw Palmetto Berries but the extract is more readily obtainable, Summer Savoy, Sundew, Vanilla pods, Garden sage, Virginia snakeroot.

Well there are just a few for you, and if you are worried about your prostate gland Peach Tree leaves can help. and Blue flag Herb made into a tea has a special action.

In my clinic these days I am finding a lot of Woman complaining about menstruation problems, and their Doctors don't seem to want to know about that sort of trouble, so here then are a few Herbs that will definitely help to restore normal menstrual function.

Aloe, American angelica, Arbor vitae, Beth root, Birthwort, Bitter root, Balm, Bistort, Bamboo juice, Arrach, Bayberry, Acacia, Barnet, Beet, Beneset, and Bittersweet.

The Witch Doctor stepped down and once again the Knight Exan takes his place .

The Silent Thief

He commences ' The ceremony we have been discussing has given rise to another ceremony, this time it is for gaining good luck by stealing another persons good luck without their knowledge of course.

You will need 13 White candles. make a large circle on the floor of your Temple, form it with White Wool, and place the candles around it, light them.

You will require a fairly large piece of White paper and a large Stone, on the paper and on the Stone write the name of the person that you are going to steal from.

Now ; and this is important, you must get a woman to help you, so having enticed her in your temple by some means (Which is best left to you) you hypnotise her.

You then both kneel one each side of the Paper and you make her fondle your Penis working on it until you ejaculate, now the Sperm must fall on the name you have written, both on the Stone and the Paper. Now you ' say your name, I do steal from, say the persons name all his good luck and I do this by wishing on him all my bad luck

Now kiss the woman and if you are still randy enough why get stuck into her. After you are satisfied burn the Paper the Stone you keep until you can throw it in running water, and in a River not under your water tap..

And now I will ask our Worthy Temple Master to close the Temple , will members please form the Link as this meeting. draws to a close. The gathering breaks up the Guardian Knight throws open the door and the members disperse.

A personal Demon

I had the Devil's own job to coax the Spider into revealing this information, apart from the Spider and myself no more than a dozen other persons know of this devastating secret, in Germany there is a secret society that is greatly feared, they have a sexual ceremony for evoking Psychogones, it was on the basis of that ceremony that a certain group experimented to perfect a devastating ritual that gives a 100% realistic result.

You use this knowledge at your own risk I cannot be held responsible for what happens if you set loose this powerful unknown force. Publisher.

What is being revealed here is what is known as the birthing and setting free a Psychogone, a magical entity that will obey the command of the Magician.

It is a talismanic creature having a magically induced Soul, a form of Astral Image induced by sexual energies directed by the magicians psyche.

You will need a woman to assist in this ritual in fact the woman plays the important part, and it must be remembered if the woman is a willing partner then the power of the Psychogone will be divided equally between you.

The magician must think carefully about using a willing partner, it is by far best to use a dupe a woman that has been hypnotised or drugged to assist you.

A couple of drinks of Gin and Orange then a drink laced with 3 Co-dydramol tablets should make her hazy enough. (But watch it this could be very dangerous Publisher)

And so, to the ceremony, first with modelling Clay you must make an effigy, it must be of human shape but as weird as you please, be sure it has sexual organs and it can be either male or female and there are no limits to the number you make you can be content with one figure or a dozen suit yourself.

Next you must make out its Birth Certificate as under

His name shall be Azan

This shall be his Sign

When I draw your Sign and call your name you will come immediately in a good friendly mood and with no smell, You will obey my command and when you carried out your mission you will be rewarded.

Next you must make a 'His Nibs' this made of Wood and shaped first like a Nine-pin, and then undercut to allow the Birth Certificate to be wound on it and held in place by 2 elastic bands See Page 101 .having prepared these things now procure your female, dope her and make her bend over see Page 101, You now have intercourse with her but when reaching ejaculation point quickly withdraw your penis and this is important ejaculate in the entrance to her vagina.

Now you thrust 'His Nibs' into her vagina and thrusting in and out in and out bring her to a climax. Now remove the Elastic bands and carefully unroll the Birth Certificate and dry it carefully. Put the woman to bed or sling her out suit yourself!

Well That is the ceremony, to use all you need do is light a candle spread the certificate on your Altar stand the figure of your psychogone on the certificate, on another piece of paper write his name and draw his sign, then give him your orders, then clap your hands once and say, 'Go to it'.

In the mean time you have photographed a girl, have her photo on your Altar and say (here say the name you have given your Psychogone (When you have carried out my orders you may have this girl to penetrate her dreams and do as you wish with for 7 days.

Note Azan is the name and sign I have used just to demonstrate you can use any name you choose and draw any sign you choose, all that remains now is to ask you for humanities sake to keep it strictly secret.

There were many other ritual ceremonies revealed by the Spider but as many of them were sacrificial ceremonies I thought then far too dangerous and as I myself am an animal lover it would be going against my better nature to reveal them to the general public.

Again some of the details are already written up in some of my other books, details on evoking Demons and Darklings, how to get spirit entities working for you, how to contact and work with the Loa.

End Piece

Seen in daily news-paper.

A body was found floating in the Thames yesterday, it had no head but on each shoulder was tattooed a Red Spider, I never knew the name of the Spider he would visit me in the dead of night and talk for hours, I copied the gist of his revelations but if some of my writings seem scanty it is because I could not remember all of the fine details but readers can always contact me for further knowledge, I can perform initiations but being Male I can only initiate Females
