Cursing Chant

This chant is short but sweet. The trick is to visualize the curse working and chat at the same time. Beware if your mind wanders or for whatever reason your chant is disrupted, the curse could come after you! Be Cautious with this one and respect its simple strength.

Chant this in 30 minute intervals, whenever you can spare the time.

I conjure the night creatures.

I call the night to fill the home of (victim's name) with your presence.

Arise by the names of power that are found in the heavens.

Go to the home of (victim's name) and torture his/her soul, life and happiness.

This I command to be done.

Place the clothing, stone churchyard dirt and graveyard dirt in the bottle.

Light the picture on fire from the black candle flame as you chant.

"Peace you shall have no more.

From this day forth, the night creatures will fill

Your home, your peace, your happiness.

Arise from the lower realms.

Arise from the bottomless pit.

Bring your wrath and fury to (victim's name)."

Place the ashes from the picture in the bottle and chant:

"Fill the (victim's name) with your presence."

Seal the bottle.

Let the candles burn out.

Take to the person's home and bury it in his/her yard.

To Seal A Spirit in a Candle for Later Use

Items you will need:

- 1 black candle
- 1 symbol of the spirit (located in most Grimoires)
- Lemon verbena herb
- Mandrake herb
- A Crystal
- Salt
- Evocation incense

The Spell

Place the symbol under the black candle.
Light the incense.
Mix the herbs with the salt.
Light the black candle and chant:

*“(Spirit name) I summon you from your depths
I call you tonight.
Come inhabit this candle; make it your home.
I command you to enchant this candle.
By the power of all light, you must obey.”*

With as much force as you can chant:

*(Spirit name) come to me.
Be conjured to this candle. I evoke thee.
I command you to come, fill this candle.
By the power of all light, you must obey.”*

Now sprinkle the mixture of herbs and salt in a circle around the candle.
Make sure there are no breaks in the circle.
Place the crystal on the north point of the herb/salt circle and chant:

(Spirit name) I welcome you.”

Put out the candle flame.
Leave your altar set up. (Cleaning it off would release the spirit.)
When you are in need of a quick spell:
Light the candle and tell the spirit what it is you want done.
Tell the spirit also that after the spell is complete,
He/she is free to go back to where they came.
Let the candle burn out. Then you may clean your area/altar up.
Many Occultist trap spirits just to have a spell handy for later use.
You will find this most common in Voodoo.
