

Subliminal Orgasmic Initiation Into Lucifers One World Order (2015)

Subliminal Orgasmic Initiation Into Lucifers One World Order (2015)

Being a gardener and growing plants, you need seeds and a growth medium, a culture medium, and you need air and the light of the sun. Plants may also be cloned, they may be cross-bred and hybridized to bring forth the desired outcome. The gardener, the owner of the garden, has the power to shape his plants according to his desires and needs. During wintertime, many plants will wither and die.

Sometimes the gardener has to root out certain plants to give room to other plants, so they may grow and prosper. A gardener may even use poison or other methods to get rid of undesired specimens. After all, a gardener doesn't grow plants for their own sake, but he grows them so he may use them for his own personal needs. These plants serve him, they are his servants.

The Illuminati see this world as their garden where they cultivate human beings on their human farm, they call it "human farming". To bring forth the desired species they have to cross-breed them from time to time by flooding Western countries with foreigners from other countries. With their politics they may motivate families to have more children by tax incentives, or they may prevent families from having more children by restricting access to the required resources such as money, time or food.

Within the context of human farming, the cultivation doesn't just take place on the physical level, but also on the mental level. The minds of young human beings have to be cultivated too on their human farms, they have to be brought into the desired form and shape by appropriate sensory stimulation from the environment, an environment being defined by a society's culture.

On the human farm, humans minds are being formed and cultured with the help of Western culture, a culture defined by movies, music and computer gaming. With these methods the Illuminati make sure that their human animals will develop neurological structures that won't result in behavior patterns conflicting with the desires and needs of the Illuminati overlords.

To shape the minds of their human animals, specific subliminal messages are being inserted into their media, in their music, in their video games, in their movies, and so on. Not only subliminals but also the narratives and story lines being communicated by these media helps shape the minds of the target population in the desired manner. A key component here is the school system, where the future slave is being trained appropriately.

The Illuminati desire a conditioning process for their human animals that is as uniform as possible, so that unexpected deviations from expected behavior patterns may not occur. Deviating emotions, feelings, thoughts and ideas are being considered dangerous and may result in political situations and grass roots activity that may be difficult to contain. For that reason human units are specifically being conditioned by subliminals, subliminals programming them to become infiltration agents.

With the help of these infiltration agents the Illuminati may easily take control of any deviation from cultural designs by infiltrating any culturally deviating organisation that has not yet been brought under their complete control. Other programmed humans are being used as assassins, as instigators, as perpetrators, and so on, whatever the required needs may be under specific circumstances. Many of these programmed human units have built in omega suicide programming, to self terminate after having completed their mission, leaving no loose ends.

One component is infiltration, another is money. The Illuminati have an endless supply of money, since they're in control of the Federal Reserve money printing press. Basically the Illuminati have a power structure based on three pillars: The spiritual pillar, the military pillar and the financial pillar. Enchant you victims, cast a spell on them, bribe them, kill them. Maybe there's fourth pillar, the sex and drugs department. If you can't bribe them, then fuck them or make them become drug addicts.

Without doubt the Illuminati have been using the technology of human cloning for many decades, probably starting in Germany as early as the 1930s, and with high probability such activity is going on right now in their huge underground cities. Drunvalo Melchizedek has been talking about those bases. These clones may be used as soldiers in the near future, and get unleashed against the American people on the surface, after martial law will have been declared. Human beings may be physically mass produced right now on an industrial scale, just like cars or any other industrial product of mass fabrication.

But this mass manufacturing of human bodies is not enough, human minds have to be shaped by mass production too. It's about mass manufacturing ideas, attitudes, beliefs, values, political inclinations, ideological convictions and with it the resulting behavior patterns. In the past, this had been accomplished on a broad scale with the help of the mass media. It is not by coincidence that we're talking about "programs" being aired, since these programs are meant to program people. An of course Lucifer is the master over the element "air". He masters the air, he airs his programs to program people with his programs.

However, this general indoctrination of the masses by the mass media and the Illuminati's school system was rather fuzzy and not good enough for the elite, they wanted something more powerful, more specific, more controllable, and more intense, eventually resulting in much more predictable behavior patterns being exhibited by their human animals on their human farms. That's why projects such as MKULTRA have been developed, now more than ever before. Their kingdom rises and falls with the help of such technologies. The goal was to completely root out any form of true individuality, any possibility of unpredictable deviant behavior patterns.

After all, no gardener wants his plants to grow in unexpected ways, and modern farming is based on uniformity, so the output may be processed by standardized industrial means. In modern farming every plant is meant to have the same height, the same speed of growth, and the size of its fruit has to be predictable and adhere to specific norms. The Illuminati simply don't like any surprises.

The goal of human farming is exactly the same: The human products being grown, both physically and mentally, have to be predictable, have to strictly adhere to well defined standards and norms, and no physical or mental aberration from those standards are allowed to occur. In the long run even a genetically standardized human structure may be achieved by the Illuminati.

Currently, deviations from the standard average human animal are still being permitted on the cognitive level, but only as long as these deviations originate from people who are culturally insignificant, or from human units having been programmed with alters who are meant to show such deviating behavior patterns, who are meant to be agitators, assassins or instigators, as explained in detail by Al Bielek in his YouTube videos about the Montauk program. Therefore, even what may appear as a deviation from the well defined cultural substratum, has been planned and designed well ahead in order to create the illusion of diversity and individuality amongst the target population.

If you want to control the opposition, then you have to become the opposition. In other words, most forms of opposition against the ruling elite have been created by the very same ruling elite. The false dichotomy between the Republicans and the Democrats in the United States may be known to most by now. But there are many other false dichotomies going on at the same time on many different levels.

For these reasons it certainly doesn't come as a surprise that most truthers within the truther movement are disinformation agents, Monarch MKULTRA infiltration units, human beings that have been programmed and mentally designed for the specific purpose of infiltrating and disrupting alternative communities, where still a small number of true individuals may exist, still capable of thinking beyond the prescribed and designed cognitive norms, still capable of having their own thoughts.

This far reaching assumption may easily be tested by throwing a theory into such a community relating to hypotheses the Illuminati want to suppress at all cost. For example mentioning Dr. Judy Woods' directed energy weapons (DEW) theory on WTC 9-11 2001 will immediately result in violent verbal assaults by those programmed units. The existence of DEWs may have to be kept secret for now, because the Illuminati may use them by stealth during their false flag project "Blue Beam" in the near future.

The number of authentic truthers seems to be very small indeed. And even those with truthful and honest intentions are being deceived to such an extent by those synthetic humans, those programmed units, that the vast peer pressure created by those units will often result in quite erroneous assumptions by those honest truthers. The number of authentic truthers being capable of withstanding the massive peer pressure created by those programmed MKULTRA Monarch infiltration units, seems to be exceedingly small.

What we are witnessing now, when analyzing subliminal programming done by the Illuminati controlled media, is nothing less than the implementation of Alice Bailey's "externalization of the occult hierarchy", and as we may have learned from courageous Illuminati whistleblowers and defectors, such as Jay Parker and Joseph Doc Marquis, mind control is a key component within the Illuminati hierarchy, even being used against their own children on a massive scale.

The externalization of their occult hierarchy means that their mind control scheme will get applied to the entire planet. It is their desire that the entire population of this planet shall be initiated into their Illuminati hierarchy, only on the lowest level, of course. According to their occult teachings "no one shall be allowed into the new age", their New World Order, without having gone through a Luciferian initiation first. Those who refuse will have to die.

Within the context of their cult, this "initiation" refers to mind control, it refers to processing the minds of initiates with the help of occult rituals and MKULTRA mind control, so the initiates are willing to be useful and happy slaves under the one world order system, as described by author Aldous Huxley, so they are willing to sell out to the devil for material privileges or to save their physical lives, or because they have been programmed to love their dark leader.

Initiation means nothing less than denying GOD and accepting Lucifer as your new overlord, and your willingness to serve him without any reservation. Initiation also means regretting anything you may have done in your past going against the interests of the Illuminati. You are meant to repent your sins against the Illuminati. Here again Lucifer mimics GOD, and instead of regretting your sins against GOD, you're meant to regret your sins against your illuminated overlords.

If you want to get your Luciferian initiation, then simply listen to the audio files "Orgasm Marketing" provided by this torrent. These artists creating such music albums are under strict mind control by Lucifer, many of them belong to the satanic body of the Illuminati and have been practicing witchcraft since their early childhood. They're using subliminally infected music as a weapon to initiate you into their Luciferian hierarchy by stealth, or to plant the first seeds eventually leading to a complete initiation. They make you want to have such an initiation.

This mind control procedure is being done by stimulating you sexually with subliminals and with specific audio frequencies to release sexual energy in your body and mind, sexual energy that will then be coupled to satanic subliminal suggestions, suggestions serving the interests of those controlling the Luciferian hierarchy. The album's title "Orgasm Marketing" very accurately describes this process, it's about marketing Lucifer's kingdom by hijacking your sexual energy. Your own sexuality is being used as a weapon against you. It's about implanting memories and ideas in your mind.

Any kingdom has always been based on visions and ideas. He who controls your visions and ideas will be accepted by you as your king. Luciferian ideas are being sold to you by making them look sexually attractive. This process very accurately corresponds to the statements made by Al Bielek about the Montauk boys, and how they have been processed in that program. We're all in the Montauk program now, it seems. The Montauk program has been "externalized" because the occult hierarchy is being externalized as well. This then also implies that the Montauk project belongs to the occult Luciferian hierarchy, being a reasonable assumption.

If you don't want to become a part of Lucifer's kingdom, then it's about time for you to start being a saint instead of being a sinner, it's about time for you to leave Babylon, and to devote your life to your Heavenly Father without any reservations.

Just have a look at the initiation of the Jesuits, the oath they have to swear, to get an idea what a Luciferian mind set is all about. Heaven or hell on earth, it's your choice. It's not about saving the world, which is beyond your means, it's about your personal relationship with GOD, which is not beyond your means.

If you prefer getting married to Lucifer instead of GOD, then simply listen to the audio files provided, and get your satanic orgasmic pre-initiation and wedding with the illuminated light bearer now.

This is the first step only, the first seed for the satanic plant to grow, they main programming will be based on trauma based mind control, therefore it is reasonable to assume that the Illuminati may soon be unleashing grand events on a global scale resulting in a massive trauma for humankind. Here again we can witness the externalization of the methods being used within their occult hierarchy.
