Introduction

With few exceptions all religions and philosophies have been based on hypocritical self-deceit and false altruism. The Werewolf philosophy is concerned with no such thing. This is a philosophy of might is right, the victory takes the glory, and decides how he shall be remembered. No one is responsible for your destiny but you. Unleash the beast within and decide your destiny.

We are dedicated to the promotion of the highest aesthetics within the human mind and the preservation of the pack. This is a left-hand path philosophy. In other words, we do not believe in notions of good and evil. Trite philosophers created these false notions, to control the weak of mind.

The road to Lycanthropic Transformation lies within the carnal bestial nature within every living human being. We are not concerned with an afterlife as the “here and now” is where our destinies lay at present.

The oath of the Werewolf™

I am a beast and I worship instinct and intelligence.

I am predator not prey and shall conduct myself as such.

I shall believe nothing that is not within my reasoning.

I exalt the dark forces in nature and man, as they are vital to existence.

I shall always strive to preserve myself and my pack.

I shall have no other gods before mine own self.

I will not befriend that which is inferior.

I am a werewolf and shall be ruled by none.

I shall always seek to unify my intellect with my instinct.

I shall always respect the Occult and it's hidden forces and power.

I will not betray my kind no matter what benefit I may gain.

I shall know, I shall will, I shall dare, and I shall remain silent.

I shall have no pity for those, which I seduce, with my magick.

Ipse hinc dicitur dicitur dicitur dicitur,
Ipse hinc dicitur dicitur dicitur dicitur.

Et hinc dicitur dicitur dicitur dicitur,
Et hinc dicitur dicitur dicitur dicitur.

LYCANTHROPIC TRANSFORMATION

Every man and woman has been hardwired by evolution for survival. This is obvious to any true werewolf. Man is a predatory animal and by his instinct in union with his intellect he shall prevail and rise to his true destiny. We call this unification, “lycanthropic Transformation”. It is the ability and process of allowing the instinct to dominate the intellect, moral, and ethical principles do not become a stifling stumbling block that causes one to think before acting in a way that feels correct. This being said we do not condone, nor tolerate any illegal activity whatsoever. Engagement in such shall result in your expulsion from The Werewolf Cathedral.

The Werewolf Philosophy is one of Social Darwinism, of survival of the fittest. To the victor go the spoils of glory and the power. See to it that you are victorious in all your endeavors. For in doing so, you shall never be subjected to the will of inferiors. What makes something right is the fact that one is powerful enough to make it right. The reason that those who have fallen in great wars are thought of as being on the “wrong” side of things is merely because they lost. If Germany had won World War II we might very well all be goose-stepping and talking about the evils of the allies.

We do not concern ourselves with what society or predefined belief systems tell us is right or wrong. Instead we, as Werewolves, seek to find our own “rights” and “wrongs” which are valid for us and us alone. Each Werewolf’s personal code of conduct is unique; as we are all free thinking individuals. If someone says to us this is wrong because so and so or such and such a group (or government) says it is, we do not take that blindly as a truth. Instead we determine what our own opinion is on that which we were told was “wrong” or “right.”

We learn to trust our instincts, something most of humanity has forgotten. We learn not to ask ourselves why we feel a certain way, and accept that nature made us with survival instincts which are never wrong in the way they make us feel. Instead we learn how to unify our intellects with our instincts so that we can act to the fullest, in response to our instinctual feelings, as best as possible.

The first step to achieving Lycanthropic Transformation is in the acceptance that you are an animal. We do not deny the spiritual side of humanity, however we unlike many religions do not deny the carnal aspect of the human animal. Do you spend most of your day in the heavenly realms, or in a material world in a physical body? Anyone capable of logical thinking will realize we are in fact biological physical beings with pre coded instincts hardwired into our sinews and brains for survival purposes; just like so called lesser animals.

These so-called lesser animals which never deviated from their instinctual nature seem to be much less riddled with the problems the modern society and culture of the “superior” animal man has become plagued by. Could it be that because of mans so called “superior” intellect and extremely arrogant “ego” he has denied that very thing that would set him free? Werewolves know the answer is, “yes”.

Man because of his so-called “superiority” has denied that he could ever be such a thing as an animal. And He instead lied to himself believing he is some kind of Casper the ghost inside a shell. This idea that man should deny his own instincts has done nothing but cause the de-evolution of man since the inception of its ludicrous ideology was conceived.

We also do not lie to ourselves about Nature. Nature can be caring but at many times it can be very cruel. This is necessary for the proper balance of life. If the lion stopped killing its prey for food, because it felt sorry or that it was ethically wrong, would that benefit the lion or the lion pack? The answer is obviously, “no.” Yet man in all his so called wisdom, has attempted to do these very things, not only to himself but to all of society. Thus starving people of their instinctual birthrights and predatory animal instincts. Life and Werewolves are Predatory; unless ones preys upon lesser beings, the “predator” becomes the prey.

*Only the strong survive.

Learn to become in tune with it to the best of your ability, or be subjected to it.

PSEUDO WEREWOLF

The Werewolf Cathedral considers anyone that believes in actual transformation of a man into a Long Chaney Jr style wolf man, with a hairy face and fangs, to be a pseudo werewolf. Being a werewolf is a mentality and an ideology. Lycanthropic Transformation is about union of intellect with instinct. So that the two complement each other, rather than being at odds with one another. We are not concerned with role players and other such individuals, if that is what you are looking for, look elsewhere! This is an organization for the elite of the elite, truly self-reliant free thinkers.

SINS OF THE WOLF

We do not believe in sin. Sin is a man made ideal to keep lesser mortals inline. We believe in indulging in all of life's pleasures, both sexual and non-sexual. Man is a carnal being and to deny oneself fleshly pleasures is absurd. Indulge, as much you can in all that you can, but do not let it become a ruler over you. In other words one must indulge but not lose control of himself and his activities. Remember the Werewolf has but one life, so he must (and will) make the most of it in order to preserve his memory in the minds of those that live on. This is where aesthetic creation and endeavors come into play. We seek to preserve and further the highest ideas and aesthetics in man. This includes art, music, literature, philosophy, and social structure. Not all werewolves are necessarily creators of these things but they at least have an appreciation for them.

MISANTHROPY

Werewolves are by nature misanthropic. We have disdain for the masses of man as he seems to be dedicated to his own masochistic destruction. The majority of human habits are looked down upon i.e. eating potato chips while watching some asinine sports show and contemplating the old days when one wasn't fat and threw a pig skinned ball in the air like some intellectually challenged inferior neanderthal.

We are Werewolves not sheep. We do not watch TV or advertising that is designed to brainwash and conform us. We are the innovators and creators of our own aesthetically pleasing personal realities. Werewolves function in what are known as packs or groups of like-minded individuals. For esoteric practices it is called a Wolf Pact Coven. That is unless no other like minded individuals can be contacted. Then one functions as a lone Wolf.

Members of The Werewolf Cathedral may function in whichever capacity they feel most comfortable and functional in. Packs are mainly used for aesthetic development and creation purposes. For instance a pack of sculptures may come together to create a masterwork of their own creation. Or a pack of philosophers may engage in thought to create an innovative idea. Covens are used for the performance of the esoteric religious rites in group settings.

GOOD AND EVIL

We as Werewolves do not believe in made man notions of good and evil. These terms are opinionated labels men give to actions to describe how they feel about them. We do not concern ourselves with labels meant to control or limit our behavior. We solve this problem of good and evil very easily. We achieve perfect union by embracing total duality. Thus we are utterly wicked and purely holy at the same time. The only reason someone would scoff at this is because of his or her limited scope and lack of vision. All people do both "good" and "evil." So rather than fight our instincts and nature, we simply embrace the two, and accept what we are without guilt. We are destructive and creative, loving and hateful, good and evil. Much like Abrasax or Baphomet.

ENLIGHTENMENT

Too long have men of bright minds sought enlightenment; not even knowing what it is that they seek. Only knowing that it promises some type of understanding of life and the human condition. Open your eyes, o ye enlightened prudes! For the truth of life and understanding lies within living to the fullest and experiencing all life has to offer. Those promising enlightenment through spiritual exercises, involving abstinence, are either fully aware of there own fallacious ideologies, or are under the stupor of total denial, falling victim to those of the former disposition. The way enlightenment of any kind can be attained is not through belief in spiritual doctrine (which denies the carnal aspect of life), but in doubt of them and their gluttonous gurus.

Those that believe in "good" and all it's glory and hail it's loving compassion, are often more cruel and dishonorable than the very Werewolves they accuse of such disgraceful behavior. Do not engage them in debate for they are incapable of logical reasoning. Their very instincts have been dulled unto the point of actually believing that when they die after a non joy-filled life they will be in a better place. Better, if you consider the destruction of your current consciousness and all carnally indulgent joys to be above living a joy-filled life to the fullest.

The dark ages of the "white light right hand path" "gods" are all but dead. Christianity and all right hand path systems are in their last death throws of survival and because of this they have become desperate and will practically buy your soul just to say, "Behold, another one with whom ignorance abounds, another drone for the Nazarene, the Buddha, & the Muhammad!"

EMOTIONAL GRATIFICATION

Werewolves are encouraged to get in touch with all their emotions, learn their sensations, and become master over them. Hate is just as necessary as love, and to deny this is to do deny part of the Werewolf experience and the human experience in general. It is to become detached from the instinctual programming which nature has placed into our sinews and brain.

THE ESOTERIC WEREWOLF

Those Werewolves that wish to engage in our spiritual practices are first given one very important lesson. Think for yourself. Do not deny yourself the study of any piece of knowledge, period.

Just because a group, religion, culture, or society tells you that something is proper or improper does not make it so. Learn what is best for you from the one person who is qualified to make the best decision for you in every situation...YOURSELF!

These teachings are based off of an amalgam of teachings from The works of Aleister Crowley, Boyd Rice, The Hermetic Order of The Golden Dawn, Classical Hermetics, Occultism, the works of Dr. Anton Szandor LaVey, Ragnar Redbeard, and various Chaos Magick systems.

To become an esoteric Werewolf we have a system of visualization and energy manipulation we use. First visualize yourself as a Werewolf. Imagine the characteristics you would possess as the kind of Werewolf-Animal you would be, if you had the ability to be everything you wanted to be (but for whatever reason currently are not). Begin to imagine yourself transforming into this Werewolf. Take on its characteristics. Merge with this Werewolf. Act in the way this Werewolf would act in your social situations, without the constraints that prevented you from acting the way you wanted to all your life.

Say for instance a young man is attracted to a woman, however he is extremely shy. He might imagine his Werewolf as a very charismatic animal that is not shy. He could then after learning to merge with his visualized Werewolf Form, assume the form of his Werewolf and appear to be quite the catch to the woman which is the object of his attraction. This is how we remove our false conditioning society gave us, and transcend to become what we truly wish to be, and are destined to be. Begin to create this Werewolf Form as detailed as possible. Know all its characteristics, its inclinations etc... Learn to merge with it by visualizing the Werewolf coming into your being and your own self and your personality transforming into that of your Werewolf. This Werewolf is really in truth nothing more than a astral being which is your highest aspiration for yourself, what you wish to be, and how you wish to be.

In a more mystical set of practices one can learn to visualize oneself in the astral as this Werewolf. One can perform certain tasks, such as: attack an enemy, speak to a loved one far away, discover hidden secrets on various matters, call various situations into ones life. The real limit to the things one can do with this Werewolf Form in the astral, is only that of the creativity of the Werewolf working with their own Werewolf Form. Learn to incorporate any practices you feel a connection with into these visualization techniques. If one is into the golden dawn system of magick or satanic magic or even shamanistic systems learn to utilize them to the fullest with your Werewolf Form.

BITES OF THE WOLF

These invocations and rituals are designed to help one get in touch with his bestial nature and to help satisfy the need for dogma and ritual that is inherent within our nature.

All ritual should be done in a ritual chamber with the Symbol of a Wolf above the altar. The tools needed are: a black robe, a dagger, a chalice, an upside down pentagram, a wand, and a mirror (which should be below the symbol of the Wolf above the alter so that one can see one-self in the mirror).

Start by entering the ritual chamber, then take the dagger in hand, point it at the mirror and (in a commanding tone) recite this combined Invocation and Evocation.

The Invocation of the Wolf

Behold! By fang and claw, by the right of might, I summon the wolf within out of the river of Acheron! Come forth by my instinct and intellect, I command thee! Behold! I am master and creator of my destiny! I am the Beast within man! I am the Black Wolf of the night! Arise and appear! O brothers of the pact! Behold! The howling scream of my command!

Next trace a circle in the air around the ritual chamber going counter clockwise at each point say one of the following (in respective order): Blood! Claw! Howl! Fur!

Next make a statement of intent and purpose. This is a verbalization of what you wish this ritual to accomplish. If you wish you may symbolically act out what you wish to happen. Using anything you find helpful.

Remember this can be done as a psychodrama, or a deeply esoteric ritual. However do not expect a million dollars to fall from the sky because you asked for it.

Take the wand in ones hand, and assume your Werewolf Form by vibrating the name you have given your alter ego. Do this vibrating while visualizing it in front of you. Then, merge with it by inhaling its form inside your own body,

Now partake of the chalice and touch the pentagram and recite the final bidding.

Final Bidding

Behold, The hounds of hell hath come forth. Grant those requests which I have petitioned. Go forth into the aether and make those inferior mortals subject unto my command, so that my desires may be made manifest into this plane. So it is done, So it shall be, So mote it be! Hail Marchosius!
