About the author Pope Fraize

Born Robert Fraize at the Lawrence general hospital Feb 12th 1980

Robert Lived in Lawrence M.a for the first Ten years of his life then moved to Andover M.a a small town in north east United States. You may have heard about it as the place most the accused witches from the 1692 Salem witch trials where captured. It Was In that time living in Andover Robert Became interested in the paranormal, Demons, spirits, witches Satanism and the occult. At the Age Of ten Robert was at the local library with some friends and Saw a black Book with A baphomet on it. He thought the book looked interesting then read the title of the book. The satanic bible

Obviously He was curious to see what was written in that book he then stole the book. "everyone Robert grew up with at that time stole none of us had money" Ever since the finding of the satanic bible Robert Decided He would look More into the left hand path and the occult ,Demonology Necromancy .

In The year 2004 Robert founded the church of leviathan.

As An organization to help with the teachings of the satanic paths.

Pope Fraize himself does not follow one set Path, he has his own system that he uses based from years of trial error. The Popes View of Satanism is that you must have balance with out balance you can not be whole and cannot accomplish all of your magical goals. The use of good and evil must be self defined. For what one person may see as good one may see AS EVIL.

Satanism is for the individual, good and evil must be defined by your own ideals.

Often when the Pope is asked if What He doesis for real? The answer he gives to them is Do you believe what I DO TO BE REAL? If they say yes then yes it is. If they say no He tells them that it is only as real as they want it to be! And asks them if they wish to sell their soul for any desire they wish, then he hands them a business card with the web link

These next pages are some of my satanic essays that I have written over the past 2 years they are being printed on Paper for the first time!

Who Is Your God?

Satan has been crowned the title of The BAD GUY and blamed for everything that is wrong with this world. I if we watch at the 11 o'clock news and read the news papers or listen to the radio. The continuous events in the Middle East keep skipping over and over in our heads like a scratched cd. It is called the war against Evil, in the old days the corrupt politicians would use the word witch, to kill off those that they wanted things from in those times it was farm land. As our times change our needs grow larger and our greed consumes us .we take the word witch and change it to fit an enemy of today. And that enemy is Terrorists. In the same ways in the 1692 Salem trials false accusations are being placed against those who have done no wrong and who are Poor and UN educated Left for the slaughter with out a Trial.

No longer has Will burning a witch make us felt safe for most of us no longer believe in a god. But one thing humans do believe in these days is Money How many countless lives does it take for a Rich Texan to gain 20 million dollars that he will wipe his Ass with? the war on terror has been created for the rich to shit them self's in fright of an attack on American soil , and their money being burnt brings the possibility of not going on vacation in the islands this year. They can't have that happen so these Green blooded men order the us army to blow up the exotic sands. Satan wishes that we live our lives according to our own plans. Those who do not follow their own plan shall be eternally miserable and or most the TIME physically tormented. If Satan represents Life and "god" "wants the blood of nations to be spilled. So that the Rich can build giant golden statues of Jesus. Instead of feeding the homeless and helped the sick. What god would you choose to be your lord? Placing your trust on a god who allows someone who has repented 200 times for the same sin and lets them continue? Or trusting in a god who Looks down on those who can not take responsibility for their own actions?

Gay marriage

The Catholic Church and many other churches of Christ are against same sex marriage. these same priests ministers pastors and politicians who are so against love between two consensual adults" of the same sex have committed the act of pedophilia rape and other acts against a child's free will. That or they have known someone in their circle who has done so. The Catholic Church has accepted this for hundreds of years. It is considered proper to have sexual Relations for a priest to have sex with A Boy who has not yet hit puberty. Since the child is not a man and is not a woman it is not a sin. The bible says no man shall lay with another man, not any man shall not lay with a boy. Church officials have sold young girls in old Europe to rich men at the age of 14 to do the mans every bidding. What is worse two adults of the same sex to BE together or an old man and a young boy? Or an old man or old lady with a young girl? I know what you are thinking right now. That I am twisting the truth or that I am just trying to look like the good guy. The fact is this, my organization does not allow children at any of our meetings because Of the fact I can not watch everyone and I would hate for these things to happen at one of my Rituals. Children and the church of leviathan are forbidden. We have an online message board for adults to use and learn from each other children are not welcome to join in debate .in any case of suspicion of adults asking kids for sex and or showing pornography to them . the adult will be Removed and banished from all church events and also reported to their local police department and charges will be brought up against them, anyone who wishes to harm a child is not a person who follows the Path!

Things to fight for

The number one thing to fight for is personal Freedom. this Cause is one That everyone Must Put on top of their lists lets be Honest what cause is more important then yourself? Every one who puts them self's second Becomes A depressed Weak Worm who feels the emotional brain suck that the equivalence of 20 pigs suckling milk out of their mother's tits.

The second fight is to Kill Ignorance through The Decompression of Christian culture,

The third Fight is for all pagans to pull together in unity to respect each path we are all brothers and sisters! If the Christians have done this then so Can we! And we must for our survival.

The fourth fight is to keep art uncensored! Art is our only true way of self expression with out art Nothing in this world would be Questioned.

The fifth is for all of us to put a law inefect that any child rapist gets Gang raped by Dogs for a month, only being able to eat fruit and vegetables that where up their own rectums then on the last day of the Month the rapist shall be impaled by a giant wooden Dick!

Animal Sacrifice

Before I begin this Article I would like to say personally I do not perform animal Sacrifice For Legal Reasons. Let me Point out that a kosher Killing is Ritualistic sacrifice.

The Rabbi says a prayer before the animal's throat is slit. That Is Legal!

Also have you or anyone you have known sat down before a meal and said a prayer?

If so that was a ritualistic sacrifice! It does not matter if the prayer was said before or after the animal was killed! Those are both acts of animal sacrifice and legal ones.

If A pagan / Satanist was to slice the throat of a chicken or other animals in ritual then eat the animal It would be Illegal and They would most likely pay a big fine and or go to Jail.

I do not believe it is wrong to perform animal sacrifice as long as the animal is eaten afterwards.

Do not ever just kill for the sake of killing that is an insult to the animal and to the deity you have offered the animal to.

This is not An Ok for you to go kill animals in the name of a god you must Respect the laws of the state/ province / country / town/ village that you live in.

The next time a Christian brings up the topic of animal sacrifice let them know that they perform them every time they say a diner prayer

Lucid Dreaming.

It is in my understanding that lucid dreaming is when you are sleeping but able to control your dream the same way you do while you control yourself as you are awake. You can feel pain and pleasure in these dreams. You may taste and smell just as you do while you're awake.

In some cases in these dreams we will have visions of the future. It may be personal future events or seeing earthly events.

I have found that when I have most lucid dreams I am laying on my back in total darkness. I usually burn incense Opium or nagchampa. Also I play soothing classical music. What I do then is relax and focus on an image or thought. I breathe through my nose out my mouth. Deep breaths. Keep in your mind the image or thoughts that you wish to dream about. Also at the same time let your self know you will be dreaming.

When you reach your dream I know for my self it is a dream by my surroundings in my dreams my world is twisted into different parts. I have done study and wrote down my dreams after I had them. To remember your dream world is a key into that world. When you find yourself in the dream world you will most likely see bits of your image and thoughts. I have had sexual lucid dreams many times with a vampire's.

I have seen some events of my future. They do come to pass.

If you do not believe in any of these then toss it away like trash. But if you do I hope this helps you get into the dream world. Breathing and image are the most important for lucid dreams.

Satanic Prophecies

These Prophecies were written during My fathers Last Days the one you are about to read was written the day MY father I felt I needed to put down on paper what I dreamed about the night before to take my mind off My fathers Death. These prophecies came to me in the vision of dreams

I dedicate this work to my father Robert Fraize s.r Thank you Dad for everything!

The Burning times shall come again. Satanic prophecy

Lets us all Rembering the burning times, In Europe Millions of pagans and accused witches were hung, burnt tortured, and imprisoned left to rot. Those Days may come back to us, If we as a Human Race Do not Say no to the one world Christian Government. The day same sex marriage was made legal in Boston m.a the Christians started a crusade against Homosexuality. The Pope has made his voice heard across the lands. He said and I quote him. "Those who practice homosexuality and those who know of members of the church who practice homosexuality shall be excommunicated from the church" George bush used religious Moral values as his key to win the 2004 election. The pope said who ever voted for Kerry would be refused communion. If you think this crusade is just against Homosexuality you are dead wrong! The crusade against homosexuality is a religious one as soon as people give into this current crusade it will open the door to more religious government fascism.

As it stands now George Bush and his Christian friends all across the world have total control.

The ARMY OF GOD is slaughtering the Evil doers. George bush. Is looked at as a savior to the Christian people. To the poor he is nothing more then an over rated puppet master.

These Pop pets of the religious right are following the true Evil in this world, the paper Idol Christ and his false Prophets!

Our savior has not yet come to us; many of us shall burn before he does come.

The Burning times will come again and so will our Savior Satan. When he comes he will torment the entire corrupt 1000 fold for what they have done to his children .Satan Save Us

Devine Vision

Words Of wisdom Whisper through my window. As the moon illuminates my black painted room. A Creature tall and thin stands so silently above me. Looking into my Eyes I look up into the Creatures eyes. As I Feel my soul descends Into the Black Abyss. All Around me I See Candles Burning so Bright One Candle in particular catches my attention. The Tallest candle with the blue flame illuminating the center of the caverns Room. I gazed into the Blue flame. Slowly I feel my self being pulled into it. A vision Of A man Named Christ being put onto a paper. Around The Room I see Greedy white men laughing in a drunken Moment of Blasphemy and insanity. The Men have made a plan to Cause Terror amongst mankind And to Reigns in Power. With the use of this paper Idol Jesus Christ. A black book then is presented in front of me with the symbol of what is now called the Baphomet. Inside This sacred book is written the Truth Of our eternal Lord and Savior Satan. Our Lord has been made into The Beast the false god the Enemy of the paper idol Christ. Inside the black Book It IS written that the false Idol will have a book written about our lord Satan being the damnation of his beloved man. This very book that Promotes Lies, self slavery, hate against out fellow man. And sexist views against woman, this book will be called the holy bible. The True book of lies Satan says to Burnt and Urinated upon for its Blasphemes manmade scriptures. The Black Book Also speaks of Devine knowledge conjurations, Rituals, Rites, Spells, to bring back our Savior through World wide Remembrance. It is also written that the true followers of the lord to erect private shrines and altars and that we must take his name as our very own! Then and only then will you be Free from the paper idol. And be freed from the lies, self bondage, ignorance, self hate, and unholy spiritual blindness. Speak up to the Devine master to free you from the chains of self deceit. To give to you your life so that you can enjoy life as life is The Great Adventure Death the Great Sleep. Here and now is our time of torment here and now is our time of joy. The eternal Enlightenment of Lucifer Burns deep the hearts of the Satanists. No more shall we Follow the false paper idol. For we must Burn the book of lies and embrace self truth! The time of Satan has come. Satan is here to claim his ground. Stand up proud and accept his name as apart of yourself. Ave Satan! Ave Satan. Ave satanas. Hail Satan!

The Black Book of the Abyss!

I have found my balance and my system of the cloven path that fits My Personal Needs. Yes I do change something's but also some stay the same. The power and attributes of each deity hold the same as they did in the Old days. For me Lilith is my mother. Satan My father. Our co creators of the Earth. Lucifer is the Bringer of light creator of the Sun . Belial is the being who keeps order on the Dirt. Astroth Is creator of the air. Leviathan creator protector of the Sea and all those who dwell in It.

What you must do if you wish to be successful in any Ritual are a few key points! As written in the satanic bible.

Image.

Sight.

Emotion.

Time .

Desire.

I will now add a few

Scents.

Sound.

Touch.

Be creative with those In your rituals I

The Altar!

The altar is one of the most important tools you must need for any Satanic Ritual! A lot of Satanists like to place the altar on the west wall. While some have other points they desire to place it. Some like to put it where it looks the best. Personally I have placed mine in the south and in the west.

Both having the same effect's my altar is made of a wooden square table. That I painted black with glossy paint. Center in back I have A nice wooden antique mirror it has sort of its own platform. Right in front of the mirror I Place the Wooden skull. If a human skull is not available a wooden one or realistic one will do. This represents our pain and Joy of our vital existence. Down in the center of the table I have cut out a circle of cloth and painted a pentagram on it. I place my offering bowl on that cloth. You can make your own bowl out of clay you can buy at an arts and craft store. This bowl is painted black. All around the bowl I Place small black candles. On the left side of my bowl is a piece of old grave stone I found in a dirt pile at some grave yard. On that stone I place 3 more black candles. On the front center of the altar is my Dagger I keep shined. Personal items to my altar to fit my Personalizing Your altar / Rituals

I have placed many objects that fit my persona. You may want to do the same not one Satanist is the same and is not meant to be we are individuals! Add your own statues skulls gargoyles demons and other kin to your Altar. Even a small water fountain has been used on mine.

Ritual clothing

Clothing for Satanic rituals is very important The Clothing goes along with One of the keys of lesser magic "SIGHT" I find it is best to dress in a long black hooded Robe with nothing on underneath The Robe No shows or boots bare feet are a must! The priests clothing is The Long black robe over the black robe is a Black velvet Cloak the Priest also may wear A mask of A goat or a demon. In A magic working I get sexually excited my flesh heats up and I need to release The Seed of evil. The jewelry worn in my rituals are the Baphomet a symbol that the Knight Templar used to worship Satan. Leviathan is written in Hebrew on the outside circle; Anton Levay made this sigil the official symbol of Satan. "Although the church of Satan claims full ownership of the Baphomet. The baphomet is recognized as a religious symbol any organization can use it and or sell it". I also recognize the Upside down pentacle. If those at the ritual do not own a Baphomet or an Upside down pentagram I will bless them with the mark on their forehead using the claw of an alligator And Blood! If you do not own a robe being naked is accepted. You can do any ritual naked our skin is our uniform.

The calling of the four Corners.

This is how I do this; you can make your own way or just follow another way!

The Ritual chamber is now in total darkness all candles are lit.

The incense are burning and the music is being played "Le' rue delashay is Another great artist for satanic ritual is Glenn dazing who wrote called Black aria"

Now that the setting is right you may now stand in front of the Altar.

First with a Candle recite With the Power of fire I call upon Thy God Satan. Does this moving counter clockwise?

Now with a small glass of salt water "if salt water is not available use spring water" Point towards the altar Recite with the power of water I call upon my mother of the abyss Leviathan. Sprinkle the water as you go around slowly counter clockwise.

Now you take some dirt that you have found in a grave point towards the altar with the Power of earth I call upon Belial for Protection against all earthly enemies slowly going counter clockwise scattering dirt all around the room.

Now you take the sage smudge stick of sage stand in front of the Altar recite With the Power Of air I call upon Lucifer to cleans this space of all negative energy do this slowly counter clockwise.
