This book is dedicated to my kids,
Gabriella, Thomas, and Aubrielle.

When I grow up, I want to be just like my daddy!
He is a Freemason!

MASONIC LODGE

Freemasonry is a special fraternity that teaches men how to become great husbands, dads, and neighbors.

A fraternity is like a club. My daddy goes to meetings at a Masonic lodge. The lodge is like the Freemason's clubhouse.

My daddy told me stories about all the famous Freemasons who made history.

George Washington, Benjamin Franklin, and many of America's Founding Fathers were Freemason.

The Freemasons have been around for thousands of years. My daddy said that the first Freemasons were stonemasons. They built great temples.

Freemasons don't build temples today, but they still use the old stonemason working tools to teach each other important life lessons.

My daddy calls his Freemason friends his brothers. His brothers are always willing to help.

Daddy told me that if mommy or I ever needed help, we could call a Freemason.

The Freemasons give students at my school supplies.
Masons also provide older students with money for college.

My daddy is proud to be a Mason. He wears a special ring so other people know he is a Freemason. He told me one day, if I became a Freemason, he would give me his ring.

My daddy's ring has a Square and Compasses symbol on it. He says it reminds him to live an honest life and be good to others. The letter G in the middle of the symbol helps daddy remember that he should always put God first.

I asked my daddy, "how do I become a Freemason?"

He told me, "when you are old enough, ask me again.

Then you can knock on the lodge room door, and the door to Freemasonry will be opened to you"

My daddy is my hero. One day I will be a Freemason, and we will be brothers.

Freemasons book the father is reading to his son.

FAMOUS FREEMASONS

Chris Galloway

GEORGE WASHINGTON

George Washington is the most famous Freemason. He was a general during the American Revolutionary War and the first President of the United States.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN

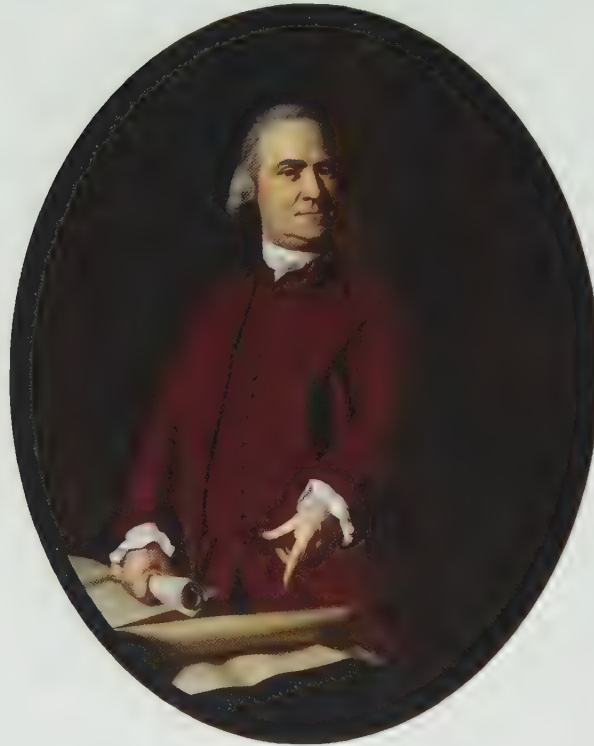

Benjamin Franklin was a Freemason for over 60 years and served as a Grand Master. He is one of the most famous Founding Fathers and signers of the Declaration of Independence. Brother Franklin was an inventor, publisher, and politician.

PAUL REVERE

Paul Revere said that serving as Grand Master of Massachusetts was the “greatest happiness” of his life. Brother Revere was a famous silversmith, but he is known for his midnight ride through Lexington before the American Revolution when he warned, “The British are coming!”

SAMUEL ADAMS

Samuel Adams was a patriot during the American Revolutionary War and a Freemason. He is famous for organizing the Boston Tea Party. Brother Adams was a politician, philosopher, and one of the Founding Fathers of America.

JAMES MONROE

James Monroe was an American Revolution Officer, Lawyer, and politician. He served the White House in different roles before he was elected the 5th President of the United States. Brother Monroe was a member of several Masonic lodges and was known to visit lodges while he was President.

ANDREW JACKSON

Andrew Jackson was an American General and politician. He was elected to Congress as a U.S. Representative and Senator and the 7th President of the United States. Brother Jackson was an active Freemason who served as the Grand Master of Tennessee.

DAVY CROCKETT

Davy Crockett was an American hero. He was one of the defenders of the Alamo. Brother Crockett was a pioneer, trapper, politician, and Freemason whose courage and fortitude created an American legend for the ages.

STEPHEN F. AUSTIN

Stephen F. Austin was known as the Father of Texas. He was Texas's first Secretary of State after it gained independence from Mexico. Brother Austin was elected one of the first Worshipful Masters in Texas.

SAM HOUSTON

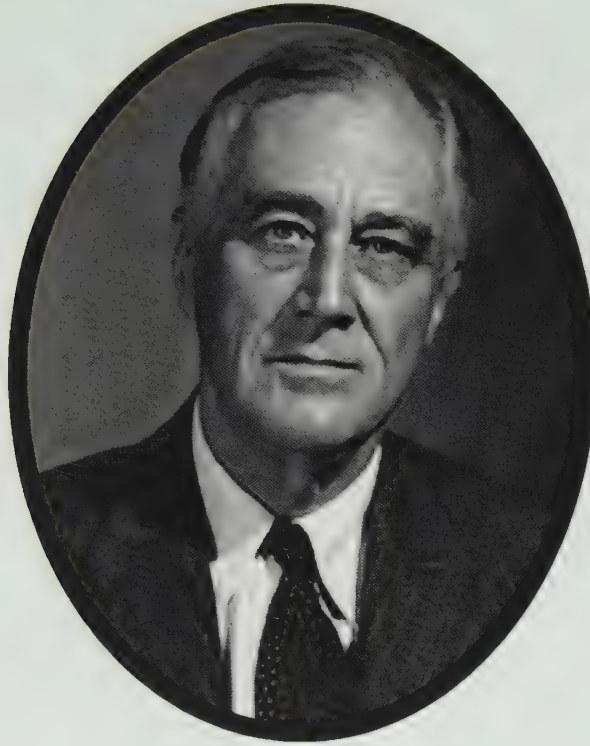

Sam Houston was a hero of the Texas Revolution and the first President of Texas. He famously told his army before the Battle of San Jacinto, "Remember the Alamo." Brother Houston accepted Santa Anna's surrender.

THEODORE "TEDDY" ROOSEVELT

Theodore Roosevelt was an American soldier and politician. He was the leader of the Rough Riders during the Spanish- American War and later was elected as the 26th President of the United States. The Teddy Bear is named after him. Brother Roosevelt became a Freemason during his first year as President.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT

Franklin Roosevelt was an American politician who was the only person to be elected President of the United States four times. He led America through the Great Depression and most of World War II. Brother Roosevelt was an active Freemason belonging to several lodges and appendant bodies.

HARRY S. TRUMAN

Harry Truman was Franklin Roosevelt's Vice President and became the 33rd President of the United States. As President, he ended World War II by accepting Japan's surrender. Brother Truman is the second President to serve as a Grand Master in Freemasonry. He was also honored as a 33rd-degree Scottish Rite Mason.

BUZZ ALDRIN

Buzz Aldrin was a Korean War Veteran and United States Astronaut. He was the first Mason to walk on the Moon. The Grand Master of Texas approved Brother Aldrin's request to open a Representation of the Grand Lodge of Texas on the Moon and establish Masonic Territorial Jurisdiction there. He is active as a Freemason.
