Welcome to the Shamanic Soul Recovery Self-instruction DVD/CD Workshop. Seth and Blue Cloud welcome you to enjoy this unique and personal inner-dimensional experience.

There is one DVD and one CD included in this Shamanic self-instruction course of study. This is a self-help seminar you can practice everyday until you become proficient in moving through the various realities. The DVD is watched first and then the CD is listened to and experienced.

The DVD part of the program covers the following topics and experiences for the student/practitioner.

- Journey to meet your Shamanic Power Animal, your guide and ally for exploring the Inner Worlds.
- Journey to the Inner World for your sacred tools, and receive inner gifts you have earned in past lives.
- Personally meet your Inner Spiritual Teacher.
- Learn and practice the Art of Discernment in all realities.
- Journey through time and to other planets.
- Experience the Release of Fear through Soul Recovery of your fractured self-love.

The DVD is comprised of three sections. The first section is an introduction, with Blue Cloud, to the various elements of the Journey process contained in this DVD/CD Shamanic Soul Recovery Level-1 course.

The next section is an informative 60 minute lecture with Seth on "Creation, Reality & the Soul". This lecture helps to change our perspective of Reality, the understanding of which will allow us to expand our wisdom through acceptance of the personal experiences that will come during your "Journey for your Self".

The final section is a step-by-step walk through the Journey to meet your Shamanic Power Animal (animal helper spirit). It also includes the personal method to create a Heavenly Catalyst for your psychic protection and as an aid for discernment in both the inner and outer reality.

The "Heavenly Catalyst" is a very important tool and you will use it throughout your journey practice. So do not overlook it, the "Heavenly Catalyst" is a must create/use Shamanic Tool.

The CD is comprised of 2 tracks. The first track is a guided journey into forgiveness, release, self-love, love for all beings, and balancing of the chakras. This important process is necessary in order to unify all the chakras with the radiant emanation of 'Loving-Kindness' for your self and all beings.

These Loving-Kindness exercises on the first (Music/Guidance) track prepare you for the second (Drum/Guidance) track which then guides you on your Journey to the 'Lower World' where spiritually evolved Tree and Animal spirits live and support the 3-D Reality.

So, get comfortable, turn off cell phones, lie down or sit, put in earphones, get an eye cover and then just listen and respond to guidance on the tracks. Repeat as until desired results are achieved.

Shaman

The word Shaman originally referred to the traditional healers of the Turkic-Mongol areas in Northern Eastern Asia. The word literally translates as "he (or she) who knows."

Today, a shaman is a person who can enter an altered state at will, and contact non-ordinary reality to acquire knowledge or power to help or heal others or one's self. There are many levels of power in the Shamanic worlds of reality. The level of love developed by the shaman dictates the spiritual intent of a good Shaman. There are Shamans working for the good of others and there are some casting spells and working against the highest good of others. A true shaman will always work for the highest good of others, and ultimately, this is for his/her own highest good.

Shamanism

Shamanism refers to a range of traditional beliefs and practices. Shamans claim the ability to diagnose and affect healing in humans and animals. This is accomplished by traversing the Axis Mundi or gateway, and forming a special relationship with Shamanic Power Animals using special discernment. Shamanism encompasses a wide range of practices including soul recovery, herbal healing, ceremony, divination, and serving the spiritual needs of a community. Shamanic traditions have existed throughout the world since prehistoric times. The answers lie within.

Karma

It is important to remember the Karmic Implication when dealing with any action, thought and deed in this life. The implication is also present in Shamanic Journeying: For every thought, word or action, there is an equal and like reaction. We are always trapped by the results of our past actions. If you could (... and you can...) return to the past and forgive and release as many traumatic situations as possible, you could change the now and the future. This is possible by transforming the dynamic energy of your original thoughts, words and deeds while observing and releasing the past situation. Our troubles are always the result of our own past behavior. You are getting exactly what you deserve. Now is the time to become more deserving!

Benefit

This Shamanic Soul Recovery Training program becomes more and more valuable over time as you see the spiritual benefit of Forgiveness, Release and the continual emanation of your Loving-Kindness for the creation. What we express with thought, words and deeds to all beings in the creation is what we receive in return.

If you have come to this program there is a reason. We pray that it serves you in the highest good and results in you becoming a source of Loving-Kindness to all those you know and touch. Further instruction can only be provided in an in-person class. See our website for places, dates and times at:
