THE AUTHOR

Jean-Paul Guignette encountered the Theosophical Movement in 1978 in Paris, and became deeply interested in its history, while recognising the vital importance of its philosophy. He has especially studied the development of Theosophy in France, on which works are forthcoming. His personal sympathies are with the Blavatsky tradition.

Madame Blavatsky (1831-1891) was the author of "The Secret Doctrine" an influential synthesis of oriental and western teaching, whose centenary will be observed worldwide in 1988. She aroused sharply contrasting reactions in her native Russia, and throughout the world, which she travelled extensively. Monsieur Guignette's booklet brings together the extensive monograph literature, and is a valuable aid to all who wish to discover the truth about her.

PREFACE

This bibliography consists of biographical studies on Helena Petrovna Blavatsky, the main founder of the XIXth Century Theosophical Movement. This is the second edition and it includes corrections, changes and a few additions.

As the contents of the books herein quoted are often very diverse in nature, they have been dealt with under several chapters according to their characteristics.

Apart from some rare exceptions, only original editions of these works have been mentioned. The subsequent reprints (except if they involve important changes, or corrections) and the various translations into foreign languages have been omitted.

The numerous articles on H.P. Blavatsky published in magazines, as well as the vast number of books mentioning her incidentally, have been purposely left out.

No doubt, as it stands, the present bibliography does not cover the whole ground and may be improved upon in the future - thus, all suggestions are welcome.

THEOSOPHICAL HISTORY

Theosophical History is an independent quarterly journal launched in January 1985 which reports on the expanding historical study of the Theosophical Movement - the persons and impulses associated with H. P. Blavatsky who founded the Theosophical Society in 1875. It prints original papers and hitherto unpublished archives; reviews; and news of research throughout the world. It also reprints important inaccessible material. Without dwelling on personalities for their own sake, it seeks to aid the historical assessment of such pioneers as Alice Bailey, Annie Besant, W. Q. Judge, J. Krishnamurti, C. W. Leadbeater, G. R. S. Mead and Rudolf Steiner. By arrangement with the Society for Psychical Research, most issues carry an unpublished item from its files on theosophical phenomena. The journal is sympathetically neutral to the different expressions of Theosophy, and seeks to promote the common historical enterprise by Theosophists and non-Theosophists alike.

THEOSOPHICAL HISTORY CENTRE

Founded in 1985, the Centre seeks to promote interest in the history of the Theosophical Society and related fields. Its second international conference is scheduled for July 1987 in London. Any person or group may become an associate member of the Centre, and this conveys the right to receive its publications free on issue. The associate subscription will be £6 ($12 U.S.) in 1987. (Members of the Theosophical Society in England may alternatively become full members of the Centre, and pay their membership dues through the T. H. C.)

Please note that except for full T. H. C. members, the independent journal "Theosophical History" described on the inside cover requires a separate subscription though arrangements can be made for renewing them both together. For more information contact:
