

The New World Order

The New World Order and the United States of America

rather complete historical by HM Summers

1776 1 May --- The Illuminati is founded in Ingolstadt, Bavaria (in Germany) by Adam Weishaupt, a prominent Freemason. The secret Luciferic order was an extension of high, or illuminized, Freemasonry, existing as a special order within an order. Its operations were closely connected with the powerful Grand Orient Masonic Lodge of France. The order's name, meaning "the enlightened ones," signified that its members had been initiated into the secret teaching of Lucifer, the supposed light-bearer or source of enlightenment, according to the doctrines of illuminized Freemasonry. Weishaupt remarked: "It is therefore our duty to surround them [governments] with its [the Illuminati's] members, so that the profane may have no access to them. Thus we are able most powerfully to promote its interests. If any person is more disposed to listen to Princes than to the Order, he is not fit for it , and must rise no higher. We must do our utmost to procure the advancement of Illuminati to all important civil offices. By this plan we shall direct all mankind. In this manner, and by the simplest means, we shall set all in motion and in flames. The occupations must be so allotted and contrived, that we may, in secret, influence all political transactions."1

From the onset, the Illuminati was dedicated to a six-fold purpose:

- (1) the abolition of all governments and the establishment of a world Super Government;
- (2) the abolition of inheritance;
- (3) the abolition of private property;
- (4) the abolition of patriotism;
- (5) the abolition of the family; and,

(6) the abolition of religion.

He smugly reflects on his "conning" the gullible Christians of his day, saying: "The most wonderful thing of all is that the distinguished Lutheran and Calvinist theologians who belong to our order really believe that they see in it (Illuminati) the true and genuine sense of Christian religion. Oh mortal man, is there anything you cannot be made to believe?"²

1782 16 July Masonic Congress of Wilhelmsbad included representative of all the Secret Societies - Martinists as well as Freemasons and Illuminati. It enabled the Illuminist control over the lodges of Europe. One honest Freemason, the Comte de Virieu, was alarmed at what he heard and told close friends: "The conspiracy which is being woven is so well thought out that it will be, so to speak, impossible for the Monarchy and the Church to escape from it."³

It was decided at the Congress that the headquarters of illuminized Freemasonry should be moved from Bavaria to Frankfurt, the stronghold of the Rothschilds and the international financiers. ⁴

The ensuing cooperation between the Rothschilds and the Illuminati would prove to be mutually beneficial, multiplying the influence of both throughout Europe.⁵ Although the Illuminati officially ceased to exist after its exposure in the 1780's, the continuation of its efforts would be ensured through the Grand Orient Lodge of France, thus continuing its plans to build a New World Order.

The New World Order, it should be explained, is an expression that has been used by illuminized Freemasonry since the days of Weishaupt to signify the coming world government over which the Antichrist would come to rule once it had been built. One of illuminized Freemasonry's secret symbols portraying this message was placed on the back of our dollar bill during the administration of Franklin D. Roosevelt. Roosevelt was himself a thirty-third degree Mason and a close associate of the CFR. This Masonic symbol consists of a pyramid with the all-seeing eye of Osiris or Baal above it. Underneath the pyramid is written "Novus Ordo Seclorum," which means The New Order of the Ages (or The New World Order) in Latin.⁶ This symbol was designed by Masonic interests and became the official reverse side of the Great Seal of the United States in 1782. What was on the reverse side of the seal, although not a secret, remained largely unknown to the American people for more than 150 years, until it was placed on our one dollar Federal Reserve Note. At the time the seal was designed, the New World Order was still in the early stages of being built and was not yet complete. This is symbolized by the capstone being separated from the rest of the pyramid. However, once the New World Order has been built and the one-world government is in place, the capstone will be joined to the rest of the pyramid, symbolizing the completion of the task. The hierarchy of Freemasonry and the occult societies, resembling a multi-level pyramid structure, will now be complete, with the Antichrist taking his seat of power atop the pyramid.⁷

1790's --- George Washington: "I have heard much of the nefarious and dangerous plan and doctrines of the Illuminati. It was not my intention to doubt that the doctrine of the Illuminati and the principles of Jacobinism had not spread in the United States.⁸

1791 --- The U.S. had barely declared its independence when these same European forces began efforts to bring America's young banking system under their control. Alexander Hamilton, believed by some to have been an Illuminist agent, was at the forefront of this drive. He used his appointment as Secretary of The Treasury to bring about the creation of the nations first, "Bank of The United States".

President Thomas Jefferson, keenly aware of the plot, argued: "If the American people ever allow private banks to control the issue of their currency, first by inflation and then by deflation, the banks and the corporations that will grow up around them will deprive the people of all property until their children wake up homeless on the continent their fathers conquered."⁹

1798 --- George Washington Farewell Address: "Against the insidious wiles of foreign influence (I conjure you to believe me fellow citizens), the jealousy of a free people ought to be constantly awake; since history and experience prove that foreign influence is one of the most baneful foes of republican government. But that jealousy, to be useful, must be impartial, else it becomes the instrument of the very influence to be avoided, instead of a defense against it. Excessive partiality for one foreign nation and excessive dislike for another, cause those who they actuate to see danger only on one side, and serve to veil and even second the arts of influence on the other. Real patriots, who may resist the intrigues of the favorite, are liable to become suspected and odious; while its tools and dupes usurp the applause and confidence of the people, to surrender their interests. The great rule of conduct for us, in regard to foreign nations, is, in extending our commercial relations, to have with them as little political connection as possible. So far as we have already formed engagement, let them be fulfilled with perfect good faith. Here let us stop."¹⁰

1798 --- John Robison, 18th century historian and Mason writes book containing original writings of the Illuminati which included statements such as: "the express aim of the Order was to abolish Christianity, and overturn all civil government." The plan for a New World Order can succeed "in no other way but by secret associations, which will by degrees, and in silence, possess themselves of the government of the States, and make use of those means for this purpose...."¹¹

1801 --- The first Supreme Council of Scottish Rite Freemasonry was established in Charleston, South Carolina. All other regular Supreme councils throughout the world are descended from it.¹² Freemasonry would participate in the rise and spread of Christian Science, Unitarianism, Jehovah's Witnesses and Mormons.¹³

1811 --- It became clear to Thomas Jefferson, John Adams, and other patriots that, "The Bank of The United States", was operated for the benefit of foreign banking interests. So, when the Bank's 20 year Charter came up for renewal in 1811, it was refused by Congress. The War of 1812 followed! It was expected that America would be impoverished by the war and forced to come to the Rothschild-controlled Bank of England for funds. The condition upon which money would be supplied was renewal of the Charter of the Bank of the U.S. A subservient Congress granted a renewal of the Charter in 1816.¹⁴ The second "Bank of the United States" ...was largely controlled by foreigners through "front men"; John Jacob Aster, Stephen Girard, and David Parish (who was the New York agent for the Vienna branch of the Rothschild banking dynasty during the War of 1812).¹⁵

Thomas Jefferson said, "Single acts of tyranny may be ascribed to the accidental opinion of a day; but a series of oppressions, begun at a distinguished period, and pursued unalterably through every change of ministers (Administrations), too plainly proves a deliberate, systematic plan of reducing us to slavery." ¹⁶ Another of our Founders said - "When the government fears the people there is liberty; when the people fear the government there is tyranny."¹⁷

1833 --- The New York legislature roundly condemned: "the dangerous heresy is that the Constitution may be interpreted, not by the well understood intentions of those who framed and those who adopted it, but by what can be made out of its words by ingenious interpretation."¹⁸

1833 --- Brotherhood of Death / Order of Skull and Bones (linked to the Illuminati) established at Yale University.

Will be incorporated as The Russell Trust in 1856. Founded by two men: General William Huntington Russell - the founder of the Collegiate and Commercial Institute in New Haven, Connecticut and Alphonso Taft, the father of President William Howard Taft. Alphonso was U.S. Secretary of War in 1876; U.S. Attorney General in 1886-87; U.S. Minister to Austria in 1882-84; and finally, the U.S. Ambassador to Russia in 1884-85. ¹⁹

1835 --- Shortly before his death, John Marshall, the great Chief justice of the United States Supreme Court, wrote: "The institution of Masonry ought to be abandoned, as one capable of producing much evil, and incapable of producing any good which might not be affected by open means."²⁰ Marshall was himself a famous Mason and had assisted in the establishment of two Lodges in Virginia.

1836 --- President Andrew Jackson once said of the International Banking Syndicate: "You are a den of vipers. I intend to rout you out and by the Eternal God, I will rout you out. If the people only understood the rank injustice of our money and banking system, there would be a revolution before morning." In 1936 President Andrew Jackson vetoed the bill which would have renewed the second "Bank of The United States: Charter which expired that year. A series of bank failures followed.²¹

Mid 1800's --- Illuminized Freemasonry would be partly responsible for inciting the U.S. Civil War. Charleston, South Carolina, where the Successionist Movement began, also happened to be the American Headquarters of Scottish Rite Freemasonry at the time. It was later moved to Washington, D.C.

1844 --- Benjamin Disraeli, Prime Minister of England, was attributed with this statement in 1844: "The world is governed by very different personages from what is imagined by those who are not behind the scenes."²²

1847 --- Karl Heinrich Marx joins one of the branch organizations of the Illuminati called the League of the Just.²³ Mazzini [the European leader of illuminized Freemasonry] and Marx were closely associated.²⁴ They would use Marx to penetrate and subvert the growing Socialist Labour movement.²⁵ During the early days of the Russian Revolution, the revolutionaries called themselves Spartacists (after Adam Weishaupt's Illuminati pseudonym) before becoming known as Bolsheviks and later as Communists.²⁶

1848 --- Karl Marx and Frederick Engels write "The Manifesto of the Communist Party" under orders from the Central Committee of the League (an Illumini front). Twenty years later the name of Karl Marx was added as author and the name was changed to the Communist Manifesto. In his early youth Marx was a believer in God. But while at the university he changed his views. He once wrote that he wished to avenge himself "against the One who rules above." His change came after he joined the highly secret Satanist Church as a disciple of Joana Southcott, a Satanic priestess who considered herself in contact with the demon "Shiloh".²⁷

The Ten Planks were:

- (1) Abolition of [private] property...
- (2) A heavy progressive or graduated income tax.
- (3) Abolition of all right of inheritance.
- (4) Confiscation of the property of all emigrants and rebels.
- (5) Centralization of credit in the hands of the State by means of a nation bank with State capital and an exclusive monopoly.
- (6) Centralization of the means of communication and transport in the hands of the state.
- (7) (in essence - the government would own all of the capital goods and would determine what was to be grown on the land)

(8) Equal liability of all to labor. (i.e. industrial and agricultural workers would be moved to wherever the state felt they were needed)

(9) Forced distribution of the population

(10) Free education in public schools (so that the state controls what is learned).

1857 --- According to John Reeves, On page 228 in an authorized biography entitled: "The Rothschilds - The Financial Rulers of Nations," a pivotal meeting took place in London, in 1857. It was at this meeting that the International Banking Syndicate decided that (in America) the North was to be pitted against the South under the old principle of "divide and conquer". The North to become a British Colony annexed to Canada, while the South would go to Napoleon III of France! This amazing "agreement" was corroborated by MacKenzie in his historical research entitled: "The Nineteenth Century".28

1862 --- Judah P. Benjamin becomes the Secretary of State for the confederacy under Jeff Davis. Benjamin was the so-called "brains of the revolt." He had family connections to the Rothschilds. These family connections included August Belmont, the N.Y. agent of the Rothschilds (to sell Union bonds in Europe). Thus, the conspiracy to split the nation was financed on both sides by the International Banking Syndicate - with the Rothschild dynasty sitting at the center of decision-making.29

1862 --- President Lincoln obtained from Congress on February 25, 1862; July, 1862; and March, 1863 --- the right to borrow from the people by selling to them the "bonds" of the states for a total of $450 million (known as "greenbacks"). The local banks were glad to help such a system. The government and the nation once again narrowly escaped the plots of the foreign financiers.30 Bismark wrote (as revealed in 1876 to a German Conrad Siem, who published it in "La Vieille France, No. 216, March 1921) that: "They (i.e. the International Banking SYNDICATE) understood at once (that because of Lincoln's issue of Greenbacks), the United States would escape their grip. The death of Lincoln was resolved upon."

1863 --- Abraham Lincoln strongly resisted efforts by Illuminist forces to establish a privately controlled central bank. Shortly before his assassination, President Lincoln warned: "As a result of the war, corporations have been enthroned and an era of corruption in high places will follow, and the money power of the country will endeavor to prolong its reign by working on the prejudices of the people until wealth is aggregated in the hands of a few and the Republic is destroyed. I feel at this moment more anxiety for the safety of my country than ever before, even in the midst of war."31 Lincoln was subsequently murdered by John Wilkes Booth on April 4, 1865. In Booth's trunk were found coded messages, the key to which was found in Judah F. Benjamin's possessions. Benjamin later escaped to England where he died.32

1869 --- Rev. Charles G. Finney, the great nineteenth century evangelist and longtime president of Oberlin College writes a book exposing Freemasonry:33 (Pg 1) - "I know something about it, for I have been a Freemason myself." (Pg 8) - "I came to the deliberate conclusion, and could not avoid doing so, that my oaths had been procured by fraud and misrepresentations, and that the institution was in no respect what I had been previously informed it was. And, as I have had the means of examining it more thoroughly, it has become more and more irresistibly plain to my convictions that the institution is highly dangerous to the State, and in every way injurious to the Church of Christ." Prominent ministers who joined Finney in exposing the Masonic institution included Rev. Torrey and Rev. Dwight L. Moody.

1869 --- The Northern Securities Corporation consolidate the Rothschild empire in America. J.P. Morgan became their agent in America. His father, Julius S. Morgan, was agent for Rothschild interests during the Civil War. At this point, the Rothschilds would be able to hid behind the name of J. P. Morgan.³⁴

1871 --- Mason Albert Pike writes his 861 page book - "Morals and Dogma of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry" - considered the Scottish Rite Bible.³⁵ Included are statements such as: ..."But, by whatever name it was known in this or the other country, Masonry existed as it now exists, the same in spirit and at heartbefore even the first colonies emigrated into Southern India, Persia, and Egypt, from the cradle of the human race [ancient Babylon]." (Pg 213) - "Every Masonic Lodge is a temple of religion; and its teachings are instruction in religion." (Pg 744) - "All truly dogmatic religions have issued from the Kabalah and return to it: everything scientific and grand in the religious dreams of all the illuminati, Jacob Boehme, Swedenborg, Saint-Martin, and others, is borrowed from the Kabalah; all the Masonic Associations owe to it their Secrets and their Symbols." (Pg 321) - "Lucifer, the Light-bearer!....Lucifer, the Son of the Morning ! Is it he who bears the Light ?....Doubt it not!"

1871 15 August --- In a letter to the Italian revolutionary leader Giuseppe Mazzini, Albert Pike, the leader of the Illuminati's activities in the United States and the head of Scottish Rite Freemasonry at the time, described a distant final war, which he felt would be necessary to usher in the New World Order.³⁶ ...According to Pike, this conflict between two future superpowers would be sparked by first igniting a crisis between Islam and Judaism. He went on to write: "We shall unleash the nihilists and the atheists and we shall provoke a great social cataclysm which, in all its horror, will show clearly to all nations the effect of absolute atheism, the origin of savagery and of most bloody turmoil. Then, everywhere, the people, forced to defend themselves against the world minority of revolutionaries, will exterminate those destroyers of civilization; and the multitudes, disillusioned with Christianity, whose deistic spirits will be from that moment on without direction and leadership, anxious for an ideal but without knowledge where to send its adoration, will receive the true light through the universal manifestation of the pure doctrine of Lucifer, brought finally out into public view; a manifestation which will result from a general reactionary movement which will follow the destruction of Christianity and atheism, both conquered and exterminated at the same time."³⁷ A prominent Arab-Christian leader recently informed me that according to his contacts in Lebanon, King Assad of Syria and King Hussein of Jordan are both Freemasons. ...For at least several centuries, Jordan has been a bastion for the secret societies in the Middle East and has much more influence in the region's behind the scenes politics than most people realize.38

1880 December --- Publication of "The Vision of George Washington at Valley Forge." 39 [The text of the Vision HAD been included at the end of this "TIMELINE" --- but was deleted during editing --- The full text is included in our "NWO-GLIMPSES" section]...

1881 --- Vladimir Ilyich Lenin's older brother is executed for taking part in the assassination of Czar Alexander II.40

1880's --- The Order of Skull and Bones creates both the American Historical Association and the American Economic Association.

1889 14 July --- Albert Pike issues his instructions to the twenty-three Supreme Councils of the World: "That which we must say to the crowd is - We worship a God, but it is the God that one adores without superstition. To you, Sovereign Grand Inspectors General, we say this, that you may repeat it to the Brethren of the 32nd, 31st and 30th degrees - The Masonic religion should be, by all of us initiates of the high degrees, maintained in the purity of the Luciferic doctrine."41

1890 --- Standard Oil of Ohio, owned by John D. Rockefeller, was refining 90 percent of all crude oil in the United States and had begun its international expansion.

1894 --- John Dewey known as the "father of progressive education" starts teaching at the University of Chicago. He is to teach four of the five Rockefeller brothers. He wrote: "There is no God and no soul. Hence, there are no needs for the props of traditional religion. With dogma and creed excluded, then immutable (unchangeable) truth is also dead and buried. There is no room for fixed, natural law or permanent moral absolutes."42

1902 --- John D. Rockefeller forms General Education Board (GEB).

1904 --- GEB First Chairman Frederick T. Gates stated in the board's "Occasional Letter, No. 1." "In our dreams we have limitless resources and the people yield themselves with perfect docility to our moulding hands. The present educational conventions fade from our minds, and unhampered by tradition, we work our own good will upon a grateful and responsive rural folk."43

1905 Spring --- The British Fabian Society met the Bolsheviks in London, England. It was at this meeting that loans were arranged between the two groups so that the Bolsheviks could start their revolution. Joseph Fels, a member of the Fabian Society and a wealthy American soap manufacturer, loaned the Bolsheviks large sums of money, as did other members of the Fabians. Arrangements also were made to finance the Japanese government in a war with the Russian government in an attempt to weaken the monarchy so that it would make the task of the Bolsheviks much easier. From New York, Jacob Schiff, J. P. Morgan, the First National Bank, and the National City Bank loaned Japan approximately $ 30,000,000 to attack the Russian government from the east.⁴⁴

1908 --- Congress passed the Aldrich-Vreeland Act calling for the establishment of National Monetary Commission. The man placed as Chairman of the commission was Sen. Nelson Aldrich (after an artificially induced money panic). His daughter, Abby, was married to John D. Rockefeller, Jr.⁴⁵

1911 --- Annie Besant, President of the Theosophical Society is Vice President and great Teacher of the Supreme Council of the International Order of Co-Masonry states: "...and among us, in our city, the brother masons are the ones that contribute mostly to spread the Theosophical Society."⁴⁶ In the future, Cardinal Rodriguez will state as a result of his research: "It is understood: The theosophical doctrines on the nature of God and the soul and the relationship between God and the soul, are the same doctrines as taught in Masonry. It is enough to read the books dealing with the history of Theosophy to see that each theosophical center is founded, almost without a doubt by members of the Lodge."⁴⁷

1911 --- Supreme Court ruled that Standard Oil of New Jersey was in violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust Law. It is dissolved among 33 companies (John D. Rockefeller had 25 percent of the stock in each of the firms) and there wasn't a shred of competition among any of them.⁴⁸ Offshoots included Exxon, Mobil, Standard Oil of California, Standard Oil of Indiana, Sohio, Marathon, Phillips 66, and Chevron.

1911? --- Woodrow Wilson ran for President on a monetary reform platform to free them from Wall Street influence. Unfortunately, what the people did not know was that Wilson's campaign for the Presidency had been entirely financed by:

Cleveland H. Dodge of Kuhn, Loeb's National City Bank;

Jacob Schiff, Senior partner in Kuhn Loeb Co.;

Henry Morgenthau, Sr.;

Bernard Baruch; and

Samuel Untermyer

... who were all interlocked with the international banking syndicate! To insure Wilson's (Dem.) election against Taft (Repl.), Jacob Schiff went to Theodore Roosevelt - the ex-President - and suggested that he run against both Wilson and Taft as an Independent. The Bull Moose Party, created out of nothing, split the Republican Party down the middle and the colorless Wilson was elected. This same Jacob Schiff was destined to supply $20 million dollars in support of the Communist take-over of Russia in 1917.⁴⁹

1912 --- Colonel House gains national prominence while working to get Woodrow Wilson nominated as president. Edward Mandell House was an Illuminist agent committed to the one-world interests of the Rothschild-Warburg-Rockefeller cartel, serving as their point-man in the White House.⁵⁰ House's father, Thomas W. House, was a Rothschild agent who amassed a fortune during the Civil War by supplying the South with essentials from France and England. Col. House sees that Paul Warburg serves as the Federal Reserve's first "Governor of the Board of Directors". Warburg was later to resign during World War I, when it was brought out that his brother Max, a major financier of the Russian Revolution, was also head of the German Secret Service! In that capacity, Max was responsible for transporting Lenin and his crew of cut-throats from Switzerland across Germany (in the famous sealed train) to instigate the Communist Revolution in Russia.

Meanwhile brother Paul in America organized the transportation of Trotsky (real name Bronstein) and his troupe from the lower east side of N.Y. City to Russia. They were accompanied by Charles Crane of the Westinghouse Company and Chairman of the Democratic Finance Committee.⁵¹

When Lenin and Trotsky joined forces, they proceeded to Bolshevize Russia, using money provided by these same central bankers.

Max Warburg was also later involved in the financing of Adolph Hitler.⁵²

1913 --- Senator Nelson Aldrich (the maternal grandfather of today's Rockefeller brothers) proposes the Aldrich Bill to establish the Federal Reserve Act. Voted down. After many of the individuals who opposed it left for the Christmas holidays, the bill was reintroduced as the Owen-Glass Act and rammed through Congress of 23 December 1913. Charles Lindbergh, Sr., who was among those who fought the passage warned: "This Act establishes the most gigantic trust on earth. When the President [Wilson] signs this bill the invisible government of the Monetary Power will be legalized...the worst legislative crime of the ages is perpetrated by this banking and currency bill."⁵³ Later, realizing what Colonel House had persuaded him to sign, President Wilson remorsefully replied, "I have unwittingly ruined my country."⁵⁴ The establishment of a central bank is the fifth plank called for in Karl Marx's book, "The Communist Manifesto,"⁵⁵

The Encyclopedia Britannica (Vol. 9, Pg. 137 - in the older editions / Vol. 9, Pg. 140, 1969 printing) states: "The twelve Federal Reserve Banks are privately owned....The reserve banks are not government banks."

1914 --- During World War I, which began within a year after the Act's passage, Colonel House would make secret missions to Europe. It didn't take long before he managed to drag the United States into the war (April 1917). House worked diligently to help plan the League of Nations. Funded in part with Rockefeller money, the League was to serve as the first political step toward the forming of a world government.⁵⁶

1919 --- President Woodrow Wilson refused Japan's request to enter the revolution against the Bolsheviks. This effort would have put enormous pressure on the Bolsheviks who would have had trouble raising an army against the Japanese, just like the Czar had in 1905.⁵⁷

1919 --- The Council on Foreign Relations Handbook of 1936 provides the following details concerning the organization's establishment: "On May 30, 1919, several leading members of the delegations to the Paris Peace Conference met at the Hotel Majestic in Paris to discuss setting up an international group which would advise their respective governments on international affairs. It was decided at this meeting to call the proposed organization the Institute of International Affairs. At a meeting on June 5, 1919, the planners decided it would be best to have separate organizations cooperating with each other. Consequently, they organized the Council on Foreign Relations, with headquarters in New York, and a sister organization, the Royal Institute of International Affairs, in London, also known as the Chatham House Study Group, to advise the British Government. A subsidiary organization, the Institute of Pacific Relations, was set up to deal exclusively with Far Eastern Affairs. Baron Edmond de Rothschild of France dominated the Paris Peace Conference."⁵⁸ Each of the men placed on the Council on Foreign Relations were men who met Rothschild's approval. The CFR was not officially formed until 29 July 1921.⁵⁹ Money for the founding of the CFR came from J. P. Morgan, Bernard Baruch, Otto Kahn, Jacob Schiff, Paul Warburg, and John D. Rockefeller, among others.⁶⁰ This was the same crowd involved in the forming of the Federal Reserve. Prominent figures who have served as CFR directors since 1921 include: Walter Lippman, Adlai Stevenson, Cyrus Vance, Zbigniew Brzezinske, Robert O. Anderson, Paul Volcker, Theodore M. Hesburgh, Lane Kirkland, George H. W. Bush, Henry Kissinger, David Rockefeller, George Shultz, Alan Greenspan, Brent Scowcroft, Jeane J. Kirkpatrick, and Richard B. Cheney.⁶¹

1919 May --- Partial list of Communist Rules for Revolution

(Captured at Dusseldorf in May 1919 by Allied Forces):

- (1) Corrupt the young; get them away from religion. Get them interested in sex. Make them superficial; destroy their ruggedness. (2) By specious argument cause the breakdown of the old moral virtues: honesty, sobriety, continence, faith in the pledged word, ruggedness.
- (3) Encourage civil disorders and foster a lenient and soft attitude on the part of government toward such disorders.
- (4) Divide the people into hostile groups by constantly harping on controversial matters of no importance.
- (5) Get people's minds off their government by focusing their attention on athletics, sexy books, plays, and other trivialities. (6) Get control of all means of publicity.

(7) Destroy the people's faith in their natural leaders by holding the latter up to contempt, ridicule and obloquy (disgrace).

(8) Cause the registration of all firearms on some pretext, with a view to confiscation and leaving the population helpless.⁶²

1920 --- League of Nations in Geneva

1920 --- A leader of the Theosophical Society (New Age / Occult) which considers Satan to be god, establishes The Lucifer Press. Soon changed to Lucis Press, Ltd. which has Lucis Trust, the parent organization headquartered at the United Nations Plaza in New York until a couple of years ago. Materials strongly influence Hitler.⁶³ Will establish Arcane Schools, the Triangles, and World Goodwill (all of which are strongly connected with one-world societies).

1920 8 February --- Statement by Winston Churchill in London's Sunday Illustrated Herald: "From the days of Spartacus-Weishaupt, to those of Karl Marx, to those of Trotsky...this worldwide conspiracy for the overthrow of civilization and for the reconstitution of society on the basis of arrested development and envious malevolence, and impossible equality has been steadily growing. It has been the mainspring of every subversive movement during the nineteenth century; and now at last this band of extraordinary personalities from the underworld of the great cities of Europe and America have gripped the Russian people by the hair of their heads and have become the undisputed masters of that enormous empire."⁶⁴ He was later to say: "Still, if you will not fight for the right when you can easily win without bloodshed, if you will not fight when your victory will be sure and not so costly, you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance for survival. There may be a worse case. You may have to fight when there is no chance of victory, because it is better to perish than to live as slaves."⁶⁵

1921 --- Masonic book: Freemasonry and the Ancient Gods published. Excerpts include: "The plain man, who never studied the ancient wisdom, and laughs at the message of the stars, can see the writing on the wall; but those who are grounded in the ancient wisdom and the cosmic lore know full well that this is the age of Mars, the Destroyer. In days of old the Christ came when the point of the vernal equinox was in the new sign Pisces, and that sign ushered in the new dispensation and our modern world. Today Pisces is fallen from his high estate, and a new sign draws nigh. It is Aquarius, the sign of the perfected man. Under his rule we may look to see a great awakening of the spiritual in man, an uplifting of man towards the Godhead in place of the descent of the Godhead into man. This means a new dispensation, a new type of religious outlook.....One thing I know will survive, as it has previously survived the wreck, not merely of mighty empires, but of civilizations themselves - Freemasonry. In the new age which is passing through the long-drawn travail of its birth, Freemasonry will be there, as of old, to lay the broad foundations on which the new religion will be built."⁶⁶

1921 --- Agricultural Panic of 1921. So successful was this deliberately induced panic by the Federal Reserve Board that commodity prices fell

50% and industrial production 32%. Thousands of farms were foreclosed in 1920-1921. This contrived policy of the Fed broke over 5400 banks. The giant banks picked up the assets of the broken ones, in many cases at 5 to 7 cents on the dollar, and many of the larger bankrupt businesses were acquired by corporations owned or controlled by the same "Insiders".⁶⁷

1920's early years --- Millions of Russian peasants starved all across the nation. It was now important that the Bolshevik government have outside assistance if it was to survive. This time it was Herbert Hoover. As President Harding's Secretary of Commerce, he knew U.S. shipments of food, which the American people were told were to save starving Russians, actually were used to strengthen Bolshevik power. In his book "Herbert Hoover and Famine Relief to Soviet Russia," professor Benjamin Weissman of Rutgers University revealed that Hoover continued to send public foodstuffs to Russia long after it was obvious the Bolsheviks were shipping their own food abroad in order to purchase machinery.⁶⁸

1923 --- The Revolt of Youth, by Stanley High is published. A recent reviewer from New Age Journal says of it: "It is a disturbing book...an eyewitness account, glowingly recorded, of the youth culture that followed the horrors of World War I...[that] could well have been entitled 'The Greening of Germany'. Reading it, one is unsure whether this is Germany of the twenties or America of the sixties that High is describing." The article continues: "Back to nature go the hippies of the day, the Wander-vogel...led by a battered assortment of guitars...the 'hope for the future of Germany.' Natural camaraderie prevails, with freedom of sexual companionship" ... "Nothing is so roundly hated as the superimposition of conventional authority, and nothing so loved as nature." ... "The political interests are tending to disappear, the great spiritual forces are on the ascendency...There is an inexplicable reaction against conventional Christianity...I had been privileged to walk with the youth of another world...the apostles of a wholly new life for young and old alike...with their spirit --- the old heaven and the old earth - suspicion and selfishness and hate - will pass away."⁶⁹

1925 --- John F. Hylan, Mayor of New York 1918-1925, said "The real menace of our Republic is the invisible government which like a giant octopus sprawls its slimy legs over our cities, states, and nation."⁷⁰

1928 --- The House Hearings on Stabilization of the Purchasing Power of the Dollar disclosed evidence in 1928 that the Federal Reserve Board was working closely with the heads of European central banks. The Committee warned that a major crash had been planned in 1927 by the FED.⁷¹

1929 --- Stock Market Crash

1929 --- The Russian government made it a crime for the Russian people to own gold in any form. By now the middle class had been destroyed as a class of people through planned inflation.72

1930's --- [The] organization [CFR] became virtually an agency of the government when World War II broke out. The Rockefeller Foundation had started and financed certain studies known as The War and Peace Studies, manned largely by associates of the Council; the State Department, in due course, took these Studies over, retaining the major personnel which The Council on Foreign Relations had supplied.73

1931 --- England goes off the gold standard on September 21, 1931.

1933 --- Franklin Roosevelt, one of the Syndicate's front men issues Presidential Executive Order of April 5, 1933 requiring all Americans to take their gold bullion, gold coins, and gold-backed currency to their banks and exchange them for currency that was not redeemable in precious metal. The banks, in turn, were required to deliver the gold and gold coins to the Federal Reserve Bank.74

1933 --- President Roosevelt grants diplomatic recognition to the Communist government, legitimizing the brutal regime.75

1933 --- Franklin D. Roosevelt, U.S. President, in a letter written Nov. 21, 1933 to Colonel E. Mandell House, Roosevelt states:
... "The real truth of the matter is, as you and I know, that a financial element in the large centers has owned the government of the U.S. since the days of Andrew Jackson."76

"You must work until every teacher of psychology unknowingly or knowingly teaches only Communist doctrine under the guise of 'psychology'".

1934 --- The NEA (National Education Association) has been financed largely by the Rockefeller and Carnegie foundations.78 By 1934, the NEA adopts John Dewey's philosophy of humanism, socialism, and globalism, and incorporates it into the classroom.⁷⁹ While all of this is going on, Dewey manages to slip away to Russia for a time to help organize the Marxist educational system there.⁸⁰

1935 --- Adolph Hitler - "This year will go down in history. For the first time, a civilized nation has full gun registration! Our streets will be safer, our police more efficient, and the world will follow our lead into the future!" Interesting, Hitler's New World Order (Nazi Germany) was marked by a preoccupation with animal rights. German laws were enacted that ended animal experimentation and dissection for research, while at the same time, experiments were conducted on humans, usually without anesthesia, on the most efficient surgical means of castrating Jews. Around 1935, the Nazis shifted their concentration on protection of farm animals and pets to include wildlife. They talked of "establishing conservation and breeding programs," and passed laws governing hunting.⁸¹

1941 --- The United Nations was spawned two weeks after Pearl Harbor in the office of Secretary of State, Cordell Hull. In a letter to President Franklin D. Roosevelt, dated 22 Dec, 1941, Secretary Hull, at the direction of his faceless sponsors...recommended the founding of a Presidential Advisory Committee on Post War Foreign Policy. This Post War Foreign Policy Committee was in fact the planning commission for the United Nations and its Charter. Each member of the Committee...was without exception, a member of the Council on Foreign Relations, or under the control of the CFR.⁸²

1945 --- At the U.N.'s founding conference, forty-seven members of the CFR were in the United States delegation. Included among these were Edward Stettinius, the new secretary of state; John Foster Dulles; Adlai Stevenson; Nelson Rockefeller; and Alger Hiss, who was the secretary general of the U.N.'s founding conference.⁸³ To make sure that the United States would not back out of joining the United Nations the land for the United Nations building was "graciously" donated by John D. Rockefeller, Jr.⁸⁴ The hierarchy, among other things, had called for world government to be achieved in stages through the forming of world administrative regions. This was in accordance with the U.N. Charter, which encourages the implementation and administration of world government on a regional basis.⁸⁵

1947 --- Cord Meyer wrote in his book, "PEACE OR ANARCHY", that "anarchy threatens in unbridled growth of nationalism and in insistence upon the sovereignty of nations." Yet, he was pushed upward in CIA; Benjamin Bradlee, of the Washington Post, covered for him in the press, and James Angleton destroyed the letters and notes dealing with Mrs. Meyer's marijuana smoking in the White House with JFK.⁸⁶

1948 --- George Bush joins Skull and Bones Society.⁸⁷

1950 February 17. --- CFR member James Warburg, testifying before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, stated, "We shall have world government whether or not you like it - by conquest or consent."⁸⁸

1950s --- Reece Committee, Congressional investigation of major tax-exempt foundations linked to the international money cartel. Centered on Rockefeller, Ford, Carnegie, and Guggenheim foundations but were unable to attract any attention from the media. Among those secondary foundations investigated were the National Education Association, the John Dewey Society, the United Nations Association and the Council on Foreign Relations. The Rockefeller Foundation was financing Dr. Alfred Kinsey's studies on sexual behavior through the National Research Council to produce a series of untrue and unscientific reports promoting sexual freedom (promiscuity).⁸⁹ They found that the National Education Association (and numerous other education organizations) was producing and promoting curricula that advocated socialism and globalism with the intent of preparing students for a one-world society. ⁹⁰ The cartel has been able to further its global agenda in the field of foreign affairs through political think-tanks such as the United Nations Association, the Institute of Pacific Relation, and the Council on Foreign Relations, to name just a few.⁹¹ They also determined at least one foreign foundation instituted by Cecil Rhodes, the famous British industrialist and globalist. Rhodes, who was a close ally of the Rothschilds and European Freemasonry promoted globalism through the Rhodes Scholarship Fund.⁹² Norman Dodd, the director of research for the Reece Committee, had at one point during the investigation been invited to the headquarters of the Ford Foundation by its president, H. Rowan Gaither, who was a member of the Council on Foreign Relations. During this visit Gaither told Dodd: "All of us here at the policymaking level have had experience, either in O.S.S. (Office of Strategic Services) or the European Economic Administration, with directives from the White House. We operate under those directives here. Would you like to know what those directives are?" Dodd responded that he would, after which Gaither replied: "The substance of them is that we shall use our grant-making power so to alter life in the United States that we can be comfortably merged with the Soviet Union."⁹³ (Ike was President at that time.)

1953 --- The California Senate Investigating Committee on Education, Report , pgs 169-170: "So-called modern Communism is apparently the same hypocritical and deadly world conspiracy to destroy civilization that was founded by the secret order of the Illuminati in Bavaria on May 1, 1776, and that raised its hoary head in our colonies here at the critical period before the adoption of our Federal Constitution."⁹⁴

1953 --- John Swinton, the former Chief of Staff for the New York Times, was one of America's best loved newspapermen. Called by his peers "The Dean of his Profession", John was asked in 1953 to give a toast before the New York Press Club, and in so doing made a monumentally important and revealing statement. He is quoted as follows: "There is no such thing, at this date of the world's history, in American, as an independent press. You know it and I know it. There is not one of you who dares to write your honest opinions, and if you did, you know beforehand that it would never appear in print. I am paid weekly for keeping my honest opinion out of the paper I am connected with. Others of you are paid similar salaries for similar things, and any of you who would be so foolish as to write honest opinions would be out on the streets looking for another job. If I allowed my honest opinions to appear in one issue of my paper, before twenty-four hours my occupation would be gone. The business of the journalists is to destroy the truth; to lie outright; to pervert; to vilify; to fawn at the feet of mammon, and to sell his country and his race for his daily bread. You know it and I know it and what folly is this toasting an independent press? We are the tools and vassals of rich men behind the scenes. We are the jumping jacks, they pull the strings and we dance. Our talent, our possibilities and our lives are all the property of other men. We are intellectual prostitutes."⁹⁵

1954 --- First meeting of the Bilderbergers, a CFR sister organization. Funded by a number of major one-world institutions, including the Rockefeller and Ford foundation, the express purpose of the Bilderberger Group was to regionalize Europe.⁹⁶ Prominent American Bilderbergers have included David and Nelson Rockefeller; Thomas Hughes of the Carnegie Endowment; Winston Lord, former director of planning and coordination for the State Department; Henry Kissinger; Zbigniew Brzezinski; Cyrus Vance; Robert McNamara, former president of the World Bank; Donald Rumsfeld; George Ball, former undersecretary of state and director of Lehman Brothers; Rober Anderson, president of ARCO and associated with the Aspen Institute; President Gerald Ford; Henry Grunwald, Managing Editor of TIME; Henry J. Heinz II, chairman of the board, J.J.Heinz Company; Father Theodore M. Hesburgh, former president of Notre Dame University; and Shepard Stone of The Aspen Institute for Humanistic Studies. The Aspen Institute is also a sister organization of the CFR and the Bilderbergers, is heavily funded by the Ford and Rockefeller Foundations and has been described as "a training and orientation school for prospective world government administrators."⁹⁷

1955 31 March --- The Warburg-Kuhn-Loeb controlled bank of Manhattan was merged with the Rockefeller's Chase Bank - thus making the great "Chase Manhattan Bank".⁹⁸

1957 --- George W. Malone, U.S. Senator (Nevada), speaking before Congress in 1957, alluded to the families that secretly own the "Federal" Reserve Bank and control the finances of the U.S.. He stated: "I believe that if the people of this nation fully understood what Congress has done to them over the last 49 years, they would move on Washington; they would not wait for an election...It adds up to a preconceived plan to destroy the economic and social independence of the United States!"⁹⁹

1957 --- American Mercury Magazine, December 1957, pg. 92. "The invisible Money Power is working to control and enslave mankind. It financed Communism, Fascism, Marxism, Zionism and Socialism. All of these are directed to making the United States a member of a World Government..."¹⁰⁰

1959 --- The World Constitution and Parliament Association (WCPA) founded in Lakewood, Colorado, (near Denver). Main figure is Philip

Isely. It chooses to use the words "collaborating" or "networking for change" to describe its efforts. Their plan which includes a ten region world government has been taken straight out of the club of Rome's handbook. The WCPA is also using the environment as its chief argument for why a world government is required.101

1959 November 25 --- Study Number 7, a CFR position paper, stated that its purpose was to advocate the "building [of] a new international order [which] may be responsible to world aspiration for peace [and] for social and economic change. ...An international order... including states labelling themselves as Socialist [Communist]."102

1961 --- New Group of World Servers joins with another occult organization calling itself World Union, which is today heavily involved in the politics of planning and implementing the world government.103 World Godwill is a creation of Lucis Trust, an offshoot of the Theosophical Society, which is plugged into the highest levels of Freemasonry. Past and present member of Lucis Trust include: Robert McNamara, Donald Regan, Henry Kissinger, David Rockefeller, Paul Volcker, and George Shultz - the same crowd that runs the CFR and the Trilateral Commission.104

1961 --- A Polish General of the Polish Army Intelligence (Michael Goloniewski) defects to the United States. He supplied the Western countries with names of hundreds of Soviet spies. No information given to our government ever turned out to be wrong. But there was one individual that the colonel named that was never brought to trial. The colonel contended that "...Secretary of State Henry Kissinger has been a Soviet agent and that his involvement with Soviet Intelligence was made to agencies of our government even before his rise to prominence." This charge was detailed in a book by Frank Capell, entitled Henry Kissinger, Soviet Agent, that was published in 1974. Capell reported, "that under the name of 'Bor', and described as an agent of ODRA, (a spy group under the command of a Soviet intelligence general,) was Sergeant Henry Kissinger, a U.S./ Army counter-intelligence interrogator and instructor at the Military Intelligence School...."105

1961 --- The U.S. Department of State releases: Freedom from War: The United States program for general and complete disarmament in a peaceful world --- which includes disbanding our military but building up the United Nations as the only strong military power for a one-world government.106

1963 November --- Assassination of President John F. Kennedy. About 2 weeks prior to this he had a meeting in New York with the International Bankers. There is evidence that he learned that he had been lied to about Cuba and many other issues. In fact, there is substantial evidence that Kennedy was beginning to uncover an "international effort" to use the office of the President of the United States against America, and had threatened to expose this movement.107

1966 --- Congressional investigation determines four of the world's seven largest oil companies were under the control of the Rockefeller family.¹⁰⁸ According to an earlier New York Times report, Exxon alone controlled 321 companies, including Humble Oil and Venezuela's Creole Petroleum, themselves among the largest corporations in the world.¹⁰⁹ By the 1970s, the Rockefeller-controlled banks, which by this time included Chemical Bank, accounted for about 25 percent of all the assets of the fifty largest commercial banks in the country and for about 30 percent of all the assets of the fifty largest life insurance companies.¹¹⁰ By 1975, they would gain control of ARCO and Texaco.

1967 --- Robert Kennedy, former U.S. Attorney General of the U.S.: "All of us will ultimately be judged on the effort we have contributed to building a NEW WORLD ORDER."¹¹¹

1967 --- Report from Iron Mountain on the Possibility and Desirability of Peace published. Deals with government plans for planned wars, and population control --- from think tank group in 1961-1963. Includes using environment as an excuse to control land.¹¹²

1968 April --- The Club of Rome (COR) begins. It has been charged with the task of overseeing the regionalization and unification of the entire world. One step above the Bilderbergers in the one-world hierarchy.¹¹³ 1968 --- Nixon declares that the greatest issue before the American people is the environment.¹¹⁴

1968 --- New York governor Nelson Rockefeller, in an address to the International Platform Association, at the Sheraton Park Hotel in New York, called for the formation of a New World Order.

1969 May --- Rep. Morris K. Udall of Arizona introduced the "Postal Service Act of 1969" (which passes in July and is signed by President Nixon August 12). It incorporates the U.S. Postal Service. For the first time in the history of America, a group of private persons now "own" the U.S. Postal Service outright. Postmaster Winton M. Blount in a release dated Friday, September 25, 1970 stated: "These [Board of Governors] are excellent choices providing the necessary expertise to direct the Postal Service toward a sound future in which will be dedicated to superlative service to all Americans."¹¹⁵

1970 --- Zbigniew Brzezinski who would later become Jimmy Carter's National Security Advisor, writes "Between Two Ages" calling for a new international monetary system and prepares the reader for the acceptance of a global taxation system; and states Marxism, disseminated on the popular level in the form of communism, represented a major advance in man's ability to conceptualize his relationship to his world (pg 83)116

1970 --- Norman Thomas, for many years the U.S. Socialist Presidential candidate and Gus Hall, the U.S. Communist Party candidate, both quit American politics, agreeing that the Republican and Democratic parties by 1970 had adopted every plank of the Communist / Socialist Party and they no longer had an alternative party platform on which to run.117

1971 --- Hillary Clinton, the first woman-to-be, once worked as a law clerk in the Oakland office of the noted left-wing [Marxist] lawyer, Robert Treuhft, husband of Jessica (Decca) Mitford. ...Happened back in 1971, when the then Hillary Rodham was a law student looking for a summer job in a 'movement' law firm (draft resistors, civil rights, etc.)...'That was the time we were representing the Black Panthers,' recalls Treuhft, 'and she worked on that case. Some people think she went to Sacramento with them -- remember when they disrupted the legislature? But I'm not sure whether she did or not. Anyway, it was nice to have her around.' 118 Hillary would continue to actively support Marxist organizations.

1972 12 February --- President Nixon staffs each of the 10 Federal Regional Headquarters with the grant making agencies of the Federal Government.119

1972 June --- Montana State Constitution. The people went through a referendum and voted down the new constitution, but the Governor, Thomas L. Judge declared , "that because of the necessity of the time, he, by executive order, validated the new constitution for the State of Montana. The New Constitution does not include state boundaries because it is no longer a sovereign state but a satrapy of Federal Regions VIII with a new provincial capital in Denver, Colorado."120

1973 --- Humanist Manifesto II

1973 --- David Rockefeller forms the Trilateral Commission to promote world government by encouraging economic interdependence among the superpowers.121 Zbigniew Brzezinski drafts the Commission's charter and becomes first director (1973-1976).122 Unlike the CFR which has 2,500 members, the Trilateral Commission has only 325 members, of which 98 are from N. America, 146 from Europe, and 81 from Japan. Most, if not all, of the important Frenchmen who are members belong to the Grand Orient Lodge of Freemasonry.123 Arab leaders suddenly cooperate and impose an effective oil embargo. A few of the Arab sheiks become vice-presidents of American and European superbanks, such as Chase Manhattan. Much of money reinvested into American industry and real estate.124

1973 17 September --- Report reveals that the Club of Rome has divided the world into ten political / economic regions, which it refers to as "kingdoms." While these "kingdoms" are not set in concrete and changes could still occur, it gives us an idea of what lies ahead. During the Nixon Administration the United States was further divided into ten federal sub-regions for the alleged purpose of "emergency management" and the "decentralization of the Executive Branch".125

1974 --- April issue of the CFR journal, Foreign Affairs (p 558), Richard Gardner stated that the New World Order "will have to be built from the bottom up rather than from the top down. It will look like a great 'booming, buzzing confusion,' ...but an end run around national sovereignty, eroding it piece by piece, will accomplish much more than the old-fashioned frontal assault."126

1974 September 26 --- " Declaration of Interdependence: Education for a Global Community." by the NEA which promotes a one-world government to replace nation states.127

1975 November Congressman Larry P. McDonald spearheads efforts against the New World Order. He wrote the introduction to The Rockefeller File which stated: The Rockefeller File is not fiction. It is a compact, powerful and frightening presentation of what may be the most important story of our lifetime - the drive of the Rockefellers and their allies to create a one-world government combining super-capitalism and Communism under the same tent, all under their control.....not one has dared reveal the most vital part of the Rockefeller story: that the Rockefellers and their allies have, for at least fifty years, been carefully following a plan to use their economic power to gain political control of first America, and then the rest of the world. Do I mean conspiracy? Yes I do. I am convinced there is such a plot, international in scope, generations old in planning, and incredibly evil in intent.130 On 31 August 1983 McDonald was killed aboard Korean Airline 007 flight which "accidentally" strayed over Soviet airspace and was "accidentally" shot down. The media reporting was scant and short-lived and not a single mention was publicly made about the fact that McDonald had been heading a congressional effort to expose what he called a dangerous international conspiracy. Since then Senator Jesse Helms has led efforts to expose the plot.

1976 11 JuneThe UN's Conference of Human Settlement recently asked that land be managed as a public resource rather than a profit-generating commodity. It called for redistribution of land in poor countries and for a more equitable distribution of wealth. The U.S. delegation, headed by the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development, Carla Hills, endorsed virtually all of the resolutions. The Utah Independent, July 22, 1976¹³¹ Though defeated in the U.S. House of Representatives, pertinent sections of the "Land Use Policy and Planning Assistance Act of 1973 , called "The Udall Bill", were surreptitiously inserted into THE FEDERAL REGISTER by Mr. Russell Train, Director, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, "Land Control" thus became the law of the land in contradiction to the will of Congress and the interest of the people.¹³²

1976 Cincinnati - Annual meeting of the National Rifle Association regains control of the organization from the hands of certain "environmentalists" who seemed to be following the recommendations of the Oram Report which would have decentralized the pro-gun advocates and developed the N.R.A. into a "Sierra Club" type structure.¹³³

Dunphy: "I am convinced that the battle for humankind's future must be waged and won in the public school classroom by teachers that correctly perceive their role as proselytizers of a new faith which will replace the rotting corpse of Christianity."¹³⁵

1983 Peter Hoagland, Nebraska State Senator and Humanist, speaking on radio in 1983 said: "Fundamental, Bible-believing people do not have the right to indoctrinate their children in their religious beliefs because we, the state, are preparing them for the year 2000, when America will be part of a one-world global society and their children will not fit in."¹³⁶

1987 February - The Supreme Council for the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction states: Universality does not mean Christianity although some Masons think it should be so interpreted.from Anderson forward, efforts continued to remove all Christian references from Masonry, and those efforts still continue to this day.¹³⁷

Listed on the same page with these occult masters was the Reverend Jesse Jackson, leader of the Rainbow Coalition and a presidential candidate at the time. Ramsey Clark, former U.S. attorney general was also a speaker as well as a vice president of the WCPA and a member of the CFR.138

1987 At the 1992 Democratic Convention, reports Floyd G. Brown...Governor Clinton was interviewed by Italian journalist Antonio Socci. The resulting article appeared in the Italian news weekly Il Sabato under the title, "Comrad Bill". Socci reports that in 1987 Governor Clinton visited the communist co-op of Legga, Italy to study the communist economic model: ' I went to Italy to study,' Governor Clinton told Socci. ' I came five years ago to the province of Florence to find out how the cooperatives..and the micro enterprises function. Then I went back to Arkansas and I helped put together about seventy youth cooperatives.' Don't tell me this [communist model] is your economic prescription for the [United] States?' Mr. Socci asked incredulously. 'Absolutely,' said Governor Clinton.139

1987 NovemberMikhail Gorbachev's speech to the Soviet Politburo: "Gentlemen, comrades, do not be concerned about all you hear about Glasnost and Perestroika and democracy in the coming years. These are primarily for outward consumption. There will be no significant internal changes in the Soviet Union, other than for cosmetic purposes. Our purpose is to disarm the Americans and let them fall asleep. We want to accomplish three things: One, we want the Americans to withdraw conventional forces from Europe. Two, we want them to withdraw nuclear forces fAmericans to stop proceeding with strategic Defense Initiative."140

1987 15 DecemberExcerpts from speech before the Senate by Senator Jesse Helms: This campaign against the American people - against traditional American culture and values - is systematic psychological warfare. It is orchestrated by a vast array of interest comprising not only the Eastern establishment but also the radical left. Among this group we find the Department of State, the Department of Commerce, the money center banks and multinational corporations, the media, the educational establishment, the entertainment industry, and the large tax-exempt foundations.Mr. President, a careful examination of what is happening behind the scenes reveals that all of these interests are working in concert with the masters of the Kremlin in order to create what some refer to as a new world order. Private organizations such as the Council on Foreign Relation, the Royal Institute of International Affairs, the Trilateral Commission, the Dartmouth Conference, the Aspen Institute for Humanistic Studies, the Atlantic Institute, and the Bilderberger Group serve to disseminate and to coordinate the plans for this so-called new world order in powerful business, financial, academic, and official circles.... The psychological campaign that I am describing, as I have said, is the work of groups within the Eastern establishment, that amorphous amalgam of wealth and social connections whose power resides in its control over our financial system and over a large portion of our industrial sector. The principal instrument of this control over the American economy and money is the Federal Reserve System. The policies of the industrial sectors, primarily the multinational corporations, are influenced by the money centers through debt financing and through the large blocks of stock controlled by the trust departments of the money center banks. Anyone familiar with American history, and particularly American economic history, cannot fail to notice the control over the Department of State and the Central Intelligence Agency which Wall Street seems to exercise.... The influence of establishment insiders over our foreign policy has become a fact of life in our time. This pervasive influence runs contrary to the real long-term national security of our Nation. It is an influence which, if unchecked, could ultimately subvert our constitutional order. The viewpoint of the establishment today is called globalism. Not so long ago, this viewpoint was called the "one-world" view by its critics. The phrase is no longer fashionable among sophisticates; yet, the phrase "one-world" is still apt because nothing has changed in the minds and actions of those promoting policies consistent with its fundamental tenets. Mr. President, in the globalist point of view, nation-states and national boundaries do not count for anything. Political philosophies and political principles seem to become simply relative. Indeed, even constitutions are irrelevant to the exercise of power. Liberty and tyranny are viewed as neither necessarily good nor evil, and certainly not a component of policy. In this point of view, the activities of international financial and industrial forces should be orientate to bringing this one-world design - with a convergence of the Soviet and American Systems as its centerpiece - into being.....All that matters to this club is the maximization of profits resulting from the practice of what can be described as finance capitalism, a system which rests upon the twin pillars of debt and monopoly. This isn't real capitalism. It is the road to economic concentration and to political slavery.¹⁴¹

1988 The United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child established. The intent is to give the United Nations total control over every child.¹⁴²

1991 29 January President George Bush State of the Union address excerpts: What is at stake is more than one small country; it is a big idea; a new world order, where diverse nations are drawn together in common cause to achieve the universal aspirations of mankind....The world can therefore seize this opportunity to fulfill the long-held promise of a new world order...

1991 George Bush "My vision of a NEW WORLD ORDER foresees a United Nations with a revitalized peacekeeping function."¹⁴³

1991 June meeting of Bilderbergers in Baden Baden, Germany. David Rockefeller said: "We are grateful to The Washington Post, The New York Times, Time Magazine and other great publications whose directors have attended our meetings and respected their promises of discretion for almost forty years." "It would have been impossible for us to develop our plan for the world if we had been subject to the bright lights of publicity during those years. But, the world is now more sophisticated and prepared to march towards a world government. The supranational sovereignty of an intellectual elite and world bankers is surely preferable to the national autodetermination practiced in past centuries." Among those in attendance was then governor Bill Clinton and Dan Quayle.

1991 America 2000 - An Education Strategy. It is heavy New Age Spiritism designed by United Nations people. Its intent is to continue to "dumb down" the American people, increase the use of mind control procedures and give the government agencies the total control of children from birth on.144
