

Victimhood and Body ID Revisited

The text reads: "Bill Richardson, the nation's only Hispanic governor". Yeah, Bill Richardson is REAL Mexican sounding! What is it with these mixed race people? Obviously his father, at least, is of European (not Spain) background with that name. So any of you mixed background people, pick any one that sounds like it should be on the victimhood list and claim it as your sole body ID. If you are 1/100 of some Native American tribe (fairly common), claim it as who you are. Someone in NH told me he's a tiny part of one tribe. Hell, with current anti-European background so popular, shouldn't he say he's Native American? If you are a small part of anything BUT European, claim it as who you are...IF you are body ID'd with a heavy dose of victimhood.

Another thing to notice: everyone born south of the American border is "Hispanic" or "Latin American". Spanish-speaking countries are not "Latin". Certain countries are part of Central America. Certain countries are part of South America. The use of "Latin America" comes from the sequentializing of all of Spanish-speaking Central/South America plus Portuguese-speaking Brazil. Hell knows it's TOO complicated for most Americans to grasp the difference and there are so many minions running around that the hive mentality loves sequential, broad-based tags! Just because they use them doesn't make them accurate.

Then there are the mixed race "blacks". Obama isn't black, nor is the governor of NY or Tiger Woods. They are mixed race. Why? It's become fashionable, in the victimhood circles, to claim it. Why do they claim one over the other? Victimhood. I see people who call themselves 'black' on television who look like white people with a tan. And then there are the whites, especially younger ones, who want to be black so much that they do everything to make themselves such, hence the slur "whiggers". If you want to be a true victim, claim to be white. They'll all go after you for that. Yet it's ALL body ID.

Keep in mind, as simultaneous path Higher Selves, we are all major body incarnates and all races on Earth, so body ID is meaningless to those for whom M5 is written!

Another popular victimhood group is the Ashkenazi jews who are a whole other story apart from the ethnic Sephardic jews. Notice how many people who, all of a sudden, discover that someone in their history was Ashkenazi jewish and now, low and behold, they are a jew! Get on the victimhood train. With this group, not only is it victimhood but also the master race/chosen people bullshit. Zionism and its alien/sequential roots.

It goes on and on, getting worse each day.

For the sequentials to succeed with their plans for Earth, they must break up simultaneous standards and replace the vast variety of unique cultures with a single, sequentialized one. With the majority of Earth now minion incarnations, it's easier. Minions love the concept and hive/pack/herd mentality.

And it doesn't take much for Low incarnations to see what victimhood can get them during EndGame. It is the Very Advanced and higher that cringe at the thought of becoming homogenized and losing their uniqueness. All this body ID is something that the sequentials demand and must have to create a sequentialized Earth, as if all this activity will stop Graduation.

Well, those who will be continuing on the next simultaneously-designated planet are flirting with the sequential reunion because they have not spiritually matured enough to embrace the simultaneous path fully. That is why they will not be in this Graduating Class of Earth. It's their choice.

Meanwhile, we have to hang in there. Observe the foolishness and rabid body ID of yet another simultaneous planet's EndGame. Certain sequentials have also been busy attempting to discover a way how to halt the Graduation process on future planets as they really know this one cannot be stopped. As the sequentials are SO body ID'd, they beLIEve that the body ID is the key they must seek. Body ID is the key to remaining IN the Game. Spirit ID is the key to Advancement and Graduation.

Trust in YOUR Higher Self.
