The Dragon people, who are part of the Reptilian story on Earth, along with the Snake and Lizard people, worked with the Crystals within the Earth to create a Grid System of Crystalline energy, to create life on the planet as we know it. They came to Earth from Altair when the Earth still had sonic winds, and so lived within the Earth, like many others in other Dimensions, generally 6th and 7th. The Dragon people spent eons setting up lines of magnetic energy around the earth, and constructing endless tunnels with the Snake people. The energy vortexes which power their civilisations are in these tunnels, along with enormous stores of precious stones and metals.

Because of the energy that this Crystal Grid gave off as Light, which is Life. Life was able to be created with a more harmonious weather pattern, as the Earth stabilised and harmonised with the Sun and Planets. Once that happened life could start forming as we know it.

The Crystalline Grid which is electro-magnetic within the Earth, and known also as Dragon or Ley lines is working on all dimensions. In first density you have the physical Crystals and mineral kingdom, these same minerals are within our bodies and the Universe. So the Grid links all the major portals of the Earth, through the Crystalline Grid which resonates in Divine Light and as a window of Light and a doorway between the worlds, linking with the Light Grid on the higher planes. So creating a Gridwork on many dimensions, at major portals on this grid Pyramids have been built.

The Pyramids hold a resonance of Crystal Light, even structurally the Pyramid is built of Granite which has Quartz in it, and the Capstone is Crystal. The Pyramids once kept the harmonious resonance with the Earth and Universe, their energy is working at a higher octaves of Light and all of us who have parallel world connections with Ancient Egypt are now like Pyramids of Light bringing back the harmony. As we become as clear as a Crystal we have a harmonised resonance with the Earth, each other and the Universe and Cosmos. So we become also the Crystal or Pyramid holding the Beam, and creating a new Light Grid as we open our resonance to that of the Crystalline Grid that also runs through us.

At this time on the planet a whole new resonance is being anchored through us as clear crystals and through into the Earth. As we become the transducer of the energy from Heaven to Earth.
