Method of Preparation:

- Season veal rack & sear on flat grill all over to seal in the juices.
- Place rack on the mirepoix, with fresh thyme, place into a pre-heated oven at 200oc.
- Immediately reduce to 140oc for 35mins, remove & allow to rest.

- Deglaze mushroom ragout with marsala and evaporate. Season with salt and pepper and add a piece of butter to melt before removing from heat.
- Heat the asparagus and carrots in the butter and season. Heat the truffled mashed potatoes and red wine jus.
- Put the cherry tomatoes in a pot with the basil oil, white wine and sugar. Cook until they burst open and season.
- With a sharp knife cut a thick slice between the bones, ensuring the meat is pink & moist.
- Plate the veal chop on top of the truffled potatoes and mushrooms. Add the sauce around with the cherry tomato stew and vegetables on the side as per picture.

Note: Leftover veal should be used for Vitello Tonnato.
