GOAL

Any Corporate group or Bank with a Power of 4 or more counts double toward your total number of groups controlled.

Go Fish!

Ask any rival for a specific Plot. He must show you all his hidden Plots, give you all instances of the Plot you named, and discard two undrawn Plots for each one. But if he has none of the Plot you named, all your Plots are exposed.

Anyone who has received a Plot card from a rival or has been forced to show a rival any non-exposed Plot in his hand or deck is immune to Go Fish until the end of his next turn.

Go, Lemmings, Go!

Play this card whenever a rival discards Plots or Groups, from either his hand or his deck, in order to power a Plot card or a group's special ability.

If he discarded one card, he must discard two more of the same type. If he discarded more than one, he must discard as many again of the same type or types.

If the original discards were from his hand, the extras must be from his hand; if he does not have enough, he must make up the difference from his deck. If the original discards were from his deck, the extras must be from his deck; he does not have to discard from his hand, even if his deck runs out!

He gets no benefit of any kind for the extra discards.

Secret Master

Everything in the world is controlled by a small evil group to which, unfortunately, no one we know belongs.

Link this card to one Personality who is directly controlled by your Illuminati. That person is now a member of the Illuminati. He cannot be captured at all, or destroyed except by Assassination or by the direct attack of another Illuminati. And he has an extra +20 against an Assassination. However, he loses all alignments and attributes.
