Dirty Little 9/11 Secrets Exposed

By Jon Carlson

6-18-5

It is not common knowledge that Hustler Publisher Larry Flynt has done more to protect the First Admendment than the NY Times. In his recent fascinating book, Sex, Lies, and Politics (www.amazon.com), he mentioned that the Times refused to join the fight to save the First Admendment until it reached the Supreme Court. With the NY Times coverups of 9/11, Iraq War lies, alleged Bush debate cheating

<http://www.fair.org/index.php?page=2012>

just for starters, they apparently didn't know Larry won. Michelle Malkin reports on the Times in a RENSE article

<http://www.rense.com/general39/nytimes.htm>

Larry Flynt's real forte is investigative journalism. Recently Amy Goodman asked Larry Flynt about his claim Hustler investigators found Bush paid for the abortion of a woman in the 70's when abortion was murder.

<http://www.democracynow.org/article.pl?sid=04/08/03/1359257>

http://rawstory.com/exclusives/byrne/larry_flynt_bolton_511

Mr. Flynt continued, "The U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations must be free of any potential source of disrepute or blackmail."

In the current issue of Hustler Magazine Larry Flynt is again trying to save the country. He sent investigators Carolyn Sinclair and Bruce David to pry 9/11 secrets out of 9/11 expert, David Griffin. Here is the front page ARTICLE SCAN:

<http://www.total911.info/2005/06/flynts-hustler-runs-911-truth-expose.html>

David Griffin has also mastered the 911 Commission Report finding 115 Failures:

<http://lawnorder.dailykos.com/storyonly/2005/5/23/15739/0408>

David Griffin explained the political reason for 9/11 by citing a 2000 study from a group composed of Cheney, Wolfowitz, Rumsfeld, and others in the Bush Administration that were attempting to keep the Military-Industrial Complex sucking the lifeblood out of the American taxpayer:

"Since the Cold War is over, the report said, we don't have that excuse to keep military spending up. Many were talking about cutbacks on defense, i.e. Military spending. Americans won't be willing to pony up money for defense unless there's an event that makes them feel insecure and threatened by external forces. Therefore, according to the report, any transformation of military affairs will go rather slowly, "absent some catastrophic and catalyzing event like a New Pearl Harbor".

Larry, Carolyn, Bruce, and David have a litany of 9/11 secrets for readers (International circulation at newstands now, a collector's item, great photos). Did you know Bush had a pre-scheduled national newscast at 9:30 on 9/11 to announce, what even the FBI didn't know, that terrorists were behind 9/11. Read the RENSE article, 9/11 CNN Reports Boeing 737s Struck WTC, for the full story but a pre-scheduled national newscast to announce 9/11 is proof of foreknowledge of 9/11.

<http://www.rense.com/general65/911h.htm>

Here is another dirty little secret: David Griffin points out that DOT Secretary Norman Mineta, in his own testimony before the 9/11 Commission, arrived at the Presidential Emergency Operation Center in the White House at 9:20 and Cheney and others had been there for some time. The WTC crashes were at 8:45 and 9:02 and the Pentagon aircraft crash at 9:40. David Griffin points out that the 9/11 Commission ignores that evidence (that Cheney was in the PEOC bright and early) and says Cheney didn't get there until almost 10 a.m. In fact, the story is the Secret Service dragged Chaney to the Operation Center.

The Norman Mineta testimony,

http://www.9-11commission.gov/archive/hearing2/9-11Commission_Hearing_2003-05-23.htm#panel_one adds to the solution of the Pentagon saga. Previously in his dynamite video, Treason, Inc (Order www.hillsenatenow.org) Craig Hill reported that Norman Mineta witnessed an order from Chaney (probably from Bush) that no preventive action was to be taken against the Pentagon aircraft alleged to be Flight 77 including obviously warning the occupants of the Pentagon.

Some readers of his testimony believe that Norman Mineta witnessed a shutdown order which doesn't make sense. Anyway, in the same panel of the 9/11 Commission Larry Arnold clarified the matter supporting Craig's interpretation.

MAJOR GENERAL LARRY ARNOLD: That is correct. In fact, the American Airlines 77, if we were to have arrived overhead at that particular point, I don't think that we would have shot that aircraft down.

MR. HAMILTON: Because?

GEN. ARNOLD: Well, we had not been given authority --

MR. HAMILTON: You didn't have authority at that point.

The RENSE article, CBC 9/11 Video Secrets Revealed

<http://www.rense.com/general65/911b.htm>

highlighted video captures of the Boeing 737 that struck the South Tower and the helicopter operating as a remote control station above the South Tower before, during, and after the ST crash. In addition, the CBC video caught Bush dressed in a gown giving a speech before a Yale audience. He said if you graduate from Yale you are made a President. If you flunk out of Yale you are made a Vice-president. CBC added that Cheney flunked out of Yale TWICE. Discover The

Yale Education of a President:

One source quoted Richard Nixon as saying Yalie Bush I was not very smart but he was someone you appointed to governmental positions.

<http://www.exilemm.com/e-sub-rockefeller.shtml>

John Kerry also 'graduated' from Yale. No more needs to be said.

With Yalie John Kerry having left his courage in Vietnam a Harvard grad, Edward Kennedy, gets it right on the Iraq War but gets it wrong on 9/11:

"The contents of the Downing Street Minutes confirm that the Bush Administration was determined to go to war in Iraq, regardless of whether there was any credible justification for doing so. The Administration distorted and misrepresented the intelligence in its attempt to link Saddam Hussein with the terrorists of 9/11 and Osama bin Laden, and with weapons of mass destruction that Iraq did not have.

http://rawstory.com/news/2005/Kennedy_speaks_out_on_Downing_Street_Memo_Twisted_intelligence_Distorted_f_0607.html

In 1962 his brother, JFK, packed off to another country the author of the Operations Northwoods document, the blueprint for 9/11 and the Iraq War invasion..

This time around Teddy just lets it slide.

Dirty little secrets include napalm to enhance explosions like at the WTC, drones, substitute aircraft, domestic terror (Washington is mentioned!), bogus passenger lists, funerals for fake named people, manufactured incidents to put the blame on Cuba (In this document. However, substitute Iraq for better understanding.).

FINALLY, Norman Mineta explains how the NE airspace was shut down.

"The FAA began to restrict air travel in the Northeast United States by a combination of actions which included sterilizing air space in certain regions and at various airports, and ultimately a nationwide ground stop of all aircraft for all locations, regardless of destination." NOW HOW DID THEY KNOW TERRORISTS WERE ONLY IN THE NORTHEAST?

At approximately 9:45 a.m., I gave the FAA the final order for all civil aircraft to land at the nearest airport as soon as possible. It was the first shutdown of civil aviation in the history of the United States. DOES THAT MEAN THE WHITE JET SEEN AT ALL 9/11 LOCATIONS WAS A MILITARY AIRCRAFT?

He also testified that terrorism (wasn't) high on the list of priorities (of his department). No plan for Northwoods type domestic terror apparently. More secrets: FAA boss Jane Garvey testified that box cutters were not used on 9/11 and no air games or exercises were being conducted on 9/11.

SHOWTIME: The 'military' white jet hits NYC for the 3rd Time on 9/11. The 9/11 White Jet Timeline can be found in the RENSE article, 9/11 CNN Reports Boeing 737s Struck WTC,

In the RENSE article, On 9/11 An Ill Wind Blew to Booker School

<http://www.rense.com/general63/wte.htm>

it was explained that the plotters had to wait for a NW wind day so the smoke plume from the NT would blow over the ST to hide the helicopter operating as a remote control station. The NW wind day forecast came on September 6th setting off a chain of last minute preparations with many Fed Govt employee hitting the road: Bush II to Florida, Greenspan to Switzerland, Powell to Mexico. Even Bush I tried to claim he was out of town on 9/11 in Milwaukee of all places. See the 9/11 Nutshell Timeline for that story in the above RENSE article. Why would Bush I be in the WH on 9/11 when Bush II left for Florida on 9/10. Even Blair made DC on September 21th. to talk about the Iraq War.

The "War on Terror" is a Fraud

by Prof. Mujahid Kamran

Ruling cabals of USA.

The US is today, albeit temporarily, the world's foremost power. It is a country whose people are blessed with wonderful qualities of the head and heart. They are honest, hardworking problem solvers, large-hearted, decent and deeply innocent. The emergence of the US as a power with the greatest ever reaches in human history is the result of a conscious and sustained effort on the part of Washington to make America a great power.

Central to this nation-building process was the key emphasis on cultivating and creating knowledge of nature, and of the high-level of integrity and commitment of the average American. However, the evolution of the US Public State, as a genuine democracy with the ability to unify mankind on a broad basis, has been derailed consistently, and perhaps irreversibly, by corporate cliques that have taken the US on the path of global conquest and exploitation of the poor but resource-rich countries. This path will eventually lead to USA's defeat, beginning in Central Asia, and its rapid and bloody decline in a decade or two, unless, of course, the Americans can bring to book those criminal cabals which currently control, chain and exploit this great nation.

The corporations operate secretly, illegally and without regard for the deeper interests of the people or of humanity. Thus, the exploited countries see the US as a power of unprecedented and unmatched ruthlessness. The US is not only the greatest scientific force in history, but it is also the greatest subversive power ever to afflict this globe.

To murder a few million, to destroy countries and cultures, to plunder like no one has ever plundered before, to burn and to ravage the environment beyond imagination, is something that the US forces do in service of its corporate masters. As General "Howling" Jacob Smith told his troops during the Philippine war: "I wish you to kill and burn. The more you kill and burn, the better you please me." Or as the contemporary American writer Michael Ledeen wrote: "Every 10 years or so the US needs to pick up some crappy little country and throw it against the wall, just to show we mean business." This "business" is corporate business.

Corporations have gained ascendancy in the White House, the US legislative bodies and judiciary, as well as the US agencies, some of which, such as the CIA, were created on the persuasion of, and for Wall Street. This corporate ascendancy in US power structure is now a constant and deeply embedded feature of the American domestic and international politics. The people of the US are now out of the loop completely, and perhaps permanently. Therein lies the real danger to the future of mankind.

The current eruption of US militarism reflects the desperate urge of corporate cabals to hastily enslave mankind and apportion all its resources for the US elite, in the name of the US "people" and "civilisation" of course. It was Orwell who once wrote: "As I write highly civilised human beings are flying overhead, trying to kill me." What took the US into World War I was, more than anything else, the financial interests of the House of Morgan.

The House of Morgan enjoyed a very special relation with the British, who decided to borrow money for its war costs from the J.P. Morgan Bank. Without a British victory these loans would be lost. As noted in 1920 by Morgan's partner Lamont: "The national debts of the world have increased by 210 billion or about 475 percent in the last six years." Wilson had been elected on the slogan of keeping America out of the war, but he betrayed his people and entered World War I in the interest of US banking and business. This war, fought secretly for the control of petroleum reserves, resulted in an estimated 16 to 20 million deaths, half of them civilian.

The Council on Foreign Relations (CFR) and the Trilateral Commission (TC) were set up by the Rockefeller family, the latter in 1973. These "think tanks" work perpetually for the interests of "Big Oil" and related businesses owned by the wealthiest families of the planet. Winston Lord, former US Ambassador to China and former CFR member, once said: "The Trilateral Commission does not run the world, the Council on Foreign Relations does that." In 1973, David Rockefeller met with 27 heads of state, as well as the Pope and representatives of China and the USSR.

However, despite the fact that the US government continues even today to pursue the interests of "Big Oil", a new cabal involving George Bush Sr, Donald Rumsfeld and * Cheney et al has emerged – the so-called neocons. This rightwing cabal started gaining influence during the Ford presidency, when Rumsfeld became Secretary of Defence and brought in his unknown 33-year old protégé * Cheney. As Professor Peter Dale Scott puts it: "In the November of 1975, the team of Rumsfeld and Cheney roughly occupied the same position of dominance in the Pentagon and White House that they would come to occupy in the George W. Bush administration of 2001." They sabotaged the policy of détente, forced the US to abandon the policy of peaceful co-existence with the Soviet Union and subverted the normal democratic channels of decision making. Much of the woes of the world of today result from the neocon strategy: permanent war and permanent subjugation of US public interests to corporate interests.

The neocon movement was funded by an alternative group of wealthy men, who wanted to "roll back", and not just contain Russia and eventually to set up a global US empire. The Olin Foundation, which funded this movement, and the American Enterprise Institute became more important as money was spent on propagating the neocon agenda.

With the advent of Reagan the neocons finally had their way and it was the neocon political trajectory that led to 9/11. It is now very clear that 9/11 was staged so that the US could, under the garb of fighting terrorism, scatter military bases worldwide and embark on its programme of military conquest. As Professor Michel Chossudovsky has put it, the war against terrorism is a “fraud”.

Evidence of Insider Trading on the Attacks of September 11 Did Investors have foreknowledge of the attacks?

by Kevin Ryan

Just after September 11th 2001, many governments began investigations into possible insider trading related to the terrorist attacks of that day. Such investigations were initiated by the governments of Belgium, Cyprus, France, Germany, Italy, Japan, Luxembourg, Monte Carlo, the Netherlands, Switzerland, the United States, and others. Although the investigators were clearly concerned about insider trading, and considerable evidence did exist, none of the investigations resulted in a single indictment. That's because the people identified as having been involved in the suspicious trades were seen as unlikely to have been associated with those alleged to have committed the 9/11 crimes. This is an example of the circular logic often used by those who created the official explanations for 9/11. The reasoning goes like this: if we assume that we know who the perpetrators were (i.e. the popular version of “al Qaeda”) and those who were involved in the trades did not appear to be connected to those assumed perpetrators, then insider trading did not occur.

That’s basically what the 9/11 Commission told us. The Commission concluded that “exhaustive investigations” by the SEC and the FBI “uncovered no evidence that anyone with advance knowledge of the attacks profited through securities transactions.” What they meant was that someone did profit through securities transactions but, based on the Commission’s assumptions of guilt, those who profited were not associated with those who were guilty of conducting the attacks. In a footnote, the Commission report acknowledged “highly suspicious trading on its face,” but said that this trading on United Airlines was traced back to “A single U.S.-based institutional investor with no conceivable ties to al Qaeda.”[1]

With respect to insider trading, or what is more technically called informed trading, the Commission report was itself suspect for several reasons. First, the informed trades relating to 9/11 covered far more than just airline company stock. The stocks of financial and reinsurance companies, as well as other financial vehicles, were identified as being associated with suspicious trades. Huge credit card transactions, completed just before the attacks, were also involved. The Commission ultimately tried to frame all of this highly suspicious trading in terms of a series of misunderstandings. However, the possibility that so many leading financial experts were so completely wrong is doubtful at best and, if true, would constitute another unbelievable scenario in the already highly improbable sequence of events represented by the official story of 9/11.

In the last few years, new evidence has come to light on these matters. In 2006 and 2010, financial experts at a number of universities have established new evidence, through statistical analyses, that informed trades did occur with respect to the 9/11 attacks. Additionally, in 2007, the 9/11 Commission released a memorandum summary of the FBI investigations on which its report was based.[2] A careful review of this memorandum indicates that some of the people who were briefly investigated by the FBI, and then acquitted without due diligence, had links to al Qaeda and to US intelligence agencies. Although the elapsed time between the informed trades and these new confirmations might prevent legal action against the guilty, the facts of the matter can help lead us to the truth about 9/11.

Early signs

Within a week of the attacks, Germany's stock market regulator, BAWe, began looking into claims of suspicious trading.[3] That same week, Italy's foreign minister, Antonio Martino, made it clear that he had concerns by issuing this public statement: "I think that there are terrorist states and organisations behind speculation on the international markets."[4]

Within two weeks of the attacks, CNN reported that regulators were seeing "ever-clearer signs" that someone "manipulated financial markets ahead of the terror attack in the hope of profiting from it." Belgian Finance Minister, Didier Reynders, said that there were strong suspicions that British markets were used for transactions.[5] The CIA was reported to have asked the British regulators to investigate some of the trades.[6] Unfortunately, the British regulator, The Financial Services Authority, wrote off its investigation by simply clearing "bin Laden and his henchmen of insider trading."[7]

Conversely, German central bank president, Ernst Welteke, said his bank conducted a study that strongly indicated "terrorism insider trading" associated with 9/11. He stated that his researchers had found "almost irrefutable proof of insider trading."[8] Welteke suggested that the insider trading occurred not only in shares of companies affected by the attacks, such as airlines and insurance companies, but also in gold and oil. [9]

The extent of the 9/11-related informed trading was unprecedented. An ABC News Consultant, Jonathan Winer, said, "it's absolutely unprecedented to see cases of insider trading covering the entire world from Japan to the US to North America to Europe."[10]

By October 2001, the Chicago Board Options Exchange (CBOE) and the four other options exchanges in the US had joined forces with the FBI and the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) to investigate a list of 38 stocks, as well as multiple options and Treasury bonds, that were flagged in relation to potential informed trades. SEC Chairman Harvey Pitt gave testimony to the House Financial Services Committee at the time, saying, "We will do everything in our power to track those people down and bring them to justice."[11]

Mary Bender, chief regulatory officer at the CBOE, stated "We've never really had anything like this, [the option exchanges are] using the same investigative tools as we would in an insider-trading case. The point is to find people who are connected to these heinous crimes."

The people ultimately found included an unnamed customer of Deutsche Bank Alex. Brown (DBAB). This involved a trade on United Airlines (UAL) stock consisting of a 2,500-contract order that was, for some reason, split into chunks of 500 contracts each and then directed to multiple exchanges around the country simultaneously.[12] When the 9/11 Commission report pointed to a “single U.S.-based institutional investor with no conceivable ties to al Qaeda,” it was referring to either DBAB or its customer in that questionable trade.

Michael Ruppert has since written about DBAB, noting that the company had previously been a financier of The Carlyle Group and also of Brown Brothers Harriman, both of which are companies closely related to the Bush family. Ruppert also noted that Alex. Brown, the company purchased by Deutsche Bank to become DBAB, was managed by A.B. (Buzzy) Krongard, who left the firm in 1998 to join the CIA as counsel to director George Tenet.[13] Krongard had been a consultant to CIA director James Woolsey in the mid 1990s and, on September 11th, he was the Executive Director of the CIA, the third highest position in the agency.

Stock and Treasury bonds traded

In 2002, investigator Kyle Hence wrote about the stocks involved in the SEC’s target list. Those that had the highest examples of trade volume over the average were UAL [285 times over average], Marsh & McLennan (Marsh) [93 times over average], American Airlines (AMR) [60 times over average], and Citigroup [45 times over average].[14] Other stocks flagged included financial firms, defense-related companies, and the reinsurance firms Munich Re, Swiss Re and the AXA Group. Put options for these reinsurance firms, or bets that the stock would drop, were placed at double the normal levels in the few days before the attacks. Regulators were concerned about “large block trades” on these stocks because the three firms were liable for billions in insurance payouts due to the damage inflicted on 9/11.[15]

The four highest-volume suspect stocks — UAL, Marsh, AMR and Citigroup — were closely linked to the attacks of 9/11. The two airline companies each had two planes hijacked and destroyed. Marsh was located in the exact 8 floors out of 110 in the north tower of the WTC where Flight 11 impacted and the fires occurred. Citigroup was the parent of Travelers Insurance, which was expected to see $500 million in claims, and also Salomon Smith Barney, which occupied all but ten floors in World Trade Center (WTC) building 7. Oddly enough, Salomon Smith Barney had both Donald Rumsfeld and * Cheney on its advisory board until January 2001.

Marsh occupied a number of floors in the south tower as well. This is where the office of Marsh executive, L. Paul Bremer, was located. Bremer was a former managing director at Kissinger Associates and had just completed leading a national terrorism commission in 2000. The San Francisco Chronicle noted that Bremer was a source of early claims that rich Arabs were financing Osama bin Laden's terrorist network. In an article on the 9/11 informed trades, the Chronicle reported that "The former chairman of the State Department's National Commission on Terrorism, L. Paul Bremer, said he obtained classified government analyses early last year of bin Laden's finances confirming the assistance of affluent Middle Easterners."[16]

On the day of 9/11, Bremer was interviewed by NBC News and stated that he believed Osama bin Laden was responsible and that possibly Iraq and Iran were involved too, and he called for the most severe military response possible. For unknown reasons, Google removed the interview video from its servers three times, and blocked it once.[17]

The trading of Treasury bonds just before 9/11 was also flagged as being suspicious. Reporters from The Wall Street Journal wrote that the "U.S. Secret Service contacted a number of bond traders regarding large purchases of five-year Treasury notes before the attacks, according to people familiar with the probe. The investigators, acting on a tip from traders, are examining whether terrorists, or people affiliated with terrorist organizations, bought five-year notes, including a single $5 billion trade."[18]

Some reports claimed that the 9/11 informed trades were such that millions of dollars were made, and some of that went unclaimed. [19] Others suggested that the trades resulted in the winning of billions of dollars in profits. One such suggestion was made by the former German Minister of Technology, Andreas von Buelow, who said that the value of the informed trades was on the order of $15 billion.[20]

The FBI Investigations

In May 2007, a 9/11 Commission document that summarized the FBI investigations into potential 9/11-related informed trading was declassified. [21] This document was redacted to remove the names of two FBI agents from the New York office, and to remove the names of select suspects in the informed trading investigations. The names of other FBI agents and suspects were left in. Regardless, some information can be gleaned from the document to help reveal the trades and traders investigated.

On September 21, 2001, the SEC referred two specific transactions to the FBI for criminal investigation as potential informed trades. One of those trades was a September 6, 2001 purchase of 56,000 shares of a company called Stratesec, which in the few years before 9/11 was a security contractor for several of the facilities that were compromised on 9/11. These facilities included the WTC buildings, Dulles airport, where American Airlines Flight 77 took off, and also United Airlines, which owned two of the other three ill-fated planes.

The affected 56,000 shares of Stratesec stock were purchased by a director of the company, Wirt D. Walker III, and his wife Sally Walker. This is clear from the memorandum generated to record the FBI summary of the trades investigated.[22] The Stratesec stock that the Walkers purchased doubled in value in the one trading day between September 11th and when the stock market reopened on September 17th. The Commission memorandum suggests that the trade generated a profit of $50,000 for the Walkers. Unfortunately, the FBI did not interview either of the Walkers and they were both cleared of any wrongdoing because they were said to have “no ties to terrorism or other negative information.” [23]

However, Wirt Walker was connected to people who had connections to al Qaeda. For example, Stratesec director James Abrahamson was the business partner of Mansoor Ijaz, who claimed on several occasions to be able to contact Osama bin Laden.[24] Additionally, Walker hired a number of Stratesec employees away from a subsidiary of The Carlyle Group called BDM International, which ran secret (black) projects for government agencies. The Carlyle Group was partly financed by members of the bin Laden family.[25] Mr. Walker ran a number of suspicious companies that went bankrupt, including Stratesec, some of which were underwritten by a company run by a first cousin of former CIA director (and President) George H.W. Bush. Additionally, Walker was the child of a CIA employee and his first job was at an investment firm run by former US intelligence guru, James “Russ” Forgan, where he worked with another former CIA director, William Casey.[26] Of course, Osama bin Laden had links to the CIA as well.[27]

Another trade investigated by the FBI, on request from the SEC, focused on Amir Ibrahim Elgindy, an Egyptian-born, San Diego stock advisor who on the day before 9/11 had allegedly attempted to liquidate $300,000 in assets through his broker at Salomon Smith Barney. During the attempted liquidation, Elgindy was said to have “predicted that the Dow Jones industrial average, which at the time stood at about 9,600, would soon crash to below 3,000.”[28]

The 9/11 Commission memorandum suggests that the FBI never interviewed Mr. Elgindy either, and had planned to exonerate him because there was “no evidence he was seeking to establish a position whereby he would profit from the terrorist attacks.” Apparently, the prediction of a precipitous drop in the stock market, centered on the events of 9/11, was not sufficient cause for the FBI to interview the suspect.

In late May 2002, Elgindy was arrested along with four others, including an FBI agent and a former FBI agent, and charged with conspiracy to manipulate stock prices and extort money from companies. The FBI agents, Jeffrey A Royer and Lynn Wingate, were said to have “used their access to F.B.I. databases to monitor the progress of the criminal investigation against Mr. Elgindy.”[29] A federal prosecutor later accused Elgindy, who also went by several aliases, of having prior knowledge of the 9/11 attacks. Although the judge in that case did not agree with the prosecutor on the 9/11 informed trading accusation, Mr. Elgindy was eventually convicted, in 2005, of multiple crimes including racketeering, securities fraud, and making false statements.

The Boston office of the FBI investigated stock trades related to two companies. The first was Viisage Technologies, a facial recognition company that stood to benefit from an increase in terrorism legislation. The Viisage purchase, made by a former employee of the Saudi American Bank, “revealed no connection with 9/11.” However, the Saudi American Bank was named in a lawsuit brought by the 9/11 victims’ families due to the bank having — “financed development projects in Sudan benefiting bin Laden in the early 1990s.”[30]

The second company investigated by the Boston FBI office was Wellington Management, a company that allegedly held a large account for Osama bin Laden. The FBI found that Wellington Management maintained an account for “members of the bin Laden family” but dropped the investigation because it could not link this to “Osama, al Qaeda, or terrorism.”[31]

Although the connections to al Qaeda in three of these cases (Walker, the Viisage trader, and Wellington Management) can be seen as circumstantial, the amount of such evidence is considerable. The quality of the FBI investigations, considering the suspects were not even interviewed, was therefore much less than “exhaustive”, as the 9/11 Commission characterized it.

The summary of FBI investigations released by the 9/11 Commission also described how the Commission questioned the FBI about damaged computer hard drives that might have been recovered from the WTC. This questioning was the result of “press reports [contending] that large volumes of suspicious transactions flowed through the computers housed in the WTC on the morning of 9/11 as part of some illicit but ill-defined effort to profit from the attacks.”[32] The Commission came to the conclusion that no such activity occurred because “the assembled agents expressed no knowledge of the reported hard-drive recovery effort” and “everything at the WTC was pulverized to near powder, making it extremely unlikely that any hard-drives survived.”

The truth, however, is that many such hard-drives were recovered from the WTC and were sent to specialist companies to be cleaned and have data recovered. A German company named Convar did a good deal of the recovery work.

In December 2001, Reuters reported that “Convar has recovered information from 32 computers that support assumptions of dirty doomsday dealings.” Richard Wagner, a data retrieval expert at Convar, testified that “There is a suspicion that some people had advance knowledge of the approximate time of the plane crashes in order to move out amounts exceeding $100 million. They thought that the records of their transactions could not be traced after the main frames were destroyed.” Director of Convar, Peter Henschel, said that it was “not only the volume, but the size of the transactions [that] was far higher than usual for a day like that.”[33]

By late December 2001, Convar had completed processing 39 out of 81 drives, and expected to receive 20 more WTC hard drives the next month. Obviously, the 9/11 Commission memorandum drafted in August 2003 was not particularly reliable considering it reported that the FBI and the 9/11 Commission had no knowledge of any of this.

Statistical confirmations

Considering that the FBI and 9/11 Commission overlooked the suspicious connections of informed trading suspects like Wirt Walker, and also claimed in 2003 to have no knowledge of hard drive recoveries publicly reported in 2001, we must assume that they did a poor job of investigating. Today, however, we know that several peer-reviewed academic papers have reported solid evidence that informed trades did occur. That is, the conclusions reached by the official investigations have now been shown, through scientific analysis, to be quite wrong.

In 2006, a professor of Finance from the University of Illinois named Allen Poteshman published an analysis of the airline stock option trades preceding the attacks. This study came to the conclusion that an indicator of long put volume was “unusually high which is consistent with informed investors having traded in the option market in advance of the attacks.”[34] Long puts are bets that a stock or option will fall in price.

The unusually high volume of long puts, purchased on UAL and AMR stock before these stocks declined dramatically due to the 9/11 attacks, are evidence that the traders knew that the stocks would decline. Using statistical techniques to evaluate conditional and unconditional distributions of historical stock option activity, Professor Poteshman showed that the data indicate that informed trading did occur.

In January 2010, a team of financial experts from Switzerland published evidence for at least thirteen informed trades in which the investors appeared to have had foreknowledge of the attacks. This study focused again on a limited number of companies but, of those, the informed trades centered on five airline companies and four financial companies. The airline companies were American Airlines, United Airlines and Boeing. Three of the financial companies involved were located in the WTC towers and the fourth was Citigroup, which stood to lose doubly as the parent of both Travelers Insurance and the WTC 7 tenant, Salomon Smith Barney.[35]

More recently, in April 2010, an international team of experts examined trading activities of options on the Standard & Poors 500 index, as well as a volatility index of the CBOE called VIX. These researchers showed that there was a significant abnormal increase in trading volume in the option market just before the 9/11 attacks, and they demonstrated that this was in contrast to the absence of abnormal trading volume over periods long before the attacks. The study also showed that the relevant abnormal increase in trading volume was not simply due to a declining market.[36] Their findings were “consistent with insiders anticipating the 9-11 attacks.”

Conclusion

In the early days just after 9/11, financial regulators around the world gave testimony to unprecedented evidence for informed trading related to the terrorist attacks of that day. One central bank president (Welteke) said there was irrefutable proof of such trading. This evidence led US regulators to vow, in Congressional testimony, to bring those responsible to justice. Those vows were not fulfilled, as the people in charge of the investigations let the suspects off the hook by conducting weak inquiries and concluding that informed trading could not have occurred if it was not done directly by Osama bin Laden or al Qaeda.

The “exhaustive investigations” conducted by the FBI, on which the 9/11 Commission report was based, were clearly bogus. The FBI did not interview the suspects and did not appear to compare notes with the 9/11 Commission to help make a determination if any of the people being investigated might have had ties to al Qaeda. The Commission’s memorandum summary suggests that the FBI simply made decisions on its own regarding the possible connections of the suspects and the alleged terrorist organizations. Those unilateral decisions were not appropriate, as at least three of the suspected informed trades (those of Walker, the Viisage trader, and Wellington Management) involved reasonably suspicious links to Osama bin Laden or his family. Another suspect (Elgindy) was a soon-to-be convicted criminal who had direct links to FBI employees who were later arrested for securities-related crimes.

The FBI also claimed in August 2003 that it had no knowledge of hard drives recovered from the WTC, which were publicly reported in 2001. According to the people who retrieved the associated data, the hard drives gave evidence for “dirty doomsday dealings.”

The evidence for informed trading on 9/11 includes many financial vehicles, from stock options to Treasury bonds to credit card transactions made at the WTC just before it was destroyed. Today we know that financial experts from around the world have provided strong evidence, through established and reliable statistical techniques, that the early expert suspicions were correct, and that 9/11 informed trading did occur.

People knew in advance about the crimes of 9/11, and they profited from that knowledge. Those people are among us today, and our families and communities are at risk of future terrorist attacks and further criminal profiteering if we do not respond to the evidence. It is time for an independent, international investigation into the informed trades and the traders who benefited from the terrorist acts of September 11th.

9-11 Profiteering

A Framework for Building the
"Cui Bono?"

UnAnswered Questions

Something to Hide

Much has transpired since September 11, 2001.

- We have learned that numerous heads of state and foreign intelligence agencies tried to warn us before 9-11 (2);
- We have watched many deeply disturbing unanswered questions of 9-11 emerge through global Internet media (3);

Something does not add up. Someone has something to hide.

"Cui Bono?"

"Cui Bono?" is Latin for "who benefits?"

Is there a connection between the rich flow of profit and market manipulations flowing from 9-11 and the stonewalling by the Administration and the agency members of the National Security Council?

Time has passed since September 11, 2001. As new budgets are approved, financial statements published, laws passed, taxes cut and stocks go up, it is easier to identify who benefited politically and financially from 9-II.

As we map out the financial "real deal" on 9-II, we realize there are three categories of people benefiting.

Richly Guilty: The first category of people who benefited were those who are guilty and complicit in designing, implementing and financing the 9-II operation. On such a sophisticated and successful covert operation, the people responsible would have had budgets and financing and would have organized the operation to maximize their political and financial benefits. This is the nature of economic warfare.

Richly Opportunistic: The second category of people who benefited were those who were opportunistic in taking advantage of 9-II as an economic and political event as soon as it happened. Some folks, such as money managers, are obligated as fiduciaries to be opportunistic. Others, such as government officials, may be opportunistic at the cost of ignoring their fiduciary obligations. As one retired banking executive said, "Let's face it, if the guys in Washington had been doing their job instead of helping their pals make money, 9-II could never have happened."

Sustainably Naïve: The third category of people who benefited were those who shared in the political and economic profits generated by the first two categories. Taking the position that, "money has no smell," the large number of people in this category are generally not cognizant of their complicity through the incentive system created by "voting with their money, time and attention."

Where to begin to determine the specifics of who benefited? This is a significant task for private citizens who do not have the rich flow of investigatory, intelligence and enforcement resources of government. Hence, a citizen led effort will need to break the task down into manageable collaborative pieces.

One way for global networks of researchers, blog authors and Internet media to start to build the "Cui Bono?" unanswered questions of 9-II is to develop a framework that outlines the general areas of profiteering.

Top 20 Areas of 9-II Profiteering

Here are my candidates for the top twenty profit flows resulting from or related to 9-II and the response to 9-II:

 # # # * Money Missing from the US Treasury

In fiscal 1999 and 2000, the Department of Defense (DOD) reported $3.3 trillion of undocumented adjustments in the process of failing to produce audited financial statements. In the summer of 2001, the appropriations for DOD failed to report out of committee before the summer recess. The political tension between arms manufacturers and defense contractors who anticipated pay back from the Bush election victory and those pressing for federal spending and financing to conform to spending and securities law was resolved by 9-11.

The questions remain – who has the $3.3 trillion plus missing from the US Treasury? what is the role of the NY Federal Reserve Bank and its members as depository for the US government and agent for the Exchange Stabilization Fund? and why are we proposing to cut back social security rather than getting these resources back?

US Stock Market Pump & Dump Fraud

At the time of 9-11, federal and state enforcement leaders were facing a mountain of documentation that up to $6 trillion had been fraudulently skimmed out of pension funds and retail stock holdings through insider trading and other forms of corporate and banking financial fraud and securities law violations.

The events of 9-11 are alleged to have destroyed significant amounts of documentation related to investigations against Wall Street firms and leading New York Federal Reserve members. Subsequent to 9-11, enforcement bureaucracies attention shifted in response to the Patriot Act and a shift in budgetary resources away from policing white collar crime by corporate and banking leadership.

Federal Credit Arbitrage & Relaxed Monetary Policy

Financial institutions who have access to the federal credit can use such credit to raise deposits and savings from citizens, paying little or no interest, and then lend it back to the citizens at much higher interest rates through financing the US Treasury, mortgage agency securities or in relaxed lending policies which charge relatively expensive interest and fees. Hence, it is now a common fact pattern to find people in America earning 2% on their bank CD's while their neighbors are paying Citibank, JP Morgan Chase and the IRS 18% on their debt.

Subsequent to 9-11, these types of rich federal credit arbitrage profits appear to have skyrocketed as the facilitating ease in monetary policy was matched by extraordinary increases in government debt and easing in consumer debt policies and more industry favorable bankruptcy and lending laws. In short, 9-11 appears to have been used by Greenspan and the NY Federal Reserve to promote the back door liquidation of middle class equity through federal credit arbitrage.

This kind of manipulation allows sophisticated financial institutions to "put" their losses back to the government and the citizens in a "heads we win, tails we win" economic model which is hard for the non-financially literate citizen to understand.

US Military and Policing Deployment Globally

With important air cover from 9-11 and the 9-11 response, the flow of government contracts and economic activity is diminishing throughout the United States. That is because our military is being deployed abroad. As these government contracts and related economic flows move to Eurasia, the private equity pump and dumps move from onshore to offshore.

Eurasian Oil & Gas/Afghanistan & Iraq War & Occupation

The 9-11 response has been used to justify increased military, political and covert support to ensure that American and European oil interests are protected in the Middle East and worldwide.

As part of the 9-11 response, the US has invaded and occupied two sovereign nations and, in the process, increased war profiteering, narcotics trafficking and organized crime flows in these areas.

Of particular concern is the necessity that the draft will be re-instituted after the Presidential election and global invasions will continue to subsidize the war profiteering business model.

This model is essentially one in which government pays all the expenses, the citizens give their lands, lives and limbs, and the economic benefits and private booty flow to a handful of private parties and their investors. When viewed by age group, it is a war on the young by the old.

Commodity & Financial Market Manipulations

While allegations of insider trading on 9-11 have circulated in the press, there has been little comment on the extent to which the 9-11 response supported continued manipulation by the NY Federal Reserve and its member banks, including through the US Treasury Exchange Stabilization Fund, of the gold, silver, stock and other capital markets and the continued build up of private unregulated derivative positions.

Suppression of the Florida Media Recount & Black Box Voting

US media canceled the announcement of their recount of the Florida presidential election as a result of 9-11. Allegedly, this would have raised legitimate questions as to the Bush Administration's legitimacy.

After 9-11, the installation of computer voting systems for which there is no verifiable paper trail has accelerated. This increases the chances that Florida type events will increase. The companies doing the installation appear to be predominantly Republican owned and controlled.

Profits are generated both from installation of the system, as well from the benefits to those who can rig elections as a result. For example, it is worth estimating the extent to which rigging the Florida election impacted who got how much 9-11 profits.

Patriot Act Consolidation of Banking & Money Laundering Market Share

The Patriot Act, available off the shelf at 9-11, was passed with little legislative access or discussion. Retirement Benefit Privatization & Cutbacks

In the shift to a permanent war time economy, the alleged insolvency of the Pension Benefit Corporation, Social Security, the health care system and the credits behind the mortgage securities and other securitized consumer debt held in US pension funds and retirements savings has received short shrift financially and conversationally.

Corporate Media

It is essential to understand the impact of 9-11 and the 9-11 response to the market share and profits of corporate media and the linkages between investors in corporate media and in the corporations and banks that most benefited from the policies promoted by corporate media.

HAARP, Ocean, Space & Satellite Weaponry

Since 9-11, we have watched the role out of a significant amount of black budget technology. The intimate militarization of all planetary air, land, water and oceans and space with electromagnetic, laser, sonar and other invisible weaponry implies a zero privacy world for all living things. This is a world where our thoughts and feelings are not free of 24-7 interference and influence unless we wish to tunnel deep underground. Perhaps that is why the black budget is financing so many underground facilities.

This list of twenty profit areas does not include payments to the 9-11 victims or their families. Such payments have been a remarkably effective tool to negate the political influence of the families, and should be viewed economically as an effective advertising expense relative to the total profit flows.

For example, the Republican convention is being held in New York this fall to coincide with the 9-11 anniversary. It is essential for this event that the 9-11 families are muted as an independent voice against 9-11 profiteering. The potential failure to do so is a major Bush Administration political vulnerability.

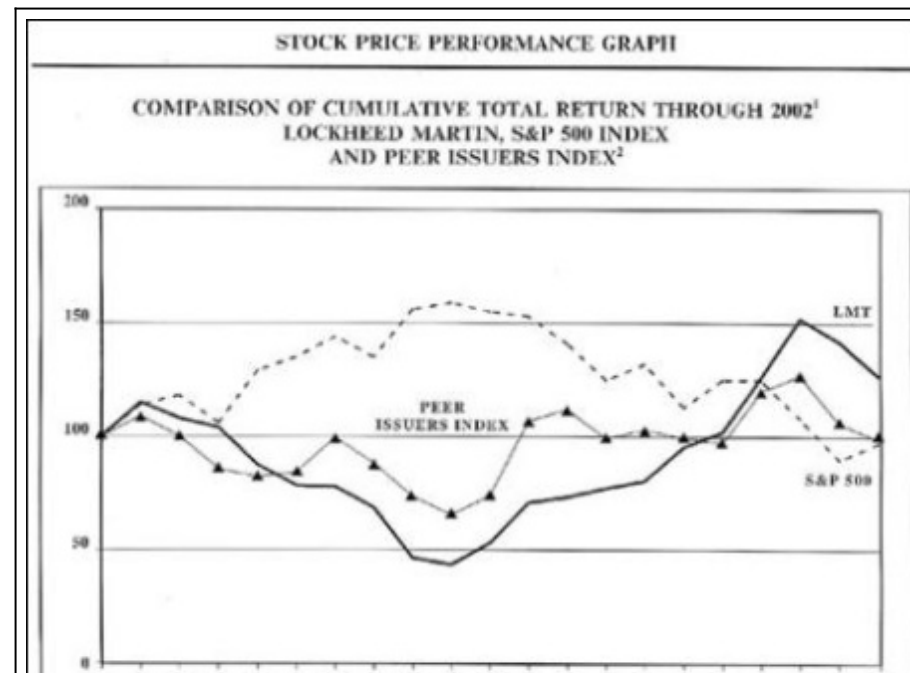

Invitation to the "Cui Bono?" Conversation

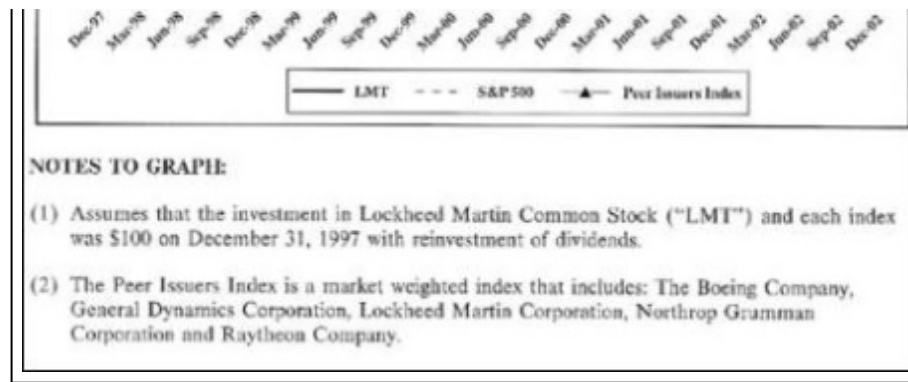

One opportunity to build a better understanding of 9-11 will flow from an analysis of 9-11 profiteering. As we understand the profit flows, we can then drill down to define the banks, companies, organizations and investors who benefited as well as the particular individuals in key leadership positions who profited personally.

In an ideal collaborative research effort, we would attempt to estimate the total financial profits and capital gains to the individuals who have enjoyed the greatest 9-11 benefits. We would also attempt to ascertain patterns between these benefits. For example, we would look at the flow of donations into the current political campaigns. In addition, we would want to understand the shift of capital from the US to Asia to finance the outsourcing of US jobs, to finance the privatization of US government and assets at below market prices or above market contracts, and to park and enjoy the freedoms of offshore havens.

The Administration has something to hide. Rather than lose time and resources getting lost in the White House fog, let's follow the alleged advice of one of the 9-11 Commissioners, Fred Fielding, thought to be the "deep throat" long ago who leaked the Watergate secrets while a Deputy White House Counsel:

The Real Truth Behind The Greatest Illusion Of All Time-9/11

This is for all the serious 9/11 researchers out there. Read this info carefully. It changes everything you have EVER learned about 9/11. This is the real story. This is what the truth community doesn't even want you to know!! This is what members in the truth community you see on TV or radio are paid to hide. This was written about 3 months ago and there has been some new information since then which I will address in comments after the story. Please share this with everyone you know. This is a complete breakdown of what really happened. No it was not the thermite controlled demolition we were told, nor was it Bin Laden, D.E.W.s, Mini Nukes, Drones, pods, or any of those other theories being floated. Its actually much more simple than that. Keep an open mind and enjoy. If you are a true researcher you will know the things I say to be true and if you are not, go look into my claims. You will be amazed!!

1. Introduction

It's the event that forever changed the world we live in. From the loss of our freedoms and most of our privacy, to the invasion of nation after nation in the name of fighting terrorism. No matter what your stance is on who committed 9/11 or how it was done, there is no denying that it has forever changed our world.

In this story I am going to touch on some of the most important aspects of 9/11 that have become taboo to even speak of. Some things that when brought up are attacked by people supposedly on your side. Once you know the real truth of 9/11 which I will expose in the piece, you will see how clear their agenda is and how much betrayal is really going on. That is another story all in itself so I might actually make it two pieces. We will touch on the gatekeepers of the truth movement after. First I want to tell all of you the real story of 9/11 starting with how I found the truth. After taking in this information, reflect back on your studies of 9/11. You will see how so many unanswered questions are now answered. Everything we were taught about that day besides the fact that towers are there no more was a lie. 9/11 was a 30+ year planned event along with the truth movement. The story I am going to tell you is being aggressively censored by almost ALL the so called truth organizations and websites and the mainstream media will never touch this one.

One thing I want to state before we proceed is the work I am doing is the work that should have been done by our law enforcement and our media. It is not disrespectful to ask tough questions about the day that forever changed our world. It is not un-American to question your government. The one thing that really gets me is people that imply its taboo to talk of these things or I am doing something wrong by bringing them up. If you were murdered wouldn't you want every avenue explored, every last detail gone over and most of all want to know who is responsible? Of course you would. I am not going to let this act just go unanswered for. I finally have the truth of 9/11 and am going to share it with all of you. With just about every bold fact that I state I will have solid evidence backing it up. Most times in the form of a short video clip or a photograph. The things I am going to say without proof would get me laughed at, but before you do that look at my proof. You'll find it to be rock solid and undeniable. I'm not here to stir up the pot around 9/11 and make a name for myself. What kind of American would I be knowing the truth of 9/11 and not telling everyone I knew. So just remember before you call me crazy or before you put this paper down or close the window, check my proof. I don't make things up. I have done extensive research into this. It's going to be a fascinating journey into the world of real truth.

I will start right off the bat by saying NO I DO NOT BELIEVE THE GOVERNMENT'S OFFICIAL STORY. If you still believe the governments story of 9/11 we have a long way to go. This paper is not going to be like all other 9/11 reports proving how the govt story is wrong in every way. We aren't going to go over all those points again. It's so beyond ridiculous you can read about that anywhere. You can at any time research any part of the official story and as long as you're willing to read more than headlines you will see it all to be a lie. In the end once I tell you what I am going to expose none of that will matter anyhow. I will prove them all wrong by proving this information right. If you are one of the people that still do believe the official story of 9/11 then, I warn you. You are really going to have a hard time stomaching what I am going to expose in this piece. Many of the "truthers" themselves are going to have a hard time with it. The reason being the REAL truth flies right in the face of everything we were led to believe. This includes what we were led to believe within the truth movement. Remember all the times you told a so called sheep that he or she has been lied to about everything, especially by the media? Well that goes for you and the alternative media too. After you read my explanation on what really happened on 9/11, research it before you attack me! Before anyone attacks me though, you better have your you know what together because mine will be. Everything I state as a fact I can prove. There is much more proof backing my take on 9/11 than there is for any other story whether it be official or not. All those stories have a lot of theories attached to them. Mine does not. Mine has photographic evidence and official documents like the FOIA requests. Everything we have learned about the thermite controlled demolition of the twin towers resulting in 3000 deaths is an outright lie and put out by the government to keep us from the REAL TRUTH.

Yes the government put out the story about the thermite. You will see why. This doesn't mean 9/11 truth is dead. It just means the focus needs to be totally changed. Everyone has it all wrong. As a matter of fact if you bring up the things I am going to reveal you are instantly attacked, your character defamed just like people in THE MAINSTREAM MEDIA would do. I thought we were all better than that? Are we not the ones always telling people to open their minds and look at the whole story? I am giving you a much different tale than we have been told. I don't just mean what the govt. has told us either. All the documentaries we have used as our greatest tool for waking people up are false. Propaganda based on out right deception. Most of the footage in those documentaries if not all of it is staged or faked. It hurts me to say this because I bought into all of it as much as you did. It's still good that we used these films to wake us up to all sorts of issues, at least it did for me, but they have us chasing ghosts. They are set up to put you in that next mental box once you break free of the psy-op of the mainstream media. I never making baseless claims or write my theories as being fact. I have hard evidence backing all my claims and will be leaving that evidence here for you to view.

To all the people who have followed me and my information on 9/11 I'm sorry. We were severely misled but I am going to right the ship today. We are still right in everything we said to people proving the government's story wrong. The Government's story is still just as false but we were wrong about the way the buildings came down and just about everything else.

Yes the United States government is responsible for 9/11 along with some major corporations I will point out. Everything is much different than it seems though. First I want to tell you that even though most of the "truth" groups have been infiltrated I am not saying they are all bad or totally comprised of bad people, BUT most of the key figures at the top have some very bad intentions that I will bring into the light today after revealing to you what transpired on the day itself. Now I am not the person that uncovered all of this but the way my investigation was going, the dots I connected, and my persistence for the whole truth brought me to some information that they have tried to bury. I proceeded to dig. Although all the work isn't my personal research originally I did verify all of it. I have 100 percent read through all the related documents key to this investigation. I triple checked all the sources and the Data as I always do. I don't recite rumors. Now I will tell you my journey to the REAL truth.

Part 2 The Original Wake Up Call

About a year ago while searching Netflix for a 9/11 Movie after seeing the movie World Trade Center with Nicholas Cage I saw a movie called Loose Change 911 An American Coup. After seeing this I knew the government's story was a total fraud. Proven wrong in thousands of ways. Even scientifically impossible in many cases. Let me start by saying this is not going where it would have went if I wrote this a month ago. It turns out that Loose Change is not what I thought it was. Fans of the movie as I assume most of you are, please stick with me. My points will all be validated. I promise once you have the new information you will understand everything in a completely different light. It's a VERY POSITIVE thing that I saw it, even in hindsight because it did make me realize that the government story was absolutely false. It made me not trust the media either and made me keep digging and reading, studying past events and seeing what else we have been lied to about. So in that sense it was great BUT in light of what I've discovered I realize what that movie and almost all the other documentaries I have personally vouched for are. They are in sense gate keepers. They know that a large amount of people will be seeking the truth. They set up these "truth" documentaries and do give you a lot of good info to gain your trust and keep you hooked on their story BUT they keep you from the key issues. They won't even mention it. The only way it would get any airplay in the so called alternative media is if a caller manages to get it out real quick. If you start to get too close to the truth you are muted, cut off, technical diffucultied, or most commonly insulted and attacked. Anyways we will get back to that. Loose Change did wake me up and a lot of you I'm sure and showed us what the government was presenting as evidence was a total fraud. Since that day almost a year ago I have been seeking the truth. I understand if you don't think the government had anything to do with 9/11. The only reason you think that though is because you have never looked. All you need to do is YouTube or Google Tower 7. Look at it. It's a 47 story skyscraper that collapses into a pile just like the twin towers on 9/11. It came down in only 6.5 seconds, nearly free fall speed just like the towers. You know what else it has in common with the Twin Towers? It came down on 9/11. It was not hit by a plane and it came down just like the other two buildings. The news never told you this. This alone should make you want to find out what really happened on 9/11. If it came down exactly like the other two but nothing hit it, well doesn't that tell you it's most likely not the planes that made the towers collapse? C'mon guys. Just use your brain. As much as you might not want to you have to admit it. There is another common denominator we aren't seeing yet.

I'm not going to repeat the same old rhetoric you have all heard on hundreds of 9/11 websites or videos. This is not about proving those same points. This isn't about proving the buildings were blown up or anything like that.. It's true the government is involved in 9/11 but the story being point forward by most of the "truth movement" is a total deception. At this point I'm assuming everyone knows their story along with the governments story. Just in case though I will briefly tell you what each side says then I will get on to all the new evidence

3. The Official Story & Part 4 The Official Conspiracy Theory

In the next section after this one we will dive right into the new evidence but before we start I'll very briefly tell you the official story and the most accepted conspiracy theory. I'm not going to go point by point disproving parts of the story. That would be long and tedious to you the reader and frankly any investigators of 9/11 have heard it all before. I will let my evidence speak for itself and disprove both stories. By this point I'm sure you want to hear this new evidence so we will get on with it.

The official story is 19 hijackers (18 from Saudi Arabia) hijacked four planes from the East Coast of The United States bound for California. 2 planes departed Boston, one from New Jersey, and one from Washington D.C. The hijackers took over the planes with box cutters. There was no distress signal from the pilots The first plane hit the WTC then about 15 min later the second plane hit the other tower. One hour and some minutes later the pentagon was hit with a third airliner and then the 4th crashed into a field in Pennsylvania. There was no military interception on ANY of the flights. They say it was directed from Osama Bin Laden within about 40 seconds of the first tower being hit.

About an hour after being hit each tower of the World Trade Center collapsed into its own footprint. This they say was from the jet fuel in the planes melting the steel and weakening it causing the buildings to collapse. 3000 Americans lost their lives including 343 firefighters!

After this we invaded Afghanistan. 9/11 was all the justification we needed to invade the whole middle east. That is fact no matter which of the three sides of this story you believe. The American people have let the government strip away many liberties in the name of protecting us from this happening again. America is scared. Our government created that fear and uses it to control us and push their war mongering agenda around the world.

4. The Truth Movement's story

Now what the truth movement says. The government had advanced knowledge of the attacks at the least but could actually have pulled them off themselves or contracted someone to do it. The towers came down so fast and so uniform it was just like a controlled demolition. Many witnesses including firefighters heard multiple explosions. It is a fact there is no way jet fuel could even come close to the temperature needed to melt any of that steel never mind all of it. Lots of witnesses talked about bombs going off and explosions on the that day and the news won't play any of it any more. Tower 7 came down at 520 pm and nothing hit it so it proved that if that can come down without a plane hitting it then it's very likely that a plane isn't what took down the other two. It's just not. The plane is not a factor in all THREE collapses yet the third comes down exactly the same as the Twin Towers. That's so elementary. Regarding the Pentagon again there was no large plane parts found including the 12,000 pound engines made of steel and titanium. The hole was only about 20 feet wide. There is no way a 757 fit thru that hole. Then there is the video the pentagon released. Its five frames, that's all. Five frames and they say here is the attack on the Pentagon then boom! Just an explosion no plane! So and so forth. Dr Stephen E Jones even found thermite in the dust.

For the last year I was convinced this was the truth. I have devoted my life to waking people up to this. All my followers don't worry. I will not lead you astray. I have a lot of people depending on me for real information now and this paper is especially for you guys. Don't worry all the facts we've gone over how the government story is a lie still hold true. The thermite story and all that though was all part of an intricate deception that's been THIRTY + years in the making. Dr. Stephen E Jones and the rest of the prominent truthers know what I am about to tell you and they do EVERYTHING they possibly can to steer you away from this information and any information, interviews, phone calls, videos, etc leading towards it. I'm not trying to make problems within the truth movement, but I'm sorry I must have been mistaken. I thought the truth movement was about the truth. The real truth not the convenient truth. For a year I was under the premise these people really wanted the truth. They don't! I know this doesn't sit well with many of my friends in the truth community right now. I assure you what I tell you is true. Once you read the rest of the story about what really happened you will see how they have been complicit in actually covering up the truth. This is hard on me too. I had really looked up to these guys. The information I'm going to tell you is so huge it changes the whole thing. It is going to make you go back and think about every aspect of 9/11 and how this helps it all make sense now. That's why they lead you down the road they do. To keep you running in circles and not getting close this information. Ladies and gentlemen be ready to open your mind like never before. You're going to need all of it to process this. Just remember PLEASE watch the videos I have provided when you come to a link. They are hard core proof of the things I present here. Most of them are completely mind blowing. At the end of everything I will leave an area full of other links so you can check this information out for yourself. I am a serious 9/11 investigator. Some of the people you have come to trust are an insult to people in the real movement like myself. Ready to finally learn the whole truth or at least most of it about the Psy-op called 9/11?

5 Shocking New Information: The Israeli Art Students And The 91st Floor

A few months ago I made the decision to really bear down and dig into 9/11 again. Something just didn't seem right. I had heard Jesse Ventura call into The Alex Jones radio show and say "Alex it wasn't thermite that brought down the towers. It was some form of exotic weaponry, you've got to read this book by Dr. Judy Wood." Alex said Jesse, I know who she is, I know who she is." Then he let Jesse go very shortly after. Let me stop for a second and tell you this is not a paper about Judy Woods Directed Energy Weapon theory. That is what Governor Ventura was referring to. Because of this phone call though it peaked my interest and I am very open minded and wanted to hear everything possible about 9/11, so I decided to take a really good hard look at it. I listened to about 10 hrs. of interviews and lectures of hers. I looked at most of her pictures of ground zero and analyzed all her video. Although she did have some intriguing pictures it was nothing concrete in the least bit BUT still her theory was key in me finding the real truth. Now knowing the real truth it's easy to see how she was fooled into believing it was a Directed Energy Weapon that took down the towers. It actually makes all the sense in the world even though that's not what it was.

Almost the whole truth movement has come out to attack her. I wanted to see who was on her side and what they had to say. When I see honest researchers with good intentions attacked it throws a red flag up for me. They are usually attacked because the information they have is actually good. It happens all the time in the mainstream media in general. They discredit someone so much just so the average viewer won't buy into their story. Jim Fetzer's name came up as someone who supported Wood and this is key. Jim Fetzer like myself is obviously a serious 9/11 investigator. He knows that the second plane was fake as do I. You could watch videos for 30 minutes and know without a doubt that it was a computer generated image(CGI). I always thought it was strange how much opposition you get on that. I never understood how the leaders of the truth movement who obviously have been doing this for ten years, could not know that. How could I realize that in a mere few months after "waking up" but they couldn't in ten years of digging with teams of researchers? I have heard no planners as they like to call us, attacked from every angle. They throw you in another group, the space beamers(people who believe Wood). They try to act like we are talking about green men from outer space or something. They don't want this information out. Soon you will see why. It is part of a much bigger agenda. Now back to Fetzer. This is where it starts to get really interesting and the whole story of 9/11 takes an unexpected twist.

On Jim Fetzer's website there was a radio interview. I will post the interview at the end of this document along with any other links to articles or videos for you to see. These are the clips you NEED to hear. I am giving you some of the sources of my research so you can double check anything you wish. I do NOT expect you to just take my word, I want you to research. Even if you don't research outside of this paper, please watch all the links I posted. It's a very important part of the story. These interviews and videos are so telling and so taboo amongst the "truth community". The first is this Jim Fetzer interview. He interviewed these Phil Jayhan And Larry McWilliams from Letsrollforums.org who tell us the story of a group of Art students staying on the 91st floor from at least as far back as March of 2000 until 9/11/2001. These men were supposedly art students. They released a book about their project which was called Gelatin B(the project). This book they released along with some photographs in the book blow the investigation wide open.

In the book they documented how they would perform a stunt. They had removed a window on the 91st floor and put a balcony out the window. They would then go out on the balcony naked, wave a shirt and a helicopter which they had flying outside the towers would film them. They also had some very telling diagrams in this book. One diagram had a picture of the face of the tower and had a person on the balcony throwing another person or dummy off the balcony, with some fire in the background. It should also be noted that the drawings certainly do not reflect the quality you would expect from art student. I'm a terrible drawer and I could have done better. Ok so what does this stunt mean? The only deaths we saw with our own eyes on 9/11 were the jumpers. Everyone remembers seeing that. Guess where almost all the jumpers came from... Right about the 91st floor. Before everyone jumped they did something very odd. They would all wave their shirt, wait a second then jump when the camera was on them. Just like the Israeli Art students little stunt. Very strange behavior for someone about to jump to their death from a burning building. Come on now. What type of art school is going to have you remove a window on the 91st floor of the trade tower and construct a balcony that would support naked people waving. Not only that but the helicopter??? That's quit the budget the art school has there. These art students were the jumpers from 9/11. It was a special effect. They filmed all that footage leading up to the jump and then just threw out mannequins or filmed in front of a green screen where they added the WTC in the background and they definitely did this in almost all of the pictures, they photoshopped them in there! This is a fact. If you blow them up you can see tons of evidence of photoshopping. There are tons of doctored jumper pics. I will leave links for the pictures. It gets even better than this. Much better.

So now I have established these are the jumpers. This is why you NEED to listen to these interviews for yourself. They will tell you much better than I can. It was the exact floors, with people making the exact same motions and they even had diagrams of them out on the balcony, throwing a mannequin off while being filmed by a helicopter. It's safe to say that at least the jumpers are fake. Those are not real deaths. Why would they fake any deaths??? More dramatic if they add a few jumpers to the people that are trapped inside? Maybe just needed to add a few to bring it closer to 3000? We will get back to that shortly. First more about their other diagram and their photos which tell a story much different than what we have been told!

The "art students" had another very telling diagram. It was a picture of their place of study, The World Trade Center South Tower. Now when they were to draw a diagram you would expect to see maybe office cubicles, telephones, desk, art canvases, tables, chairs, supplies, etc.. Instead we get a picture of the outside and inside of the tower which looks to be pretty accurate but a few things are weird...very weird indeed. In the middle of the tower they have accurately drawn the internal columns of the tower and even got the configuration right with the exception many of the columns are missing. Now why would they draw that? They shouldn't be able to see that! They are working in what is supposed to be a finished building. Only two answers are possible. Either someone gave them classified blueprints of the tower or that's what they saw. Nothing but the internal columns? No desks, phones, walls, nothing??? Well that can't be possible right? Well they also had a quote on there. It was something to the effect of so beautiful on the outside, so empty and desolate on the inside. I'm paraphrasing that. It was something very similar. You will get the exact quote when you listen to the interview yourself. I don't have it in front of me right now. Not only was that written on the diagram of the building but it also said something to the effect of 10 floors above us to the top and it is completely empty and depressing. Well what does that mean? It most likely means the floors above them were literally stripped bare and I will show you proof of this. A lot of proof of this. Some which I just got last night. The information now that I'm looking at this the right way just keeps pouring in. Also there was a large shipping company that they shared the 91st floor with. Guess what was missing from the diagram of the tower. That's right. No shipping company was in there even though officially they were. How many more ghost companies were in there? We will talk about it. Also I should point out the myth of the companies on the floors where the planes impacted. This is simply not true. Those floors were not only vacant. They were unfinished and bare. Not only all that but the elevators since the floors were totally bare DID NOT EVEN HAVE BUTTONS FOR ANY OF THE FLOORS!! This would include all the floors from 79-90. All those floors are inaccessible and absolutely had no companies on them. Ill provide proof of this with pictures of the elevators and a Freedom Of Information Request that shows the occupancy of the towers from 1978-2001. There was a movie on TV tonight seeing that its 9/11 weekend and it was called heroes on the 88th floor. This is outright propoganda. There were NO COMPANIES on that floor or any of the floors in the supposed impact zone! This is not debatable. They made all of that up too. Those floors were NEVER occupied.

5A The Gelatin-B Photographs

The people from Gelatin-B posted more than diagrams in the book. They posted a couple of photos. In one photo you can see one the men actually standing either just outside the window on the balcony they built or he is standing right in the window frame. They photoshopped the image of a heater over the balcony so you couldn't see it. That's not even the remarkable part. Ready for this? There is a couple more pics and in that one you can see that everything is stripped down. They are supposedly renting office space in a finished building and there is no flooring, no inner walls at all, no ceiling, nothing to even hang the ceiling. Their floor was truly empty. The shipping company that was said to have been destroyed in there on 9/11 wasn't there. The people you heard about seeing the plane coming....Another dramatic bullcrap lie! There were no floors from 79-90 and a I will show you many other places throughout out the towers. They also had a bunch of boxes stacked up all the way to the ceiling so anyone that might have somehow got on that floor(remember they are on 91 the elevators next stop after 78) would not see the little stunt they were up to. Filming their little stunt called Gelatin-B was really the staging of the World Trade Center Jumpers!

You will get to see all these diagrams for yourself. You will be able to see the doctored pictures of jumpers. This was all very shocking and it is very suspicious that no one is mentioning this. Needless to say this got me digging and digging. You can be ignorant and call me crazy without looking at my evidence but your only hurting yourself and your family in the long run with that attitude. Now more than ever you need to have an open mind. Just enough to look and see if my claims are true. Please. Everyone is trying to hide this from you. Almost the whole truth community is a fraud. Set up by the government to support the story from an opposing view. They reinforce the lie that planes were used and they totally rule out any media fakery which is almost all that went on. There is much more to this. I told you it's going to flip the whole story around.

It's tough to tell exactly how many floors were empty and completely stripped but we do know this much from the new evidence. The 91st floor and all the floors above were already empty by March 2000 when it was put in that book. We also know the 12 floors under 91 were all empty as well. That's around 25 empty floors near the top of that tower! We also know of many floors near the bottom were empty and the floors that did officially have a company there are owned by one company. For instance floors 79-the top are missing. Well under 78 one company would have like 8 floors making it well over 30 floors in a row missing. So if they were to have ghost companies say they are occupying the tower when they really aren't, it would only take the cooperation of 3 or 4 companies per tower. That's all. I know it sounds crazy. They had emptied the towers and pre demo ed the building prior to 9/11.. The Twin Towers were close to empty on 9/11. The subway, windows on the world and the observation deck is what gave it the hundreds of thousands in foot traffic everyday.That also explains why there was such a little amount of rubble afterwards. Remember not seeing any chairs, computers, file cabinets, etc.? That's because many of the floors in the towers were bare by the time 9/11 came around. I am attaching the proof to all of this right now. Also here is the interviews here I got much of this information. Please listen to them. Don't think we are even close to done because we are not! There is much much more after the links. I am also attaching the FOIA request showing occupancy of the towers and Ill post the pictures of the elevators number panel here. This is just the tip of the iceberg too! Keep reading please.

Here is the above interview with Jim Fetzer about the art students on the 91st fl and the hollow towers. This is a great interview. It's so interesting you won't be able to stop listening to it. There are two parts. Just make sure you listen to part 1 first. They go into great detail of all the things we have talked about so far. Here is the link. you will see the two parts of the hollow towers radio show. Just click it and it will play right there in the browser. Make sure you hear BOTH parts. You will see part 1 and part two right there in a blue link. Make sure you click on 1 first. I have attached after this link the photos that go along with the interview so you will want that open too.

<http://letsrollforums.com/part-2-jim-fetzer-t25146.html>

While you listen to the above clip , look at these pics(below). This is what they will be talking about. The diagrams the art students drew are here, a picture of the towers in 1978 and they are mostly HOLLOW. This is well after it has been finished. Just scroll down a little after going to the link and you'll see the pics.Theres a lot of them.

<http://letsrollforums.com/part-2-jim-fetzer-t25146.html>

Here is the Freedom Of Information Act request that PROVES the towers were mostly empty. The whole myth of those being the busiest office building around was exactly that, a myth. I can't get too far ahead but you will see what I mean soon.

<http://letsrollforums.com/press-release-world-trade-t24256.html>

How's that for a twist to the 9/11 story? The jumpers were faked. Faked to toy with our emotions. Come to think of it those were the ONLY deaths we saw on 9/11.

So what am I getting at? Do I think the death toll may have been lower? Well with the jumpers being faked that means the real death total is already lower right? Also I should mention that some more of the jumpers, these ones being in the still pictures were clearly photoshopped. You can see borders around some of them. One guy they really did a sloppy job with. He is like 90 ft. away from the face of the building. Looks like they took a pic of a man sitting on a bench and cut and pasted it right there and called him a jumper. Blow up the pictures and you can see clearly that the images have different resolutions. Clear evidence of cut n paste. I will leave links to show you at the end. Why fake any deaths at all?

Here is a caller making all the right points til they mute him. Funny how no one in the truth movements mentions this isn't it?? Watch the treatment he gets. This is typical anytime someone hints at this information in the least bit. Well that's all over now! I am bringing this out into the limelight. We have been lied to long enough!

6. The Fake 9/11 Memorial

Each year the families of 9/11 meet for a service. Much of these memorials are actually staged! They are a photoshopped mess! Lots of errors in there. Things are clearly cut out and pasted together. I will post the link. You will see a man's head from the side and its literally cut off when running into an image of a flag. Obvious photoshopping errors like this are all thru the photos. They constantly have errors with the environment. Why would they fake pictures from the memorial for the 9/11 victims' families? Why haven't the rest of the families said anything about this? I will show you why. How's this? Again why would they use photo trickery to fake any memorial service? Why are they faking any part of 9/11 or the after services at all? Why aren't the family members that were there at these memorials screaming out about this nonsense? You will find out why. First watch this very short clip please so you can see for yourself how doctored these images are! These are the official press photos going around the media and they are all doctored photoshopped images.

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=m3yTRKhlyqU&feature=related>

7. The Fake Victims and Fake Firefighters

The 3000 victims of 9/11 were from a computer database. The pictures are all computer generated. You will see hard core proof of this in the videos I'm attaching. They would make a face on the computer and off of that they would make two different pictures of the victim. In every case you can tell they originate from the same photo. Their faces are all the same angle, with the same lighting, the same expression. They just change the background and the people's clothes but it is very noticeable. In some of the photos they just flipped it and changed the bg, and called it a new photo. Now with that alone I could see you not being convinced seeing that it's the same person, but how about when its two different people? Wait til you see the firefighters. We are to believe 343 of them died on 9/11 right? Well with the firefighters it is obvious that they took one picture and made two entirely different people out of it! Time after time as you go thru you will see a side by side comparison of what is supposed to be two different firefighters. They are identical except they switched maybe one feature . This is not one or two of them or some form of coincidence. Hundreds of them when side by side are clearly the same image used twice! The investigation doesn't stop there

See The FAKE FireFighters right here!! <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ry8KQrfXecc> The whole clip is great but if you want to see the firefighters right away go to 4:50 mark. Remember these pics side by side are supposed to be TWO ENTIRELY DIFFERENT PEOPLE!! Remember that!

Now we are going to speak about Jason Bermas taking a call on the fake victims. His agenda is clear when fighting this evidence. You can't deny it. If you are still denying after looking at the clip I am providing then it's not worth my time explaining it to you. You are too close minded. I have just showed you a ton of firefighters who are fake. Made off of a computer. Go ahead look again. Your eyes are not lying to you. Look 3 times. It won't change. The pictures are a photoshopped mess. Now ask yourself this. If they faked all these deaths, what's to make you believe they didn't fake all of them? Are you getting pissed off yet?? You should be. They have been playing you off your emotions for ten years. You have lost all rationale on the matter. They have had everyone including me so busy looking into who was responsible instead of looking into if it happened in the first place. More on Bermas later. We will talk about all the prominent people in the "truth movement" I was going to save that clip for a little later in the story but I wanted you to see how right on I was with this before you kept reading. Now onto even more fakery.

The Real Truth Of 9/11 Revealed Finally

Revealed

For people you are trying to convince the government was involved in 9/11, one of the first things they say is "Why would our government kill 3000 of its own citizens?" Well What if they didn't? What am I getting at? You thought I said the government was involved in 9/11? I did. They were involved. It was all their idea. Along with all the major media outlets in this country. The big five were all complicit in the events of 9/11. The big five being Fox, CNN, ABC, NBC, and CBS. Our government was involved and even came up with the plan BUT they didn't kill 3000 Americans! Not even close. While it is still very wrong what they are doing in the middle east as a result of supposedly being attacked and it is so messed up the way they are using 9/11 and terrorism to take our rights, that doesn't change the fact. 3000 people DID NOT DIE on 9/11. The only deaths you saw were the jumpers which we now know were faked and If you aren't sure of that, that's just because you've only read what I said about it but have not listened to the interview I posted above regarding the jumpers. Its undeniable I will leave open the possibility that there were some deaths but if so it was very few. Under a hundred. Even if you can come out and somehow prove a death or two to me, That's doesn't disprove they faked thousands of them. There is mounds of evidence backing this up. They faked tons of victims. For anyone that might be a real family member I mean no offense to you if you do exist, but the government faked thousands of these deaths and I will prove it to you. I am very careful when addressing this sensitive issue. I would never say this if I didn't have substantial proof of faked deaths and boy do I ever. photographic proof.

Pretty intrigued now aren't you? What reason can you come up with why they would make up fake firemen? Besides the fake firemen and fake jumpers what evidence do you have potraying fake victims?

Well I have a lot for you to see actually. This next one shows you how they use one pic to make two photos of the same victim. Like a current picture and an older one with different clothes on. You'll notice how in every picture their faces are the same exact angle, with the `same expression, same lighting etc. Towards the end it will show you some of the firefighters again. Firefighters that are supposedly two different people. Be sure to check both clips. They are both short so don't worry. the only really long stuff is the audio interviews but they are packed with information

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=PoZEuj1VPv0>

<http://youtu.be/m3yTRKhlyqU> Please Click This Link. Its VERY IMPORTANT. This is a very good breakdown on the photo-shopping and face morphing used to create the victims. This takes what we were just talking about and really expands on it. You'll see hundreds of examples of this trickery used to create the victims!!

The Social Security Death Index

When someone in America dies it gets entered into the SSDI. They also have a death certificate issued. For September 11th 2001 all those ppl should appear in the SSDI. Well out of the 3000 people who were said to have been killed on 9/11 only 466 appear in the SSDI. Out of those 466 only 220 have had death certificates issued! Even more glaring than that is the fact that out of the 466 listed on the Social Security Death Index only 59 are listed in the Victim Compensation Fund(VCF). Yes FIFTY NINE! That's It! They are getting paid 1.9 MILLION DOLLARS and almost no one has shown up to collect. Free money! 2 million dollars' worth maybe even more. When you add this to the fact that all the firefighters photos are doctored and the facts you learned about Gelatin-B and the jumpers I think it's fair to ask the question if anyone really died on 9/11. They have us so busy fighting over who is responsible that no one is even looking to see if it even happened. No matter your emotional state if your loved ones are killed in a terror attack and the government is giving all the families 2 million dollars, they are going to collect. All 3000 of them. For only FIFTY NINE people to collect is absurd. Before you tell me I'm wrong do some research. Take hours of the day today and plug the names on 9/11 victims into the SSDI. You will hardly find any. Many people have put all the names in and it came back only 12% of the names of 9/11 victims show up in the SSDI. 12 percent!! It should be 100 percent. The VCF should also have close to 100 percent collected. The death records don't lie. Plug your deceased great grandfather in or your uncle. They will all show up in the list. SSDI admittedly isn't 100 percent accurate but it is over 90 percent. So it is absurd that only 12 % of the names show up! If you are not in the SSDI it's because you are not dead. I can show you they faked thousands of deaths. Like I said I do leave open the possibility of some deaths but I find it very very unlikely. Now there are some people that died on that day that are not around anymore for example a pilot from around here. While I don't have all the answers and don't have the means or resources to locate a missing or hidden person that does not make me wrong. I am still correct on all the things I proved to you. I just don't have all the answers but I am looking into all of it. Now as I told you I always deal in facts. The next statement I'm going to make is opinion. The VCF is a few BILLION DOLLARS and there is also a Business Compensation Fund which few people know about. This fund is something like 36 billion dollars. Plenty of money to pay for all the actors of 911 and a few families. You could give someone 20 million dollars to relocate people and it wouldn't even phase you. Trillions are being made off these endless wars now. A few hundred million to make sure a group of people don't talk would be sufficient. Think about all the ghost companies I told you about. So the compensation fund is there. Billions upon billions of money that is supposed to go for companies that don't exist. So now they can pay the actors and producers with money that will never be known to be missing.

The Prominent Family Members of 9/11 Truth

As I told you the memorial photos were faked. All this fakery falls in line with all the TV fakery of that day. Any serious investigator of 9/11 knows that at the very least the second plane was fake, a special effect. Well frankly no planes at all were used on 9/11. I have plenty of proof on that. Anyone that doubts me, message me I will send you hard core proof there was no second plane. Now all of that makes even more sense. We had fake planes, moving bridges, actors playing witness, etc. Now it makes sense because the whole damn thing was a movie. Think people what planes did you see? You saw the second plane. I proved it to be a fake. What deaths did you see? Only the jumpers. Those were also fake. The only plane you saw was fake. See a pattern here yet? So what about the families? What about all those families we always see?

Whenever you see a 9/11 documentary you see some family members upset talking about their loved ones lost in the towers. Out of 3000 people having tens or hundreds of thousands of family members you seem to see the same group of family members in all the movies, all the clips, and all the commercials. Why is that? Bob Macilvane is featured in the Tower 7 commercials. He was on Geraldo on FOX talking about building 7. He was on Jesse Ventura's Conspiracy Theory. He travels around the globe with two photoshopped pictures of his son(you will see them in the video!) . They all carry around the same two pics all the time. In those pics guess what? PHOTOSHOP. Both pictures have the same exact pose, in the same exact lighting, with the head angled the same way, etc. Especially on Bob Macilvanes pictures you can see how the head is VERY cut and paste. Just like the rest of his traveling actor buddies. His son Robert Macilvane Jr is NOT LISTED IN THE SSDI. Donna Marsh has been featured in all the same places except Geraldo but she has been in a few of Alex Jone's Documentaries. She is always screaming in the street about how George Bush killed her daughter. Her daughter with her two photoshopped pictures. Her daughter who....drum roll please..... IS NOT LISTED IN THE SSDI. and on and on and on. All the prominent parent's kids are not listed in the SSDI. They never died. Never existed. No one can track down any friends or coworkers or anything like that proving these people to be real. I am not saying 100 percent that no one died on 9/11. a couple people could be proven to be real BUT I am right saying they faked thousands of deaths. Why fake so many and not all of them? Seems highly unlikely. I say if they faked most of the firefighters and most of the regular victims, I say they probably faked them all. I know what you're thinking but once you see for your own eyes how the photoshopped the firefighters picks you will know I am right. Here is the next clip for you to watch. It is on the fake families of the fake victims.

Here is the next clip for you. The 9/11 Actors it's called. A month ago watching these "family members" weep I would feel sad, now I'm enraged! You should be too! It's all fake!

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6aPvJSQtmoE&feature=related>

Here is another VERY important piece of information. There were ghost companies in the towers. Companies that were said to be there but we know they weren't because those floors don't exist. There isn't even anything to stand on. Two of these ghost companies Cantor Fitzgerald and Marsh McLennan took up about the top third of each tower according tho the Freedom Of Information Act about the occupancy which I have put in this report. In both towers Marsh McLennan supposedly is on flors 92-101. We know this to be false in many ways. Remember the Gelatin B? Well they were on 91 and they stated that all the floors above them were empty and this would also prove true when you see the picture of the Hollow Towers. Those floors aren't even there. It is empty. You could see right thru until they installed the shutter system. This is in both towers. So this company is obviously a fraud. Well they claimed to have lost 295 employees and 63 contractors. All fake! Cantor Fitzgerald was supposedly on floors 103, 104, 105 which also did not exist. There were no floors after 91 where the fake jumpers were filmed and under 91 the elevator didn't stop until 78! I have enclosed pictures of the elevator keys. So from 78 to the top there was only one floor. 91. Well Cantor Fitzgerald which is a fake company supposedly lost 658 of their 960 employees!! All fake. You add those two fake companies together and you get 1016 fake deaths! That is already a third of the total and a third of the tower and you only had to have two fake companies set up. So the idea it would take 1000's of companies to be in on this or the idea that there was thousands and thousands of people in the buildings just isn't true. Those buildings were almost completely empty for their entire life. It was all an illusion that they were these busy office buildings. They had cleverly designed it to have a very high amount of foot traffic even though the place had very little occupants. They built an extremely busy subway station underneath which would bring close to half a million people a day through it. Then they put the Windows on the World restaurant and observation deck at the top to keep traffic moving up and down. It was a genius plan. They had shutters installed because as you can see in the 1978 pictures the sunlight would easily expose part of what they were doing. These shutters blocked that from happening and also threw light in different ways to make the building seem as if it had lights on in different offices. Those buildings were never more than like 25 percent full! They would have massive amounts of floors missing in a row and not just at the top. The first floor the elevator would normally stop should have been 7. It was one above ground level. Well it didn't stop at 7,8,9,10,11,12,13,14, Then Rockefeller put a Bank of America in on a few floors and who even knows if that was real now. You can see this all for yourself as well as the move in date of EVERY tenant. You'll also see in some of the pictures there were tenants listed on the walls that were not in the FOIA. The whole thing is a big farce. Look at the FOIA I enclosed. You will see how suspiciously the towers "officially go from about 25 percent full to about 95 right before 9/11. Its so absurd

At the end of this paragraph is great example on how the scenery was also faked on 9/11. You can't deny this proof. If you do then you truly do not want the truth and are covering up for the government. You can see people's arms going through other people's bodies.

People 9/11 was the top grossing movie of all time. It was not a terrorist attack. The buildings were empty, the blocks around the WTC were evacuated, and most of everything we saw on the TV was fake. It was all Computer Generated Images and special effects. The WTC and the Pentagon even had an elaborate smoke delivery system to produce extra smoke effects and the WTC had a special shutter system to throw light in different directions making it seem as different offices deep in the building were lit up. We will get back to the props in a bit. I have photographic and video evidence of this at both locations. For months I have known that the second plane was just a CGI effect. I knew many of the interviews were staged with actors and I already knew that the image of Manhattan we saw was CGI also. For those of you that still can't believe this I will attach extensive proof that the second plane(the one you say you saw with your own eyes) was a computer generated image. This isn't debatable. Now uncovering this information for me has taken hours and hours of deep research every day. I don't expect you to just see a few clips and believe but these clips should make you know I am right and make you want to dig more. I will leave links at the end for deeper research so you can dig and dig yourself if you don't trust my research. The things I am saying are provable unlike the official story or even the thermite story.

<http://youtu.be/fB-laKA65-Q>

Look at this picture. The plane is already penetrating the tower yet the tower is smooth and not broken, like a video game.

http://4.bp.blogspot.com/_eC3D23_VWxg/TlrLEq8BbXI/AAAAAAAAAJM/uP8TkupJdow/s1600/NY+-+WTC+2nd+Plane+1.jpg

Do you see now? Tht is fake. Doesn't it look fake? Well just in case here is proof flight 175 was still in the air after the south tower had already collapsed. It is a fact it did not hit the towers.

<http://youtu.be/jdXGSefl6pM> The Smoke Machines and Pipes.

You won't see this anywhere but one place on the web. There was actually an intricate smoke piping system installed at the WTC! You can clearly see it in the photographs I will show you. There are pipes sticking out the windows blowing off black smoke. It also seems it is making small fires on the inside in the piping.

If that wasn't enough we have video of a smoke machine on the pentagon lawn! You can see it right when they turn it on. Once again this all makes sense now. If we saw these pipes before we might not know what the hell is going on. Now that we know it was all a movie, that all makes sense now, doesn't it. Let's call those what they are movie props. It was the biggest grossing movie of all time, September 11th. Here is the link for you to see it for yourself.

<http://letsrollforums.com/hollywood-special-effects-fake-t23532.html>

When you're ready to open your mind to the fact this was all fake there is a movie called September Clues you need to see. This will show you so much of the TV fakery and the medias direct involvement on 9/11. It will be in the group of links at the end of the report.

The only theory I am putting forth today that I cannot prove yet is that if there are some real people that are missing from their families and friends and supposedly died on 9/11 then the government paid them handsomely to relocate. Paying someone even tens of millions of dollars which would surely be enough for a lot of people and that wouldn't even be anything up against the trillions of dollars made off this event. Proving that there is a few real people missing since 9/11 would not disprove any of what I have said. It would highly interest me though and I am very doubtful that would ever be the case. I do leave open the possibility of a small number of deaths but I highly doubt it. People from my area no doubt will ask of the pilot John Ogonowski. I'm sorry. I do not know. Maybe a few people did die or maybe he relocated. You know my opinion. I would say he relocated but I am not a private investigator and if someone is really in hiding I don't have the means to track them down. That is the first thing on my list though. I do wish I had the answer to that question believe me. I do not want to be disrespectful to anyone who may have died so I am not about to say his family is not telling the truth. There are some very strange things surrounding the events of his life before 9/11. I wish I had more to tell you but I am just digging into this part of the crazy story. He was NOT scheduled to fly that plane. He was supposed to be going to an Asian Festival or something like that on the 11th. At the last minute late the night before he called the original pilot and told him to take the day because he really wanted to make that flight to Los Angeles. For what reason the last minute change? Why was John cancelling on his friends on his prior engagement. Now if that's not weird enough John picture has been taken down from a lot of memorial and replaced with an older one. Normally this wouldn't be a huge deal but in this case it is. John is a captain. In the older picture he is not and the stripes on his uniform represent that. It's actually kind of dishonorable to do that to him. He would want as any veteran would want his proper rank displayed. It's very odd. Also CNN has completely taken down his picture. Why? This was last night I checked. I have many questions on the pilot and the events related to him surrounding the 11th.

The Exif Data Doesn't Lie

Before doing this research I was not aware of what exif data was. I am okay on a computer but I have never had the need to use Photoshop. Exif data is data about the picture that is stored within the photograph i.e. the shutter speed, the light, the resolution, the date, etc. It stores all sorts of specs. Well when looking at the exif data on some of the 9/11 victims there are some very glaring problems. Since investigation has started on this CNN and other memorials have TAKEN DOWN MANY PICTURES. They don't want you to be able to read the exif data and catch them in a lie. It's easy and you can use an exif reader for free. It's as easy as an add on to your browser then you can right click any picture on the web and read the exif data. So what is in this data that is so glaring. Well how about the pictures were last edited before 9/11 which wouldn't be a big deal on its own but if you look at the exif data some of the better known victims such as MARK BINGHAM (hey mom it's me Mark Bingham. You believe me don't you?)lol. Yes I am Laughing. We can laugh. He is a fake victim! when you look at his exif data guess what was added on 8-30-2001 almost 2 weeks before 9/11.... HIS OBITUARY! It says he was killed in the terrorist attacks of 9/11. It even says which flight he was supposedly on. TWO WEEKS BEFORE HE WAS ON THE FLIGHT! This is the case with many of the victims. Some obituaries were done even 7 months in advance!

Check out these links on Mark Bingham

Here is the EXIF DATA. With an obituary and all. Last edited on 8-30-2001. With the events of 9/11 already including embedded in the photo! This is solid proof this was all faked! You can't even come to another conclusion.

Exif data similarities on different "victims"

<http://letsrollforums.com/9-11-exif-data-t22432.html>

9/11 was the highest grossing movie of all time. For the people that don't already know that 9/11 was an inside job you probably are ready to stop reading this by now, but to all you awake people. We have been intentionally led down the wrong path. The thermite evidence isn't even valid. All that free fall collapse footage we analyzed for months and months is fake. It's a special effect done on a computer. Nothing more. It doesn't matter how fast the towers came down because that footage is not real. That also explains why Judy Wood thought they used directed energy weapons. At one point the towers do seem to disintegrate. That's not because it is evaporated from an elaborate weapon. It's because it is a sloppily done effect done on somebody computer. As a matter effect there was a lot of sloppy editing going on that day. A real amateur job I'd have to say. If you take the time like I have to sift thru hundreds of ground zero pictures. You will see they are photoshopped too. Almost all of them. The sun doesn't lie. In many photos they would add say a shot of a tower on fire to the background of some other buildings. Well when they put the two scenes together many times the pictures must not have been taken at the same time of the day thus the shadows are shooting different directions of the buildings. In other pictures shadows are missing. Dr Stephen E Jones even photoshopped a picture on his site displaying a pool of molten metal. No planes we used to hit their targets on 9/11. Most of you guys know that. Did planes even take off that day? Not sure. I'm leaning towards no but they could have. No planes was smashed into any of those building for sure though. We know there was no plane at the pentagon. We know the Harley Guy as he is called on the net, Mark Walsh was really Mark Humphries an actor. We know the second plane was done on a computer. We know images of New York City were fake. Even most of the ground zero photos are doctored. The sun doesn't lie. You have foregrounds added on top of backgrounds and the shadow from the sun will be going in the wrong direction for that time of day in Manhattan. The reason we found all these errors was the fact it was all just a movie. The streets around the trade center were empty when the towers were coming down. The police had everyone backed blocks away. All of that footage is fake. From what I now know everyone's electronics were not working. It is possible, actually it is likely that the government released an Electro Magnetic Pulse Device(EMP) to shut down everyone's mobile devices. I may be wrong as I just haven't dug deep enough yet into this one part but I believe that everyone's recording capabilities were disabled. We know the air was a no fly zone above NYC after the "hit" so no news crews were going to expose what was going on. They were in on it. This was a 30 year plan. The WTC was built specifically for the purpose of destroying them on 9/11 2001. They never had to kick too many companies out. It was never full. It was all an illusion. The designed it with the subway at the bottom and the Windows of the World restaurant at the top along with the observation deck to keep a lot of foot traffic going thru it. This gave it the appearance of being super busy. The floors that were the supposed impact zones were vacant. Not only vacant but totally bare. Never having anything on it. All the stories about the people on those floors is a joke. No one was EVER on those floors. Those floors were not built. The elevators would skip right over them. They wouldn't even have buttons for them. I have enclosed pics of the elevators buttons. I have enclosed the Freedom Of Information Act that shows the occupancy of those towers. I have proved that most of the victims were fake. There is more to the story though. This was such a well thought out plan. Now I will post the next interview you need to hear. This is all about the mechanized shutter and lighting system that was installed to help pull off the illusion the towers were at near full capacity for years. Have a listen. Welcome to the truth of 9/11. All a staged scripted television event. You can go much further than my work to. There are plenty of photos and videos to analyze on the web. They are all frauds. The more and more you look the more it gets proven to you

See how much evidence there is of this? Need more? Ok how about the woman who accidentally admitted she was a 9/11 actress?

The "Truth" Movement

This next part really hits home with me. Once I "woke up" to the supposed truth I had quickly latched onto some of the leaders of the truth movement. Little did I know The Truth Movement was set up by the same people who committed the crime. The people at the top of the pyramid of the truth movement have been lying to us all along. They have known that TV fakery was the key because the whole thing was completely made up. I use to listen to Alex Jones every day. He seemed like he was giving us so much info but he really is just a gatekeeper! He gains your trust by giving you some good info(most of which is already out, mixes it in with intentional disinformation, then he steers you in the thermite direction. You can think what you want but there is no way Alex Jones, Jason Bermas, Luke Rudowski and others who have been studying this for ten years don't know this information. You can't tell me I found this out before them. There is no way. They are hiding it and as a matter of fact let's talk about how they act when you bring it up. I'm going to repost one clip from earlier because I want you to listen to what he really says now that you know this. It's clear he has an agenda and that agenda is to deny the TV fakery at all costs. If you haven't seen September Clues, that's the movie he is crapping on. September Clues isn't full of facts you need to trust the sources on like all the other 9/11 documentaries. September Clues is just an analysis of the ACTUAL FOOTAGE from the major networks on 9/11. It proves TV fakery a million times over. Bermas sounds like a fool. He even says if there was TV fakery I think there would be some videos showing the Tower blowing up with no plane, but they don't exist! Don't exist?? I have a couple myself. Bermas goes on to tell you he has seen probably more 911 footage than anyone. My point proven! There are thousands of videos on YouTube and all over the internet showing bridges walking, buildings moving 6 blocks out of place, and all sorts of other layering issues. If he really wanted the truth he would not be denying the fact that the media was a major factor in staging 9/11. Bermas, Alex Jones, Luke Rudowski, Stephen E Jones and the rest of them all beat the thermite story down your throat and they all sound like tools when they attack people who know there was TV Fakery. This is what made me realize they were frauds. Even Alex. For a few months it never made sense to me how he never talks about the second plane being fake. Then when discovering all this, I ran into a few of his interviews where he calls people who know there was TV fakery going on that day mentally ill and a host of other insults. This is coming from the guy who says more crazier things than anyone I had ever heard. For all the people out there that don't know there were are tons of glaring errors in the video that proved it to be not live and doctored I will leave some very telling clips for you, but you really should watch September Clues. It's all about the TV fakery. A million 9/11 "truth" documentaries and only one mentions the real story. After this section I will leave a few clips you NEED to hear. Listen how they attack people getting close to the real truth. They even try and tell people you are trying to muddy the waters with bad information. Then there is the Austin Gun Rally.

I don't want to make this paper all about Alex Jones but he is one the leaders if not the leader of 9/11 truth. He is a very persuasive person and a lot of people put a lot of trust in him but he is a wolf in sheep's clothing. I know how powerful he is. He is so powerful that some of you might actually stop reading this in depth analysis of the real story of 9/11 just because of your allegiance to Alex. Don't have blind faith in anyone. You need to see this. He goes on the air telling everyone how he was at the Austin Gun Rally and he had cointelpro poking him in the face and disrupting him(cointelpro is govt agents sent into a movement undercover to derail it, discredit it, etc..) He goes into this big long speech about it and about how people were coming up to him thanking him etc., etc.. He actually is doing everything he says cointelpro did to him. He disrupted their whole speech, was extremely rude to protestors and really showed his true colors. One of the main reasons people like him is he seems like an incredibly honest guy willing to put his life on the line for you. Watch the clip. This is who is leading our truth movement.

Alex Jones goes to Austin Gun Rally and then totally lies about it on his show!

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=9uyIVzdvGi4>

And here is Alex trashing anyone who KNOWS there was no second plane. He calls us no planers and SPACE BEAMERS!! Space Beamers????!! Ya Okay. Are you starting to see the agenda here? Once you get close, Alex is there to use his clout to insult you and hopefully others will follow him without even seeing your evidence. This is bigger than just being lied to by someone you trusted. Alex Jones. The So called patriot. The leader of 9/11 truth is really there to make sure you never get to the real truth. I'm not going to make this the Alex Jones paper but there is a lot out there that will back all of this up. How about I have two more videos where Alex tries repeatedly to incite the crowd. Then when he can't get it going he actually bumps this guy with his shoulder. When the guy comes towards him guess what Alex did.... he hides behind a cop and said that guy over there assaulted me!! Like a coward. All that screaming in the studio like a tough guy and he is a total fraud. I'm not the only one. Many people like myself who used Alex to wake them up but now see who he really is. He is a gatekeeper. Yes that is why he is not dead. He truly works for them. He wants to talk about Psy-ops and cointelpro. He is cointelpro. After a few short clips onto Luke Rudowski which could be a report all by itself! He's even dirtier!

Alex telling "no planers" they have a mental illness!

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CQIYmnPzVgA>

Bermas again trashing September Clues and the makers. He calls the guy a Meth addict and makes fun of the way he looks. Classic Cointelpro tactics.

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zJcwoiR24sM&feature=related> ok now listen to this whole clip from the beginning thinking about what I told you on their agenda to hide the truth of TV Fakery.

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ry8KQrfXecc>

I have also uncovered some more very disturbing things about Alex Jones. He has been censoring people from posting certain keywords on his site. He has been editing out phone calls so if you hear the rebroadcast you won't hear the calls that bring up the Knights of Malta or the Jesuits. I've seen him try to incite a riot several times and when it wouldn't work he shoved someone. Then Alex runs and hides behind a cop and says he assaulted me! I saw him do this more than once. If you try to type Knights of Malta and post it on his site in the comments it won't post. If a headline had to include one of these groups he disables comments on it so people can't share their knowledge of it. He purposely edited a piece by spelling Pat Buchanan's name wrong so if you search Alex Jones and Pat Buchanan the search will yield no results unless you know to spell it wrong. If you need to know more about his character then read up on the Grey family in Texas. They were in the middle of a standoff with the government and said Jones could interview them but could not release the tape til after the standoff had ended since it would give up crucial defensive positions in the house. He said it could only be used for a documentary later on. Then a few days later Alex has a strange request for the Greys. Let ABC in to have 20/20 film an interview. Grey refused and Alex conducted the interview alone as planned. Well guess what happened next. Alex betrayed that family and actually SOLD THE TAPE TO ABC for $700!!! Yes ABC the same people he swears he doesn't work for. With all the stuff I found out about my former hero I could do a whole paper just on that. I am going to post the link to my YouTube playlist exposing Alex Jones in every way. From his censoring you to him ratting out to the FBI to Lying about Bill Cooper, the man who would have been the real leader of the truth movement. Alex will do anything to discredit Bill Cooper. He even lies about predicting 9/11. He knows damn well Bill Cooper predicted it before he did. You will see it all in the videos.

You will see him lie saying Bill Cooper was swearing on his show and cussing out the board op. It never happened. The Whole interview is there. We will save some of it for our report on the Truth movement. Check out this link if you are an Alex Jones fan. You NEED to see these videos. Your mind depends on it.

<http://www.youtube.com/user/BrianSStaveley#grid/user/AD28836FD490E701>

Now onto his buddy Luke Rudowski.

Luke Rudowski A Snake In The Grass

If you've watched any of the popular 9/11 shows or documentaries or if you've seen some of Alex Jones' films you know who Luke Rudowski is. He is the skinny young man from NYC who always has a 9/11 was an inside job shirt on and is passing out flyers by the subway. He is known for asking really tough questions to people like Larry Silverstein. Well first off folks that is all staged. He was put into those situations to ask those very questions. He was put there by the government but it gets much worse and low down n dirty than that!

Since 9/11 naturally there have been many website and organizations supposedly seeking 9/11 truth. I'm not saying there aren't good organizations with good intentions out there. Of course there are. The main faces though, all a front. I'm sorry. It hurts me as well. If there are no real victims of 9/11 that means the money you may have donated is not going to any 9/11 families. How could it when they are imaginary? It's all a huge money making, emotion toying scam. One of the best known organizations if not the best known is We Are Change. We Are Change was founded by a guy named Dan Wallace even though Luke takes credit for it. Well Luke is no longer part of We Are Change. Would you like to know why?

Go to A We Are Change site. Or check out one of their Facebook pages. There is always a little donate button. You can click it and make a donation to We Are Change. I have never made a donation I'll admit even though I have thought about it. Well I'm glad I didn't. When you (previously) clicked "donate" it went right into Luke's PERSONAL BANK ACCOUNT. A lot of people from We Are Change started to ask where the money was going. people that donated wanted to know. They assumed it was going to travel expenses, video equipment, etc. Luke would actually spend thousands upon thousands of the donations on HIMSELF. Thousands of dollars in bar tabs, 13,000 in cash, and get this.... He had been paying his college tuition with the donations!! I will show you receipts in the next video!! All these Americans heartbroken over something that never happened and now they are being further ripped off by these con artists??!!! This needs to stop!! So Luke was confronted on this matter and this is what he had to say. "Sometimes my financial aid is late so I use the We Are Change money then I put it back when the check comes in" Is that acceptable people?? There are supposedly our heroes? They are nothing but conman working for the very people they swear to protect us against.

I know this story of betrayal by the top people in the truth movement is hard to swallow. Like I always tell people "You need to be able to think for yourself, gather facts, and make your own decision. The story on the truth movement being infiltrated is so long and detailed that we will finish it in the next report. Since writing this I have found out a boatload more about the truth movement, the people in charge and their various connections. Just remember even if you consider yourself awake you can still be a sheep. If you blindly follow anyone whether it be Fox News, Alex Jones, or anyone at all then you are still a sheep. All the things you tell the non-believers you should apply to yourself. Do your own research, check out what people say before believing it as fact and the most important thing I can think of.....Stop disbelieving what your eyes tell you.

I hope you enjoyed reading The Truth Behind The Illusion Of 9/11. Everything I have stated in this report is a fact. The firemen really are fake identities made in the computer. This is undeniable. The jumpers are fake. The prominent family members we see all the time...their kids never existed. This is all fact. Out of close to 3000 that supposedly died only 220 have had death certificates issued by the SSDI. That is a fact and that is unacceptable. There is the VCF Victim's Compensation Fund. The family of every victim is entitled to two million dollars. Only 59 claims have been made. 59! Sorry but 2900 families are not going to leave a free two million dollars on the table. Never. Not one family would leave the 2 million dollars on the table. I really hope you clicked the links along with the reading as they were such concrete proof of what I'm saying. If not please go back and watch the blatant photoshopping of the firefighters photos, victim photos, 9/11 memorials. I have included the diagrams talked about from the Gelatin B project showing how they staged the jumpers. I have also included the pictures CLEARLY showing the towers being mostly hollow in 1978 a full six years after completion! There are pictures of the elevators showing how they didn't even have buttons for the supposed impact floors. I have included a Freedom Of Information Act showing you the occupancy from 1978 all the way up to the towers destruction in 2001. I have fully exposed the main figures of the truth movement as a complete fraud, put in place by the same people who pulled off 9/11. I have left detailed interviews of the mechanized lighting and shutter system at the WTC. I have given you physical proof that some of the victim's pictures were last edited BEFORE 9/11 where they added the person's obituary, even listing the supposed flights they were to crash on in the UPCOMING event of September 11th. I have exposed to you the fact that out of all the better known 9/11 families not a single one of them has a kid that is officially dead. None of them are in the Social Security Death Index. I believe I have more than proven the statements I made here. This should be overwhelming to you. This is so deep, isn't it. Now you know what I meant when I said you need to go back over everything you learned about 9/11. A lot of things will make more sense now. We had all these errors in the video, the fake second plane, The fake witnesses that were actors, the disintegrating towers, etc. It all makes sense now that you know it was a movie doesn't it? Of course witnesses turned out to be actors its a movie! The towers disintegrating? No. It was a special effect that just wasn't realistic enough but it was pretty close. Fake plane? Of course its a fake plane crash. Its a movie. Remember all the faked amateur footage? Of course it was fake it was a movie. That is why so many people have been able to keep quiet for so long. Because it was a movie. Not a real inside job terror attack. They faked a terror attack. Its mind blowing. I know. All that footage we have studied. All the interviews. All fake! The thermite story planted. Think about the problem with the rubble pile. Remember how it was so small. Well that is because it was a movie, the towers were empty. There were no companies or just a handful in there. Therefore there were no contents. The story about the dump trucks hauling off all that steel was planted. If you look at ground zero photos from like noon on 9/11 the steel is not there. They didn't get it out that quick. It was never there. That is where studying every angle of this event has taken me. That is how you get the whole truth. You need to be willing to open your mind and hear everyone's side. Never base your opinion on someone else's review. I knew Dr. Judy Wood's theory of a Directed Energy Weapon was probably not true but because I was willing to hear all of her story and see all her evidence I know for a fact all that steel was gone. I saw her pictures from ground zero at noon on 9/11. There sure as hell were not hauling off steel two hours after the "collapse". A lot of people won't come forward if they know this information. You can't insult me. You can't make me think I'm crazy. I'm actually very smart. I got to the bottom of 9/11 in less than a year of looking into it. I might not have every detail of the whole story but this is pretty damn close. There is more information that I will let you research that is on the links I'll leave. For instance the companies involved in the coverup are all there. Its easy to find. Cantor Fitzgerald is one. There are others. A few companies claimed thousands of the fake victims as employees so they were involved. Just think all these people involved and the companies. Now doesn't it make more sense that no one died? Those companies and agencies would have a much easier time sleeping at night if no Americans were even hurt never mind killed. While there are still many questions to answer about 9/11 now we truly can start looking in the right places. For ten years they had everyone fighting over who did it and no one looked to see if it was even done. It was truly a remarkable plan. If you have any doubt about what I am saying please just go back and watch the clips again of the photoshopped victims. Especially the that say Jason Bermas on the fake victims. Go to just before the 5 minute mark and watch the firefighters again. Those are two entirely different people side by side, supposedly. It is absurd to say that those pictures are not photoshopped. If you want to see a whole slew of TV fakery exposed including how they faked the second plane, you need to see September Clues. The movie is done by the same people who uncovered the fake victims and the photoshopping. The movie was made before they knew about all this but it exposes tons of other things as fake. Its much different than any other 9/11 documentary and its the only one even close to the truth. After seeing that, you will know why it is attacked by the fake people in the truth movement. I am a real truther. I want the whole truth. I don't care who I rub the wrong way and I don't care if they want to silence me. I'm not afraid. Every American needs to know the truth of 9/11. Its the biggest scam and biggest illusion of all time!

September 11th was a thirty year plan by our government. It was not a thirty year plan to commit mass murder. Think of how many honest American agents would have come out and said something about it if they planned to kill 3000 Americans. No. Killing anyone in our own country was never the plan. As a matter of fact the events of 9/11 were not the only illusion. The whole idea that those towers were these extremely busy office buildings with 50,000 people in it on any given day was a complete myth. Set up by years of fake documentaries, newspaper write ups and tons of foot traffic. These people are highly intelligent. They designed it to have a subway at the bottom and a restaurant and observation deck at the top creating over 400,000 people in foot traffic per day. That would make it appear to anyone even a native New Yorker that these buildings were in fact extremely busy. They were built with the intention of knocking them down. They didn't have to kick a bunch of companies out before 9/11. They were never there. They couldn't have put all the companies they say were there if they wanted to. There were hardly any finished floors. These towers were mostly hollow. Just think about that. Isn't that amazing in itself. The World Trade Center Twin Towers were mostly hollow, never occupied more than like 33 percent and they even had an intricate shutter system to hide the fact they were hollow. They knew this was a problem when they brought the towers down. That is why the very next day when they should be concerned with looking for people, the Mayor made it a point to explain why there is so little debris!

There is still more to learn about 9/11 but now we have somewhere to start. What can you do? It's easy. The government, the media, and the truth movement are trying to bury this information. Show your family. Show your friends. Educate the ones you love. Most importantly even if you are afraid to show people which I know some of you will be. Learn a lesson from this. See how much you have been lied to? Don't blindly trust anyone, even if they seem to tell a lot of truth. Do your own research. Have many sources. If you have just a few and they all fall under the same agenda then how will you ever really get to the truth?

Everyone thank you so much for taking the time to read what turned into a mini book by me. I know its a lot to take in but I needed to cover all grounds of this event that has forever changed our world for the worst. I know how bad I am going to be attacked for this. I can't keep it in though. That is not what I am about. I can take the attacks. All the people that attack me will be the same ones that won't do a lick of research except what is put in front of them. The others will just be trying to discredit my work. We need to make everyone aware of this scam that has been played on us. They are using our emotions against us. Our fear and our sadness from this event has allowed the passing of the Patriot Act 1 & 2 which are the farthest thing from patriotic. We have lost so many liberties now all because of this event, this movie they staged framing an innocent nation. The lie needs to end and end now. They can go in your home with no warrant. They can tap your phone and read your emails also. They can arrest you, label you a terrorist. Detain you with no lawyer or judge, torture you and kill you and its all legal now! All in the name of fighting terrorists. Terrorists that do not exist. If any of the actors or actresses that played in this movie are out there and reading this I hope you feel good knowing we have murdered a million and a half innocent civilians in the war on terror in large part thanks to you. Our constitution has been basically ripped to shreds thanks to you! You can right this wrong and come out now. Tell us the truth. Let America stop greiving and let us see this war on terror for what it is. A complete fraud to cover for the fact that we are going to take over the mid east and all its resources. Come out and tell us how much the media lies. Let people become free of that mental box. This is not America anymore. Come out and tell the truth so we can have our country back.

UPDATE!!!!

This Blog was written about 3 years ago and since then a lot more information was uncovered that needs to be added to this. Most of it is further evidence of media fakery on that day. At the time of this I had just started scratching the surface on the CGI used on 9/11. Sice discovering much more evidence of this we have done many radio shows exposing the 9/11 media hoax that I had on my network along with my Co Hosts Justin Cooke and James Sloan and some guest appearances on other people's network. I have also built a few webpages to go along with some of these shows or if you aren't able to listen can be viewed on their own albeit it's better when we can walk you thru the evidence. I will link a few of the best shows right here and they really expand on this greatly. I love this blog and it has a ton of great info but it is light on the media fakery which turns out to be the key to 9/11. These shows go into great detail about that and of course about the other facets of 9/11 such as fake victims, fake planes, staged memorials, WTC occupancy, etc..

Great links for further research into the REAL truth of 9/11

I was invited onto James H. Fetzer's show The Real Deal to discuss my views on 9/11. Fetzer and myself don't agree on the fakery aspect at all as he pushes a new theory every few months. From thermite, to holograms, and now mini nukes he flip flops a lot but this show he does let me speak for the most part uninterrupted and he has a decent following of people I'd like to present this info to. The show went well as far as me making my points and I feel I successfully debunked his major points and so called credible witnesses rather well. As with most the shows I will post we had a webpage I built to go along with the audio walking you thru all the evidence. The audio itself is embedded near the top of the page. Just left click to play instantly in a new window or right click to save to your MP3 player, Ipod, Cell Phone, PC, Sim Card, etc.....

The next show posted here again has a follow along page with the radio show right on it. This show was done here on The Dose Of Reality Radio Show. It is a 5 hour 9/11 anniversary special where we dive real deep into all aspects of the day and this was done after we pretty much learned all we know now. this is our most in depth show and if you are hardcore into 9/11 and can't get enough I suggest this one, It is hosted by Myself, my co hosts Justin Cooke and James Sloan. We also had a special guest in Chris Kendall is very knowledgeable when it comes to 9/11 and was one of the first guys that was doing shows on the media fakery. Chris has a Blogtalk Radio Show called Hoaxbusters. here is the 5 hour special exposing the ENTIRE 9/11 HOAX!

<http://www.therealnewsonline.com/911-anniversary-2012.html>

All this talk about the fakery on 9/11 and all these fake witnesses do we have anyone that saw anything out of the ordinary? We sure do! Nick Orsini from New York was in Manhattan that day and even though he didn't realize it too much til we talked he saw many things that would indicate the day being a fraud INCLUDING NO INJURED PEOPLE at the makeshift triage center that he stopped at to help. As usual we have a webpage but this time its to map out Nick's walking route so you can follow along on our map of NYC as he talks us thru what he saw and where. Again the audio is also embedded on the page. More so than the others you need the audio with this one. It won't make too much sense without it and there isn't so much of the stuff we've already shown you. It's more about listening to his INCREDIBLE story and following along with the map if you like VERY interesting show!

<http://www.therealnewsonline.com/911-manhattan-witness-page.html>

The following link is a great blog written by James Sloan SPECIFICALLY about there being no planes at the World Trade Center. His blog is much shorter than this as you can read it in a few minutes but it is packed with information proving without a doubt that real planes were not used on 9/11. James is a Co Host of mine and a big part of this Website along with Justin Cooke

<http://www.therealnewsonline.com/our-blogs/no-planes-at-the-world-trade-center-and-why-the-movement-will-always-hide-this-fact-at-all-costs-by-james-sloan>

Now here are some more links for your research. I must warn you that although at one time I did, Phil Jayhan The Admin of the forum Lets Roll which is linked below can NOT be trusted. There were some good researchers in that circle and the following two links I can vouch for but do not refer to them for any other information as they are there to ultimately mislead you and AGAIN as all these people do the main agenda is to keep you from looking at The Computer Generated Imagery of 9/11. These two below links are useful for us though. Justin James and I were all members and I was even an Admin til we were all banned for bringing up media fakery on 9/11 for the most part.

Here is the Freedom Of Information Act (FOIA) showing the occupancy of the towers for their whole life. 1972-2001

You will see the towers were at very low capacity for their whole life and when you look into the companies that were there a lot of them turn out to be ghost companies. They simply aren't there. These were NOT the busy buildings you thought!

<http://letsrollforums.com/press-release-world-trade-t24256.html>

Now to hear the interview about the Art students and the hollow tower and it's lack of contents, that is right here. Start w part 1 for the art students then it flows into part 2, so you'll want to play both links. You will see them after you click this one. They are both at the top.

<http://letsrollforums.com/part-2-jim-fetzer-t25146.html>

Here is the link to my Youtube playlist exposing Alex Jones for the lying, rat, censoring, fear mongerer, and gate keeper for what he is. These are the type of people we do NOT want others we are trying to convince to think we support. He is a gatekeeper as are most of the names will will ever hear. How can you trust me you ask? Well you don't know me personally so I would say you can't/ What you can do is NOT follow me or anyone else blindly rather take my research and verify it on your own!! I laid it all out for you!

In closing I would like to leave some contact information for all of you and my Facebook groups and places we discuss this stuff besides just on here in the comments which I encourage you to use or our live chat when we air. When we do air a radio show it is usually Wednesday Nights at 10 PM ET. We have been on a break for a few months but will be back soon. If you leave a comment here you can be emailed notifications of new comments .The next time we have a show I will post it here and anywhere I can think of but if you are already in these comments you will get an email when I do so.

Main Page for the website. We have our radio show. A huge archive of old shows. This blog section. Specific pages like the ones you saw for 9/11.also the Moon Hoax, Sandy Hook and much more.

www.TheRealNewsOnline.com

Our Radio Show - The Dose Of Reality is found right on the above site but here also is the direct link to the page we air live on followed by the link to our archive.

<http://www.therealnewsonline.com/radio-archive.html>

Next is our Facebook Group. This is probably the best thing to go along with the site. Just about all of our listeners and a bunch of like minded people all meet in our Facebook group to discuss all these events as they happen and we are helpful to each other for research by sharing material or having more discerning eyes upon it. We catch up on past events and much more. It's very active. No spamming. Please come join us. You will see a lot of material discussed there before I post it here. <https://www.facebook.com/groups/166824303514465/>
