Ghost of Irma Grese

Irma Grese was considered the most notorious SS guard in the history of Auschwitz.

She was in charge of Krema Three

She came to Auschwitz camp from the small village of Wrechen, at the age of 18

She was accused of being the lover to Josef Mengele and camp commandant Kramer, among others. She was said to have coerced Jews into perverted sexual acts. Her brutality included choosing who would go to the gas chamber, beatings, whippings, shootings and skinning of three Jews.

She was brought to trial by a kangaroo court, the 12 prosecution witnesses were hysterical Jewesses that wanted blood. She denied all the absurd charges, but was found guilty, and was hung.

The Trial

Irma Grese (middle) at the Belsen trials. It was a British Military Tribunal with six judges.

The Jewish witnesses were in the camps for being criminals and Communist partisans.

After a fifty three day trial she was sentenced to hang.

When the allies captured Auschwitz she was taken to this prison.

On 13 December 1945, at Hameln Jail, Irma and 11 others were sentenced to death and were to be hanged by Ronald Cook, assisted by Regimental Sergeant-Major O'Neill, in the order of Grese, Volkenrath and Bormann.

MP's refused orders

Sgt O'Hare and Cpl Rick Smith were court marshaled for refusing to walk her to the gallows.

Irma was called "Stirb nicht" or little singer.

She would sing German folk ballads at night in her cell. She hummed these tunes as she walked to the gallows.

The hangman commits suicide

The army hangman refused to hang Giese

Ronald Cook the original hangman refused. Major Jerome Burdick ordered him to and that night he went home and shot himself.

Albert Peirpont was on record as the hangman ,but in 1978 two of Irma's MPs revealed the truth.

Second hangman

Samuel Lutzheim a local Jewish hangman was subsequently chosen. Miss Grese swore that she would return from the dead if Lutzheim was allowed to touch her.

She bravely went to the gallows, smiling at the American MPs who were all mesmerized by her looks and charm.

She refused a hood

As the hangman tried to put the rope over her head she became violent and refused to be touched. The hangman then slapped her repeatedly and forced the rope over her neck

The gallows

At 12:01 on Dec 22, 1945 she was led to these gallows and hung

The hangman miscalculated the drop and Irma's neck didn't snap. She slowly suffocated as she fought the rope for three minutes.

Grese now becomes a folk hero

Irma Grese now becomes a legend in all of Germany

Later the prosecution main witnesses recanted and said she lied

Three more admitted to lying

Sarah Langbein

Rachel Gold

Lei Flem

Lena Kapinski

Other witnesses such as Watinik, Diament, Kopper, Lobowitz and Trieger, Catherine Neiger. Olga Lenygel, Dr Ada Bimko and Dr. Bendel stuck with their stories.
