INTRODUCTION

I have already written and disseminated one report on the covert government's secret electromagnetic/radio frequency mind control project based at a documented subterranean facility beneath the derelict Montauk Air Force Station, at the extreme east end of Long Island's south fork (entitled Montauk Air Force Station--Active or Not?). These activities, an outgrowth of some very esoteric research directly linked to the (in)famous "Philadelphia Experiment" (Project Rainbow--later Phoenix) and both the interdimensional and psychotronic (linking mind to machine [computer]) ramifications of this work, reached literally heretofore unimaginable levels of human (technological) control over the parameters of our "reality" in the Montauk experiments; including all conceivable implications of that word. As has been stated by others, the masterminds behind the Montauk/Phoenix Project attempted to "play God. "

WHAT'S WHAT--A RECAP

This entire field of research, including the legendary Philadelphia Experiment activities, dates back originally to the later 1930s. These were the early attempts at achieving radar invisibility ("Stealth") and according to some sources literal sight invisibility as well using "interdimensional" technology devised primarily by Nikola Tesla and Janus Von Neumann. By all accounts these experiments at the Philadelphia Naval Yard in the early 1940s ended in uncontrollable and nightmarish failure when the ship was thrust into hyperspace; reappearing with a severely damaged crew only after the generators, transmitters and other equipment had been destroyed. During the 1950s, under the scientific leadership of Von Neumann, these earlier efforts gave birth to both the interdimensional/ time travel and the psychotronic/mind control aspects of the Montauk Project operations.

It must be pointed out to those revisionists who discount the reality of the Philadelphia Experiment and also to those whose minds boggle at the contemplation of such subjects, that there is ample evidence in the public record alone, (newspapers, magazines, periodicals, etc.), showing that in the later 1930s and early 1940s Naval Intelligence and other agencies were indeed wholeheartedly researching radar cloaking technology with the top minds in physics, including John Hutchinson, Emil Kurtenhauer, Albert Einstein, Von Neumann and Tesla. Although not often discussed then or now, literal sight invisibility was also a subject of considerable interest in this work. Sites for this research were first the University of Chicago and then later The Institute for Advanced Studies in Princeton, New Jersey.

In recent years much evidence has surfaced indicating that the Montauk base and the subterranean facilities have been and are still the site of the Phoenix Project and are used for a tremendous amount of top secret, ultra-classified research and experimentation into interdimensional technology, quantum and particle physics (black hole simulation), psychotronics, super-powerful electrical and electromagnetic fields, weather control, electronic and drug-based mind control, and more recently genetics and particle beam technology.

The preponderance of this evidence strongly suggests that a great many of these activities have been thoroughly malevolent as to both their desired ends and the means used to achieve those ends, and have utilized unwitting and even helpless subjects--including at times, youngsters abducted from surrounding communities. Certain of these experiments in controlled warping of our time-space continuum had such devastating results and almost inconceivably awesome potential consequences that several project insiders conspired to sabotage the proceedings in August 1983, forcing the base's total, but as it turns out only temporary, abandonment.

Allegedly a time tunnel-type linkup with the Philadelphia Experiment exactly forty years previously (August 12, 1943) was achieved then--apparently an attempt by project operators to repair or undo damage they felt had been done to the time-space continuum during the 1943 experiment; thereafter, the project ended temporarily, and the surface of the property was then donated to N.Y. State in 1984 expressly for use as a public park. The N. Y. State Parks department continues to "maintain" the surface of the property in a thoroughly deteriorated, unusable condition with public access forbidden, in blatant collusion with the federal government in covering up the existence of an active underground installation beneath this most unusual and singularly uncongenial state "park".

One of the characteristics of this project and others like it is the fact that there are an incredible number of "tentacles" which connect to myriad aspects, angles, influences and offshoots: it seems hardly a day passes when I don't find or receive information revealing some heretofore unknown or hidden element of the Montauk(Phoenix) Project or about related or similar operations. It literally never seems to end.

As a result, it's difficult to bring the work to a satisfying close, and it's become necessary to follow my initial report on what's known as the "Montauk Project" with this update.

Let me point out at the onset that this latest report, to a noticeably greater extent than the first, contains material quoted directly from other sources. All such material is so identified, and the reason this is the case is that the highest priority for me right now is the dissemination of information about the Phoenix/Montauk Project to the very greatest extent, and rather than interpreting or rewording certain material it was more effective and/or expeditious to simply quote larger segments of the material.

I would like to assist readers in understanding the intent of this endeavor to bring the truth about the Montauk Project--as well as similar and/or connected projects--to public attention by whatever means and to the greatest extent possible, for the sake of my child and all children, all people and for the sake of human freedom on this planet we call home.

The human race could be about to enter a period in which we will be subjected to nonstop, invasive and pervasive mind, mood, consciousness and even body control carried out through the use of electromagnetic/radio frequency transmissions on a worldwide basis; this in addition to severe and extensive social manipulation and consciousness modification programs already operating to an extraordinarily pervasive and effective degree through mass media and entertainment, religions and other forms of social programming and indoctrination such as cults and belief systems. This while the food supplies of the human race become increasingly contaminated by not only toxic pollutants, but by health/mood altering substances and additives in and irradiation of our food and water supplies--which have already become increasingly deficient nutritionally and downright unhealthy due to pervasive global environmental and ecological degradation. In addition to all the aforementioned methods and "systems" of malicious manipulation, there would appear to be indisputable instances in which some individuals are also being monitored and/or manipulated by "controllers" of one sort or another through the use of physical, biological implants.

We are already witnessing the near-total collapse of even a pretense of a free press and certainly a democratic government here in the United States. We are already witnessing massive deployment of experimental (and perfected!) biological weapons against the American people and even more so against third world countries (such as AIDS and ebola: see Dr. Leonard Horowitz's book Emerging Viruses: AIDS And Ebola , which proves that these and other deadly diseases were genetically engineered by secret government associates mainly at Cold Spring Harbor Labs on--you guessed it--Long Island). We are witnessing the deployment of numerous electromagnetic mind modification programs--of particular importance is the Tesla-based HAARP technology, now being implemented not only in pursuit of mind control objectives, but also a number of other highly malicious, oppressive, unethical, unconstitutional, as well as ecologically dangerous goals.

WHERE THE HUMAN RACE STANDS

THE FREE PRESS--DEAD AND BURIED

What's one of the most distressing things to me is the ever-increasing degree to which the major news/information media have blatantly become a party to promulgating and fostering some of the most egregious and destructive of the many coverups, disinformation campaigns and distractive, meaningless manufactured news events which the covert government is disseminating, all for the purpose of diverting our energy and attention from significant--even vital--issues. In other words, we are getting almost pure crap from the mass media regarding almost any issue of any importance whatsoever--most certainly on any information which would tend to give the lie to those deeply embedded traditional concepts held on the part of a large percentage of humanity (including many North Americans); concepts which bolster the global position of the "powers that be" and to enable further exploitation of the human race.

To my eye these "powers" are to some extent an international "cabal" (and I use that word with full knowledge of it's derivation), a secret, in fact cultic brotherhood with decidedly malevolent, even "satanic" characteristics, which is and has been manipulating humanity to a VERY extensive degree; which underlies many of the predominant philosophical systems, belief systems and religions of the world; which underlies as well many governments of the world's individual countries; a group which has as it's prime goal the further acquisition of ever-greater raw, oppressive power over the actual lives of large numbers of humanity, and it's own continued aggrandizement and enrichment at the expense not only of Earth's people but most certainly of the planet itself and all its many life forms as well.

A good example of the tremendous degree to which the major news media organizations are called to heel is seen in the facts surrounding the two year hiatus in the professional career of CBS broadcaster Connie Chung, who had the misfortune to have ended up being paired with Dan Rather several years ago.

On a live call-in TV talk show some two years ago, Ms. Chung responded with a bit too much candor to a question as to what actually gets reported publicly by the major news media, given the great number of stories and items which come from the numerous sources of "raw" information. How are the stories which get the attention of the media chosen and by whom?

Connie Chung replied to the effect that it wasn't too hard to decide what stories get aired--they just checked with Washington D.C. to see what had been cleared for publication by the government.

As a result of her being foolish enough to tell the truth in what was likely just a naive, probably unintentional and inadvertent slip, within no more than a few hours Ms. Chung was out of a job and remained blacklisted in the industry for a good two years, only resurfacing in 1998 with a position at ABC--sufficiently chastened, some no doubt believe, to allow her to grace the public airwaves once again.

There are a great many indications of the implementation of the New World Order and the list grows by the hour. Of prime importance in these malignant plans for our future is the literal control of or at least substantial interference with and manipulation of our brains, minds and consciousness/awareness by Montauk-type technologies. Clandestine agencies have been covertly researching various means of mind control for quite a long time. Based upon what I have discovered, the Montauk Project represents the pinnacle of achievement in this entire field. This type of technology perfected in the Montauk Project and now likely being carried on within and through the HAARP project is, unfortunately, extremely powerful, and this power is at the disposal of what in actual fact are literally Nazis and their cohorts/ accomplices/collaborators/proteges and descendants.

More than a few researchers think that there is strong evidence indicating that the government has in place at this point mind, mood and consciousness modification EM/RF transmitters in most major (and not so major) population centers: evidence also that mass internment centers exist (above ground) in certain sectors of the country, to handle many potentially millions of people--troublemakers and dissidents of one stripe or another and likely those who don't succumb as easily to the EM/RF transmissions.

Of course, globally implemented HAARP operations and the numerous subterranean installations across the country round out the picture of where we stand in terms of our literal oppression by the covert government.

SPIN DOCTORS OPERATING

The great majority of responses to date to the information in my initial report have been serious, interested, concerned and at least willing to impartially consider the information as valid... and certainly urgent. Additionally however I have been picking up a somewhat faint but persistent hum (mostly on the Internet) of what I believe is the evolving response emanating from the spin doctors and damage control agents of the (covert) government to the increasing flow (flood) of information now "coming out" which pertains to the Montauk Project, i.e. the Philadelphia Experiment--Rainbow/Phoenix Project: and the connections to Brookhaven National Labs (BNL), Airborne Instrument Labs (AIL), Siemens/ITT, as well as links to a tremendous number of other top-secret "research" activities such as MK- ULTRA and other more well-known mind control projects, connections to collaborative operations with ET's, connections to what's known as the "New World Order", and to numerous other tentacles of the beast. The list really never seems to end and neither, it seems, does the story.

This currently materializing "spin" which the (covert) government and their allies are very carefully leaking in their attempt to manipulate the whole Philadelphia/Montauk deal goes something like this: "O.K. Maybe we have been researching some incredibly advanced science for a number of years. It's (maybe) true, it's true. We have actually warped time and space.. once or twice... or did we? Anyway, we couldn't say anything about it because of the--Commies... or aliens... or even the hippies... or whatever. Had to keep it secret. National security and so forth. And yes, we did some incredible things, but can't unfortunately reproduce a lot of it (naturally). And isn't all in the advancement of human knowledge and the greater good (yuk yuk) after all? And yeah, maybe there is more to the Stealth's radar invisibility than a funny shape and a matte black paint job. O.K. So we lied a little." And so on. You get the idea.

The unspoken Big Lie in all this is that the supreme and overarching prime directive of pretty much everything to do with Rainbow/Phoenix/ Montauk, at least from Philadelphia on, was really what could be termed mind control--but even that doesn't really convey the breadth and scope of the operation's goals and actions. It's really much more along the lines of reality engineering and consciousness control.

The knowledge gained at such a steep price--through the research which culminated in the experiments at the Philadelphia Naval Yard in 1943 and the subsequent endeavors on Long Island--of methods for gaining access to, and actually traveling to other dimensions and periods of time, has been primarily applied or implemented to further the goals of manipulation and control of human, perhaps even global (or planetary--as in Gaia-) consciousness. All of these most advanced scientific technologies have been utilized in service of "mind control".

This is the stuff the spin doctors can NEVER smooth over; the horrendous and virtually inconceivable abuses of human beings and of humanity which have taken place and are taking place in this and similar or related projects.

The covert government considers it terribly important for the truths about such operations to be kept hidden and buried, because there is really no conceivable excuse (lie) anyone could ever come up with which could possibly justify or condone, in the minds of the public, the operation of such projects by our government or any agencies/consortiums connected to our government in even the most tenuous way; as well, because we are--especially in modern technological societies--immersed in a veritable sea of electromagnetic/radio frequency transmissions, a portion of which are intentionally engineered to have any number of effects on our consciousness and physical wellbeing. (Even those which are not so intended have well-documented and generally negative, debilitating effects upon biological health and mental function.)

Who could ever justify such wholesale and deliberate, unconscionable, thoroughly malignant abuse of human rights and of spiritual freedom such as has occurred in the government's mind control operations?

Thus, the mind/consciousness/reality control aspect of the Montauk Project is where I intend to put my focus.

Preston Nichols, a project "survivor" and author a several books about the Montauk Project, supports this adherence to focusing on the fundamental truth about the Montauk Project. He adamantly stands by his contentions that the primary underlying basis of the Project is mind/ reality control, and also his contentions concerning the tremendous numbers of children abducted (NOT [only] by ETs!) for use in this and related/similar operations. I have found very solid evidence of such activities in other covert mind control operations as well.

THE "ALIEN" ANGLE

My first report on the Montauk Project almost completely avoided any mention whatsoever of any alleged ET/UFO connection to the Montauk Project. There are indeed numerous allegations of ET involvement with Rainbow/Philadelphia/Phoenix/Montauk, as well as with other covert activities by covert government, but the topic will not be explored too extensively in this report. Others have been and are researching these aspects and I'll leave it to them.

I have not included much of this information mainly because I've come to the conclusion that the UFO field overall has become a literally hopeless morass and teeming snakepit of a seemingly infinite amount of half-truths, misinformation, distortions, false leads, hidden agendas... in short, that the entire field of research has been massively subverted by agents of the covert government who have almost totally muddied the waters beyond any hope of clarity--at least for now. (Serious and sincere researchers, don't be offended!) Additionally I don't feel that I personally can verify most of this information to a degree I would like.

This leads us to what is perhaps for many the most incredible not to say flamboyant assertion regarding such top-secret endeavors as the Phoenix Project, including the Philadelphia Experiment and later the Montauk activities--the involvement of secret government and international ("world" government) agencies with various "alien" species in a number of these undertakings, even long before the well-documented Roswell, New Mexico UFO crash in July 1947. Nevertheless, no rational, intelligent person can any longer ignore the massive and overwhelming evidence for the existence of exceptionally advanced aerospace-craft, apparently non-terrestrial in origin for the most part, as well as a great deal of testimony from millions of normal, sane people about their personal contact(s) to some degree with the often humanoid but apparently non-earthly beings operating such craft: to ignore these facts is to be in denial.

Certainly such a condition of denial on the part of so many has been deliberately and unilaterally instigated and fostered by the U.S. government and other governments as well, in particular by the intelligence services thereof, for a number of reasons. The most oft-cited and acceptable reason is the claim that there was great concern about the effect the news of the existence of extraterrestrial beings (and the associated advanced technologies and abilities) could have on the social, political and economic underpinnings of human civilization. Translation: those in control were afraid they might not remain so. A more compelling reason was to hide the fact that many of the above-mentioned agencies have engaged in collaborative activities and assorted treaties with some of these seemingly extraterrestrial groups.

I believe it must be pointed out here, however, that there is definite possibility that, although the sightings, abductions and other "close encounters" may be evidence of contacts with bona fide alien or extraterrestrial beings, such beings may instead either originate in some other dimension, or some other (future) period of time, or may in fact be some group of very terrestrial humans who have somehow developed or otherwise gained access to extremely advanced technologies, which they are implementing in pursuit of a notably fascistic, totalitarian "New World Order" agenda--in which our very thoughts and consciousness is subject to extensive monitoring and manipulating by these powers. According to some schools of thought, this itself is nothing new and has been going on for many thousands of years. A subset of this equation is that there are no aliens at all, only secret, cultic government cabals carrying out mass mind control and/or abduction operations on a global scale, for the purpose of inculcating certain specific concepts and belief systems into society--the human race--the general population.

For brevity's sake, when I refer to "aliens" in this report it should be understood that I consider all such possibilities as to the origin of these "beings". I would imagine that the "real truth" is some admixture of these various possibilities and that all and more possibilities may in fact be occurring at once (i.e.; extraterrestrial, extradimensional, future [human] beings, humans in possession of highly advanced technologies).

A percentage of the technology used in the Phoenix Project and also in the Stealth aircraft is said to derive from these "alien" sources, and charges have been made that in return for such technology the government gave certain of these aliens "permission" (as if they had any right to do so!) to give to abduct and experiment upon its citizens.

While the occurrence or abductions is undeniable at this point, a surprising amount of evidence shows that in fact very human people associated with certain government/military agencies are definitely responsible for much, perhaps most of the so-called abduction phenomenon. Preston Nichols says that his information indicates that roughly 3/4 or more of all "alien abductions" are actually being done by government agencies--with no "alien" involvement at all.

Several people have reported on significant and in some cases fairly well documented instances in which there was alien or ET involvement in very specific aspects of the Phoenix Project. I have no reason to doubt them, and this is in general correlation with a tremendous amount of evidence and certainly testimony from the UFO research field as a whole.

I chose not to include much of this material in my report because I feel it is relatively unimportant, at least at this time. To me the primary issue is the "human beings" involved in and responsible for this project as well as any and all connected and related projects--where great numbers of their fellow human beings have been so horrendously and brutally victimized and had their most fundamental rights on every level thoroughly abrogated and violated.

And all this at the hands of what many still believe to be a freely elected representative government of, by and for the people.

I personally don't much give a damn right now about which "aliens" (whatever their true origin) were or weren't involved with any aspects of this entire field. I don't doubt that there could well have been such involvement, but that to me is another issue to be dealt with by others, or by myself at a later time. I am mostly concerned with those members of our government, certain secret cultic organizations, extremely wealthy international consortiums, and private corporations which are so thoroughly and deeply involved in this project and a great many other similar and related ones.

Researcher Marshall Barnes has stated that his investigations and studies indicate that the entire Phoenix Project from Philadelphia through Montauk could very well have been carried out without any alien involvement being necessary at all. In other words the covert government had the resources of creative scientific intelligence, powerful technology and tremendous amounts of money with which to pursue specific agendas. My research would tend to corroborate Barnes' statement: the fact remains however that I am not in a position to know for sure either way.

AGENTS OF DISINFORMATION?

Some critics, even a number of conspiracy researchers, charge that Preston Nichols, Peter Moon, Al Bielek and others who claim involvement in the Project such as Mike Ash, Duncan Cameron (the number one psychic used in the Montauk Project through the 1970s and early 1980s) and even perhaps myself, are intentionally or not spreading disinformation about the Montauk Project--on such points as that noted just previously--that the whole shebang (Phoenix) has involved major collaboration on the part of "negative" ETs.

I will stand behind the information conveyed in my report 100%. I spent great deal of time researching many different angles and sources of information regarding the Montauk Project. As for dispersions toward Preston Nichols, I have to say that I have found him to be a very reliable and solid witness and that for myself, his information checked out across the board--right down the line; to the extent that it was at all possible to verify particular information. Not once that I'm aware of have I ever been either deliberately disinformed or even unintentionally misinformed by Nichols. On certain technical subjects he most definitely knows what he's talking about and has in general been quite forthcoming and helpful.

Questions arise as to why someone like Nichols would be allowed to spread his information about the Montauk Project without any retaliation--if it were true; implying that he therefore must be (even unwittingly) purveying disinformation. In my first report I cover two incidents in which at least partially successful attempts were made on Nichols life or at least well-being; Al Bielek has had some very mentally and physically debilitating and intensive EM/RF transmissions directed at his residence for extended periods of time.

I myself was the object of some most unusual, distinctly threatening and almost incomprehensible scrutiny as a result of some on-site public relations activities I engaged in at and near Montauk Air Force Station in 1996. More recently, in 1998, I have found myself subjected to blatant surveillance there. No conceivable reason exists why I would be singled out for this kind of intrusive observation if there were not something peculiar and secretive going on at the base, and if I were not considered a threat of some kind. Significant also is how I could have been identified as one to be surveilled this way, within the short amount of time I was at or near the Air Force Station during June and July 1998.

There are some things which argue strongly against Preston Nichols, presumably Al Bielek, Peter Moon, Duncan Cameron and others being part of a government disinformation campaign team whose job it is to spread distortions, half-truths and falsehoods about the true nature and purpose of government mind control projects.

Firstly, these people do not represent any unified cohesive "front" whose members all mouth exactly the same line. There are substantial individual differences in personality, intent, direction, philosophy and focus among these people. They have different views on certain aspects of the Project and in no sense do these people act in concert as some kind of "programmed" government disinfo team; I find absolutely no indication that is the case--based upon my personal contacts for three years with several of the "principals" of the Montauk Project investigations.

Secondly, I can't believe that the covert government would ever employ such a diverse, unlikely, "motley" and--to be honest--rather unlikely seeming crew as this to spread any disinformation about anything. The members of this group (such as it can be called a "group") have NO such cohesive centralized and coordinated operation going in any way. They are very much individuals who act as such and hold differing views on things and It is humorous to think that any "black ops" agency in their right mind would ever consider turning Preston Nichols or the other principals named loose with any serious disinformation program to carry out. Most of these guys don't even have computers, or if so don't access the Internet. Big disinformation operation.

Another point: when Preston Nichols began making public utterances about Montauk, there was very little awareness of the existence of anything like the "Montauk Project", even among researchers of subjects like conspiracies, coverups, UFOs and black ops. Why would the government initiate a disinfo operation if there was no generally distributed "INFO" to "dis" about? By doing so they would be calling some attention to a project whose existence was basically completely unknown in any general sense.

WHO'S CRAZY ANYWAY?

In early October 1998 another example of retaliation directed against Nichols occurred. In a move which seems to indicate a disturbing new trend in how the covert government deals with troublesome or recalcitrant individuals who are a threat to secrecy, a serious attempt was undertaken to get Preston Nichols put away on insanity charges!

To put this in context, several months ago a man I will call Mr. Coffee emailed me an extensive account regarding his having been trained as a mind controlled government agent, most notably while in college in upstate New York (his entire account is quoted later in this article).

This fellow subsequently connected with and became friendly with Nichols in New York, and they have since determined that Coffee was involved with some sub-project of the Montauk Project. Nichols, along with myself and others who have had personal contact with this man, feel he is rational, coherent and credible, and that his information dovetails well with that from other sources.

About a month ago Mr. Coffee was on a L.I. cable talk show in which he totally spilled major beans about his past--as to involvement in and victimization by government mind control programming since early on in his life. The next day he says agents tried to kill him.

Not long after this Mr. Coffee was arrested at his home in NJ by local cops--there initially to confiscate his legal handgun by court order, due to a formal complaint against Coffee having been filed by a suspiciously vengeful ex-girlfriend (as in she was put up to it by FBI).

Though he acted in complete compliance with all the officers' requests, some discrepancy regarding the status of the handgun was used as an excuse to indicate that Coffee had been abusive and uncooperative toward the cops and he was arrested. Mr. Coffee was then immediately remanded to a mental institution from which he has spent several weeks trying to extricate himself. So far he is out of the bin but the presiding judge has not yet closed the case.

Now a similar tactic is being tried on Nichols. Some people in the government must be very scared.

Preston has not been arrested--yet. However the feds are moving in--trying a "John Ford" on him by having him declared legally insane. Interestingly it appears the as yet unidentified agents/officers who invaded both Nichols' home on Long Island as well as some rural property he owns in Pennsylvania were from New Jersey

There is no information yet on what if any formal charges are being leveled at him. Agents are "gathering evidence" from his properties under what is apparently a federal warrant--as agents have crossed state lines in enforcing it, and I guess they can take that "evidence" to some paid-off judge and get an order remanding Nichols to a government psychiatric facility. Of course someone or some (covert) government agency instigated this, to get Preston out of circulation.

I would say this shows that the entire Montauk Project issue and related issues (such as other MK operations, HAARP, Fight 800, etc.) have become a major concern to certain powers that be at this time. Considering Preston's not-inconsiderable clout with certain "Constitutionalist" elements of the government--in particular the military, whoever is behind this business is definitely pretty powerful--and/or wacko.

A further note on the issue of "retaliation" (or lack of) against Nichols: he has benefited from certain useful connections which have for the most part deterred seriously harmful moves against him: most notably ties to certain Air Force contingents.

Nichols worked with this group at the Camp Hero underground between 1994 and 1997. He let me know that this particular group told him specifically that they were not conducting "Montauk Project" mind control operations, but rather "legitimate" (in their terms) defensive particle weapons activity. He is not saying he can completely guarantee that this was in fact the case, but he was unable to find any direct evidence of mind control operations at the base. This Air Force group claimed to support the U.S. Constitution, and to be opposed to the methods and goals of the Montauk Project and the plethora of ties to very far-reaching and in fact ancient agendas which support what might be called the New World Order, including links to the Nazi movement of the "past" and its current descendants and supporters.

Additionally Nichols and other Air Force personnel have successfully deprogrammed a number of "Montauk Boys" victims. He told of how an anti-New World Order Air Force group raided an underground base near Montauk in Sag Harbor, Long Island during August 1996, and came up with a database of 30,000 programmed individuals from that location alone. Nichols has indicated that, despite the fact that ("legitimate") Air Force elements controlled Camp Hero until 1997, covert government groups continued to operate a number of other nearby locations, including one just north of Montauk Village beneath an old WW2 Navy submarine base (more on this location to follow!).

To reiterate: there has been no indication that Nichols or any associated with him in publicizing the Montauk Project are in fact spreading disinformation. He and others like him will readily admit that, due to the nearly inconceivable manipulations of mind, consciousness and to some degree reality via Montauk-related technologies, it's certainly within the realm of possibility that they may to some extent still be fulfilling some programmed function. Having pursued this story from a relatively straightforward journalistic approach, I can say that Nichols' basic story holds up extremely well; that there is solid confirmation on many key elements of his testimony; that there is substantial scientific corroboration and outright verification for many of the scientific fundamentals underlying the both the psychotronic/mind control and time/dimensional shifting elements of the project; outright proof of some very significant tangential connections; a voluminous amount of anecdotal, word of mouth material and a very large number of personal accounts of truly odd experiences at the Turtle Cove/Camp Hero/Montauk Air Force Station location.

ANOTHER ONE BITES THE DUST

Unfortunately, in the fall of 1997 Duncan Cameron apparently came under the sway of certain people who, judging by the viewpoints, concepts and agendas which it is known they have promulgated towards Cameron and others, are (perhaps even unwittingly) furthering the aims of secret government spin doctors and "reality engineers"; those who have undertaken a campaign to change the perceptions of some of the Phoenix Project's most fundamental aims.

In short, Cameron has let it be known that he has reversed his previous contentions regarding the massive and often tremendously brutal mind control programming carried out at the Montauk base involving numerous youngsters. Anyone who has seen Cameron's totally spontaneous and completely devastated reaction when confronted directly with clear evidence of the caging of many young people in the "boy's bunker" area of the Montauk underground, a scene which can be viewed on the first of the Montauk Project videos released by Sky Books, would find it absolutely inconceivable that Cameron could ever issue a public statement along these lines. (As a further note on these cages, I had an email forwarded to me by Michelle Guerin from a psychiatrist in New York who has been working with a patient claiming serious Montauk project involvement: this patient was quoted as saying how on a recent trip into the "boys' bunker" he was horrified to see a great number of the cages, which were described as being clearly designed to hold human beings. As for how this psychiatrist came to be associated with someone having apparent Montauk Project ties, and what he was really doing for or to this patient regarding such ties is of course a most intriguing question, the answer to which I probably don't even want to know.)

Cameron is now known to be primarily and observably influenced by a woman who became very close to him in late 1997 and who would appear to be a Monarch-type programmed agent herself. Since his association with this individual Cameron has retracted charges related to massive, horrendous, abusive mind control operations involving thousands of young people during the Phoenix/Montauk Project, now contending the project was only involved with time travel and interdimensional technologies. Nichols and Moon have both indicated that they feel Duncan has been put under some kind of control at the direction of his recent companion and her associates.

It's important to perceive how this kind of manipulation plays right into the understandably compelling subconscious desire to completely "block it all out", on the part of anyone who has realized they were involved in such an endeavor. As noted above this version of reality regarding the Phoenix Project is how the current spin is shaping up in general. Another very significant point regarding the situation with Duncan Cameron is how exceptionally farreaching the tentacles of the secret government must be in order to contrive and execute these kinds of "control" operations on a such a direct and personal level.

WHAT'S REAL IS REAL

It must be noted here that this body of information in general regarding the Montauk Project has unfortunately been given a highly undeserved bad rap--of course from the mainstream press but from a number of "conspiracy" researchers/authors as well, among others.

Apparently things as trivial as Mr. Nichols weight cause these folks to impugn his integrity and credibility; as well, the allegations he and other principals from the Montauk Project experiments have leveled concerning points such as that there were generally malicious extraterrestrial races deeply involved in things like the Montauk Project and related/similar covert projects, have caused certain people to reject out of hand the firmly substantiated and verified existence of a subterranean installation beneath Montauk Air Force Station and credible, amply corroborated accounts of extraordinary activities conducted in said installation.

No doubt some of these researchers and investigators also have difficulty accepting certain of these alleged activities as being scientifically possible or real.

For example, one of the fundamentals of the entire project is "psychotronic" technology, or the interfacing of mind to computer. Psychotronics does work--this is an established scientific fact--and is utilized in fully functional online technology in countless applications at this juncture. I cite solid evidence to support this within my report. Sorry folks, if you don't like the idea of it; neither do I. Ignoring or denying it won't make it go away however.

I believe the scientific validity of both the interdimensional and mind control aspects of the Montauk operation has been reasonably well established. To the extent which the information about the Montauk Project seems scientifically questionable, I would remind readers that the entire history of science has been thoroughly manipulated like nearly everything else, and the true state of scientific advancement is definitely being kept from the public and in fact from many scientists. Indeed even Einstein and certain contemporaries were fed manipulated and incomplete data during the development of the theories of relativity and Unified Field Theory, and subsequently so were other physicists during the development of quantum physics. I quote some very intriguing material from Byron Weeks in exploring this very topic in a section called Scientific Manipulations And False Data further on in the report.

Another aspect of the Montauk Project which many have difficulty in accepting is the alleged development and use of "time portal" or "tunnel" technology, allowing Project operators access to both other dimensions and other periods of "time".

Granted, on the face of it, it's a little hard to swallow for many of us raised on a steady, even exclusive diet of extensively--perhaps totally--spin doctored, controlled and manipulated information, news and the like; and an educational system which basically exists to reinforce these severe limits on personal awareness, creativity, and knowledge in general; as part of the ongoing and extremely pervasive social control of the "masses" by the "powers that be". Regardless of how hard it may be to accept, the truth is that there is solid scientific proof of the existence of other dimensions, and equally solid proof that time travel is most definitely NOT PROHIBITED by any of the known and accepted laws of physics. I feel confident that I successfully address within my report such reservations on the part of many intelligent people as to whether or not time travel is possible. According a great number of some of the most brilliant minds in contemporary physics, time travel is very possible; some of these will even concede that it may have already been accomplished, though very few are cognizant of the fact that it actually has been.

There is some additional hard evidence on the existence of this underground facility as of the first week of February 1998; a sealed entrance to the underground was demolished in what would probably have been some sort of "hostile" paramilitary action; additionally a securely locked and guarded entrance gate was thoroughly smashed and demolished.

The same thing happened as well about 5 months ago to the main entrance to the property. The implications of this, backed up by some very solid evidence, are discussed in this report update.

Another "manhole"-type underground entrance had remained only incompletely covered by a large boulder for many months, and visible through the opening was the metal ladder bolted to the wall of the shaft below. This entrance was thoroughly closed up with a removable (given the requisite heavy equipment) cement cap and the whole thing then buried under a dumptruck load of dirt--right after I visually inspected the entrance in late June 1998. Weird. And, a rather strong indication that this entrance is to some degree active.

CORROBORATIVE INFORMATION AND TESTIMONY

THE PHILADELPHIA EXPERIMENT, VALLEE, "DUDGEON", MARSHALL BARNES AND THE DEBUNKER DEBUNKED

Jacques Vallee, a fairly well-known and "credible" UFO researcher, who I discovered several years ago has had substantial and verifiable links to intelligence/military agencies in the U.S. going back 30 or more years (in other words he was a high-level spook and disinfo agent who was recruited from France, and worked with J. Allen Hynek and other spook/scientists for Air Force Intelligence and similar groups; initially at the Batelle Institute near Wright-Patterson AFB in Ohio), published a report in 1994 which purported to totally debunk the Philadelphia Experiment and show that it was a hoax.

The problem is, Vallee's own article itself was complete and utter bullshit, utilizing as it's primary source one "Edward Dudgeon", some phony with absolutely no credibility who has been conclusively proved a liar--and thus by extension Vallee has been so proved as well. The person who busted these clowns is named Marshall Barnes, an independent researcher who in addition has heavily and thoroughly investigated the Phoenix Project from Philadelphia all the way through the Montauk Project, and has found SOLID evidence to support many of the major claims being made about Phoenix, as well as scientific data and so forth which prove that many of the claims are quite possible.

Vallee and Bernhard Haisch, Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of Scientific Exploration which published Vallee's article and has refused to disclaim or otherwise back off it, have become the target of an ongoing private investigation focusing on them having promoted research fraud.

Proof which shows Jacques Vallee's article to be an outright fraud has been made public by Barnes, leaving no room for doubt that the world famous UFO researcher was an active participant in an official coverup effort.

Barnes shows irrefutably that there was on the part of the Navy and other government agencies: 1.) a strong agenda to make a ship both radar and sight invisible; 2.) knowledge of the physics by which this can be done; and 3.)

possession of the technology by which this physics could be applied in the field.

Apparently these facts are so disturbing to the "powers that be" that they have in desperation engaged or coerced two well known scientists into perpetrating a bizarre act of deliberate scientific debauchery; risking their names, reputations and those of any organizations they may belong to.

The so-called Dudgeon reportedly told Vallee, "Your book Revelations was wrong about making the ship invisible to radar: the Germans hadn't deployed radar at the time..." Dudgeon is referring to the summer of 1943. Without any question whatsoever the German navy had radar on their ships before WWII. There is information posted on a website at <http://www.cnd.net/~kais/navy/raiders.htm> which provides hard factual data regarding the Nazi's development of radar. By scrolling down to the third and fourth paragraphs under the heading: The pocket battleship Admiral Scheer, can find information on how these same radar systems were used to devastating and deadly effect against Allied ships and crew. The so-called Dudgeon's comments on this point, as on so many others, are utterly worthless drivel.

As for the entire issue about Dudgeon's "credentials" and papers which supposedly support his contention that he was even in the Navy at the Philadelphia Yard during this time--the "papers" he showed Vallee are completely insignificant and prove nothing of the sort. In fact not even Vallee has said anything about seeing any hard documentation/confirmation of these critical elements of Dudgeon's story, and Dudgeon, as we see, is untrustworthy at best. Vallee doesn't even describe what kind of "identification" papers he saw. Who really knows if this so-called Edward Dudgeon is even Edward Dudgeon! In light of the following evidence of his blatantly untruthful testimony, this issue of his real identity becomes especially significant.

One of the main points which Dudgeon (or whoever) and Vallee make which they say gives the lie to claims about the Philadelphia Experiment has to do with the dates of the shakedown cruise for a number of vessels. Dudgeon claims that The Eldridge accompanied his ship, the DE 50, U.S.S. Engstrom and two other ships on shakedown together during the first week of July. Surprise! The Navy's own official records for the Eldridge show that the ship wasn't even launched until July 25, didn't receive its commissioned crew until August 27 and then didn't go on its shakedown cruise until September. It was within the period of time between July 25 and August 27 that a skeleton crew could and would have been used in the clandestine experiments, as they would not be listed as the official commissioned crew and thus any tracing of them would be as pretty much impossible. Barnes says, "I assure you that these dates are accurate because they reflect the same information that I got from three different published official Navy ship record sources, as well as other books that have quoted the same records."

At this point Vallee's article and the "testimony" which make up the bulk of it are shown clearly and unarguably to be the complete garbage that they truly are.

Why then, and at whose direction, have editor Bernard Haisch and his Journal of Scientific Exploration refused to issue a disclaimer regarding this work of outrageous fraud and in fact continue to publish it on their website and doubtless elsewhere also? Very good questions but most likely also rhetorical ones. Undoubtedly relevant is the fact that Vallee for one reason or another deemed it desirable his report "reviewed" and obviously censored or "cleared" by one "Vice-Admiral William D. Houser". Hmmm...

Very interesting as well is the fact that apparently a false connection was made by Dudgeon between the "St. Elmo's Fire" phenomenon and the witness descriptions of the visual phenomenon observed during the Philadelphia Experiment; that is, that the phenomenon in fact does more than just impart to a ship a greenish, glowing aura due to the coronal discharge, but can also have the effect of rendering the ship relatively invisible to sight, and presumably to radar as well.

However, this claim only came up in a summary of Vallee's "research" into Dudgeon's claims and on a TV interview of Dudgeon by Vallee, and is not mentioned in the article itself, which was reviewed by the Vice-Admiral. St. Elmo's Fire was mentioned by Dudgeon only as a disinformation ploy, to provide a false explanation for any bizarre conditions noted by a number of eyewitnesses regarding the condition of the USS Eldridge. No mention was made in the printed article to the effect that St. Elmo's Fire can also result in invisibility--something much more significant from a defense or "covert operations" point of view than some greenish glow, and which if true would indeed logically have a direct relation to the Philadelphia Experiment technology itself. If this were really true then there WOULD be a scientifically valid way to make a vessel or other object invisible--by merely replicating the effects of St. Elmo's Fire! Thus the Vice-Admiral would have advised Vallee to remove this material from the printed article, regardless of the fact that Dudgeon's yarn about St. Elmo's Fire is false and was only originally offered at all as way of explaining the other accounts which attest to the ship becoming invisible.

A POSSIBLE PERSONAL LINK

I have had a number of personal contacts with Preston Nichols, a few with Peter Moon, and have conversed with both of them of the phone many times; and with Al Bielek several times. Nichols did a "Reichian" (according to methods developed by Wilhelm Reich) energy reading on me during our very first personal meeting and he concluded that there were extremely strong indications of a personal involvement in the Montauk Project on my part. This reading was however somewhat cursory and incomplete, because at one point I became intensely emotional about something related to my childhood and my family, feelings which definitely seemed to be connected to the entire business.

Although we were not able to pursue it at the time, I felt distinctly that, along with whatever else had been going on with me personally in relation to the Project, the entire matter had a sizable and negative though hidden effect on our entire family and was responsible for a certain amount of emotional turmoil, pain, and disruption. This is all a subjective impression--at this point in time I have no hard evidence to back that aspect of things up. Nichols felt that my skills in communications could have been utilized in dealings with ETs; he also picked up from my energy patterns that I had several implants, and that I had been used in time travel experimentation as well. Other definite indications of some kind of direct personal involvement in some aspects of the Montauk Project were discussed in my first report on the Project.

Other strongly suggestive memories, impressions, vivid dreams and experiences of mine, most of which material is covered in Part 4 of my initial report Montauk Air Force Station--Active Or Not?, indicate a definite likelihood of some type of connection to or involvement with the Montauk Project on my part, very possibly beginning at a rather young age.

My trip to eastern Long Island in the summer of 1998, which included a number of side trips to Montauk, showed a possible link between the underground facility at the WW 2 Navy submarine base on Montauk's Fort Pond Bay and some peculiar experiences of mine as a child, during the time my family began vacationing right up the road from this area in 1959 and 1960.

This relates to an exceptionally vivid dream/nightmare, one I can remember to this day, from when I was 5-6 years old. Not the standard fare of goblins or monsters threatening to gobble one up: this dream presented, it would seem, an scenario more along the lines of what "Dr. Jonas", in the movie Conspiracy Theory, described as the focus of his "work" as a "research" scientist for the CIA in the field of mind control as part of the well-known MK-ULTRA program--which was terminal sensory deprivation. There is a strong factual link here to the ubiquitous and repugnant "dean of modern psychiatry" Ewen Cameron and his MK-ULTRA experimentation at McGill University and Allen Memorial Institute in Montreal, Canada during the 1950s and 1960s. Cameron, who had made no secret of his slavering admiration for the monsters and butchers of Bergen-Belsen and indeed for the entire Nazi movement in all aspects, rightly viewed his psychotic and brutal "work" for the CIA and other agencies as a continuation of the experiments carried out by the Nazis upon their millions of helpless human victims. Circumstantial evidence and a number of personal accounts indicate that similar operations were in fact also being conducted on Long Island, probably at Camp Hero, Fort Pond Bay Naval Base in Montauk, and at Brookhaven Labs during this time period, perhaps involving Ewen Cameron himself.

The main image in this early childhood dream was of being naked, freezing cold, and huddled on the floor of a featureless, cement cube or "box" of some kind, perhaps 12-15 cubic feet; the atmosphere was chilly and very damp. My terror increased substantially when I observed that liquid of some kind was beginning to enter holes in this cube, and the implications was that at some point I would drown. Naturally I woke up screaming from that one. An interesting point is that my family did not own a TV and our trips to the movies were fairly infrequent. At that age and at that period of time I can't imagine where or how I could have "picked up" or otherwise appropriated such a terrifying image from any conceivable source.

The memory of this dream experience as noted has stayed with me since that time, and now that I am aware of the Montauk Project and related operations on Long Island at the time I was growing up there I've wondered if perhaps this dream was a psychic bleed through of some horrific event actually experienced by me. Interesting then to notice on my recent trip to the old WW2 Navy submarine base at Fort Pond Bay in Montauk, a old concrete cube about 12-15 cubic feet in dimension right at the shore line, obviously some structure related to the submarine pens on the Bay here. This is less than a half mile from the hotel on Fort Pond, which is where my family began vacationing on eastern Long Island, when I was about 6 years old. Hmmm...

OTHER CORROBORATIVE INFORMATION

Michelle Guerin, who has uncovered within herself buried memories of some very traumatic and significant events at Camp Hero and nearby Ditch Plains, has provided the following information on a number of points concerning the Montauk Project and related issues (Michelle has a web site detailing some of her Montauk experiences at--<http://members.aol.com/nymush/sands.html>).

"Preston Nichols states in his books that he worked for "BJM" (note: "BJM"="AIL"), a well known defense contractor on Long Island. While a pseudonym has been used for the company in order to protect himself from possible lawsuits, I have a friend that did indeed work with Preston at a well know defense contractor on Long Island.

"I have an uncle that is very familiar with the area around Montauk, as he spent most of his summers there, from childhood through adulthood. Up until 3 years ago, he owned a home in Montauk. My uncle has some very unusual memories concerning something that happened at the camp when he was younger. At the time, his family summered at a campsite near Camp Hero. Due to an impending hurricane, the residents of the campsite were evacuated to the base. All of the children were housed in a separate building, on the second floor. During the night, he woke up and recalled seeing a face at the window, and was mesmerized by the eyes. He's never forgotten this. Remember, he was on the second floor! He only related this story to me after I told him of my own experiences at Montauk.

"My cousin (his daughter) then told me of her memories of Montauk. Every summer when they arrived there, for about a two week period, she would experience an unusual "sensation"... she would feel depressed, uneasy and lethargic for no apparent reason. Then she said it was as if she would get used to the sensation, and it no longer bothered her. She had never mentioned this to her family until I started to ask about Montauk.

"I myself have been to Montauk and can attest to the strange "vibes" there. My psychic antennae seems to be most affected in an area near the location of the Sage radar dish, along a stretch of an isolated road known as Old Montauk Hwy. We had been able to verify (through the use of an EMF detector), anomalous EM readings in that location."

I got a very noteworthy email from a woman in the New York area regarding the fateful day of August 12, 1983, when the major phase of the Montauk Project "crashed and burned". Judith wrote to me as follows.

"I live in the tri-state area so your article interested me. I did some research at the New York Public Library a couple of months ago on the Philadelphia Experiment--supposedly the ship which disappeared-reappeared in Montauk August 1983--I was living in Manhattan at the time and I clearly remember a late night news broadcast about this ship reappearing and the reporter saying the base was totally closed, nobody could get in to check it out. But, I could not find anything in the local newspapers about it from 1983. What I DID find was that the entire midtown area in Manhattan lost ALL electrical power at about the time the ship was supposed to have shown up. The subways were virtually stopped. The outage was so severe as to have crippled midtown for an entire three-four days before it could be restored. I seem to remember this too back in 1983. There is no mention in the papers about WHY this occurred."

--Judith

Several other individuals from the New York/Long Island area with whom I have spoken also recall seeing a spot on local news about the military vessel which appeared mysteriously off Montauk Point for at least a few days that August.

The following, written by Stephanie Chesler, was posted by Ellie Crystal on her web site.

"I read with great interest your material about Montauk in the Universal Updates. I grew up in a small town called Port Jefferson on Long Island's north shore, about half way to Montauk from the city. My father worked with a division of Grumman Aerospace on top secret projects that involved the Navy, and I remember our neighbors often told my mother that the FBI had come around the neighborhood to "check" out my father's activities in the community. I remember him speaking about rumors of an underground base at Montauk."

"My neighbor across the street was a scientist of some sort that worked with government. He never revealed to me exactly what he did, but he had some very complicated electronic apparatus in his garage that I was fascinated with. I babysat his children twice a week, and I would always take a peek in the garage after I had put them to bed. When I questioned him about the purpose of the instruments, he blew me off with a wrong answer. I knew enough that he was lying, as I was keenly interested in science at that time, having won first place in the High School Suffolk County Science Fair two years in a row.

"The other strange thing was that they were definitely under some kind of guard or surveillance that my neighbor was completely aware of. There were frequent visits by unmarked cars parked in front of their house, always with two men in the front seat. Very weird for a quiet suburban neighborhood!! My father was told it was government job related, not to worry about it. When I was in my sophomore year at school (1976-77), my neighbor hurriedly asked me to watch his children for a weekend, while he and his wife looked for a house to relocate in Montauk. They told me they had bought a pharmacy there. The move was completed in less than two weeks. Strange though, when I drove to Montauk to return a book I had borrowed the family had vanished! There was only one pharmacy in Montauk at that time, and they had never heard of my neighbor. I never saw them again.

"Another interesting thing was that I frequently did see a greenish glow in the sky, always on cold winter nights in the direction of Montauk. I wouldn't say it was a beam, but it was definitely localized in certain areas of the sky. When I told my science teachers that I had seen this occur, they told me I was imagining it, as we were too far south to observe an aurora borealis type of sky. But I know my family and I saw it!

"Here is the strangest story of all. My family frequently went to Wildwood State Park just east of Shoreham. I remember always passing a small sign on a metal fence gate off what was then a two lane road that read TESLA Research Station. On this particular day my family decided to take a walk on the beach, which is composed of pebbles, not sand. I lagged behind at quite a distance, picking up beautiful pebbles and looking for frosted sea glass. All of a sudden I froze as I sensed a "wall" of energy enveloping me. It had moved rapidly from off the Long Island Sound, heading from the north to south. I didn't like it at all, and somehow I felt trapped. I seemed to move in slow motion, as if thick honey had been poured over me. When I screamed to my family for help, my screams seemed to bounce back at me as if deflected by some invisible wall. They never even looked at me. But I was struggling with all my might to break free of this energy. I was very cold and sobbing and my heart was pounding very quickly. I ran toward my family, with a huge effort, and I felt a resistance, sort of like traveling through a wall of very thick jello, then a pop as I began to more easily run like a devil was after me. My father looked up in a panic when he saw my state, and told me they hadn't seen me at all for the last few minutes. After all was said and done, my "adventure" was chalked up to an overactive imagination. I was told I read too much and I was actually teased quite a bit about this incident.

"Well, there are some of my wild stories!! I never did figure out what happened to me on the beach at Wildwood, but my family can tell you I never went to that section of the beach again!"

--© Stephanie Chesler

Christine Oliva wrote to me with some very intriguing recollections of her childhood on Long Island with a father deeply involved in covert government /military projects and a knowledge of the underground at Montauk, as well as her own experiences working at numerous defense contractors on Long Island herself.

"I was wondering if you are aware that there are underground tunnels leading from AIL to who knows where, I suspect that the tunnels lead to Montauk and also Brookhaven Labs.

"I grew up on Long Island, my father was involved with black projects for many years during his career as a electronic engineer, mathematician, designer and inventor. He was definitely involved with the manufacturing of microchips and helped to design one so that it may go into some of the spaceships that we sent to outer space. All of the work he did for our government was top security cleared, his history follows from WW ll with Nazi technology.

"Not to get off the subject of AIL, I worked there among other places and my work was also security cleared although not as high a clearance as my father. AIL is priority on my mind because of the extensive interrogation I got there from the persons doing the security clearances, these people definitely were not your average guy on the street. They looked mean, and acted very cold, I felt as if I were being inspected under a microscope.

"This was the first time I felt like this while being cleared for security. I will never forget it. They asked the most ridiculous questions, and expected me to remember my grandparents histories, and asked me also if I could remember more than that regarding my family's history.

"After I passed their interrogations, (seemed like hours for me! and their staring at me was very uncomfortable), I had to go for drug and other medical examinations in order to satisfy their qualifications. These people were not playing around!

"After a few months working at AIL, their were rumors that there were many stairways leading to secret doors that lead to underground tunnels and parts of the building you could not get to unless you knew how and where they were. It was as if there was another part of the building hidden away from everyone else.

"One day I was approached by a fellow whom I did not know well, he started talking about these secret entrances, I now feel as if he was testing me out for some reason. I acted surprised at what he was telling me, because I was! I heard rumors before, but thought they were just that. He asked me if I believed what he was saying, and I sort of doubted him (I am the type of person who does not fall for rumours easily), and when he saw the doubt on my face, he asked me if I would like to see what he was talking about. I said to myself something was wrong here, who was this person?, why was he approaching me with this information?, and why didn't he care if he got caught?, the red flags were thrown up for me!, I followed my intuition that danger was near. I felt very uneasy and angered that he would suggest such a thing to me knowing very well how dangerous it was. I said to him no thank you, and didn't he realize the dangerous situation he would be putting the both of us in? He laughed and said "Oh come on, nothing is going to happen"!. I said again no thanks and walked angrily away. I know he was not lying! And I still cannot figure out why he chose me among all of the rest to tell me this, and to try to persuade me to go along with him. I can only thank God that I did not follow him out of curiosity.

" So there is my story about AIL and the underground tunnels and secret doorways to who knows where. Again my gut feelings say that most of Long Island has these underground tunnels leading from military outposts, electronic manufacturing facilities, military airports, etc. I believe that Brookhaven labs is also intertwined underground with the rest.

"I now know that because of working at the places I did, and the type of work I did, I was definitely controlled in some way, since childhood I might add, and suspect that ELF waves were used on me and who knows what else. My memory has been definitely affected. The time sequence is a mess for me remembering those years. In other words, I can remember important events, but not the sequence in which they occurred. Very frustrating to say the least. Everything is scrambled for me."

A further message from Ms. Olivo revealed the following.

"Ok, first of all I had no idea that Nichols worked at AIL too! Amazing!, who knows?, I probably brushed shoulders with him and didn't know it. Or at least my mind won't let me remember it! I am hoping that my father being old now, and probably retired, won't care anymore. I am of course not on speaking terms with him sad to say, because I know within my heart, he knows a mouthful and more! He definitely knows about alien technology. He said some very important things to me about it when I was very young, and now when I reflect back, alien technology was his forte.

"My father did some really awful things to my deceased mother and me while I was growing up and later on. This included brainwashing, hypnosis, and God only knows what else he did in his laboratory in our family's basement home. I do believe that the phenomena that took place during those years was due to his meddling around down in the basement of our home with all kinds of equipment, radars, oscillators, generators, I know for a fact that the company he worked for, Loral--located in Vermont and then Long Island, loaned him all of that equipment, some of it was way to expensive for him to buy on his own, and why would he when the company gave him all of it.

"He would go to his regular job daytime, and then come home to continue his job in the basement. This went on for thirty years, and the last time I saw the basement, he added computers that he built himself to do God knows what. Even though my father being as such, he is still my father, and I haven't come to the point yet in revealing his name to anyone. For some reason I still feel protective of him, but if there were someone I could really trust, I guess I would reveal his name as long as I was kept updated to what was found concerning him, and given the truth, and guaranteed that no harm would come to him. I wouldn't even mind someone asking him questions, but he is tight lipped, believe me. Now that all of this stuff has come out, he might not be."

THE SAGE STORY

I think there is a good chance that most or all of the SAGE radar sites were deliberately chosen to coincide with geomagnetic hot spots, earth grid power points, or something along these lines, and that (most) SAGE sites have had a connection to mind control all along; in other words I consider it possible that the SAGE system had at least a twofold agenda going since its inception or soon after. Nearly all military installations have been constructed on earth grid power points; in particular those constructed in this century.

It wouldn't surprise me if some of the other SAGE radar sites are used in Montauk-type operations as well. At a SAGE location in Germany it was observed that many of the people in the adjacent town seemed to be "under the influence" of EM/RF mind manipulating transmissions; San Francisco area researcher and author Ken Wells, Jr. informed me that there is a SAGE radar site close to San Francisco. (All SAGE radar dish sites were constructed with at least four levels of underground directly underneath the supporting tower structure itself.)

When the Phoenix operation pulled in to Montauk Air Force Station, they weren't exactly strangers to the Air Force there, and in fact base personnel related to the new arrivals data they had amassed on how the SAGE transmissions caused some very definite effects on personnel at the base, which varied depending on the particular frequencies being transmitted by the SAGE dish. (One gets a good idea exactly what kinds of "effects" these were further ahead in this report, in the section entitled More Weird Tales Of Montauk AFS).

THE AIR FORCE AND THE (MYSTERIOUS) MONTAUK BASE

Important information about the Montauk base as well as some exceptionally intriguing anecdotes come my way from a former Air Force radar technician/engineer named Bob Tidwell.

Bob was briefly stationed at Stewart AFB, an installation otherwise noteworthy for the fact that it has without doubt figured significantly somehow or other into the (lower) Hudson Valley UFO phenomenon. Many black NSA choppers seen at or near the sightings of the giant boomerang (and other craft) were traced to Stewart by investigators during the course of this years-long series of UFO sightings--unsurprisingly, long after Stewart's "official" closure.

Tidwell has some pertinent technical information regarding SAGE and other radar systems. He also notes that it was highly unusual for a SAGE site to be situated so close to the shoreline--virtually all other sites he knows of are much further inland. He specifies a few other instances of incongruities and anomalies regarding the equipment used at Montauk AFS.

Additionally, Tidwell's information shows how Stewart was used as a staging area for operations at the Montauk base, and probably as a paper trail cover for Montauk as well.

The following material is from a number of emails sent to me by Mr. Tidwell.

"These special sites were referred to as SAGE sites, which is very misleading. SAGE (Semi-Automated Ground Environment) actually refers to the manner in which radar and communications information was automatically routed from all radar sites to a central Control & Command center. Most locations also had an associated "ground radio" site that would allow C&C to communicate with whatever intercept aircraft were currently in that particular area. This specialized system involved the setup of multiple communications paths and new protocols to insure that all of this information would reach C&C. This new technology would later evolve into today's World Wide Web. I don't know why these sites themselves were referred to as SAGE, unless it was a ploy to draw attention away from the manner in which our radar sites communicated with C&C.

"The Air Defense Command constructed most of these sites in the 1950s, but most were decommissioned in 1969 and 70, because of the new airborne radar aircraft, which overcame the curvature problem without having to use the lower frequencies. Some sites that were in sensitive areas remained open as late as 1980.

STRANGE GOINGS ON

"I can positively say that this site (Montauk Air Force Station) was in operation, in some manner, as late as 1972. This was verified to me by a personal friend a few years ago. He was serving submarine duty in the area, and was leaving for extended sea duty within a few days. He and several shipmates were on shore leave on Long Island, and were looking for a beach area to have one last beer party before shipping out. One of the guys suggested the old Montauk Base, as it was deserted, and they could get drunk and spend the night on the beach without getting into trouble.

"They were able to enter the base area ok, the main gate was open and in disrepair, so they started looking for a good place to party. When they came to the location of the radar site they discovered a shiny new security fence, and were immediately surrounded by armed security police. They were then escorted off base and told never to come back (emphasis added).

"It has been suggested to me by several persons during my investigations that Stewart AFB was acting as a staging and transfer center for Montauk. Stewart certainly had connections to the electronics and radar schools at Keesler AFB in Biloxi, Mississippi. I myself was given orders to the 1st Air Force at Stewart. When I questioned my orders, I was told that Stewart was indeed my correct destination, and to consider my orders secret, even though this was never officially stated on paper. I've been told that certain personnel were being brought into Montauk through Stewart, in order to eliminate a paper trail leading back to Montauk. (emphasis added)."

This last comment is very interesting to me because I have heard the same kind of thing from other sources and this practice may in fact be continuing presently. In fact in 1996, while combining a visit to my family in East Hampton [Montauk is in E. H. Township] with my ongoing investigation into the project, I overheard at a supermarket some comments made by the two guys in front of me (one in particular was especially talkative--almost in a nervous fashion) to the checkout girl.

This fellow was saying that he and his companion had just arrived in the area, and in fact had orders to report to Montauk! (obviously there is no overt military facility ON THE MAP anywhere in this area these days). His decidedly more taciturn buddy grunted in a discouraging way--like, "shut up dude," but blabbermouth kept on obliviously, to the effect that they had come in "through New Jersey" (as if to provide some paper trail cover) in order to be stationed at Montauk. After they left I inquired of the young lady about their comments, adding, "what branch of the military has an active installation at Montauk?" She replied animatedly, "yeah! That's just what I was wondering!"

If I had to hazard a guess as to which branch of the military these guys were in, I would say Navy. I definitely didn't seem to get an "Air Force" vibe. Also as they were both pretty chunky I would think they were probably officers of one degree or another!

Tidwell continues: "I remember the trip up there, and the trip back, but the few days that I was there are only a blurred memory. I remember showing my orders to the guard at the main gate, and being directed to a location that was away from everything else. There was a small one-story barracks-like building that had been converted into office space.

"I went in and presented my orders. There were only three people in this building; a female secretary, a First Sergeant, and a Captain. I remember then being told to go outside and police the area (pick up cigarette butts) while they checked my orders. Looking back now, this memory seems very absurd, having a new person walking around, picking up trash in a dress blue uniform.

"After what seemed like an hour, I was called back in and told to go into the Captain's office. He informed me that my orders were a mistake, and that I would be reassigned to another location. He had my new orders on his desk, already typed out, except for the new location. The nearest location would have been Buffalo, but the Captain simply asked me where I wanted to go. (This is unheard of in the military) In a daze I said "back to Alabama." He then took my orders out to the secretary, and returned a few minutes later with the Alabama location typed in. He never called or checked with anyone to ok this, and I never checked in with the base personnel office, which is standard practice. They seem pleased to get me out of the area.

"One of the things that seemed to trouble them was that I had gotten married a few months earlier, and had brought my wife with me. I vaguely remember being there about one to two weeks, and had even rented a place to live. I also have vague memories of shopping on the base, although I don't remember anything else about the base. Also, why would I be there that long if I had gone in and was told that I wasn't supposed to be there.

"So, I loaded up my car and drove back to Alabama. I spent the next year at the Dauphin Island radar site (I found out later that this was one of the most sought after assignments), until it closed.

"We were again asked to fill out the dream sheets for reassignment. After the site closed, the personnel began leaving for their new assignments. After a while the base commander called me into his office and wanted to know why I was still there, and hadn't left yet. I informed him that I hadn't received my new orders yet. They started checking, and appeared to be experiencing some confusion. At one point I was asked if I had been getting my paychecks ok.

"The next day I was called into the commander's office, and laying on his desk were my new orders, with the new assignment location blank. I was again asked "where do you want to go?" The nearest location that was still active was North Charleston S.C., so I requested that. He took the orders out to his secretary and returned a few minutes later with that location filled in. Back then I didn't question any of this strangeness, I just told myself that I was being extremely lucky.

"I spent my remaining two years at North Charleston. While going through my out-processing physical, several doctors were very interested in my knees. They asked several times if I was having any trouble with them. This seemed strange to me, as I have never had any trouble with my knees in my life. I was then asked who had performed the reconstruction work on both of my knees, as they were amazed at how precise it had been done. I told them that they were mistaken, and that nothing had ever been done to my knees. This seemed to really trouble them. Later, when I got home, I examined my knees and discovered traces of faint surgery marks on both knees. The marks are still visible today.

"After going back to civilian life, I occasionally would have a recurring dream. In this dream I was told that I would have to go back into the Air Force and work for an additional two years. I thought that this dream might have a connection with being on inactive duty status for two years before I would receive my permanent discharge, but the dreams continued on for about 20 years. They were very vivid, and were always connected in some way. I would be stationed at a strange radar site, and worked on equipment that I was not familiar with. The site was located on what appeared to be a section of a larger base, although I couldn't quite picture the base. It was also located near water. In the dreams I would do normal everyday things (besides work at the radar site), like shop in stores and ride around in my car. It was as if I were reliving another life in my dreams.

"Then, sometime in the early 90s I noticed a book titled The Montauk Project -- Experiments in Time. The name drew my attention, so I picked up the book and started thumbing through it. My blood then seemed to turn into ice water, for here was the location that I had been dreaming about. All of the photos and illustrations had been in my dreams, even the ones that supposedly pertained to time travel.

"I know that there wasn't enough time for me to have been stationed there, as I was only in New York for a few days, although several people that have helped me with this (author Marc Davenport and quantum physicist Dr. Fred Allen Wolf), insist that some form of time travel could have been involved.)

"A few vague memories that have come back to me my time at Stewart are; being taken to a Holiday Inn(?), to a room on the second floor, and being strapped into a chair and drugged. There is also a memory of being put on an aircraft and taken to another location. This reminds me of your mention of psychotronic devices, maybe used for mind control. Another point that has surfaced in the last month concerns the time that I was stationed at Dauphin Island. I wrote an article for my newsletter about UFO radar reports, and used my knowledge of working on equipment at North Charleston. After completing the article, I realized that I didn't refer back to my experience at Dauphin Island. I then realized that I didn't remember exactly what it was that I had worked on there. I do remember everything else there, except what I was supposed to actually be working on, and probably would not have realized this had I not have decided to write the article.

"As a quick note, during my investigation into sites and bases here in Alabama, I discovered that Maxwell AFB, at Montgomery, was the original NORAD Command & Control Center. I have several eye witnesses to the fact that Maxwell has several underground levels. My investigation into this goes as far as to even show what happened to the dirt that was removed. It is still being used for research and development projects, among other things, and one of my information sources stated that the basic research for the HAARP project was conducted at Maxwell. I haven't been able to confirm this, but thought that it might fit into your research."

Tidwell recollected an incident which happened to a friend of his in the Air Force around 1980. This fellow had just reported to a base in Maine, and the next thing he knew he was waking up in Navy hospital in Boston. He was told that he had fallen and hit his head badly. He had no recollection of any such event or what happened in between that and waking up in the Navy hospital. As fortune would have it he was befriended in the hospital by a nurse, and when he was released he was given some time off from active duty to continue recuperating. The nurse invited him to spend a few days with her at her parents' house on Long Island. Major and continual feelings of deja vu washed over this fellow after he arrived on Long Island, coupled with some very strange feelings about things that he felt may have happened to him during the time he was supposedly "unconscious" after his "accident". As Tidwell put it, "He then told me about having dreams of being stationed at an unusual site that he felt was located at Montauk Point. In his dreams he felt as if he were an officer, because everyone would salute him. He also said that the site was a joint Air Force-Navy project of some sort."

This person became progressively more curious about what might be going on and subsequently became aware of the Montauk Project operation, which he was sure he had somehow been involved in. As Tidwell noted, the man believed, based on what he found out about the Montauk Project, that it was an operation involving both the Air Force and the Navy (as HAARP was originally). Not many people know this and I don't believe it was mentioned specifically in Nichols' books.

Tidwell also relays how his friend has to have a yearly checkup as a requirement for his disability classification. Bob writes, "Every time he undergoes his physical, he is questioned as to his medical records. It seems that he has two identical files with his correct name and social security number on each file. The other file incorrectly identifies him as a Marine Corps Captain. (He was put into a Naval Hospital after his injury, not an Air Force Hospital)".

NO RECORDS OF AIR FORCE RADAR PERSONNEL FROM MONTAUK!

Bob Tidwell keeps fairly close contacts with other Air Force radar techs, and they are somewhat a specialized breed. He confided to me that although there is absolutely no doubt that Montauk AFS exists (or existed), that it was a radar station for the Air Force and that obviously it was staffed, neither he nor any of the numerous radar techs he has contact with know of or ever heard of anyone who was ever stationed at Montauk.

Here's what Bob had to say.

"Radar Techs tend to stay in touch with each other, even after all these years. I contacted some of them and requested the names of anyone that was stationed at Montauk AFS, and at a site that I'm looking into here in Alabama that may have been similar. What we discovered was that none of us has ever heard of anyone that was ever stationed at Montauk, before or after 1969. This is very odd, in that we are usually able to track down people from sites all over the world. There are major web sites devoted to us radar techs, but nobody can remember ever hearing of anyone that admits to being stationed at Montauk. We put out feelers everywhere and came up completely blank. The radar site was there, no question about that, but the people that were stationed there are like ghosts. The same is true for several other sites that I am looking into.

"We did find out that when Montauk closed in 1969, and was reopened through TAC, that this was most unusual, and also suggests to us that the site was being used as a cover for something else. I did find out though that Montauk's military connections after 1969 were being made through Hancock Field in New York. Hopefully this can be of use to you."

MORE WEIRD TALES OF MONTAUK AFS

Information which strongly suggests that some most unusual things were going on at Montauk Air Force Station in the late 1950s and early 1960s comes from a fellow who's father was an Air Force Colonel and assistant base commander at Mitchell Air Force Base in central Long Island (he wishes to retain anonymity). Periodically, personnel from Montauk AFS would come to Mitchell for R&R. These fellows caused considerable consternation and distress to personnel at Mitchell due to the peculiar, bizarre, dissociative and generally loony behavior exhibited by just about all of them. Among other oddities, a number of the men became totally lost and disoriented, though they had not gone very far at all from the central base area. The group from Montauk was monitored closely and constantly by their commander. Something seemed seriously out of whack with the entire group and the Mitchell commander was asked by other Mitchell personnel to have the Montauk group leave before their R&R tour was over. This was in the very early 1960s, and the number of these kinds of occurrences prompted this colonel to conclude that something was indeed amiss at Montauk AFS, and to drive out to Montauk a number of times with his son in the interest of attempting to find out what was going on at the Camp Hero location.

Even though the phase of the Phoenix Project--now known as the Montauk Project--had not yet "officially" gotten underway, let's not forget that Camp Hero has had a reputation of being a "psych" base pretty much throughout its entire existence, shortly after the land was legally stolen from its Montauk Indian owners around 1910. In other words it has always been a center for experimental, psychologically oriented or based (i.e. intelligence) government projects. Nichols indicated that there were some indications that even before the Montauk project commenced there were ties between Brookhaven Labs with it's considerable (ex)-Nazi scientist contingent, and the Montauk Point base on a major earth grid power point, with it's connections to the preexisting underground and a significant, well-established pro-German (Nazi/Aryan) community in the Montauk area. On top of this, there is some very strong evidence that Montauk (Camp Hero) was the site of some weirdness with psychedelic drugs in the mid-60s. As Peter Moon noted, there is almost certainly a link to Timothy Leary and Richard Albert of Harvard during this period of time at Montauk Air Force Station. A base building which had a number of rooms painted in full on psychedelic style circa 1967-68 were found and videotaped by Preston Nichols with a video crew at Montauk Air Force Station.

A Mrs. Sneed of Sag Harbor visited Montauk AFS in 1980 and related to me her experience there. She was with a friend and on legitimate business for her husband, a retired military man. The trip was pursuant to certain consumer goods and other items being made available to veterans at a major discount and obtainable at the PX of any nearby military base. Mrs. Sneed had with her the letters/documents of authorization. Montauk AFS was the closest base to them so that's where they went. (Let's not forget however that Montauk Air Force Station was officially decommissioned and closed 11 years prior to this; of course the reality was that it was NOT closed and naturally many people in the area knew this obvious fact).

Strangely (or not!), they were treated with extreme brusqueness, suspicion and rudeness, first by guards at the entrance to the base, then by other base personnel and officers called to the scene by the guards, all of whom attempted in every possible way to deter the women from entering the property, despite being shown the official authorization numerous times.

Mrs. Sneed refused to back down, having made up her mind not to have undertaken the 50+ mile round trip for nothing; and seeing no good reason why the desired items should not be made available according to the terms of the authorizing document she presented.

Finally the women were admitted and escorted directly to the PX with vehicles directly in front and in back of their car. They were not allowed to stop or slow down. Although the base itself did seem to be unusually quiet on the "surface", judging solely by the reception they'd received there was obviously something rather "important" and secretive going on there.

Mrs. Sneed stated that there were air vent stacks protruding from the ground all over the place. She told me she felt very strongly at the time that substantial underground activity was taking place at the Montauk base and in fact commented on this to her friend. Mrs. Sneed stated that though she and her friend couldn't possibly be any threat in any imaginable way to anything (legitimate at least) that was going on there, they had people standing right next to them when they went into the PX, and were escorted right back to their cars and right off the base. According to Mrs. Sneed, everyone they encountered was acting very strangely, downright creepy...

WHO'S RUNNING THE SHOW

BELIEF SYSTEMS--ILLUSION OF CHOICE

The readers' interest and intelligence, as evidenced by their willingness to look beyond the nearly worthless disinformational slop and tripe doled out by the major news and information media on almost every subject of any importance whatsoever, is greatly appreciated. At this point in time the owners and operators of the major news organizations, to a very large degree, are thoroughly connected to the "powers that be" behind the scenes of our society; they are part of the overarching "mind-controlling" structure now in place and many of the employees of such organizations are themselves "mind controlled" for the most part and avoid or ignore stories and information which wouldn't further the aims of the "controllers;" employees controlled in their thinking through the threat of job/income loss if nothing else. The mass media corporations support and further the aims and practices of our covert government--disseminating disinformation which aids the coverups of some of the most grievous wrongs committed against us by our (secret) government.

By controlling the general information which is in fact made public, the plan to (further) manipulate the consciousness and awareness of humanity is already in progress--in fact well under way.

The real story is definitely not on CBS or anywhere else like that!

It has crossed my mind more than a few times lately that with the astonishing array of mind-, mood-, thought-, body-, and environment- (as in HAARP) -altering technologies at the disposal of the covert government and it's New World Order/Big Brother/1984 objectives, it would be extremely easy, and undoubtedly quite tempting for these "devotees of evil" to attempt to manipulate much of the world's population, in accordance with the "religious" beliefs of a good percentage of humanity, into believing that the entire life supporting framework on Earth is crumbling, (which to some extent it may well be due to rapacious and devastating environmental policies and agendas set by the covert government), and/or that we are under attack from some thoroughly evil, possibly cannibalistic aliens hell-bent on enslaving, raping, pillaging and in general destroying humanity and maybe our planet as well. (Funny how that's exactly what the covert government is doing!!)

There are innumerable adherents worldwide to the plethora of "apocalyptic" false religions fostered and propagated by the malignant secret, cultic "brotherhoods" underlying so much of the world's power genuine structure. Among these false religions I would include at least the institutionalized and popularized versions of most of the world's primary organized religions. The concepts, precepts and beliefs instilled in the followers of these religions create within them fertile ground for both general social control, more overt forms of manipulation and blind obedience to "authority", in addition to creating a fundamental psychological framework or mindset within great numbers of human beings which greatly increases their susceptibility to the more brutal, intensive and destructive types of advanced mind control programming we find being implemented in such projects as MK-ULTRA, Phoenix, and of course Montauk.

What's further distressing is that even a social "movement" such as what's known as the "New Age" philosophy, which has some undeniably positive aspects including a sensitivity and openness to the fundamental connection within each of us to all life and to higher realms of understanding, wisdom and awareness, as well as an enhanced sense of respect for and desire to coexist with all facets of nature on this planet, can be "infiltrated", subverted and manipulated by the some of the many tentacles of the beast that is the worldwide covert control system or government.

I believe that more than a few fundamental "New Age" tenets and theories such as an impending pole shift, dimensional shift, or other galactic or planetary realignments of a potentially massive, even catastrophic nature, including the "end of time" scenario as per the Mayan Calendar and other schools of esoteric knowledge, could be getting played upon through the implementation of some very subversive social manipulation by some very devious people and agencies, using any and all available means of influencing and shaping human consciousness--including certain highly advanced technologies like those EM/RF systems perfected in the Montauk Project, and now HAARP.

It would be pretty easy to make it seem like the poles, magnetic fields and everything else are shifting if the ionosphere is being whipped into a veritable frenzy with HAARP's EM/RF transmissions which deeply impact weather, mind, seismic activity, and just about everything else! And HAARP is just one of the ways in which various aspects of our reality" can be manipulated and our perceptions thus "controlled".

Byron Weeks has put it as well as I ever could, and I reprint below some of his thoughts on this topic.

"With what we know of electronic warfare I am sure that it has occurred to many of you that we have the potential for one heck of a millennial celebration!

"We have harnessed the Tesla Effect and are able to roil the magma at the core of the earth enough to create tectonic plate disruption sufficient to produce earthquakes and volcanoes. The HAARP Project has demonstrated the ability to control weather, produce giant storms, cause severe droughts, and quite probably the phenomenon known as "El Nino". High wattage microwaves are capable of melting rocks and leveling small mountains. ELF waves are versatile and have been used successfully in mind control, with a typical reaction of the hallucinated appearance of Alien beings. Holographic projections can show realistic movies against the sky, and could entertain us with a fake Second Coming of Christ, angels in the sky, trumpets, and celestial music. Biological warfare could give a good imitation of the punitive plagues of the last days...

"Do you suppose any of the above might cause chaos and rioting that would necessitate calling in United Nations troops to keep order? If that wasn't dramatic enough, our government, which has buddied up to Russia in a continued war against the drugged-up and dumbed-down people of "Amerika". Along with the anticipation of Global Governance, the NWO probably has more up its sleeve, such as planned economic collapse, and civil insurrection engendered by the collapse of welfare payments, and involving rabid minorities armed with Chinese weapons and whipped into a finely tuned state of paranoia through the application of ELF waves.

"It has always been a little troubling to me to consider that a loving Eternal Father in Heaven would bring the dreadful punishment of an Apocalypse down upon a sinful world. Could it not be that what the prophets have always told us may have come from God's foreknowledge of Mankind's tendency to self destruction? Perhaps He thinks it wiser to let us decimate ourselves, since the human experiment has not turned out very well, anyway.

"But we can be very proud that our technology has advanced to the point at which we can self-annihilate in a very short time whenever the fancy strikes us. Imagine! Our very own Apocalypse! I guess we can show those aliens a thing or two!"

THE FUNDAMENTALS OF CONTROL

The entire philosophical impetus and conceptual basis for what the secret government is trying to accomplish with what I've called "reality control", implemented on a very widespread basis, is a subject worthy of much study in itself.

Others have done a tremendous amount of excellent research and writing on this topic, which needs not be duplicated--even if I could do so.

Rather it makes sense to quote some pertinent material from different sources, to help portray some of what underlies the Montauk Project and many other mind control--consciousness manipulation operations.

Again, Byron Weeks has some excellent writing on one aspect of this; the complete de-spiritualization of human beings. In other words, inculcating the concept that we are nothing more than "meat machines", thoroughly mechanistic biological systems whose "consciousness"-- in terms of emotion, creativity, or any "higher" awareness whatsoever, not to mention the anything remotely spiritual--is nothing more than a synaptic byproduct of the interactions of purely physical components and processes. In other words, we are nothing but a body--a view reinforced by our civilization's officially sanctioned modern "science" at every conceivable turn.

As Mr. Weeks put it in The Psychology Behind Mind Control and Psychic Warfare:

"Body identification gives rise to a host of sociological phenomena, the least of which is the mechanistic view that consciousness is a product of the brain, and secondarily that the mind is centered in the brain. Dr. Jose Delgado was one of the chief proponents of this viewpoint. Delgado was the author of the book Physical Control of the Mind: Toward a Psychocivilized Society. For Delgado, the mind existed only in the brain; to postulate its existence as an independent entity was to him sheer nonsense.

"He rejected the concept of free will, and proposed that the mind was a functional entity produced by the electrical operations of the brain, and as such should be manipulated and controlled in order to control the behavior of the population. This was a view that seems to be shared by proponents of the New World Order. Delgado, since the mid-1970's, was the director of the Spanish neurophysiological laboratory Centro Ramon Cajal. As time went on, his interests shifted from direct stimulation of the brain to the broader area of the biological effects of electromagnetic fields, an area that has been eagerly embraced by the military and political system as a means to achieve their goal of absolute control of the population.

"There are several psychological schools of thought that have been adopted by government psycho-scientists and the military to justify mind control. All of them relate to the idea of psychic energy as originating in the human psyche, typified by the work of Carl Jung. The energy originating in the human psyche consists of thoughts, feelings, emotions, and neuro-physiological stimuli and responses. It consists of a physical component that can be measured and an etheric hyper-spacial component that can only be measured by specialized equipment."

SCIENTIFIC MANIPULATIONS--FALSE DATA

Weeks goes on to describe extremely coherently and lucidly how the public is continually manipulated and our evolution and progress substantially restricted by the suppression, destruction, and/or alteration of significant, important information.

Weeks refers particularly to an alteration of Maxwell's equations which resulted from Maxwell's extensive research into electromagnetism--alterations which drastically affected the entire course of "mainstream" science and physics forever afterward; notably in the information made available to scientists and physicists off the time such as Einstein, as well as the subsequent conceptual framework which Einstein arrived at. To cut to the chase, the missing link which would provide the key to the unified field theory was deliberately cut out of Maxwell's equations by a rather sinister group of scientists before Maxwell's work was presented to the scientific community and the world. Of course his original work and all the implications thereof were and are now known to the covert world government, as are the resultant advanced sciences and applications of this knowledge to very high technology.

This technology is all being implemented in the furtherance of unquestionably evil, abusive, oppressive, brutal and rapacious agendas and goals; with consequences which are destructive to nearly every significant aspect of human beings, destructive to human societies and any of its positive, hopeful and constructive goals, and destructive globally, to the fabric of life itself; in part due to a general state of mind which has no understanding of, respect for, and connection with and to nature and the earth with its multitude of life forms; a state of mind which is the product of our current dehumanized, mechanistic and massively mind controlled (through every available means) existence at the hands of the worldwide covert government and its super hi-tech arsenal of mind manipulating technologies.

I found the information below regarding Maxwell's original equations and the interdimensional implications thereof very interesting, and I feel extremely relevant to what is known about the work of Wilhelm Reich regarding what he called "orgone" energy; some characteristics of which are "electromagnetic" in nature but outside of the commonly understood "EM" frame of reference. The information is also quite relevant to what Preston Nichols has reported on regarding the Montauk Project-- both the mind control and interdimensional/time travel aspects of the Project.

>From The Suppression of Vital Data in Physics by Byron Weeks:

"For thousands of years, many discoveries have been suppressed from the populations of the planet in order to keep them in bondage. The burning of the libraries of Alexandria is one example of how information can be suppressed. Another example would be the common technique of suppression of scientific information by alteration of the information itself.

"Perhaps the most blatant and far reaching alteration of data was the alteration of Maxwell's equations. James Clerk Maxwell was a mathematical genius who lived in the late 19th century. His original work, which is available to covert scientific departments in the government, had the potential to radically alter the entire course of our civilization.

"It is certainly clear to most of you by now that the human population can easily be manipulated by electronic means using various methods developed through the military industrial complex. What may not be clear to you is that many of the EM effects can be initiated from outside of what is normally seen as the electromagnetic spectrum. Just as a magnetic field in a wire is at right angles to the current flow, other fields and waveforms exist that are an integral part of the electromagnetic spectrum, yet exist at a certain number of right-angle rotations (orthogonal rotations) away from the electromagnetic field components we are normally accustomed to. If these hyper-spacial components, which are not subject to the usual electromagnetic constraints of time and space, are generated and manipulated, they can in turn generate EM effects that have the capability to influence human biology and consciousness.

"Let's take a brief look at how and by whom the equations of Maxwell were changed, in order to make subsequent open scientific development that would have influenced civilization in a positive way impossible."

--© Byron Weeks

The following section contains crucial information about the massive deception and manipulation of scientific concepts which so extensively impacts our view "reality" in this present day materialistic culture, and is quoted directly from Valdamar Valerian's Matrix III, Volume One, 1992, p.310-311):

THE HERTZIAN CONSPIRACY

"In late 1864, James Clerk Maxwell published his epic material on electromagnetic waves. His material dealt not only with electrical and magnetic waves, but also the relativistic/etheral psychoactive component of these waves (representing electromagnetics of the second order and above). The equations also included transformations that enabled the change from inertial frames of reference to non-inertial frames of reference. Maxwell's original equations were written in Quaternion notation, a complex mathematical system available at that time before Vector Analysis was introduced by Oliver Heaviside. Today's generalized equivalent of Quaternions is Tensors.

"In short, Maxwell's original work gave the necessary information for gravitational propulsion and psychoactive devices. Someone somewhere recognized this, for shortly after his death, the mathematician Oliver Heaviside, the chemist Willard Gibbs, and physicist Heinrich Hertz decided to "edit" or "interpret" Maxwell's famous equations which were, in the original form, the foundations of electromagnetics and Unified Field Theory (UFT). This "unholy trio", especially Heaviside, disregarded the Quaternions or Scalar components of Maxwell's original equations, because they represented potentials and not fields. He thought potentials were akin to "mysticism", because "everybody knows" that fields contain mass, and mass cannot be created from apparently nothing, which is what potentials are, both literally and mathematically; they are an accumulation or reservoir of energy. Furthermore, not only did they throw away the gravitational component with the Quaternion/Scalar, but also postulated that gravitation and electromagnetism were mutually exclusive, not interdependent. That was the death blow to subsequent efforts by scientists to realize a functioning unified field theory. Because of this one act, electromagnetism was reduced from its original five dimensions to only four: X, Y, Z, and time. The element of G was removed.

"Because of this deliberate act, twenty-two other errors exist today in electromagnetic theory. The very concepts of force, mass and charge are ill-defined, and the so-called "static" electrical charge has been discovered by Quantum mechanics not to be static at all, but to move rotationally by virtue of the quantum mechanical spin. Finally, adding insult to injury, the so-called "imaginary components" of Maxwell's original equations as well as the mutilated version of the equations have also been discarded or ignored. With this last error, the door to hyper-spacial domains was forever closed, for the present mathematics and physics of electromagnetic theory do not allow for hyper-spacial domains (domains outside of three dimensions), superluminal signals (signals that exceed the speed of light or are infinite in speed), and a unified field theory.

"The edited version of Maxwell's work, which every physicist and engineer has had to contend with, discards electrogravitation, and avoids the unification of gravitation and electromagnetics. It also prevents the direct engineering of gravitation, space-time, time flow rates, free energy devices, and quantum changes, which is viewed by the altered equations that are vector-based as only a statistical change. The quaternion approach captures the ability to utilize electromagnetics and produce local curvature of spacetime. Heaviside wrote a subset of Maxwell's equations where this capability is excluded.

"Dr. Henry Monteith has independently discovered that Maxwell's original quaternion theory was a unified field theory. Einstein assumed, because he only had access to the altered equations, that curving spacetime could only be achieved by the weak gravitational force due to mass, that the local frame would always be a Lorentz frame, which would mean that all operations would be constrained to "conservation laws of physics".

"In the 1960's the Hertz (Hz) replaced Cycles Per Second. Since, then everyone thinks that all electromagnetic waves are hertzian. Only the upper portion of the spectrum before Infrared contains Hertzian waves. ELF and ULF are not; waves in biosystems and natural phenomena are not Hertzian in nature."

THE ANCIENT HISTORY OF MONTAUK AND SURROUNDING AREAS

POWER POINTS--TETRAHEDRAL PHYSICS

There are two researchers who have contacted me independently with what I feel is some quite significant information. The work of each these individuals dovetails and coincides to a great degree with that of the other on some very intriguing points. The information brought forth by each is very significant in relation to the truly ancient history of Montauk, and what's more to the real history of the human race on earth as well.

Dr. Bruce Cornet of New Jersey was the first of the two to contact me. Dr. Cornet's detailed and extensive research relates to the tetrahedral physics developed by Carl Munck, Bruce Cathie and Richard Hoagland (who popularized it), and applies tetrahedral formulas to the northeastern U.S. in particular in this case--as it relates to a planetary grid system and specific power points. Cornet has accomplished this by means of correlating the tetrahedral data to topographical features, geomagnetic anomalies and known locations of metaphysical/ parapsychological phenomena, and has cross-referenced this data this with the esoteric and ancient history of the region to come up with some most intriguing ideas.

To sum it up, Mr. Cornet has pieced together evidence and information as noted, related this to the photographs of Mars' Cydonia region, and states that much of the northeastern area of the U.S. had actually been terraformed many millennia ago (obviously by some technologically advanced civilization) in what amounts to a replica or analog of the Cydonia region of Mars!

Of particular note would be the lower Hudson Valley region of New York State, an area with a very significant history, both recent and not, of a great number of occurrences of paranormal, metaphysical phenomena. Areas of New Jersey and Pennsylvania would be included in this region, and Long Island and Montauk itself would be figure in this overall the scheme of things as researched by Cornet.

(This is a good place to mention that for some time I have felt or intuited a "connection" of some kind between the lower Hudson Valley region and Montauk. My feeling is that this connection could be "esoteric" and energy-related, and there could possibly be actual physical connections as well--perhaps tunnels. In fact I have had this intuition corroborated by a number of people. In terms of hard evidence, I offer this statement, which came my way through Bruce Cornet, from Mr. Bob Tidwell.

"I was assigned to Stewart AFB, near Newburgh (lower Hudson Valley area) in 1969, so I'm familiar with that area. (I was only there for two weeks, and that's a story in itself. Stewart was used as a staging point for Montauk personnel.)"

Let's keep in mind here that Montauk Air Force Station was officially decommissioned in 1969. Why would the Air Force need a staging area for a base which was closed? In fact, Stewart AFB was also supposedly closed right around this time as well, though it is well known throughout the area that it in fact is not the least bit closed--even today! Stewart AFB seems to have played a rather significant role in some way or other in the widely publicized "Hudson Valley UFO" phenomenon, tens of thousands of sightings of mostly huge boomerang-shaped craft throughout much of the mid and late

Dr. Cornet wrote:

"By the way, Montauk occurs at the same latitude as Colchis on the eastern side of the Black Sea. Colchis was important as an early ancient Egyptian outpost, and the place where the Golden Fleece of Greek mythology was hidden. The Golden Fleece, according to Temple (1976), is Horus or Hero. Colchis is also where the native saffron and crocus plants are located, the only known source of a chemical that cures gout. Read The Sirius Mystery by Robert K.G. Temple. <http://www.gotoit.com/titles/sirmysti.htm>

"Oh, and by the way, my area of specialization in geology was the Newark Supergroup, and one of the basins I concentrated my studies on was the Newark basin of PA, NJ, and NY. It is shaped like a giant Ark or Argo, with Philadelphia as its rudder, Newark near its bow, the Empire State Building at its prow, and the Statue of Liberty along its keel. Long Island and Montauk fit into this picture as a forward submarine extension of this Ark - something like a ramming device."

Another researcher named Michael Lawrence Morton contacted me with some similar information: to wit, that he had applied the tetrahedral formulas of Munck, Cathie and to some extent Hoagland, to the area around Turtle Cove/Camp Hero using topographical maps, and came up with what was to him some very startling correspondences. Within the central area of Montauk Air Force Station itself according to the noted formulas, The two main bunkers and radar hill itself came up as being very major power spots--right on the nose so to speak!

Granted that these hills were the result of construction by the government and military within (mostly we think) the 20th century--nevertheless the data and numbers on these three small hills are so significant that it appears certain that the construction took place at these exact locations precisely because of their "tetrahedral", planetary grid significance: what's more, it appears at least very possible that these exact spots could well have been the locations of the "Pyramids of Montauk", the existence of which at one time anyway does seem fairly certain.

Dr. Cornet estimated that the date that this large-scale terraforming would have taken place would have been at least 10-12,000 years ago. Interesting to note is that the Montauk Indians are believed to have inhabited what was until recently the island of Montauk for at least 8,000 years if not longer.

RECENT CHRONOLOGY OF CAMP HERO AND THE PROJECT

STAR WARS

There are some signs and testimony that "negative", malevolent forces were not in control of the power spot and subterranean facilities /laboratories at Montauk Air Force Station, between (approximately) 1993 and mid-1997, although more recently this appears to have changed once again.

Between 1993 and 1997 the facility was operated by an Air Force contingent utilizing particle beam technology in defensive operations concerning Hale-Bobb and the object said to be trailing the comet; perhaps also against "hostile" UFOs.

CHANGING OF THE GUARD

In late February of 1998, a psychic in NYC told me that her reading on Camp Hero indicated to her that the time portal so to speak was currently shut down.

Not long after, in a phone conversation with Al Bielek, he told me more or less the same thing: that certain groups closed off the access to the portal (stargate) for those regressive forces which have been responsible for so much of the severe horror and abuse at Montauk--not only abuses against human beings, but abuses of the power point/interdimensional gateway itself.

According to Bielek, the Montauk Project per se, which Moon and Nichols have written about and which my report covers, was primarily being operated from the future, and that the project was (and still is) in support of the so-called "New World order" objectives, using a veritable army of 5-10,000,000 intensively programmed individuals in the U.S. alone.

Bielek informed me that these negative agencies have numerous other locations in the U.S. and elsewhere worldwide, some very close to the Montauk base itself; in fact some within a few miles (one directly north of the village of Montauk beneath an old Navy submarine base on Fort Pond Bay). So, it's not as though they've packed up and gone home!

Bielek also told me that "positive" (for lack of a better word), Constitutionalist groups within the U.S. Air Force had been instrumental in rousting these creeps to some extent--NOT that the Air Force is totally unified on this or related issues. It seems that most of the armed services are in a condition of schizophrenia on the whole issue--with some elements supporting the New World Order and some not.

Bielek's information indicates that the Camp Hero underground (as opposed to other underground facilities in and near Montauk) was recently the site of a defensive operation utilizing particle beam weaponry and other technologies, reportedly directed against malevolent ET intrusions. According to Al Bielek this Air Force crew deflected the Hale Bopp comet from a collision course with earth, and that the object "hiding" behind it was then destroyed (however an escape pod did manage to bail out before destruction). The reason this object was targeted was that the Air Force called in over 130 remote viewers to get a reading on the trailing object and came up with 130+ different readings--indicating to them that the object was being heavily cloaked/screened and therefore it's intentions had to be considered hostile. Time manipulations have been involved in some of this defensive activity by Bielek's accounting, and that the fact that the time portal has been shut off does in fact have some drawbacks from this perspective.

I subsequently contacted Preston Nichols to get his input on this. For the most part he did in fact corroborate Bielek's information--in fact much of it came from Nichols. However, he can and will NOT say positively that there were no negative forces anywhere in the extensive Montauk underground during this period of time.

As best he could personally determine and through his active contacts with

Air Force agencies recently at Camp Hero, there did not appear to be any EM mind control operations going on there at the time, but given the way projects can be hidden within other projects and the way compartmentalization works, secret agendas can be piggybacked onto "legitimate" operations with no way for anyone involved in the above board activities to even be aware of it. Nichols pointed out that his most recent investigations indicate that there are EM/RF mind control transmissions still being picked up in the vicinity--by his estimation emanating from Block Island, about 15 miles directly east of Montauk Point, but not emanating directly out of Camp Hero.

He confirmed Bielek's statement that anti-"NWO" Air Force agents raided an underground base about 15 miles west of Montauk in Sag Harbor being operated by the Montauk Project's mind control crew in August of 1996, and turned up records on 30,000 programees (New World Order shock troops--mostly recent ones) at that base alone! Apparently this caused (the Air Force) some consternation; in some respects there is a serious secret conflict or even a war underway between two opposing factions within the (covert?) government.

Apparently this "Montauk boys" programming operation in Sag Harbor was operated with the assistance of a Catholic religious order known as the Pallotine group: a monastic order working with the secret government to help train an elite fighting group of children along the lines of Delta Forces. More on this aspect later in this report.

MONTAUK--THE PROJECT THAT WOULDN'T DIE

The Montauk Project (especially the EM/RF mind control aspect) was reactivated--more like exhumed from the grave--in 1988, and a phase of the project was carried out at Camp Hero until around 1992. There are some indications that security had then become excessively problematical, as the first Montauk Project book by Nichols and Moon had been published and curiosity seekers and others were becoming far too prevalent and nosy. There are other rumors of conflicts among different groups over the use of the facility, and in 1993 the Montauk Project moved out.

The Project was eventually reorganized at Robins Air Force Base near Atlanta. However, after a period of time it seems Project directors realized that certain aspects of the Project just couldn't be implemented adequately other than at Camp Hero, due to it would seem likely to the geomagnetic characteristics of Montauk. Additionally, directorship of the Montauk Project appears to have shifted to the Navy at this time, as has occurred with HAARP. A linking of some elements of the Montauk Project to HAARP, previously often suspected and which may have already existed, has now been proved to be underway at the Camp Hero location.

TROUBLED TIMES AT CAMP HERO

It would seem that there were some sort of contentious or adversarial activities at the Air Force Station beginning in late 1997.

In mid-February 1998 in the immediate vicinity of Camp Hero State Park/Montauk Air Force Station, the following conditions were observed; consequently, clear proof now exists of a maintained covert subterranean facility operating at this location, a facility whose very existence has been covered up for years--as it is currently by covert federal intelligence/military groups, the NY State government and the NY State Parks System, and other local and regional governments and relevant agencies.

There is an old bunker southeast of the base proper outside the "restricted area" which is relatively close to the lighthouse and right on the Atlantic cliffs, with a paved circular area directly in front of it which was (at one time) an artillery emplacement. (This was the location where Siemens-subsidiary Cardion Corporation tested a very high tech particle beam radar system for at least five months in 1994; all clearly visible from the lighthouse).

The bunker entrance adjacent to this circular concrete area was recently demolished in an "unauthorized" and "unofficial" fashion in an obviously substantial endeavor, according to certain witnesses from the Montauk area. A section was completely broken through the thick concrete exposing an underground area. This hole was then subsequently cemented over again by certain authorities.

A contingent of people from Montauk were at this location checking out the current situation there after having witnessed the previous conditions just described.

Continuing along the remnants of Old Montauk Highway west through the locked "fisherman's gate" towards the "fisherman's (parking) lot", the first paved road on the right (heading roughly north) leads to the southeast entrance to Camp Hero/Montauk AFS. About halfway to that entrance along this road on the left (west side) is a large boulder which had somehow been moved a bit, and clearly visible underneath was a well-maintained concrete well or entrance with a metal ladder bolted to the side--all in good repair. Despite extensive drenching rains around this time, when a rock was dropped there was NO SOUND of it hitting any water. The boulder hiding this entrance was quite large and would require at least a few people to move it.

Further on this road at the base entrance, the extremely sturdy locked gate at this entrance was severely impacted, smashed and basically wrecked--although entry with other than a tank would not really be possible. The same thing also happened to the main entrance to Montauk Air Force Station off Highway 27 (Montauk Highway) about 6 months ago, and to at least one other entrance, at the baseball field "leased" (by whom I haven't ascertained) to East Hampton Township for recreational use by the residents of the small neighborhood right nearby--the old base housing area.

SCHISM WITHIN THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT

Certain of the underground facilities at Montauk AFS, as noted, were used by the Air Force in what they considered legitimate defensive operations related to Hale-Bopp comet and an object (said to be) following it. Preston Nichols, as noted, was in fact working occasionally with the Air Force during this time on a sort of "consultant" basis. Nichols believes these operations were not in any way a part of the "Montauk Project".

At this time as well (1996-1997), Nichols was openly working with an Air Force contingent which had busted the "Montauk Project" mind control operations in Sag Harbor as described above. Apparently the Air Force was either unaware of the mind control operations at the WW 2 Navy base on Fort Pond Bay in Montauk or else these activities started up (again?) more recently (since 1997).

Nichols has affirmed that he had not been in the Montauk underground since late spring of 1997 when the comet departed our skies. His suspicions that the current tenants at Camp Hero/Montauk Air Force Station are Navy operatives connected to the HAARP project got some solid confirmation from a source who often receives reliable information from connections in certain ultra-top-secret intelligence and military agencies. This source has stated that the Navy/HAARP contingent has without doubt taken control of the Montauk underground installations, in a decidedly heavy-handed fashion; i.e., they were definitely not given the keys.

A linking of certain aspects of the Montauk Project with the global capabilities of HAARP is high up on the agenda right now, as well as using the Montauk (Turtle Cove) power spot to boost other HAARP (Tesla technology) operations and experiments.

DOWN THE HATCH

This would be a good place to pass along some information conveyed to me by Preston Nichols in March 1998.

I asked Nichols if he was consciously aware of how one enters the underground facility at Montauk, and if so, whether he would tell me. He replied instantly, "Sure, I know. The main checkpoint entrance to the areas of the Montauk underground which I and Air Force personnel I was working with used is beneath the "Montauk Tower" building right in the middle of Montauk village!"

This was most interesting because that building has had an unusual history, and was the subject of some investigation on my part not long ago. The results of that investigation make up the latter section of Part 4 of my report on the Montauk Project. Suffice to say here that my investigations on this particular building, purportedly at this time privately owned "residential condos", turned up a substantial number of major anomalies, incongruities, and obvious indications of outright BS, lies and misrepresentation on the part of numerous government/ bureaucratic officials at various regional and local levels, real estate agents, supposed occupants... you name it.

The roughly 9-story building was constructed in the 1920s--a peculiarity in its time and still the tallest building on Long Island's east end (that's not saying much, mind you). After failing to attract many tenants, it was appropriated during WW II by the U.S. Navy, which operated a submarine base with underwater "sub pens" about a mile north of the village on Fort Pond Bay as well as at Camp Hero, and the "Montauk Tower" became a major command point.

It's history after WW II is notably obscure; I think it's safe to say that the structure was utilized by means of tunnels connecting it to Camp Hero at Montauk Point during the 1950s and 1960s before the "Montauk Project" per se got into gear, in certain forerunner projects being operated on Long Island, as well as during the Montauk Project from roughly 1970-1983. And as we now know, even after it's supposed conversion to privately owned condominium residences, it is still in fact part of the secret operations in Montauk NY.

One thing I asked about continually when I was posing as a prospective buyer for certain units available (supposedly) for sale was what was the basement of the building used for; how did one gain access to the basement, and such. Never once did I receive a straightforward, clear response to this line of inquiry from any supposed tenants or realtors.

And guess where one gains access to the Montauk underground? Well, of course not by way of the penthouse apartment, though that "apartment" was unquestionably an Air Force facility staffed with Air Force personnel, at least up until mid-1997.

Nichols said that one enters an elevator which goes to the basement: however, this is NOT the main elevator for the six floors of "condos", which has no button for a basement level (I know because I was in it). After exiting in the basement, one walks to a small room off the main basement in which there is another elevator which seems to go down quite deep. One exits into a small room with armed guards and is there subject to what Nichols called a retina scan: word is that this does more than just correlate patterns in the iris and such, but in fact actually can scan thought and consciousness as a way of making an absolutely foolproof identification. >From there one enters into the underground.

Considering the high levels of obvious bullshit surrounding everything about this building and what it's supposed to be, I wasn't too surprised to hear this from Preston Nichols; nevertheless, there it is in black and white: eyewitness testimony about how one gains entry to the Montauk underground facilities.

Towards the completion of the "Sky Pebbles" operation with the Air Force and prior to the U.S. Navy assuming control of the Montauk underground, Preston Nichols entered the underground by means of the entrance beneath the "Tower" building in the middle of the village of Montauk, in the company of an Air Force General. Nichols says this man had orders from the Pentagon granting him access to the subterranean facility; he and Preston were authorized to snoop around making sure that by all indications and evidence the operations being run there were the operations which had in fact been authorized.

A question arises however as to which levels or areas of the underground the general and Nichols were given access to. Furthermore, the way compartmentalization works, certain groups could be involved in certain activities without any knowledge that their operations may be a small part of some much larger project, the overall scope of which they are not even remotely aware. Also, secret agendas can be piggybacked onto "legitimate" operations with no way for anyone involved in the above-board activities to even be aware of it. Thus, at Montauk for instance, there could be Air Force people working on something to do with particle beam technology, with no knowledge that, for example, it's being used against ETs. Again, there may be personnel there who are unaware that their particular activities may in some way "plug into" HAARP operations; or if they do know that, are completely ignorant of what some of the real objectives of HAARP actually are!

WHO'S ON WHOSE SIDE

Of particular interest as well in this account is the fact that some cadre within the Air Force dispatched this general to the Montauk underground to check up on what was going on there: in other words to check up on what some other Air Force faction was doing or had done in the "Sky Pebbles" (Star Wars) particle beam operations. This would tend to bolster reports of a massive, virtually across-the-boards split within the many levels and layers of the federal government--both covert and overt--and certainly within the military and intelligence agencies, into at least two main factions: pro- and anti- New World Order. Undoubtedly many further subdivisions and splinter factions exist within these two general camps.

NEARBY UNDERGROUND FACILITIES

In late 1996 I took a ride with Preston Nichols northeast of the village of East Hampton and north of Amagansett, in the Devon, Stony Hill and Springs areas. In the woods west of Albert's Landing and Devon we found what seemed clearly to be the remains of an old bunker; several are known to have existed in the general area. This particular location seemed as though it had been excavated, cleared and then "landscaped" a bit--perhaps 5 to 10 years previous to our visit.

These bunkers, which date back to before and during WW II, connected underground and underwater to Montauk, via tunnels beneath Gardiner's Bay. Noteworthy also is that there is said to have been a Nazi underwater submarine pen near Stony Hill, linked to an underground facility there. (Don't laugh: there is voluminous evidence of a great many instances of a highly peculiar and rather constant Nazi presence and a strong Pro-Nazi element on Long Island before during and after WW2. Peter Moon has covered many facets of this entire mind-blowing story in the Montauk project book series coauthored with Preston Nichols, and I refer readers to this as well as to the sources Moon cites for further details.) As it seems the bunkers and underground facilities were still intact during the 1970s there is a strong likelihood these bunkers were somehow used in the Project--perhaps as a way to bring kids into the underground for programming. As at Camp Hero, there were recreational facilities quite nearby often used by youth groups, day camps and boy/girl scouts.

Later on this same trip, while driving through the surrounding woods, Nichols noticed and commented upon the numerous red standpipes protruding from flat cement slabs, all throughout this mostly undeveloped area. These seemed at first glance to be fire hydrants. There are some residences here, but the density is fairly sparse. It seemed a bit unusual to have so many hydrants in this kind of area, so we stopped and checked them out more closely.

It seems that a good percentage of these numerous standpipes were not in fact hydrants, because in most cases there was a smaller straight pipe with a vented cap adjacent to the larger pipe which looked like a hydrant. This immediately gives rise to the solid hypothesis that these larger pipes are not for getting water from but are in fact for pumping something, such as fuel, into--obviously into underground storage tanks, which would need to be vented. Some of these concrete slabs did not have this vent pipe, indicating that they were in fact the "real" fire hydrants in the area.

These same kind of standpipes with accompanying vent stacks are seen along Old Montauk Highway directly adjacent to Camp Hero.

Following this train of thought along some very substantial and well-bedded tracks, there can't be too many reasons for numerous (fuel) storage tanks throughout this area; the private residences here use no common fuel tanks or anything like that. It stands to reason that such underground storage tanks are in fact for adjacent underground facilities, and the existence of bunkers in the general area which were once linked to the Fort Pond Bay Navy base and Camp Hero would lead one to think that this area still has such connections, and that there is some kind of currently active underground here.

Nichols also noticed on this trip the existence of triple phase electrical lines all throughout the area; this would be totally unnecessary in any residential or even light-industry area and would simply never be seen in such areas. Triple phase power lines are only for heavy industry or other activity in which major amounts of electrical power would be used. This does not fit at all with any of the visible, surface conditions and characteristics of this entire area of eastern Long Island. Shipbuilders or other known industries nearby would not use triple phase power.

My trip to the area in June and July of 1998 brought to light some other conditions regarding this general vicinity of East Hampton Township in relation to apparent underground installations, which is discussed further along in the article.

Changing locales a bit, there is some corroborative testimony regarding very substantial underground areas at Brookhaven National Laboratories, related by a building contractor from eastern Long Island. He told reporter Jerry Cimisi from Dan's Papers on Long Island that he has on several occasions done on-site construction work in the subterranean levels of BNL, and stated in no uncertain terms that the underground areas at Brookhaven were vast--and that only refers to what he got to see!

THE MONTAUK PROJECT TODAY: TWO PROJECTS FROM ONE: On Site At Montauk--Summer 1998

EAST HAMPTON TOWN'S MONTAUK PT. SENIOR CENTER--NOT!!

On June 24, 1998, I visited the Camp Hero location. As has so often been the case, strangeness and peculiarities awaited me literally the instant I arrived in the area.

My first order of business was to check out the so-called "senior center" directly adjacent to the restricted portion of the old Air Force Station, which was completed about two years ago and is ostensibly operated by the Town of East Hampton. My knowledge of the demographics of the region leads me to seriously question the necessity of constructing this facility at the furthest eastern extremity of East Hampton Township. The number of seniors who are full time residents of the Town and who live in reasonable proximity to the location would have to number very few. What would be the point of incurring the excessive transportation costs of bussing folks from other areas of the Township to this remote location, when a facility could very easily have been constructed in a much more central location? No one I've had contact with has ever seen this facility being used for it's intended purpose, nor any purpose whatsoever.

Not surprisingly, it was dead as can be, in midafternoon on a weekday. I spent about ten minutes "casing out" the place. After two years of even intermittent use one would expect to see some indications of wear and tear regarding things like paint, carpets, windows, doorknobs, doorsills (especially) and so on. Such is not the case with this "senior center". The building is literally spotless and appears virtually untouched since the completion of construction. These must be the neatest seniors on the face of the earth, and are apparently invisible to boot.

Earlier this year Preston Nichols visited the Camp Hero location with a British film crew that was filming a documentary on the Montauk Project. As Nichols has previously been specifically warned by a judge that if found on the restricted portion of Camp Hero he will be jailed, Nichols waited for the film crew off to the side of the main entrance road in visual proximity to the new senior center, while the crew went to the then-demolished main entrance gate and beyond, into the restricted portion. (The senior center is just east of this entrance road, in a field at the western border of the neighborhood which used to be base housing immediately north of the inner perimeter [restricted portion] of Camp Hero/Montauk Air Force Station. This housing was later deeded over to the town of East Hampton in 1984 and the properties sold via lottery to supposedly lower income families).

Nichols noted that, as usual, there was no indication of any activity whatsoever at the senior center and no vehicles parked there. Imagine his surprise then, when the exterior cellar door of the building opened up and a man came out, walked over to the entrance road, and looked down the road towards the main gate where the film crew was, clearly attempting to figure out who they were and what they were doing. One would have to wonder how this fellow could have been at all aware that anyone was at the base's main entrance--as he was in the basement of the senior center which is several hundred feet from the entrance road and several hundred yards from the entrance gate; also questionable is why this person would even be the least bit interested in the presence of people at the base entrance, as he would supposedly have been an East Hampton Town employee.

Things became even stranger when this fellow realized Nichols was sitting at the side of the road watching the entire proceedings--he did a noticeable double take and retreated back into the basement of the "senior center"! Okay...

During my brief visit to the facility after having been there for about six or seven minutes, I observed a red pickup cruise rapidly past the senior center in the direction of the small neighborhood just east. It's undeniable that some of the residents of this neighborhood are in fact base employees, as was elaborated on in my first report on the Montauk project. Less than a minute later, the pickup scooted back in the opposite direction. The driver was going at a noticeably fast speed both times. Such maneuvers could possibly be explained as someone having left somewhere (such as home), realizing they had forgotten something and quickly returning. The problem with that explanation is that the vehicle was going the wrong way--that is, first towards the residences and then away. There was no chance the driver had time to go to any of the houses in the area--also, there are few places of employment nearby the driver could have been coming from, suddenly realized they had forgotten something, and turned around. Even if that were the case, why suddenly turn around and leave if you were nearly home? This just seemed really odd and I believe I was being surveilled. Incidentally I noticed a video cassette of "Men In Black" on a table right in front of the window inside the building.

I checked out this senior center on two other occasions over the next two weeks: never any sign of activity, other than some things were moved around on a desk in a small "office" and the "Men In Black" video was gone. On one of these other occasions as I was just leaving I distinctly heard a vehicle zipping along the entrance road leading to the base's main entrance gate. There is only one turnoff which is the road to senior center and the small neighborhood; the vehicle had already passed this intersection and no one could have gotten up to and then through that locked gate very quickly, yet within about a minute there was no sign of this vehicle anywhere around the area as I drove out! Bizarre, as usual. Also, though the main entrance gate was demolished in late 1997 along with nearly all other entrances, it has since been fully repaired and the high-security electronic touchpad and key entry system completely replaced.

SOMETHING FISHY AT "FISHERMAN'S LOT"

Back to the events of my first visit. After being apparently surveilled by the red pickup while at the "senior center", I then drove up towards the lighthouse, turning right (south & west) off the paved road onto the dirt road which enters the "fisherman's gate" and the unrestricted portion of Camp Hero. Although this area is open to visitors on foot, only vehicles with a special Camp Hero fishing permit may drive into this area. These permits number about 200, and are given out by lottery, along with a key to the gate. New York State and Town of East Hampton fishing or parking permits, though also required, are NOT sufficient to gain access to this location.

No sooner did I leave the paved road than a late-model white Blazer or similar vehicle with tinted windows and a conspicuously large antenna jutting up from its rear pulled off directly behind me. To my surprise the gate was unlocked and wide open, and I briefly considered driving in, but the close proximity of the other vehicle deterred me, so I backed up and parked along the dirt access road and walked in. There were absolutely no indications the white Blazer was being driven by a "fisherman" as it entered Camp Hero.

I was there to check out the reports mentioned above concerning a forcible entry into the old bunker by the cliffs, and also the report of an underground entrance covered by a boulder, along the southeast entry road to the base. I did find evidence that the bunker had been broken into--according to reports, in the later fall of 1997. As I had parked in a questionable location (the opposite side of the dirt road had a "No Parking" sign) I started to return to the car, and was intercepted by the white Blazer just as I was exiting through the gate. The vehicle popped up from a side road south of the gate and inside the perimeter at the exact moment I was going off the property and the driver scrutinized me thoroughly and blatantly. I repeat, no fishing gear of any kind whatsoever was noticeable on or in this vehicle and the driver was obviously not going fishing.

I drove my car around the loop at the lighthouse while deciding whether or not to drive in the fisherman's gate to look for the underground entrance, which I then decided to do. As soon as I entered the still-open gate, I was approached head on by a late-model dark green Blazer, also with a large antenna and tinted windows, coming from the direction of the "fisherman's parking lot". This vehicle, again, had no fishing gear of any kind visible on or in it, and the driver did not appear to be involved in fishing at all.

He slowed and scrutinized me closely as well, and appeared to be about to hail me down, but I kept going, checked my rearview mirror to ascertain that we were not in sight of each other and turned right onto the southeast entrance road to the base. The entrance gate to the inner perimeter on this road was in very ruined condition, and was held together by locked chains. (I noticed on a subsequent visit that the heavy steel of the gate had been cut in numerous places with a welding torch--hardly the kind of equipment teenage vandals would haul around on foot!) On the west side this road I did indeed find the manhole-type underground entrance, almost completely covered by a large boulder and some smaller rocks. If one did not know what to look for one would most likely never find the opening despite it being right next to the road. I stress again that I was not under visual surveillance at this point.

I then drove out of the area, and--what a surprise!--when I reached the gate, I was literally boxed in by the dark green Blazer, which somehow had gotten behind me (coming from the same direction as when I had first seen it about two minutes earlier), and the white Blazer as well, which again suddenly appeared from the side road, just in time to sandwich me between the two vehicles! The driver of the white Blazer, which was more or less facing my car, stared at me long and hard and in fact appeared to be smirking--almost laughing. This time I got a good look at the fully "Aryan" racial characteristics of the thin, youngish driver. (If I had to guess which branch of the military he might be in I would say probably Navy). I can't imagine how the dark green Blazer could have retraced its path and gotten back in a position to be coming from the west again in such a short time as it took me to find the underground entrance and then head out--maybe two minutes at most.

I slipped out through the fisherman's gate and was immediately tailed by the white Blazer, so I decided to pull into the lighthouse parking lot (I figured the Blazer would not pull in there so as to preclude any possible confrontation initiated by me and this proved correct; also I wanted to give the impression that I was hanging around the area to give these security guys something to worry about). I waited till the white Blazer disappeared on around the loop, and then I left.

I next went to the baseball field under East Hampton Town jurisdiction which is directly north of the restricted portion of Camp Hero and east of the small neighborhood, from which there are two locked, gated entrances to the inner base (although there is no fencing of any kind along the entire remainder of the perimeter in this area!!). One of these gates has been substantially dismantled with a welding torch and is held together by locked chains.

Several days later on Saturday, June 27, Michelle Guerin, who originally gave me the information about the bunker break-in and the manhole-type underground entrance, revisited this area of Camp Hero with some colleagues. Keep in mind that since she and others observed this underground entrance in February 1998 until my visit on June 24 1998, the condition of this underground entrance remained more or less exactly the same. Yet within three days of my thoroughly surveilled visit, and it would seem in response to it, Ms. Guerin noted that the boulder was moved and the entrance had been buried under a pile of dirt. I corroborated this information and found out some other things as well on July 2, as I will relay below.

I was informed by Nichols, who got the information from someone with connections to Brookhaven Labs, that BNL uses white and dark green Blazers for security and that's who was surveilling me at Camp Hero on June 24.

It must be pointed out that the entire state of affairs regarding the "fisherman's gate", the "fisherman's parking lot" and the special access permits for this location is--like nearly everything about Camp Hero and its administration--peculiar, contradictory, confusing and suspicious. There is no way to do any "fishing" from the cliffs 50 feet above and 60 or more feet inland from the surf, and there are no direct access roads or paths from this "fisherman's parking lot" to the surf. Although often completely empty, the lot is sometimes occupied by trucks with camper shells and RV-type vehicles, with people sitting around in lawn chairs. None of the vehicles I have ever observed there give any indication of being owned by fishermen, none of the people I have ever observed hanging around there seem to be doing any fishing and I have never observed anyone fishing (surfcasting or otherwise) along the beach below this area. These points are corroborated by everyone I've ever spoken with who has been there. What's more, there is standard beach access for vehicles with East Hampton Town and NY State permits on the north side of the lighthouse. The entire business with this "fisherman's lot" and access to same is clearly a total shuck-and-jive operation. These must be agents of some kind reporting in and/or awaiting directions, programming, etc.

Subject: THE MONTAUK PROJECT by John Quinn 5/8

<http://seasurf.com/~radioman/index.html>
http://www.geocities.com/psychicspy_2000/monew.htm

THE POWER POINT

I visited the area again with my 5 year old son on June 28 but did not go near any of the restricted or weird areas. In fact we spent nearly the whole time, roughly an hour, at the shoreline. My main focus was Turtle Cove itself, where I found the feeling to be quite energizing and definitely powerful, almost psychoactive. It's very dramatic and visually attractive spot as well, with a look and feeling more reminiscent of some of the West Coast than much of the nearby Long Island shoreline. Overall I liked Turtle Cove as did my son and found the energy there to be positive and strong.

COVERING UP A COVERUP

My next significant foray to the vicinity of Camp Hero came on the evening of July 2. A quick walk to the fisherman's lot showed that several pickup trucks with camper shells were now there, along with a late model, very large and luxurious motor home with Pennsylvania license plates and a very unusual-looking antenna on its roof. This nonresident having been allowed one of the relatively few Camp Hero fishing permits (and other Town & State permits required as well) while so many residents of the area fish for a living seems unlikely and/or incongruous to say the least. As well, a couple of the other somewhat scruffy-looking trucks had out-of-state plates also.

I next went to the manhole-type underground entrance which Michelle Guerin noted had been buried right after my June 24 visit. Indeed the entrance was buried under a large pile of dirt, but what I found after digging away some of the pile was that the entrance had in fact been sealed with a solid, 5 inch thick cement cap in which was embedded an iron rebar "handle"; in addition to which the entire entrance and cap were then buried beneath a large mound of hauled-in topsoil.

Obviously, this entrance is active to some degree, and it was sealed in such a way as to permit removal of the cement cap via the rebar handle with appropriate equipment. However, it was apparently not desirable to have this entrance easily located or identified, so the entire setup was then further obscured with the pile of dirt! Doubly weird in the true Camp Hero tradition. It is a fact that many of the other unusable, defunct or unoperational underground accesses on the base have been permanently sealed: that is not the case with this one.

PARTICLE ACCELERATORS, DELTA-T ANTENNA "HAARPING"

I returned to the lighthouse parking lot where I teamed up with Preston Nichols and a fellow I will call "Mr. Coffee", whose emails to me concerning his involvement in a recent phase of the Montauk Project follow later in this report.

Mr. Coffee penetrated the restricted portion of Camp Hero while Nichols and I remained outside. Coffee wanted to see if he got any unusual feelings or picked up anything about the area. (A strong yes on both counts). While we were exiting the area to the west of the base (the opposite side from the lighthouse/fisherman's gate approach to Camp Hero) along a dilapidated remnant of the old shore highway, I was struck by the sight of fresh and very clear tire tracks entering a large puddle or small pond (which never seems to dry up) from the direction of the base--tracks which neither exited the other side of the puddle nor backed up! Nichols had just finished observing that the puddle always seems to be there whether or not there had been recent rains, and felt that there could be some kind of entrance beneath the puddle.

Later that evening Nichols powered up some banks of signal receiving equipment he has installed in a bus, and gleaned the following information from the data generated by the equipment. The signals received indicated to Nichols that particle accelerators were in full operation at very high output, both offshore from Montauk Point (the subterranean facility extends out under the ocean) and at Camp Hero. Nichols then ascertained that the Delta-T antenna in the Camp Hero underground was emitting EM fields indicative of interdimensional/time travel operations.

This data would tend to reinforce the scenario that particle accelerators are being used in highly advanced, relativistic, interdimensional operations linked to certain aspects of the Montauk Project now merged with HAARP, under the control of the U.S. Navy and in conjunction with Brookhaven Labs. These are of course ultra-classified, above-top-secret agendas being pursued.

This also tends to reinforce a gradually strengthening impression that what is to me the most unarguably negative aspect of the Montauk Project, the mind control/(child) psychosexual abuse aspect, has been split off from the interdimensional/time operations, which are now under the larger umbrella of the Navy's HAARP operations, into a separate project which however is under the Navy's control as well. It's important to keep in mind however, that HAARP, as is irrefutably proved by internal government/military documentation on the project, most assuredly already had its own covert agenda running with regard to utilizing the HAARP (Tesla) technology as a means of mind manipulation/control--perhaps somewhat more in the sense of a "weapon". According to the same documentation, these EM/RF weapons should be accessible for use against domestic "enemies" (U.S. citizens!): such as, people who disagree with the government (their own words)!!

THE (NAVY'S) BOYS ARE BACK IN TOWN

Due to information relayed to me from several sources, I did some investigation in the area of the old WW 2 Navy submarine base on Fort Pond Bay, north of Montauk village. Word is that this is the current site of the Montauk Project mind control operations. As this is an old military facility and as the Montauk tunnel network definitely connects to this area, it would seem inevitable that the subterranean portions of this base, probably newly enlarged and refurbished, are being utilized for clandestine activities.

In fact I became curious about this area in 1991, before I ever knew (consciously at least) about the Montauk Project, when I realized that a fairly large area of land here was totally undeveloped, in a region where wholesale dismemberment of larger tracts of woodland and farmland for very expensive, lucrative real estate speculation and development is completely rampant. I wondered to myself what forces could have deterred all development of this area in such a heated real estate market, while so many acres of less accessible prime woodland and farmland has been devastated by the developers on eastern Long Island. (Some of the old Navy base property is within Koppleman County Park.)

The reasons for the total lack of development in this area became clear when I found out this is an "old" military facility. Furthermore this is in close proximity to Fort Pond, where my family used to come for late summer vacations in the late 1950s, and may have some connection to what appears to be an involvement to some degree in Montauk project activities on my part--an involvement which according to my consistent intuition dates from a rather early age. As does Camp Hero, this area has lots of "roller coaster" hills, most not more than 75 feet in elevation. It is indisputable that many of the hills at Camp Hero are manmade and conceal underground facilities--I feel strongly the same is true at the Navy base.

According to information relayed to me, the old Navy base is currently an active site for the "New World Order"-related Navy contingent running the present-day "Montauk Boys" mind control operations, and subjectively speaking, I would have to say the "vibes" and the energies in general in this neck of the woods are palpably weird, negative and downright disturbing, as I will soon elaborate on.

On July 7 I decided first to take the Long Island Rail Road from East Hampton to Montauk, as the line runs smack through the middle of the Fort Pond Bay area in question--the trip serving a double purpose as my son wanted to take a train ride. I had not taken the train along this stretch in probably thirty-five or more years. For some strange reason, although the train's speed was quite rapid while going through the woods of Hither Hills State Park (directly to the west of both Koppelman County Park--which "covers" some of the old Navy base property--and of the remainder of the Navy base itself) the train slowed to a literal crawl while traversing the Navy base area, both on the trip into Montauk and on the westbound trip later.

What was also very strange is that on the westbound trip through the Navy base--no more than a mile from the train station, I became aware of a strong melancholy, withdrawn and depressive state of mind which not only came over me and even more so over my five year old son, but seemed very definitely to affect everyone else in our car to some extent--this while the train crawled slowly along. As the train left the area and picked up speed going into the Hither Hills the mood seemed to noticeably lift and lighten all around, though I must say my son seemed affected by this negative energy the rest of the day. (I think its likely the trains have to slow down here to decrease interference of some kind from the diesel locomotives with certain [electromagnetic] activities going on underground).

I can also recount an episode from summer 1986, when I went with my parents for a hike in the creeping dunes area of Hither Hills. As I recall there was an access road somewhere north of Montauk Highway at the eastern end of Napeague (possibly through the Lazy Point vicinity) from which one could enter this section of the park on foot.

Although it was a rather typical hot and muggy day, no one seemed to be feeling any discomfort at the outset. Yet within about 15 minutes, my mother, then in her early 60s and in quite good health, suddenly and without any apparent outward cause (such as spoiled food, heat, or whatever) became nearly totally incapacitated, though very vague as to what exactly was bothering her. She just appeared totally sapped of energy physically and mentally and felt very faint; she indicated that all she wanted to do was get out of the area. To me there was even at the time something really weird about this, as there didn't seem to be any specific ailment or symptom which my mom could put into words--just felt terrible--really ill all over. The condition did not persist or show itself to be any kind of medical or other problem. She recovered rather quickly--within a half hour or so after leaving. This has always stuck in my mind as a very bizarre occurrence.

While waiting for the return train I and my son took a short walk to the so-called "bottomless" pond immediately north across Industrial Road from Fort Pond. Peter Moon has noted that this small (perhaps 300 feet in diameter) body of water is completely separate from Fort Pond and is reported to be exceptionally deep. Montauk being the remnants of an undersea volcanic mountain, perhaps this is an extinct lava tube filled with water.

To the best of my ability I attempted to visually ascertain whether this body of water was notably and unusually deep, and it certainly seemed to be so: the water right at the edges of the pond was very dark. The bottom of the pond was not visible anywhere that I could see; it drops off immediately at the sides except for some boulders, and I was unable to touch the bottom right next to the banks with a stick roughly 10 feet long. This in direct contrast to Fort Pond itself no more than twenty-five feet away, where the sandy, gravelly bottom is clearly visible, and gently slopes away in rather normal pond-like fashion.

Subsequently I drove to the old Navy base area on Fort Pond Bay--first to Navy Road, which runs (roughly) east to west along the shore of Fort Pond Bay, and was again struck by the rather inexplicably depressive atmosphere here. Considering the general milieu and economic base of East Hampton Township and indeed of most of the Montauk area, and the generally agreeable way this area is geographically situated above Fort Pond Bay, one would rather expect the "look and feel" of the area to be much more pleasant and appealing. Yet the feeling around there is strongly grim, unfriendly, unappealing, somewhat dilapidated and oppressive overall. Right after turning off Second House Road towards Navy Road I noticed a small landscaping/topsoil operation with no clearly observable sign or business name, which gave off a strange vibe and seemed to be an especially run-down business, though two young men were working--in robotic slow motion--digging in one of the piles of material. I spotted a sign on a post which read -- "Smile. You're under observation by our new 24-hour surveillance camera." (!?!?). It seemed impossible for this run-down dirt-fill operation to have been the object of such severe and continuous intrusions as to warrant 24-hour surveillance!

Continuing west on Navy Road directly north of the railroad tracks, one comes to the end of this small neighborhood and approaches a locked gate, beyond which the road continues into the heart of the old Navy base itself. The roller coaster-style hills abound in this area. A definitely unfriendly man exiting through the gate on foot at this time responded monosyllabically to my queries as to whether this was an access to the County park and about which direction exactly one would go. Peter Moon had just informed me that when he visited this area, he crossed over the railroad tracks to the south and soon came across large quantities of trash and waste materials strewn throughout the woods of what is apparently Koppelman County Park. This would without doubt be illegal dumping of a decidedly nasty variety, as these woods are supposed to be for nature preservation and recreation; as well there are a number of residences in relatively close proximity.

ILLEGAL DUMPING AND INTIMATIONS OF SUBTERRANEA

After leaving the Navy Road area I turned up a road which roughly parallels the railroad tracks and Navy Road to the south (I think an extension of Industrial Road) and found myself behind a large trash-hauling truck from Mickey's of Montauk which continued west on this road past the small neighborhood of a dozen or so homes, whence the truck turned right into a large clearing--apparently a workyard for Mickey's trash-hauling operation. As it turns out this would be directly south of the area where Peter Moon had seen all the garbage illegally dumped! A couple of workers at this location, as with the workers at the landscaping/topsoil facility back a ways, seemed to be moving in a dazed, almost robotic fashion. (Mind controlled slave workers?)

East Hampton Town, of course, has authorized, designated landfill and recycling areas and the woods west of the village of Montauk is not one of these. Without doubt something peculiar, unpleasant and illegal is going on with this secretive dumping of trash, and there is very often a mafia connection to such illegal dumping in the northeastern U.S.--particularly in New York and New Jersey. The mafia has already been shown to be connected to covert, clandestine government operations in the Long Island area.

Could there be a connection between this dumping activity and secret projects? I believe there could be. Underground facilities generate waste just like any others--in fact would likely generate a fair amount of fairly toxic waste due to the nature of much of the clandestine activities. As for the more typical types of garbage generated by the large numbers of people who work and even live in these underground installations, where is this sizable quantity of trash supposed to go? These thousands of people are not considered residents of the Town of East Hampton and cannot be a factor in any demographic data for the town in terms of waste management operations and planning; so, where does all the garbage from the underground go? Could it be it's hauled out by mafia-connected trash-hauling outfits who bring it to the woods near the old Navy base--among other places--for illegal disposal?! Also, consider what the subliminal effect would be upon someone hiking in the area and coming upon lots of rotting trash. Yech! Let's go elsewhere!--a result surely quite desirable to those operating the subterranean facilities.

CORRELATIONS BETWEEN UNDERGROUND FACILITIES AND (UNDEVELOPED) SURFACE AREAS

Preston Nichols had made a comment to me that while he had been working with the Air Force at Camp Hero on the Hale-Bopp operation, most of the moving around between different locations underground was done with golf carts. He further noted that there were extremely long corridors or tunnels going as far as Block Island offshore from Montauk Point to the east, and extending underground westward to East Hampton.

In agreement with this statement by Nichols, and also in agreement with information noted earlier in this report about the presence of unusual hydrants or standpipes and a triple phase power line in the Stony Hill area of East Hampton (known to have had bunkers and undergrounds dating to WW2), there is yet another area of the Town of East Hampton where there is a notable and rather illogical lack of real estate development. This is a surprisingly large area in fact, right between the Stony Hill and Fireplace neighborhoods on the north and East Hampton Village on the south. As this has never even been productive farmland, the pressures for real estate development of these scrub woods would logically be extreme, and yet there is virtually no such development in an area several miles square. There is extensive development further out from the village in all directions, yet not here. This is sort of an island of rather thoroughly preserved woods here surrounded by very high-priced sub-rural homesites. It just seems inexplicable to me, considering the general thrust of real estate development in this region. Also in this general area there is a small antenna farm with some decidedly unusual looking receivers and other equipment.

I think this is probably the location of the East Hampton underground and that as with the Shadmoor region of Montauk (a Camp Hero military annex in the Ditch Plains area discussed in Part 4 of my first report), the Montauk Navy base and Camp Hero itself, extensive development is not allowed so as to prevent any kind of interference or conflict with the underground facilities that such development might precipitate.

RELATED/SIMILAR PROJECTS

A WEST COAST PARALLEL

For a number of years I've resided principally in Northern California. I know for a fact that schoolkids from all over Northern California on field trips to the San Francisco area use the "old" military facilities north of the Golden Gate (within the Golden Gate National Recreation Area) for bivouacking overnight, as the federal government (still the owners of the property--though the military facilities are supposedly "closed" or "decommissioned") offers the "accommodations" to school districts all over Northern California, to use for sleepovers during their field trips, etc. Uh-huh...

We got the following information from a schoolgirl who was there in that context recently. Although the area where they were spending the night was supposedly not militarily active, a missile mounted on a flatbed trailer, visible behind a chain link fence in the evening, was gone the next morning! One might well wonder what else might have happened during the night at this location where those kids were, given the documented tunnels, etc. In this region.

The region in and around the Golden Gate National Recreation Area on both the San Francisco and Marin sides, as well as areas of nearby Sonoma, Napa and Lake counties, are reported to have a number of extensive underground areas--some engineered and constructed since the arrival of white people and some far more ancient. As at Montauk and elsewhere, the covert government has created numerous underground installations at the many military and ex-military sites (and other locations) throughout the general area.

Peter Moon has made allusions to the fact that the San Francisco peninsula and the Golden Gate region as a whole is a substantial earth grid power point itself and this factor has been known and utilized by cultic, secret "brotherhoods" directly linked to the worldwide shadow government. There is a SAGE radar site in the Golden Gate area as well.

One of the covert government's more "well known" facilities in the general area is Bohemian Grove in Sonoma County's Russian River region. I can attest from personal recollection during the time I resided in nearby Santa Rosa in the 1980s, that over the years a number of local residents have reported on some decidedly peculiar and even vile and very ugly events occurring at this heavily guarded, completely isolated, remote, exclusive "campground" in the woods where many of the "shadow" government's most powerful figures come to "unwind" and "party". These incidents were reported to local law enforcement agencies and made public through the regional news media.

Certain of these incidents, regarding the physical/sexual abuse of women by groups of men have been reported on by the local Sonoma County press and substantiated by testimony such as that emailed to me by "Sue Ellen" and reprinted in the section of this report immediately following. She describes her sister's forced involvement in very unpleasant episodes at Bohemian Grove during the time she was employed at the Pentagon. I have recently read other testimony describing truly horrendous incidents at Bohemian Grove and the proclivities of some of it's more "illustrious" members; people like George Bush.

Further substantiation of the conditions at Bohemian Grove comes from Cathy O'Brien. While I cannot personally vouch for the accuracy of the following material and though some reasonable doubts and suspicions about both Cathy O'Brien's and husband Mark Philips' credibility have been raised, I am nonetheless including here an excerpt from Ms. O'Brien's The Trance Formation Of America, which describes her own experience at Bohemian Grove. I am doing so because it does jibe substantially with my own personal knowledge of numerous allegations and charges made about Bohemian Grove on the local level, involving the same kinds of unpleasantries and atrocities related by Ms. O'Brien.

"I was programmed and equipped to function in all rooms at Bohemian Grove in order to compromise specific government targets according to their personal perversions. "Anything, anytime, anywhere with anyone" was my mode of operation at the Grove. I do not purport to understand the full function of this political cesspool playground as my perception was limited to my own realm of experience.

"My perception is that Bohemian Grove serves those ushering in the New World Order through mind control, and consists primarily of the highest Mafia and U.S. Government officials. I do not use the term "highest" loosely, as copious quantities of drugs were consumed there. Project Monarch Mind-Control slaves were routinely abused there to fulfill the primary purpose of the club: purveying perversion. Bohemian Grove is reportedly intended to be used recreationally, providing a supposedly secure environment for politically affluent individuals to "party" without restraint. The only business conducted there pertained to implementing the New World Order, through the proliferation of mind-control atrocities, giving the place an air of "Masonic Secrecy". The only room where business discussions were permitted was the small, dark lounge affectionately and appropriately referred to as the Underground.

"...My purpose at the Grove was sexual in nature, and therefore my perceptions were limited to a sex slave's viewpoint. As an effective means of control to ensure undetected proliferation of their perverse indulgences, slaves such as myself were subjected to ritualistic trauma. I knew each breath I took could be my last, as the threat of death lurked in every shadow. Slaves of advancing age or with failing programming were sacrificially murdered "at random" in the wooded grounds of Bohemian Grove, and I felt it was "simply a matter of time until it would be me". Rituals were held at a giant, concrete owl monument on the banks of the Russian River. These occult-like sex rituals stemmed from the scientific belief that mind-controlled slaves required severe trauma to ensure compartmentalization of the memory, and not from any spiritual motivation."

--© 1995 by Cathy O'Brien with Mark Phillips

This "owl" monument does indisputably exist, as attested to by many other accounts which tell also of similar grotesque, terrifying, perverted and even deadly horrors at the outwardly idyllic compound.

I've been in contact with a woman in Sonoma County who gave me a good bit of information on underground facilities in the Bay Area, including Hamilton AFB in Marin, which--surprise--has supposedly been closed in the mid-1980s but in fact is positively NOT closed. (The AF was still answering the phone as of a few years ago.) There is a foster care facility directly adjacent to the base property, and the FBI is on the board of directors for this "home".

It's virtually guaranteed that there have been ties to the Presidio Monarch Project operation at San Francisco's Presidio Army base. At the Child Development Center's day care facility on the base several hundred children were subjected to psychosexual mind control programming by Army Colonel Michael Aquino, an intelligence officer who also worked for the CIA and other intelligence agencies. Additionally Aquino was head honcho of the "Temple of Set", a Church of Satan offshoot based in San Francisco which provided both the seemingly requisite conceptual cult underpinning for the Presidio's kiddie mind control operations.

In further exchanges she told of growing up in the Santa Rosa area; her dad was a dabbler in the OTO (Crowley) and similar mystical stuff. In the 1960s or 70s she happened to meet a fellow who was the Civil Defense coordinator for the Santa Rosa area in the 1950s. He told her that there was a substantial underground facility (which I have heard mentioned elsewhere) beneath an AT&T building in downtown Santa Rosa; further discussions revealed that this facility stretched for several miles to a military airfield. Part of this installation would now be directly beneath the Santa Rosa Mall, a major hangout for kids, and probably several schools, residential, industrial and office districts.

Back then, Ms. Gulson was not really able to plug this kind of info into any larger scenario. Later she became very interested in mind control activities by the government, especially involving children.

As in many other regions of the United States there is no shortage of clandestine, bizarre government operations throughout this area-- one of which is an underground facility/base constructed in 1992, about 15 miles S.E. of Santa Rosa, near the boundary with Napa County.

I mentioned this information to my acquaintance, Judy Gulson, and she told me that she already knew of the facility.

Regarding this subterranean base: The Napa Sentinel thoroughly investigated the secretive goings-on in the mountains between Napa and Sonoma County. Their exhaustive research, involving many calls to Washington D.C. as well as to two local Air Force facilities, determined that, on the record at least, this was a classified operation (according to Travis AFB and Hamilton AFB (in nearby Marin County) to construct an underground facility to be staffed and operated primarily but by no means only by FEMA! Many black unmarked choppers were seen in association with both the construction and subsequent operation of this facility. A large microwave transmitter there is aimed at Santa Rosa.

On paper, and sinister enough in its own right if one takes into account FEMA's secret charter and agenda, this facility is ostensibly part of the "continuity of government (in chaos)" system of numerous, bomb/radiation-safe underground installations nationwide; a system supposedly designed to ensure the maintenance of law, order and government during a time of national emergency, social/civil upheaval, extreme natural disaster (perhaps induced by HAARP!), or other situation which causes a definite collapse to some degree of the federal government; FEMA's operating charter also call for the reins (or is that "reigns") of the federal government and virtually all its powers being passed into FEMA's control if deemed necessary.

However I personally think it's very likely that this new underground base near Santa Rosa is actually more than a FEMA hangout.

A weird point in all this, which Ms. Gulson and I both noted, is that Hamilton Air Force Base, contacted by The Napa Sentinel during its investigation, was supposedly been closed a number of years ago; in fact at one point Marin County was supposed to acquire the property for use as some kind of park (sound familiar?). The deal never finalized, and most people think the installation is closed and mothballed. Guess what--it's not! It is in some level of operation, staffed by at least some AF personnel.

Another very interesting point--immediately adjacent to this base is a privately-run foster home called St. Vincent's Home for Boys, on the board of which is the FBI! Oh really! I imagine other unlisted members of the board of directors are the NSA and CIA. As seems to happen so often in this whole business, there is a wellknown writer on mind control operations who according to some, is himself actually tied to the some agencies and operations he has written about; a man who has some strange connections, including to the above-mentioned foster care home. The following comes from Ms. Judy Gulson in northern California.

"The whole subject of Walter Bowart is really up for grabs and conjecture.

"A man in Petaluma has a web site called THE PAGE. His name is Walter Radtke--aka Walter Alter. Recently, I was in email contact with a woman named Kathleen Sullivan, an MK-ULTRA survivor. I was doing some research on mind control and somehow connected up with her. Kathleen was gearing up for this conference in Atlanta and was emailing all sorts of stuff. I happened to mention something about the Alter/Radtke Web Site and the information there. She became hysterical and claimed that Bowart is Radtke/Alter.

"Now, I have been in touch with Radtke/Alter.....never mentioned anything about Kathleen Sullivan. Out of the blue, he emails me saying that someone was accusing him of being Walter Bowart. He says, "Who's Walter Bowart?" I became uneasy and answered, "With all of the information you have at your site, you surely must know of Walter Bowart!!!"

"I have never spoken with this man in person. I know where Walter Radtke lives; he is in the phone book. This past weekend I was in Petaluma and drove by his house. Kathleen said that he would be living in a cul de sac. The reasons for that are security, she says. Sure enough, he does live in a cul de sac.

"In addition, after further research, I found that a corporation owns the house. Walter Radtke/Alter tells me that he works at St. Vincent's Home....right next door to ("decommissioned"!) Hamilton AFB.....and the FBI is on the board of the Home. The Home is privately held. There is much strangeness.....not the least of whom is Kathleen herself."

SACRAMENTO VALLEY: MAJOR TRANSMISSIONS DISCOVERED

In the summer of 1998 Preston Nichols was contracted to do some scientific work for a private party in the Sierra Nevada Mountains east of Sacramento California. Nichols became aware that Beale Air Force Base, somewhat near his location, was emitting signature EM/RF frequencies indicative of "Delta T" interdimensional/time travel operations in progress. Furthermore Nichols also noted the presence of extensive and pervasive "435 Mhz" transmissions capable of implementing mind control, weather control and other relativistic, high-energy physics functions such as interdimensional/time travel operations. The transmission blanketed the entire central Sacramento Valley region--even beyond some of the lower mountains to the west. Only after several mountain ranges were passed did the signal finally begin to diminish. Nichols reported that he had never seen such a pervasive signal and believes that is somehow propagated upon the water molecules in the air, enabling it to "saturate" an area, especially a geographic basin area such as the Sacramento Valley, in a way unlike other EM/RF transmissions. Indications are that a ground based transmission is being deployed. Nichols speculated that there is some kind of link to HAARP operations going on, very likely but not exclusively to the weather control aspects of HAARP.

NEWS OF STRANGENESS IN DENVER, CALGARY (From A Project Survivor), NEW YORK CITY

A man now living in Calgary named John Tooker has had substantial recall of personal involvement in the Montauk Project. Tooker believes that he was in fact a participant during the Montauk Project operations in the late 1970s and early 1980s, while in an altered state of mind and/or some alternate, parallel reality or "timeline". Tooker says he was rather a different person when he worked on advanced time-related technologies at the Camp Hero base; that is, literally--that he may have been subjected to some kind of age regression and/or transfer of consciousness, along the lines of that reported by Al Bielek, and that he was "Daniel John Waters" during this period a Camp Hero.

Mr. Tooker has reported on some extremely timely info about some VERY odd goings on in Calgary, which sound amazingly similar to a lot of the information coming in about Denver. (Denver has been named by some as the "capital" for the western U.S. sector in the possibly impending New World Order).

Given the fact that Calgary is in roughly the same geographical relationship to the continental divide (the Rockies) as is Denver, perhaps there is some esoteric/earth energy relationship as well, which may make Calgary suitable for use as another Western North America NWO "nerve center".

Tooker informed me that a Canadian Armed Forces base in Calgary, although recently "closed" and decommissioned (here we go again) is in fact still functioning, but has become extremely secretive about doing so. This is based not only on direct observation but also eyewitness testimony from a security guard who was working there; just recently, this guard, who is a close friend of Tooker and has worked with him on some research was summarily transferred from the location without explanation.

There was more notable weirdness--quite significant in my opinion--which he told me of going on there; for instance, so-called cell phone transmitter towers have been appearing everywhere in Calgary. A similar state of affairs exists in New York City, where these transmitters have been installed on nearly every street corner!

These so-called cell phone transmitters are being installed in tremendous numbers all over the country now, and that while cell phone communications may be one of the purposes of these towers, there is in fact a covert purpose as well and that such transmitters are being unquestionably used for mind modification/control of the general population: most of the towers are operating at ten kilowatts of power or higher--much more power than is needed for only cell phone transmissions.

(My current residence is in a very sparsely populated mountain region of Northern California, and sure enough, within the past two years one of these transmitters was installed on a mountain quite nearby.)

Al Bielek, having left Denver after living there for about 18 months, told me the city was literally crawling with "Montauk boys" and to some extent "Montauk girls"; young people with Aryan (Germanic/Nordic) racial characteristics programmed with the Montauk and "Monarch"-type techniques to be sleeper agents to be utilized in the covert government's astonishing array of brutal, vicious, psychotic, satanic and murderous "operations" and "activities", and also during the projected implementation of the so-called New World Order. Bielek had a number of casual interactions with some of these people while in Denver.

Bizarrely, and remarkably like what Al Bielek was telling me about Denver, Tooker said that the streets of Calgary have as of fairly recently become inundated with a tremendous number of street people, the great majority of whom fit the "requirements" for the typical "Montauk Boys" to a T! Holy shit!

There is solid evidence, some in photographic form, of a tremendous, many-leveled and multipurpose subterranean city easily one hundred square miles beneath the finally completed Denver International Airport, which houses a vast array of different underground facilities including those necessary for a national government to operate, as well as underground freeways and a subterranean rail line connecting this to other subterranean complexes operated by the covert government.

In addition to all this the floor of the main terminal at Denver Airport is constructed of a material which is said to be impervious to particle beam and EM pulse weapons. The floor and walls have a number of esoteric Masonic symbols and phrases, as well as murals depicting global destruction and apocalyptic themes. If the place was plastered with Buddhist, Jewish or Christian symbolism, you can bet some Constitutionalist or civil libertarian would be raising hell.

Obviously many more subterranean installations exist nationwide and worldwide.

I have been told by Preston Nichols, which was corroborated by other sources, that in fact large portions of Long Island have underground facilities, (including of course Brookhaven Labs--a point confirmed to Long Island reporter Jerry Cimisi by a private contractor who's worked often on the Brookhaven facility), AND that these are connected to many other such facilities nationwide (and worldwide) by an extensive and elaborate super-high-speed underground rail system.

Nichols also told me that the Lower Hudson Valley region, where so many hundreds of thousands have had "UFO" sightings, contacts, and like experiences, has major underground installations--vast in fact. This is borne out by Ellen Crystal's research in the Pine Valley, NY region, where she documents numerous instances of craft disappearing underground and the sounds of tremendous subterranean construction activity; also by Larry Warren (principal Bentwaters AFB/Rendelsham RAF UFO witness), who said that the Plattsburg, NY area (Upper Hudson Valley) was the site of an enormous subterranean government military installation; as well Mr. Warren was has been in an underground base in Egypt while in the service, which he says was about as big as NY State! (Bentwaters itself, of course, is situated above a huge underground.)

In yet another correspondence to me from Judith, she comments on a recent trip she made through several northeastern states in 1997.

"Back to the underground. According to conspiracy theories, experimentation may be going on there--possibly underground living quarters--do you know anything more, proven or theory, about what may be actually happening? I took a 4 day trip through DC, MD, OH, PA--driving in July--I saw some very unusual situations there. First, unexplained spikey dust all over the forests in MD & PA. In PA, on the turnpike in about the center of the state, I ran across this weird area, where again, the vibes were very high, the traffic was mesmerized in there, you go through 3 tunnels in and 3 tunnels OUT of there. There were an inordinate amount of 18-wheelers in there with NO identifying names or signs on the sides. There were thousands of cars in there, lined up bumper to bumper, not moving and it was a major freeway, for reasons unknown. I got out of my car and found that the steep embankment there was throbbing--you could hear the sounds of machinery below the surface. It was spooky--but obviously something was going on down below. Of course, PA is mining country, but this seemed too close to the surface...I spoke to a doctor who knew the area and knew PA. He had heard of this particular stretch of PA and knew that whatever was going on was highly unusual."

TESLA TECHNOLOGY USED FOR DIABOLICAL PURPOSES

A gentleman from Pennsylvania named Ron Hannivig contacted me after reading HAARP's Covert Agendas with some startling testimony about the U.S. (shadow) government's long interest in and experience with the fundamentals underlying much of what HAARP technology is based upon long before there was HAARP--which to great extent is the awe-inspiring technology developed by of the "father" of our modern AC electrical power system, Nicola Tesla.

Hannivig reports that he personally worked on the construction of a "Tesla EM Tx site" in West Australia during the 1960s; a location roughly on the other side of the world from Montauk.

According to Mr. Hannivig, there are a number of such sites worldwide, which would correlate with what others have discovered about HAARP.

>From Ron Hannivig--

"Been reviewing your work regarding the ongoing activity out on Long Island, NY ... by way of messages being forwarded to my attention - and thought you might be interested in considering my findings.

"From what I can gather - at the time, the area around Montauk Point, Long Island, NY was a prime portal - a "wormhole", in the time/space conundrum. By the way ... it is understood there is another such "wormhole" located not too far from Montauk - in Block Island Sound ... very near Fishers Island, NY (this island is actually in NY - however, it's located right off the coast of New London/Mystic, CT). This wormhole appears at a pinpoint location ... and been trying to verify the report/s for about a year.

"Back in the mid 1960's - I had worked during the construction phase of a massive Tesla EM Tx (electromagnetic transmission) site located upon The North West Cape of the Exmouth peninsular, West Australia ... and was there the day it was officially turned over to The US Navy. It was subsequently named the Harold Holt US Navy Communications Base...named after the former Prime Minister of Australia - who mysteriously drowned while he was in office. At the time of his drowning - I was in West Australia, and nobody I knew believed it was an accident.

"Today - we (my Australians contacts and myself) believe Prime Minister Holt had been seriously questioning the true mission of this American US Navy base upon Australian soil - and as a result, was rubbed-out.

"The prime requirement of these Tesla EM Tx sites are their location relative to MN (magnetic north) and those selected targets to be zapped by an electromagnetic slug (of sheer energy) ... setup an electromagnetic force field ... cause holographic type illusions to simulate UFO type activity ... fully distort the time/space conundrum ... Of course, this list can continue on, to include mind altering experiments, etc... Furthermore, this same great arc alignment includes a fourth plot point - which is the interpolated timely position of MN ... a prime factor in implementing this quantum type technology. Four plot points representing interconnecting events, all of them falling upon a common great arc ... becomes prima facie evidence.

"Therefore, given this alignment - relative to MN ... the generating facility for the activity on Long Island, NY would actually be located on the other side of the world. Distance is not a real factor ... it's the alignment, relative to the elusive positions of MN. Finally ... if I had not actually worked at this massive West Australia Tesla EM Tx facility - I would likely not have been able to make this connection. Any questions, please feel free to ask. The dedicated target of The Tesla facility I know to be at Exmouth is just south of Long Island, NY."

--© Ron Hannivig

I do believe Mr. Hannivig has a fairly solid grasp of the nature and purpose of these sites in general, although I found some of the scenarios painted as to the potential and/or planned uses for these sites and the "Tesla" technology to be unlikely and a little extreme. Hannivig indicated that in his firm opinion the Tesla technology as implemented through HAARP would be utilized to trigger a major undersea seismic event in the Atlantic during summer 1998. Hannivig pinpointed a target date of August 24, 1998. Coincidentally or not, this date has been mentioned a number of times this year by a number of "psychics" as a date when a massive cataclysm some kind would occur, resulting in a tidal wave striking the Eastern coast of North America, and also an exceptionally large hurricane, "Bonnie", did indeed begin to pose a substantial threat to the Eastern seaboard on this very date (no tsunamis or similar cataclysms generated however).

I ran Hannivig's ideas past Preston Nichols and I find myself in agreement with his general assessment of Hannivig's ideas: that is, although such a scenario is technically possible, there is way too much the overt government/"Establishment" and the covert government/New World Order would stand to lose--far to much of the country's and the world's industry, banking, commerce, wealth and power, as well as great numbers of military, governmental and scientific facilities are centralized or located along the Atlantic seaboard of the US for such a move to be seriously considered or enacted.

Hannivig noted that the Tesla EM/Tx site which would likely implement this would be on the opposite side of the globe--in Australia. Yet on July 18 1998 at least three significant tsunamis caused by a seismic event occurred in the South Pacific, and as many as 8,000 people--mostly children--may have perished on Papua/New Guinea's north coast, in addition to which entire villages and a large portion of the whole culture, a way of life, were utterly decimated. The story of this immense human tragedy completely vanished from sight and consciousness within days and was subsequently unilaterally avoided by the mass media...for some strange reason.

My thought was this. Given the undeniable and relentlessly "Nazi"-like, pro "Aryan" mindset and worldview of so many in the covert government. Perhaps the scenario Ron Hannivig envisioned was fairly correct--but in reverse. In other words, perhaps the HAARP facilities on Long Island were utilized to trigger the undersea quake which caused the devastating and deadly tsunamis in New Guinea. After all, nothing vital to Establishment or covert (global) government interests in terms of global resources or power base was lost and no white people perished: only thousands of brown-skinned people's lives were lost.

Mr. Hannivig has commented in reply that the Papua/New Guinea tsunamis could have been artificially triggered. One would have to plot the trajectories in terms of the relations to Magnetic North to determine where the Navy's HAARP/Tesla sites would need to be in order to have triggers the undersea tremors off New Guinea, and if in fact there are such transmitter sites at these locations.

CONCEPTUAL/PHILOSOPHICAL BASIS OF MONTAUK MIND CONTROL OPERATIONS

CONNECTIONS TO OTHER "MK" PROJECTS

D.C. Hammond on Monarch and MK-ULTRA programming

Serious students of mind control may know of this talk by Dr. D.C. Hammond on artificially induced Multiple Personality Disorder--i.e., the deliberate fracturing of a person's personality and consciousness coupled with mind "programming": by means of ritualistic psychosexual abuse as well as drugs and EM/RF signals. These operations are often carried out by "satanic" cults directly linked to intelligence/military covert government agencies for the purpose of creating Monarch-type agents. I am including in this report a portion of some of his comments on this topic. I found it to be one of the most lucid and understandable explanations of the entire system and how (tragically well) it works and has worked, on a truly unbelievable number of people nationwide.

Dr. Hammond has worked closely with a substantial number of victims of government (intelligence)-run mind control operations and has a solid grasp of both the overall extent and scope of the programs and also the impact of these kinds of activities upon the personal lives of those unfortunate enough to have been subjected to them.

"At the end of World War II, before it even ended, Allen Dulles and people from our Intelligence Community were already in Switzerland making contact to get out Nazi scientists. As World War II ends, they not only get out rocket scientists, but they also get out some Nazi doctors who have been doing mind-control research in the camps. They brought them to the United States.

"What they basically do is they will get a child and they will start this, in basic forms, it appears, by about two and a half after the child's already been made dissociative. They'll make him dissociative not only through abuse, like sexual abuse, but also things like putting a mousetrap on their fingers and teaching the parents, "You do not go in until the child stops crying. Only then do you go in and remove it." They start in rudimentary forms at about two and a half and kick into high gear, it appears, around six or six and a half, continue through adolescence with periodic reinforcements in adulthood. Basically in the programming the child will be put typically on a gurney. They will have an IV in one hand or arm. They'll be strapped down, typically naked. There'll be wires attached to their head to monitor electroencephalograph patterns. They will see a pulsing light, most often described as red, occasionally white or blue. They'll be given, most commonly I believe, Demerol. Sometimes it'll be other drugs as well depending on the kind of programming. They have it, I think, down to a science where they've learned you give so much every twenty-five minutes until the programming is done. They then will describe a pain on one ear, their right ear generally, where it appears a needle has been placed, and they will hear weird, disorienting sounds in that ear while they see photic stimulation to drive the brain into a brainwave pattern with a pulsing light at a certain frequency not unlike the goggles that are now available through Sharper Image and some of those kinds of stores. Then, after a suitable period when they're in a certain brainwave state, they will begin programming, programming oriented to self-destruction and debasement of the person. In a patient at this point in time about eight years old who has gone through a great deal early programming took place on a military installation. That's not uncommon.

"I've treated and been involved with cases who are part of this original mind control project as well as having their programming on military reservations in many cases. We find a lot of connections with the CIA. This patient now was in a Cult school, a private Cult school where several of these sessions occurred a week. She would go into a room, get all hooked up. They would do all of these sorts of things. When she was in the proper altered state, now they were no longer having to monitor it with electroencephalographs, she also had already had placed on her electrodes, one in the vagina, for example, four on the head. Sometimes they'll be on other parts of the body. They will then begin and they would say to her, "You are angry with someone in the group." She'd say, "No, I'm not" and they'd violently shock her. They would say the same thing until she complied and didn't make any negative response. Then they would continue. "And because you are angry with someone in the group," or "When you are angry with someone in the group, you will hurt yourself. Do you understand?" She said, "No" and they shocked her. They repeated again, "Do you understand?" "Well, yes, but I don't want to." Shock her again until they get compliance. Then they keep adding to it. "And you will hurt yourself by cutting yourself. Do you understand?" Maybe she'd say yes, but they might say, "We don't believe you" and shock her anyway. "Go back and go over it again." They would continue in this sort of fashion. She said typically it seemed as though they'd go about thirty minutes, take a break for a smoke or something, come back. They may review what they'd done and stopped or they might review what they'd done and go on to new material. She said the sessions might go half an hour, they might go three hours. She estimated three times a week.

"Programming under the influence of drugs in a certain brainwave state and with these noises in one ear and them speaking in the other ear, usually the left ear, associated with right hemisphere non-dominant brain functioning, and with them talking, therefore, and requiring intense concentration, intense focusing. Because often they'll have to memorize and say certain things back, word-perfect, to avoid punishment, shock, and other kinds of things that are occurring. This is basically how a lot of programming goes on. Some of it'll also use other typical brainwashing kinds of techniques. There will be very standardized types of hypnotic things done at times. There'll be sensory deprivation which we know increases suggestibility in anyone. Total sensory deprivation, suggestibility has significantly increased, from the research. It's not uncommon for them to use a great deal of that, including formal sensory-deprivation chambers before they do certain of these things.

"Now the problem is there are many different layers of alternate personalities with this stuff. What we have up here are innumerable alters...we found out that all of this great work had done nothing but deal with the alters up here and had not touched the mind-control programming. In fact it was not only intact, but we found one who was having her therapy monitored every session by her mother, out-of-state, over the telephone, and that she still had intact suggestions that had been given to her to kill her therapist at a certain future time.

"...I have the very uncomfortable feeling from some past experience that when you look at this you will find the large proportion of ritual-abuse victims in this country are having their ongoing therapy monitored.

"I remember a woman who came in about twenty-four years old, claimed her father was a Satanist. Her parents divorced when she was six. After that it would only when her father had visitation and he would take her to rituals sometimes up until age fifteen. She said, "I haven't gone to anything since I was fifteen." Her therapist believed this at face value. We sat in my office. We did a two-hour inquiry using hypnosis. We found the programming present. In addition to that we found that every therapy session was debriefed and in fact they had told her to get sick and not come to the appointment with me. Another one had been told that I was Cult and that if she came I would know that she'd been told not to come and I would punish her. If anything meaningful comes out in a patient who's being monitored like that--from what I've learned thus far, they're tortured with electric shocks--my belief is if they're in that situation you can't do meaningful therapy other than being supportive and caring and letting them know you care a lot and you'll be there to support them. But I wouldn't try to work with any kind of deep material or deprogramming with them because I think it can do nothing but get them tortured and hurt unless they can get into a safe, secure inpatient unit for an extended period of time to do some of the work required. I have a feeling that when you make inquiries you're going to find that probably greater than fifty percent of these patients, if they're bloodline, meaning mother or dad or both involved, will be monitored on some ongoing basis. [Pause]

"The way you create Manchurian Candidates is you divide the mind. It's part of what the Intelligence Community wanted to look at. If you're going to get an assassin, you're going to get somebody to go do something, you divide the mind. It fascinates me about cases like the assassination of Robert Kennedy, where Bernard Diamond, on examining Sirhan Sirhan found that he had total amnesia of the killing of Robert Kennedy, but under hypnosis could remember it. But despite suggestions he would be able to consciously remember, Sirhan could not remember a thing after he was out of hypnosis. I'd love to examine Sirhan Sirhan."

CONNECTIONS TO RELIGIONS AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS / SYSTEMS

THE MORMONS

>From "Sue Ellen", a well-known Mormon singer

One thing which has been cropping up more and more in the info I've been getting is the tremendously extensive use of children in mind control operations and the unbelievable high level of infiltration into the child care and education systems on the part of agencies carrying out these operations. The following was emailed to me in 1998 by a woman who has lived much of her life immersed in the world of the Church of the Latter Day Saints, as well as government psychosexual-abuse mind control programs linked to military bases and kiddie-porn operations.

"First off, I am one of 13 children. I am also a professional singer. I have three CD's and 9 cassettes that I have produced for the Mormon (LDS) music market. I am kind of famous in my market and have won what you might call 'grammy' awards. My albums sell all over the world.

"I was raised by Vandenberg Air Force Base in Santa Maria (Santa Barbara County), California. My sisters Dawn and Priscilla have worse stories than mine, but let's just say we've all experienced some crazy times. My mother was a religious fanatic. She was third generation incest. My father was secretive and also religiously 'affected' even though he did not practice what he preached. His mother molested him. We were the 'perfect' large Mormon family. My dad was a music teacher. My Mom produced babies almost every year that I remember growing up. I was the second mom by the time I was six years old and learned how to cook and do laundry. My Dad was apparently into child pornography and 'sold' us to the government.

"When my sister Eve was reportedly gang raped when she was 11, she started running away and was put into a Catholic convent in Los Angeles--(this is really, really strange considering how Catholics and Mormons get along). I am sure she was MKULTRA'd there. Her story is very interesting and is picked up in the military where there was a base she was on that served up a lot of drugs. She says that Crystal Gayle and a well dressed man asked her to mule drugs for her 'country'. He spilled a file on my whole family in front of her on the floor. She picked it up and saw every one of us in it! She says we were all sold to the government according to him. She also says that everyone on that base almost is now famous! It was like an entertainment base...training ground for the MK stars. She names a lot of them. She is a multiple personality and a recovering alcoholic and drug abuser. It took me many years to get this all out of her. Now her life makes sense to me.

"Louisa, my other sister had hysterical black out/non breathing spells since the day she was born. I know now that she was a victim of sexual molestation from my dad (her primary caretaker at the time). She remembers it until she was 4 or five. Memories keep coming up for her. She was also molested at age 16, when my dad 'flipped out' and had full penetration sex with her. He ran away to Hawaii and wrote me on an old garbage bag that he didn't remember what he did and that he was sorry. I was a very religious girl at the time and thought the world had come to an end and was just 'waking up' to the possibility of these horrible things happening to people.

"Did I tell you that Louisa (one of my sisters that worked for the Pentagon), just told me about another memory about Vandenberg AFB where she remembers being hooked up to this helmet with wires. She got sick when the memory was coming up. She's had so many of them, she knows what to expect now and gets through it all better than she used to.

"My family is a nightmare. Anyway, Louisa ended up working for a man that was third from the top at the Pentagon. She worked as his assistant and decoded top secret government files (all in Disney and Alice in Wonderland, etc. language), and made reservations for his regular trips to Santa Rosa where he would meet his buddies at the 'good ole' boys' fart club there. You've probably heard of Bohemian Grove. She was 'losing' time on occasion and was eventually raped by this man. When she tried to go through even the proceedings to indict him, she was unsuccessful and bullied. She quit the armed services and has had a family of six children. She is just now waking up to what has happened to her and the memories are surfacing. I am worried for what they may have programmed into her when she wakes up!

"Anyway, to my story. As if my family of origin wasn't bad enough. My husband's family is involved, too! My husband's dad was in the Army (a colonel) and Navy and is now retired. He would take the kids to Disneyland every year for ten years while he learned some ridiculous language school for the army (a language he cannot even speak hardly a word of to this day when asked, so I think this was a cover for what he was really doing). He was a member of the Mormon Tabernacle Choir and became a Mormon Bishop. Sounds great , huh? The only problem is, I found out he molested a niece in the family and had never 'repented' before accepting the 'calling from the Lord' as BISHOP! Red flags started going up all over for me. His family is even worse than mine!

"I could go on. It's too long.

"Anyway, that's a start. These are painful memories and I want to see that those bastards that are playing around with people's emotions get what they karmically deserve AS SOON AS POSSIBLE! I want to however stay out of fear and not give into hate. But let me know how I can help you GET THESE GUYS! THERE'S ONLY A FEW OF THEM AND A WHOLE LOT OF US!!

"I hope that's enough of an advantage.

"There was a report done by the "Strengthening the Saints Committee" where they asked a sort of high ranking church official to do a study and report. He interviewed 60 victims of satanic ritual abuse. These Satanic Ritual Abuse victims pulled the lid off pandora's box by all saying pretty much the same thing: "They took me to the church/temple to get baptized. They dunked me. I think they were trying to drown me.

"They asked if I loved Jesus. I said yes. They dunk me again. They ask if Jesus will save me. I say yes, they dunk me again. This goes on and on and Jesus doesn't save me. Then Satan comes and saves me and he's the one who really loves me and now I will do anything he says."

"They have all seen murder. Some have participated and remember it. They all have emerging memories in their 30s and 40s. That is when this stuff comes out. Anyway, a lot of them are under psychiatric care and many were referred by the psychiatric world where split personalities are becoming so common because of these rituals. They are so horrific that the victim simply can't endure unless they run away into another personality that's stronger or whatever. It's the saddest thing in the world. These are sadistic soul murderers."

<http://seasurf.com/~radioman/index.html>
http://www.geocities.com/psychicspy_2000/monew.htm

THE PALLOTINE GROUP

Another connection to organized religion surfaced when Preston Nichols was working with Air Force agents in deprogramming a number of "Montauk Boys" at Sag Harbor, as noted in the section of this report on corroborative evidence. The Pallotine group, by means of various youth related services and facilities, has been tied to the procurement of children for use in the project. Preston Nichols called it a monastic order working with the secret government to help train an elite fighting group of children along the lines of Delta Forces. Strangely, the Pallotines, considered to be a "militant" order by the Roman Catholic Church, are said to have extensive interactions and liaisons as well with many other organized religions. The unfortunate children are procured for the Project through various youth related services and facilities operated by The Pallotine group, and those deemed suitable for such "service" to their unconstitutional secret government are funneled through the Pallotine network into the Montauk Project. Judging by some photos on the Pallotine web site, These 'fathers' look like real CIA types. They have a remarkably creepy message on the web site also, which reads in part--"for those that have gone astray... this is where you will find your salvation" and that "Jesus is going to refresh and REMAKE you". I definitely won't be planning to worship at these guys' church!

Though this may sound somewhat hokey and not particularly significant or relevant in the bigger picture, I can say this: Preston Nichols feels that the information he has found out relating to the Pallotines and many of the world's organized religions is a major aspect of the Phoenix/Montauk Project, which until now has been almost entirely unknown and completely hidden. Due to what he feels is the extreme emotionalism and at times irrational nature of how many relate to religious beliefs in our world, Preston Nichols stated that he is NOT going to publicize the information he has uncovered regarding the Pallotine organization; because it exposes the deep involvement of many organized religions in the mind manipulations perpetrated against humanity by the covert world government, it is severely damaging to these religions, and because it could lead to an extraordinarily volatile and in fact dangerous situation for him personally.

OTHER LINKS

The Order of the Rosy Cross as well the Knights of Malta, to which George Bush belongs, and also the Skull and Bones Society, to which both Bush and supposed political rival Bill Clinton both belong, have been mentioned as other religious or "philosophical" organizations which have been and are linked to the Montauk Boys operations, and are tied in fundamental ways to the New World Order in general. In addition the various organizations mentioned are linked to Masonic systems.

TIES TO THE MILITARY

Substantial and virtually indisputable evidence of direct links between certain military agencies and a number of mind control operations has already been well documented by other writers and researchers, and some new evidence is provided in this report in the preceding material by the Mormon singer "Sue Ellen" regarding child abuse and psychosexual programming at California's Vandenberg Air Force Base in Santa Barbara County. Worthy of special note regarding this topic is the body of information relating to the Monarch Project operation at San Francisco's Presidio Army base, in which hundreds of children at the Child Development Center's day care facility on the base were subjected to psychosexual mind control programming under the general direction of Army Colonel Michael Aquino. An intelligence officer with extensive and significant connections to the CIA and other intelligence agencies, Aquino also ran and operated the "Temple of Set", a Church of Satan offshoot based in San Francisco. Due to major ties to the CIA on the part of Aquino and other principal defendants, and just as in the McMartin Preschool case in Los Angeles County, no one was ever found guilty in the Presidio case despite substantial hard evidence and the testimony of hundreds of youngsters, parents, and mental health care professionals.

>From Judith, who provided some very interesting information noted earlier in this report on some unusual occurrences in NYC and Long Island on or around August 12 1983 (a highly significant date in the Philadelphia/Montauk [Phoenix) saga], comes testimony which corroborates so much other information on the ritualistic abuse of children in programming/mind control operations designed to create "sleeper" agents with thoroughly controlled alternate personalities.

"Thanks so much for the articles and your recent correspondences. I have not gone over the articles in depth, but the info in your letters has me very intrigued. You certainly have done your research.

"I am most interested in the underground info you may have delved into.

"My father an AF colonel, graduated from West Point, 1944. I lived there as an infant in the early 1950s. Yeah--there WERE tunnels at West Point--most notably under the day care center. Children were assaulted there, my sister and I both. Some very sadistic acts going on there. Vampiresque-cults in that area.

"Also, a great deal of extra frequencies in and around West Point and that whole area. Not a question and they continue today. There are particular buildings at West Point which have definite frequency problems. Those of us who seem to be much more attuned to the change in frequency levels (my theory is that all military people have been set-up with implants-- possibly mind controlled too--and are thus very sensitive to changes in frequencies in the air in any environment), notice these changes from one city-town-territory to the next. I am sure that Montauk is filled with frequency problems and is hence, quite magnetic and charged.

"Send any other information my way--as you have it. Thanks much..."

BLOOD LINES

Research has shown an extraordinarily high level of involvement on the part of certain families or clans--blood lines, in other words--in a great many interdimensional activities and related operations along the lines of Philadelphia/Montauk; members of which apparently possess specific psychic and genetic characteristics which facilitate certain of these endeavors. Many of these blood lines are German (Teutonic) and/or Celtic.

The primary psychic used in the "heyday" of the Montauk activities up until 1983 was Duncan Cameron, directly related to the truly horrible Ewen Cameron who conducted the well-known experimental mind control research (mostly drug-based with some EM/RF aspects also) at Montreal's Allan Memorial Institute (mostly in the 1960s and early 1970s.). Duncan's father was deeply involved with clandestine (and not so clandestine) government agencies which funneled hordes of Nazi officials and scientists into this country; much of this well before the end of WW2.

The Kennedy clan is historically related to the Cameron clan and Joseph Kennedy, in his office as US ambassador to Great Britain, was unabashed in support of Hitler even after WW2 began--in direct conflict with the position and wishes of his president Franklin Roosevelt.

Masterminds of Philadelphia/Montauk and related operations are thoroughly tied to the Nazi/Aryan agenda and even for lower level, non-esoteric, noncritical activities and experiments will often utilize subjects with "Aryan" genetic characteristics and blood lines: these people are often of German or Celtic descent. The reason these groups have been "selected" (let's not say "chosen") for such a thoroughly unenviable distinction in connection with such activities is due to what project operators believe are strong psychic, intuitive and mystical/ magical abilities inherent in people of these races.

To whatever extent this may be true, those of Celtic/German descent are most unfortunately being exploited in service of a truly hellish and near-unremittingly evil agenda. It seems more and more evident that cherishers of true human dignity and freedom must all use any powers we do indeed possess; such as positivity of thought and strength of mind, body and spirit, used with compassion and insight, to overturn and counteract the operations of these despoilers of humanity to the greatest extent possible.

Aleister Crowley, a British intelligence agent with strong sympathies for the Nazi movement in addition to (being) a well known "mystic", was thoroughly in on much of this type of skullduggery earlier in the century, employing his own peculiar mixture of mysticism, Aryan fascism, elements of psychosexual mind (and astral) programming, and cloak-and-dagger weirdness. The Crowleys also reputedly has clan connections to the prominent mystical family Cameron and Aleister himself had strong connections to Montauk.

SCIENTOLOGY / DIANETICS

Another family name which Peter Moon has found crops up in this field with notable frequency is Wilson. One member of the Wilson clan who has been very influential in the modern world and who has been consistently in opposition certainly to some of the agendas of the secret (worldwide) government is L. Ron Hubbard, founder of Scientology. Hubbard is the name of his adoptive parents but he was born a Wilson. Peter Moon was fairly high up in the Scientology network in the 1970s when Hubbard was quite active personally, and has researched this genetic angle exhaustively. Whatever one's personal views on Scientology, (and by many indications it's been thoroughly subverted by infiltrators after Hubbard's death), they did seem to be dedicated to a relatively enlightened agenda, which sought real psychological clarity and freedom from pathological, kneejerk states of mind imprinted onto our subconscious from past traumatic events, even prior to the present lifetime.

It's an undeniable fact that Hubbard and Scientology were mercilessly and relentlessly hounded and harassed by Federal authorities back when he was alive (and likely since!) way beyond any reasonable degree, and that alone would give one reason to think that he was probably on to something both important and positive.

Though not publicized much in the more popular, "outer" teachings of Dianetics, those in Hubbard's inner circles were quite aware that some of his non-published, internal material which Hubbard allowed access to addressed very specifically ill-intentioned extraterrestrials or extradimensionals which capture human souls--usually between lifetimes. These beings implant (false) spiritual, psychological even sociopolitical concepts designed to keep souls trapped and enslaved as it were--by continually and endlessly reincarnating into an external reality or world already heavily controlled and manipulated in so many ways; by those who maintain and broadcast the dominant "frequencies" which make up the (quantum/ electromagnetic) matrix of our perceived and experienced reality via such operations as the Montauk project. This fits some vast agenda of human spiritual (and physical!) enslavement and corresponding conditions; a longstanding agenda of the secret, cultic "governments" which support, further and foster this ongoing, mass manipulation of the human race through the indoctrinated and/or enforced political, religious and other social systems.

William Bramley's exceptional book The Gods Of Eden, one of the more unusual "UFO" books ever written, covers this very angle in tremendous detail and provides ample documentation that the predominant "control group" which attempts to run the show here on Earth, as manifested in the ruling secret brotherhoods/ societies/governments (i.e. the Bilderbergers, CFR and the like), is inextricably tied to specific ET groups.

As per further information on L. Ron Hubbard, he did a stint in Naval Intelligence where he assimilated a lot of the information the government had amassed resulting from their research and experiments into drug-based mind manipulation and narcosynthesis--this in the 30s! Hubbard took the information and techniques and applied them in a methodology supposedly aimed at "empowering" (in pc 90s-speak) and liberating people on very fundamental psychological levels from ingrained, encoded (often deliberately) "engramatic" behavior and states of mind, usually programmed by traumatic means (intentionally or not). It does not seem as though Hubbard wanted to be a cult leader, no matter how the government has tried to portray him, and much of his work comes across as predominantly sane and useful.

Hubbard was vehemently opposed to psychiatry and in particular (interestingly enough!) to the ubiquitous Dr. Ewen Cameron, who at different times has been--incredibly--the president of the American Psychiatric Association, the Canadian Psychiatric Association, and the World Psychiatric Association. In light of that, and given Ewen Cameron's truly odious, cruel, horrible, and unpardonable activities, any reasonable person would be more than a little suspicious of the motives and agenda of psychiatry in general, as Hubbard most certainly was. Far too often psychiatry is used as a tool of social behavioral control and modification, used to force subjects' minds to conform to certain concepts, beliefs, structures and mores imposed from without; strictures which again nearly always reinforce the wishes and aims of society's prevailing rulers and of the status quo.

Montauk Project author Peter Moon was a Scientology member and in fact occasionally worked directly with Hubbard. Moon seems certain that Hubbard in fact was pretty much on the opposite team, certainly in terms of the known objectives of Phoenix/Montauk, regarding "mind control". Moon believes Hubbard to have been on the whole dedicated to the personal spiritual emancipation of human beings from programming of virtually any kind, and my admittedly skimpy knowledge of Scientology/Dianetics would tend to back that up. I think the movement has suffered from a personality cult syndrome, and that Hubbard may in fact have had a bit of a messiah complex running, but I do find some quite worthwhile elements in the Dianetics material.

Hubbard was of course a participant in the so called "Babalon Working", some mystical ceremony enacted along with fellow Aleister Crowley adherents Jack (JPL/Cal-Tech/Father of modern rocketry) Parsons and Marjorie Wilson Cameron. This ceremony has been said to have certain esoteric correspondences with the Philadelphia Experiment, and may have (helped) open some dimensional channel enabling negative ET's easier access to our dimension/reality--a new freeway was put in.

Perhaps to that extent Hubbard was some kind of influence on the more mystical aspects of Montauk/Phoenix operation, but I see any evidence he would have supported the specific goals of the project at all. Perhaps it would be best to note however that there are a substantial number of people who dispute that statement and would even dispute that Hubbard and his organizations ever had any beneficial, humanitarian or positive goals and agendas at all.

STANFORD, SCIENTOLOGY AND THE CIA

Interestingly, other information about the connection of certain Scientology members to some of the secret government's "unusual" experimental research activities comes from premiere mind control researcher and author Alex Constantine, who has authored a wealth of excellent books and articles on the general topic of government sponsored, administered and operated mind control projects, including certain of those based on electromagnetic/radio frequency transmissions.

I quote below a section called "Psychic Spying at the Stanford Research Institute Or CIA Mind Control?" from Constantine's Virtual Government.

"Concrete evidence that electronic mind control was the true object of study at Stanford Research Institute (SRI) was exposed by the Washington Post in 1977. When the Navy awarded a contract to the Institute, "the scientific assistant to the Secretary of the Navy, Dr. Sam Koslov, received a routine briefing on various research projects, including SRI's. As the briefer flashed his chart onto the screen and began to speak, Koslov stormily interrupted, 'What the hell is that about?' Among the glowing words on the projected chart, the section describing SRI's work was labeled, 'ELF and Mind Control.'

" 'ELF' stands for 'extremely long frequency' electromagnetic waves, from the very slow brain frequencies up to about 100 cycles per second.... But the 'Mind Control' label really upset Koslov. He ordered the SRI investigations for the Navy stopped, and canceled another $35,000 in Navy funds slated for more remote viewing work. Contrary to Koslov's attempt to kill the research, the Navy quietly continued to fork out $100,000 for a two-year project directed by a bionics specialist. The "remote viewing" team at SRI was really engaged in projecting words and images directly to the cranium. It was not a humanitarian pastime: the project was military and test subjects are subjected to a lifetime of EM torture plied with the same thorough disregard for human rights as the radiation tests conducted at the height of the Cold War. To be sure, the treatment subjects have received at the hands of their own government would be considered atrocities if practiced in wartime.

Mind control was also used in domestic covert operations designed to further the CIA's heady ambitions, and during the Vietnam War period SRI was a hive of covert political subterfuge. The Symbionese Liberation Army, like the People's Temple, was a creation of the CIA. The SLA had at its core a clique of black ex-convicts from Vacaville Prison. Donald DeFreeze, otherwise known as "Cinque", led the SLA. He was formerly an informant for the LAPD's Criminal Conspiracy Section and the director of Vacaville's Black Cultural Association (BCA), a covert mind control unit with funding from the CIA channeled through SRI. The Menlo Park behavior modification specialists experimented with psychoactive drugs administered to members of the BCA. Black prisoners were programmed to murder selected black leaders once on the outside. The CIA/SRI zombie killer hit list included Oakland school superintendent Dr. Marcus Foster, and Panthers Huey Newton and Bobby Seale, among others. DeFreeze stated that at Vacaville in 1971-72, he was the subject of a CIA mind control experiment. He described his incarceration on the prison's third floor, where he was corralled by CIA agents who drugged him and said he would become the leader of a radical movement and kidnap a wealthy person. After his escape from Vacaville (an exit door was left unlocked for him), that's exactly what he did.

"EM mind control machines were championed at SRI by Dr. Karl Pribram, director of the Neuropsychology Research Laboratory: "I certainly could educate a child by putting an electrode in the lateral hypothalamus and then selecting the situations at which I stimulate it. In this way I can grossly change his behavior." Psychology Today touted Pribram as "The Magellan of Brain Science." He obtained his B.S. and M.D. degrees at the University of Chicago, and at SRI studied how the brain processes and stores sensory imagery. He is credited with discovering that mental imaging bears a close resemblance to hologram projection (the basis for transmitting images to the brains of test subjects under the misnomer "remote viewing"?).

"The SRI/SAIC psi experiments were supervised at Langley by John McMahon, second in command under William Casey, succeeding Bobby Ray Inman, the SAIC director. McMahon has, according to Philip Agee, the CIA whistle-blowing exile, an affinity for "technological exotics for CIA covert actions." He was recruited by the Agency after his graduation from Holy Cross College. He is a former director of the Technical Services Division, deputy director for Operations, and in 1982 McMahon was appointed deputy director of Central Intelligence. He left the Agency six years later to take the position of president of the Lockheed Missiles and Space Systems Group. In 1994 he moved on to the Draper Laboratories. He is a director of the Defense Enterprise Fund and an adviser to congressional committees.

"Many of the SRI "empaths" were mustered from L. Ron Hubbard's Church of Scientology, Harold Puthoff, the Institute's senior researcher, is a leading Scientologist. Two "remote viewers" from SRI have also held rank in the Church: Ingo Swann, a Class VII Operating Thetan, a founder of the Scientology Center in Los Angeles, and the late Pat Price. Puthoff and Targ's lab assistant was a Scientologist married to a minister of the church. When Swann joined SRI, he stated openly that fourteen "Clears" participated in the experiments, "more than I would suspect." At the time he denied CIA involvement, but now acknowledges, "it was rather common knowledge all along who the sponsor was, although in documents the identity of the Agency was concealed behind the sobriquet of 'an east-coast scientist.' The Agency's interest was quite extensive. A number of agents of the CIA came themselves ultimately to SRI to act as subjects in "remote viewing" experiments, as did some members of Congress."

STANFORD ALLEGEDLY INVOLVED IN CIA IMPLANT/MIND CONTROL EXPERIMENTATION

In a rare example of a crack in the mass media's wall of silence and coverup regarding mind control projects in general and electronic mind control in particular, the Sonoma County Independent weekly newspaper, in their July 9 1998 edition, featured a front page article on electronic mind manipulation by the means of surgically implanted microtransceivers.

The article focuses primarily on the case of a Silicon Valley family; in particular, activities involving their son. Writer J. Douglas Allen-Taylor details a litany of horrors suffered by the Kats family at the hands of "scientists" and "doctors" working at Stanford University Medical Center facilities in the service of government intelligence agencies; pursuing extensive mind control agendas which utilize physical implants for monitoring, tracking and activating pre-encoded psychological "triggers".

Edward and Claudia Kats, Russian immigrants who left when Russia was still part of the Soviet Union, relate how their son Jay was first implanted during a 1982 tonsillectomy operation at Stanford Medical Center. Edward attests that he himself was then implanted during an operation at Kaiser Hospital in 1991. They suspect that the initial reason for the interest on the part of the CIA was the family's suspected but nonexistent connection to the KGB. Subsequent experimentation continued even after the agency realized there was no such connection, as son Jay was inducted into a full-on mind control operation. The article mentions the blond haired, blue-eyed appearance of Jay, and this makes me suspicious that perhaps the real reason for the interest on the part of the CIA has to do with genetic/racial factors.

The Katses describe how the implants affected Jay's mood, mental acuity, attitudes towards other people...the works. His school performance deteriorated tremendously and he began to get in trouble with the law. They believe he and Edward are the target of transmissions which are intended to induce them to commit any of a wide range of preprogrammed actions--even crimes. Claudia noted in the article that threats, "bad thoughts" and negative, (self)-destructive concepts and attitudes or "feelings" are also transmitted.

Edward Kats feels that large segments of the population, in particular racial minorities, are being subjected to the same kind of programming; for one reason, to instigate continual social/civil unrest and disturbances.

The Katses and their legal representatives have filed formal and well documented complaints and reports with a host of law enforcement, judicial and other governmental agencies on many levels. Predictably, no serious interest has been shown nor any actions taken in response to the charges.

Another Silicon Valley resident mentioned in the article is David Duval, who feels he was implanted because of his suspected links to illegal drug trafficking, and is being used in the expectation that he can help track the whereabouts of certain kingpins in illegal drug operations.

Santa Clara University law professor Alan Schefflin, author of a very hard-to-find 1978 book called The Mind Manipulators, says that clandestine mind control experiments have been going on in the US for many years, and that a good number of these involve implantation with just the kinds of devices referred to in the above allegations.

THE LONG ISLAND RAIL ROAD MASSACRE

In late October of 1997, "Investigative Report" on the Arts & Entertainment Network carried a report on the Colin Ferguson murder trial. Ferguson had been found guilty of murdering six and wounding another thirteen during a deadly and inexplicable outburst aboard a Long Island Rail Road commuter train in late 1993.

A brief segment towards the end of the A&E report showed reporters interviewing a "Raoul Diaz", outside the courthouse where Ferguson's murder trial was in progress. Diaz, who had appeared to testify in Ferguson's behalf, described how he had been kidnapped while driving a taxi in the Bronx, and subsequently placed on a Long Island Rail Road train at Penn Station bound for Hicksville. Someone of Oriental appearance sitting directly adjacent to him on the train displayed a small handheld device and commented that he was employed by the CIA. He said to Diaz, "look at that black man over there", then pressed something on the device and Ferguson immediately fell unconscious. Appearing visibly ill at ease during the interview, Diaz nervously continued with his astonishing account when someone behind him whispered something and the interview was terminated abruptly.

There was no explanation offered by either those conducting the interview at the time or by the producers of the A&E report for the information related by Diaz. The intended inference would seem to be that this was just some screwball, though he certainly didn't appear so. Diaz came across as coherent, rational and credible, gave no indication of being a wacko.

Diaz was not allowed to testify at the Ferguson trial by Ferguson and/or the judge, and to my knowledge, no other witnesses who had some other peculiar and troubling information to impart about that train ride to hell ever got to testify either. Diaz has literally never been heard from again, certainly not in any public way. Strange as well that Ferguson, a man with some obvious and substantial mental impairment, was allowed by the judicial system in a blatant procedural anomaly to conduct his own defense--which, though technically permitted under the U.S. Constitution, is almost never granted in practice in a mass murder case such as this, with some good reason.

I first heard this information in 1995 from Montauk Project book series coauthor Peter Moon, about the Oriental man who urged Diaz to observe how the small handheld remote control transmitter could make Ferguson nod off. Why Diaz would have been kidnapped and placed on the train to so observe the clandestine technology which apparently activated the terrifying and deadly proceedings is anyone's guess. How interesting that this took place on Long Island. Notice we are talking about electromagnetic/radio-frequency mind control here--the undeniable specialty of the Montauk Project.

It could be the killings were an attempt to exacerbate racial tensions in the New York area which had already been rather strained for years. Or maybe only one or several of those killed were actually the real intended victims and the mass shooting was to cover up that fact--as it would look like the target(s) died by chance with the others in an indiscriminate mass shooting.

Perhaps this was a preliminary test-run of technology which could subsequently have been used in the astonishing number of mass murders committed by young teen or preteen boys in the past couple of years in the United States--often at schools.

MIND CONTROL TODAY

MASS PROGRAMMING--MONTAUK BOYS AND GIRLS

Indications are that tremendous numbers of young people from the streets of America--those millions who for reasons of social disintegration, family conflicts, subliminal entrainment, outright mind manipulation or a combination of these and/or other factors are now filling the streets of American cities and even smaller towns; drifting, homeless and undirected--are being inducted en masse at this period of time and programmed via the technologies perfected at Montauk; computer assisted EM/RF mind control utilizing deliberately caused "multiple personality disorder" syndrome conditions to create thoroughly programmed alternate personalities within targeted subjects. Various combinations of agendas from other projects like Monarch and MK-ULTRA as well as the Montauk Project are being implemented via these operations.

Nearly every major population area in the country has a "Montauk Boys and Girls" project underway at this time. Children programmed through various means (such as having schoolchildren on overnight field trips bunk at "decommissioned" military facilities during which time they are abducted, programmed and returned. Subsequently, triggers and cues embedded in popular mass entertainment (for example, the movie Scream has been cited as inspiring certain of the horrendous, grisly mass murders committed by young adolescents in the U.S. recently) can set these "sleepers" off in predetermined ways.

Parents: more than ever, and in ways you would never have dreamed of, watch out for your children--who they are with, what the influences on them are, where they go, what they are interested in.

TEENS AND PRETEENS WHO (MASS) MURDER

The ongoing string of mass murders committed by young boys often right around the age of puberty (considered to be a very significant age by the Montauk Project mind control experiment operators), has finally pushed me over the brink; into confronting head-on the likelihood that this and a veritable blood orgy of similar mass murders by youngsters in the past couple of years--mostly but not only in the southeastern U.S.--are the result of some sort of mind control program.

I have had strong suspicions that the Jonesboro, Arkansas massacre in March 1998, a May 1998 graduation dance massacre in Edinboro, Pennsylvania and a subsequent school shooting rampage in Springfield, Oregon--to name only the some of the more recent incidents--represent the tip of the iceberg of some serious and extensive youth-directed mass-conditioning programs currently underway. Regarding the Arkansas tragedy in particular, there were some very troubling aspects to the mass shooting there by two youngsters, aged 11 and 13, who murdered four schoolmates and a teacher while wounding 11 others. The two were in possession of a number of weapons, camouflage clothing, a van stocked with provisions and "survivalist" gear, among other oddities, and there were reports of ties to a satanic cult of some kind currently popular in the southeastern U.S.

Despite a fairly rigorous childhood and teenagehood in New York City and Long Island, and many years since spent in other major urban areas like L.A. and the Bay Area, I must say I can really recall no precedent for these types of mass slayings perpetrated by teens and preteens, against their peers or elders, often carried out at (usually public) schools.

What in the name of God or any standard or concept of a more evolved, civilized and positive existence and being; what in the name of any decency, reason, compassion, or awareness could possibly be motivating or compelling these young people to manifest such remorseless, shameless and vicious violence in mass murder?

And notice also that this is not happening in New York, L.A., Chicago or other large cities. Its happening mainly in quiet, totally "typical", rural/suburban Middle American communities, among predominantly white, middle class people.

I think programming is on the scene here in a most major style. Subliminals embedded in popular entertainment could even be the triggers for certain preprogrammed behavior and responses ready to be "activated".

In fact, in one of Alex Constantine's articles on the mass ritual sex abuse case involving McMartin Preschool and their outright CIA connections, he notes that many of the CIA's child oriented MK operations are "administered" by an Indonesian religious cult: one of the leading members of this cult is also a principal officer in a MAJOR computer games software manufacturing/developing business. He doesn't name names, but I believe it must be either Sega Genesis or Nintendo or some corporation rather close to them in terms of market share, from the way he writes it. The name of the religious cult is "Subud".

MUSIC AND MIND CONTROL

The use of music as an aid to programming, which forms a significant aspect of the operation experienced first hand by "Mr. Coffee" and described in his account reprinted directly following this section, has been consistently commented on by certain researchers, including Preston Nichols. Music provides access to the deeper, subconscious, emotional, nonlinear/logical portions of the psyche. As shown so clearly by "psychedelic" pioneers Tim Leary and Richard Alpert in their government-sponsored LSD research (some which occurred at Montauk AFS)--"set and setting" are crucial in determining the impact and outcome of an LSD trip...and a mind programming operation. Music, as an especially emotional art form, could be utilized very effectively (albeit diabolically!) to assist in amplifying, intensifying and boosting the impact of certain programming operations and experiences. In addition, certain triggers can be activated by the music previously used during programming.

There is information put forward by people like "Sue Ellen" above and others indicating that certain music stars are being trained/programmed/groomed/mind controlled, so that in their roles as mass entertainers they are fulfilling a certain function in the general mind controlled new world order of things, and that there are very likely entrainment frequencies and subliminal commands and such embedded within the sound tracks: certainly in the case of country music the overall tone of the lyrics of many country songs is undeniably "down" and puts forth an ultimately depressing view of things. So many of these songs are about serious emotional distress, failed relationships and similar topics.

Technically and even artistically, the level of musicianship, proficiency, etc. could be quite high and the music could "sound good" but there could be specific signals/frequencies mixed in later, perhaps unbeknownst to the performing artists, which reinforce an element of the lyric content or even communicate some other "message". Even subliminal vocal tracks could be used in this way. Much "heavy metal" and rap music overtly exhibit extraordinary levels of negativity, hatred and descriptions of violence in their lyrics, the destructive impact of which could all easily be supplemented with a hefty dose of subliminal images, commands and the like.

My thought is this. One concept which could be getting inserted into country and other pop music by these and various other methods might be this: to abuse (physically, sexually, emotionally) or neglect your children resulting in their lives being under the control the government, or to "turn them over to the government" in any number of other ways, and/or assist the government in gaining access to and control over your children so that the government can (have means and opportunity to) subject them to psychosexually abusive mind control programming, so they can serve certain purposes as agents of the government. If kids are abused at home, and/or families are in fact being subliminally encouraged in many ways through manipulation of mass media to literally disintegrate, then more and more kids have been and will be ending up either in some sort of government custody or on the streets, where they become fair game for the picking; particularly by organized crime, which as I noted in my first report, is strongly implicated in the procurement of young people by any number of means, for covert government agencies to utilize in their unconscionable, inhuman and unconstitutional operations.

This is the sort of thing that is apparently occurring which at least in part deals with this sort of social engineering--molding and shaping of consciousness and social reality through covert (and evil) manipulation of mass communication such as the press and the news media, television, entertainment. movies, music, and so on. Additionally there are the technologies developed in the Montauk Project by which our very thoughts and even psychic-level experiences can be interfered with, tweaked, twisted and controlled.

I received an email on the subject of music as utilized in mind control operations, which read in part as follows:

"With the advances in technology since Dick Sutphen's book The Battle For Your Mind first came out, is it still impossible to reduce various frequencies to detect the subliminals when they are psycho-acoustically modified and synthesized so that they are projected in the same chord and frequency as the music?"

Though I'm unfamiliar with the book mentioned above, the topic is certainly intriguing. Here's my response to the question, based upon my admittedly limited familiarity with the nuts and bolts of such operations.

Certain people connected to the Montauk Project have made repeated references to the way popular entertainment--in particular music--has been and is being utilized as an aid to EM/RF mind control programming, either directed towards a population as a whole or towards smaller groups or individuals.

Preston Nichols has relayed information about some of the more esoteric technologies which utilize music as a medium for dissemination. He referred to what he calls a "quantum" waveform of some kind which is not in either the audio or electromagnetic wave spectrum, and which can transmit extensive amounts of information. This quantum information signal apparently interacts with certain levels of consciousness and awareness: there is no commonly available technology at this time with which the information can be decoded.

One point made by Nichols which I, as a musician, found intriguing is that the equipment used in implementing this quantum information wave is highly dependent upon vacuum tubes, as much of the Montauk Project technology has been in general, although transistors are utilized to some extent. Interesting that many electric musicians, especially guitarists, have adamantly withstood the tidal wave of solid state technology when it comes to instrument amplifiers: as many rock fans know, most electric guitarists, bassists, miked vocalists and other musicians swear by the vast superiority of the tonal qualities of vacuum tube amps and the ability of such equipment to convey a far greater range of subtle nuances of feeling than transistor amps.

Nichols indicated to me that a substantial amount of popular music during the 1960s, 70s, 80s and of course now has been utilized in service of a covert (of course!) MK agenda using various methods and technologies, and as I've pointed out, similar charges have been made by a number of other people, for example Cathy O'Brien. (Nichols worked as a sound recording engineer before going to work at Brookhaven Labs around 1970).

More detailed and technical information was conveyed to me about this entire matter but to be honest the technical part is a bit over my head. I am a bit weak in radio electronics as well as quantum physics, relativity and the unified field theory.

I have been extremely intrigued by the statements made by Nichols and others about music being utilized for mind control purposes but remain somewhat unclear about how this is actually accomplished technically. Then of course questions such as those posed by Mr. Hart above have crossed my mind as well--that is, how can the subliminal psychoacoustic frequencies, quantum information waves and other embedded data be isolated, deciphered, etc.

MIND CONTROL VICTIMS--PERSONAL TESTIMONY

Certainly one of the most astonishing accounts from a victim/survivor of an intensive mind control programming operation to have ever come my way is this one; emailed to me in late 1997 by an individual who gave me a brief autobiography which described how he had been picked at the age of ten, through the "auspices" of the "Silva Mind Control Program", to be an unwitting candidate for the "MK-ULTRA/Montauk/Ewen Cameron School of Mind Control" (I think I made that last one up!), which commenced in earnest when he entered college at Rochester NY.

Continually monitored by military agents who had tracked the fellow throughout high school, my contact was given the full complement of Montauk type programming after he entered college, and he subsequently worked for his programmers in an altered state of mind as a slavlike agent. Among other horrors, he has had recalls of assassinating targeted subjects.

Here's the real grabber--this fellow has pieced together solid evidence (including recovered computer text files detailing this particular MK method) showing that music was used as a major aspect of a CIA covert mind-programming technology/system, as a means of substantially strengthening the emotional components of psyche and personality and "enlisting" these aspects for the programmed "cause". This translates into a much more intense "commitment" and connection to the program on the part of mind controlled agents. This same music, perhaps with encoded subliminals as well, is used to activate the previously embedded program in the agent.

An incredible and terrifying story--and, the dates of his major involvement which this fellow recalls coincide exactly with information from Preston Nichols regarding a very recent phase of the Montauk project, from 1988-1992.

This man was most recently an operative in the southeastern U.S.; however, that is where his "handler" made some major errors in "handling" my contact, which resulted in substantial and traumatic memory breakthroughs, a breakdown in the mind control program in his case and my contact's disconnection from the operation. (Naturally though, severe harassment and vicious threats have followed him almost continually since).

Preston Nichols has reported that after the departure of the Montauk Project's mind control crew from the Montauk underground installation roughly the end of 1992, the Project was somewhat at loose ends for a couple of years but the directors then regrouped and ensconced themselves in the Atlanta Georgia area at Robins Air Force Base.

I had occasion to meet this man, whom I will call "Mr. Coffee" (a pseudonym), in person during my trip to Long Island in the summer of 1998, which has been recounted above in this report. I found him in some degree to be not what I expected; certain elements of the type of programming he has been subjected to--what might be called a fearless, kamikaze-type warrior with total confidence seem to have leaked through in to his everyday personality. Coffee indicated to me and Nichols that he (Coffee) may very well still be utilized while in an alternate state of mind for various covert operations by intelligence/military agencies. He attested to feeling bizarrely affected by the energy particularly at Camp Hero but also in the village of Montauk.

Here is what Coffee had to say.

"Dear Sir:

"I believe that I was/am the subject of some horrific government mind control experiments. I believe that the government "selected" me at a very young age, watched me develop as a young man, and then when the time was right forced me into their "mind control project". My memories of these events were all but nonexistent until recently, when a single event triggered a massive flood of memories which started to all come back to me. To be honest the whole experience has left me quite shaken as well as quite scared. But mostly confused.

"It all started when I was 10 years old. My mother enrolled me in a mind control course called "the Silva Mind Control Method". It is sort of a self hypnosis course where you learn to dive down into the different levels of your mind. You learn things like how to heal your body with your mind, relaxation techniques, ways to focus your concentration, and melt spoons with your mind (things like that). You may have heard of it? Anyway, while in the course we learned to go to our "level" (a relaxed state of mind which is the basis of the Silva method). I was extremely good at all of the things we were doing for some reason right from the start. The instructor... was praising me like I was god's next gift to mankind. Telling me that I was the greatest student he has ever seen etc. etc..

"This is where it all starts: during one of the breaks (about six weeks into the course) the instructor asks me to go outside to meet some of his "friends". I go outside with him (and let me tell you, when you are 10 years old and you are in a class room for two hours at a time on your Saturdays and Sundays for eight straight weeks you ABSOLUTELY live for your 15 minute breaks) so needless to say I was not very interested in wasting my "break time" talking to whoever these people were. We go out the double doors and there are two men waiting to talk to me. THEY BOTH WERE WEARING MILITARY UNIFORMS, one was wearing army green, and the other was in blue (possible Air Force but I cant be sure). The instructor states to the men "this is the kid" and they make some small talk. To be honest I really didn't pay much attention to them (I was looking at the other kids on the play ground and wondering why the hell I'm over here and not over there). But here's the main point; The man in green bends down on one knee and says to me "I hear you have some very special abilities" and I said "I do"? He stands back up and speaks to the instructor some more, then kneels back down and says "It was very nice meeting you, YOU KNOW YOUR GOING TO WORK FOR ME SOME DAY!" As a 10 year old you don't quite grasp what is really going on and I remember laughing and telling him that I didn't quite understand, but it was nice meeting him, and I ran off to the play ground. But when I looked back, the three adult were still standing there looking at me, talking about me, and sizing me up.

"That was the only time that I actually spoke to those men for years, but what happens next is very odd. Growing up my parents were fighting all the time and they finally got divorced. So what did I do, I used sports as my escape. All I focused on was sports, I would leave the house and go down to the field or into the backyard and practice, and practice, and practice my soccer skills. As a result of this I became extremely good, so good you would not believe me (I just seemed to have a knack for it). I didn't think about doing it, I just did it. It was like it was mind over matter.

"It's funny because honestly I could do things that were so unbelievable on the soccer field. You have to see it to believe it. Here is how; I honestly didn't know any better. I didn't know that I wasn't supposed to be able to do that, just take the ball down the field by yourself and score EVERY TIME! But in my mind, I could do it, so I did it in real life EVERY TIME. When the opposing teams coaches asked how old I was, when I told them the didn't believe me, after the games were over they would thank me for not running up the score and humiliating "their boys". That how good I was and I do have video tapes of the games to prove it!

"Here is the thing, and I didn't put it together at the time. When you go to any children's sporting event you see all of the parents. They are usually are dressed casually and usually bring a folding chair and sit around and watch the game and gossip with the other parents etc. etc..

I REMEMBER looking around at all the parents. I REMEMBER noticing TWO GUYS IN MILITARY UNIFORMS FREQUENTLY AT MY GAMES. ONE IN GREEN AND ONE IN BLUE. I remember this specially because they stuck out like sore thumbs, and I specifically remember this because I was thinking "I wonder whose fathers are they?" They looked familiar from when I was 10 years old but I just could not put my finger on it.

"I remember seeing the same two guys all through my high school sporting events. Whether it was football, basketball, or track. At the county track meet, during some football games etc. (I can rattle off 5 or 6 different examples).

"Imagine how effective would an assassin or an agent be if in his mind, through hypnosis, he truly had no fear. If in his mind, through hypnosis, he truly believed that he could do superhuman things. Things like jumping off a 3 story roof and land without injury, just as if he was jumping a foot stool. If in his mind, through hypnosis, he truly believes he possesses superhuman strength and can turn his bodes adrenaline glands on and off like a faucet. These are just some of the experiments they conducted on me in an effort to make me the "perfect weapon" or the "perfect killing machine".

"When it came time for me to go to college is when strange things started happening. I was a "Blue chip" athlete, and was recruited heavily as an A-rated football player by most of the major universities. By the end of my senior year in high school the decision as to what school to attend was narrowed down to 2 or 3 schools.

"Mysteriously, in the mail I received a letter which stated I had an appointment to have my physical taken for admittance to attend West Point. I didn't think much about it and the physical date came and went. Another letter arrives stating that I was "Rescheduled" FOR ANOTHER physical at West Point. The physical date also comes and goes. Again, I didn't think too much about it. Then I get a phone call from someone in the military, I don't remember his name but I think he said he was major something or other. Anyway, he asks me why I didn't go to the physicals, and I told him that 1st of all I wasn't the least interested in a military career because my father was in the military and it just wasn't my "bag". Secondly my father graduated from Annapolis and if I went to West Point he would disown me. About a week later I get a THIRD letter. This one mysteriously now states that I now have an appointment to have my physical taken to attend Annapolis.

"The thing is I never spoke to anyone about attending either West Point or Annapolis. I never spoke to any football coaches, I never discussed it with my parents, I spoke to NO ONE about applying to ANY military academy!

"I did some research about the process in which one must to go through to enter either academy. Let me tell you that the physical is about the third screen they use to weed out unqualified candidates. These screens include either a presidential or a congressional nomination (I could have gotten one due to the fact that my father attended Annapolis but since neither of us even approached the subject it really makes you wonder what the Hell is going on). In addition to this I was extremely underqualified since neither my grades NOR my SAT scores were EVEN CLOSE to the levels expected by the academies by their applicants.

"So how did I get THREE physicals scheduled to enter the military's most distinctive schools WITHOUT EVER APPLYING. Someone wanted me to be in the military very badly, and I still have all the letters "requesting" my presence at the academies for my physicals to prove it!

"By a rather odd set of events I end up going to a college I had never heard of before called the University of Rochester located in UPSTATE NEW YORK right between Buffalo and Syracuse. I attended the University from 1988-1992.

"This is when they took me into their program. I CAN GO THROUGH ANOTHER 15 PAGES EXPLAINING EVERY DETAIL; OF HOW, WHEN AND WHY THEY HYPNOTIZED ME, HOW THEY WOULD TAKE ME IN THE NIGHT, THE LABS, THE EXPERIMENTS, EVERYTHING!

This was a "Black Book Operation", these men were not exactly in the military but some sort of a private group, operating from groups within groups. You see I was so far gone and under their control because for some reason mind adhered to their "suggestions" extremely well, like nothing they had ever seen. Anything they told me to do while I was in this state of mind I could do.

"The experiments were all under hypnosis, and were initially designed to test how far the human could be pushed. Things like the limits of human strength. While under hypnosis they would tell me to imagine that my arm was a hydraulic press with unlimited power, they then would place objects in my hand and tell me to crush them and I could. Another favorite was to test the limits of human pain tolerances. For this experiment they would tell me to "turn off my nerves"; "you are in a warm and safe place, you feel nothing and have NO pain". As you can imagine they had many different varieties of this test. They controlled me like I was a robot or something, and I remember standing and walking with "tunnel vision". I had no control of myself at all. I remember having to give demonstrations of my abilities so they could get the funding needed to continue with the project.

"I remember, being in a field, it was dusk, and I demonstrated my abilities and they showed the things I could do. There were 6 to 8 men there one of them dressed in a suit was either a senator or a congressman and after he saw the things I could do he said "JESUS CHRIST -- If I didn't see that with my own eyes I wouldn't have believed it possible. ANYTHING YOU NEED YOU GOT IT!".

"The main focus quickly turned from doing simple tests on me to developing me as a killing machine, a military weapon, and they trained me as an assassin. I have memories of killing several people and executing several "Missions".

"My code name they called me by was "The Rhino" and I believe I killed several people between 1988 and 1992.

"To be honest with you this letter should have only taken me a day or two to write but I have been working on this for over three weeks now. I am not going into great detail about most of my experiences and the really painful memories. Every time I start thinking about these events my stomach turns and I become nauseous. I must ask you to please forgive me, if any of this is unclear or doesn't flow smoothly I'm sorry but I'm trying my best, but it is very difficult and painful to remember and write all this down.

"I graduate from college and I move down South. In my apartment complex, this guy introduces himself to me at the pool and we become good friends. At this time I have no memories of all these events so I didn't put the following together until later. The guy's name is Aaron and he is down South to get his masters degree in PSYCHOLOGY. Coincidentally he is also from Rochester NY. He becomes my best friend and about a year goes by. When we would go out drinking or be at parties Aaron would brag about being able to hypnotize people without them even knowing it and how he could just "fuck" with peoples' minds. I never thought much about it because he was my best friend. I get my first job with a major corporation. Three hundred and sixty resumes for 1 spot and I got the job. So naturally I was very excited and told all my friends. The job involved traveling all around the Southeast every week (being gone Tuesday through Friday, on the road, every week).

The job didn't start until late August and it was early July so I had some time on my hands. About two weeks after I told Aaron that I had gotten the job he calls me and asks me to come over (as he was my best friend I would go over to his place all the time so I thought absolutely nothing about it). I get to his apartment and we bullshit for about an hour, and he tells me out of the blue that "some people are concerned about your new job" and I said "what the fuck are you talking about" and he said "the fact that we won't know where you are during the week"; and I was just utterly confused and extremely pissed off (I still had no memory of any of the events mentioned earlier) and I said "What the hell are you talking about? Who is concerned? What business is it of theirs anyway? Who? I don't understand?" He let it go. What happened next he did not let go.

"I had all this time on my hands and I was very nervous because I had to go to Buffalo for three weeks of training. I was 24 years old and this was my first "real job" with a company car, expense account and everything. Ever since I was very young I stuttered severely when I spoke. The thing is I knew it was all in my mind, because when I was alone I could speak very fluently, but when I had to speak to anyone, read aloud or, heaven forbid, speak to a group of people my entire throat would just "lock up" and I could not speak word one. This was a serious problem for me and needless to say I was tormented as a child. But anyway I decided that this was my first real job and if I wanted to get anywhere in life that I will not let this stop me and it must be fixed and now is the time. I had never been to a hypnotherapist before but for some reason I really believed in the power of hypnotism, and I really thought that this along with my Silva mind control could really help me. So I open the yellow pages and pick out a hypnotherapist. In the ad the hypnotherapist claimed to be able to cure many different ailments within a few sessions, stuttering was one of them so I called and made an appointment.

"I proceed to go into the appointment talk to the Doctor and explain how I think my problem is all in my mind. He states that my conclusions are "very interesting", and he puts me under. When I opened my eyes the doctor's face was white as a ghost and he is sweating bullets, there are now two assistants in the room and they have the same horrific look on their faces. The doctor in a trembling voice asks me "DID YOU KNOW YOU HAVE SOME KIND OF A GOVERNMENT MEMORY CAP IN YOUR MIND"? I said "no, what are you talking about?" He is still sweating profusely, and I ask him what was going on. He would not discuss it but he said wanted to see me tomorrow. I go to pay for the session in the lobby and I ask the assistant "what happened in there?" At first she would not tell me but I finally got it out of her. She said that I absolutely FREAKED OUT and I was absolutely screaming uncontrollably. She also stated that in her 15 years with this doctor she had never seen anything like it. She said the doctor tried for 15 minutes to put the cap back on and I would not let him, they had to get three other people to hold me down and finally he got control of the situation again. This is on a Tuesday, the doctor wanted to see me the next day but he was booked through Friday, the assistant made room for me to see him on Thursday.

"I leave very confused, still having no clear memories of any of the government experiments. The thing is I go home and what do I do, I go right over to my best friends apartment (Aaron) and tell him the whole story about the hypnotherapist and the memory cap. He starts to FREAK OUT, you went to a hypnotherapist WHEN? And let me tell you he was PISSED! I remember being very confused because I didn't still didn't make the connection. I remember going into his apartment, telling him what happened, he gets very angry, but after that there was "lost time." It was between 3:00 and 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon when I went over there. I remember this because there were soap operas on the television when I was initially telling him my story; when I left Jeopardy was on and it was becoming dusk. It was about 7:30 on the evening. I leave his apartment and go home, I found myself sort of wondering what happened? At home I empty my pockets on the table (change, keys etc..) and I have the receipt from the hypnotherapist. "Oh yea" I say I'm supposed to see him on Thursday, but I couldn't remember anything else.

"I go back Thursday AND THE DOCTOR IS NO LONGER THERE! I MEAN HIS NAME IS SCRATCHED OFF THE DOOR HE IS GONE, VANISHED, I MEAN IT WAS LIKE HE HAD NEVER BEEN THERE. There were four or five doctors sharing the same office and there was simply a space where his name had been. I go in and ask the receptionist where is doctor so and so, as hard as I try I just cannot remember his name, but I can find my way back to where his office was. I ASK THE RECEPTIONIST WHAT IS GOING ON AND SHE TELLS ME TO PLEASE LEAVE AND DO NOT COME BACK. I ask about the doctor, she closes the receptionists window turns her back to me and walks away.

"I go home, even more confused, Aaron calls me that night to come over, I go, again not thinking anything about it. This is where all hell breaks loose. I go to his apartment and we are sitting down talking as usual. From the back bedroom six or seven men come out! The same two military officers I had seen all along from my childhood and at the University of Rochester (one in green and one in blue). The other men were dressed in black. The instant I saw these men I began to remember, my instinct tells me to run but I was taken totally by surprise. The men in black leap over the couch, grab and hold me. They pinned me against the back of the couch, I had no leverage to plant my feet and try get up. They start to laugh and say things like "this guy isn't so tough" and "that was easy".

"I remember looking at Aaron with a look of betrayal: he could not look at me. The military officer in green says "do you have any idea how much trouble you've been, we should have killed you a long time ago"; he asks Aaron "is he going to remember any of this?" Aaron answers no. He proceeds to punch me in the face. I am struggling to get up but I just could not move, Aaron then takes over.

"Aaron then says the "magic word" and instantly I cannot move, he tells me how relaxed I feel how I feel warm and safe I feel, how I am in a "happy place".

"This is where things start getting a little crazy. What he did to me, I remember, he somehow locked me away in my own mind creating multiple personalities. I remember fighting him for control in my mind. He said that I will do what I tell you to do. He said the walls are closing in and you cannot fight it, in my mind I of course pictured the walls closing in. On his instruction the walls closed in until I was inside a "vacuum sealed steel coffin", I could not fight it and I could not move. He then said you are being sent to a place in your mind where you will never be found, at this point I start screaming "no no no". After he sent me to a place where "no one will ever find you", he instructed that "a steel plate the size of ten football fields and 10 feet thick is crashing down upon you" and he said "here it comes, and there is no escape". I remember screaming again as he says "boooooom". Here comes another one, "boooooom", and he proceeded to do this five or six more times. I am screaming during all of this.

"The hypnotherapist had pulled me out of it; two days later the hypnotherapist has disappeared and Aaron locks the "monster" away again, with new doors and in a new place. The monster who claims to be the real me who is even now locked away somewhere in my mind? This concept is very scary and confusing but these are my memories.

"This all took place in the summer of 1994. After that I couldn't remember any of these events, and Aaron continued to be my "best friend". Over the next two years I would go over to Aaron's apartment and hang out. I remember a lot of missing time, watching a movie and all of a sudden I would be watching a different movie and it is 2:00 in the morning. Sometime he would get up and lock the door when it is only the two of us and we were both about 6 foot tall and 230 pounds with bodybuilder physiques living in a very quiet and secure apartment complex. So I began to wonder about these events and I would ask him "why do you sometimes lock the door" and he would never answer me.

"There is much more to the story--how I broke free, where I am today, are they still watching me? It's funny because I play these events over and over again in my mind. Government experiments, multiple personalities, hypnosis. The thought that the United States Government assigned someone to "watch" me for years sounds kind of crazy. The thing is, as I was sitting here typing on my computer and writing this letter, I remembered that Aaron used to come over and use my computer for some of his "theories" and "projects". When we were "best friends" I never thought much about it.

"But LOOK what I found on my computer. Here is the first page of a 10 page document that is one of his theories on how the human mind operates which he submitted to be published.

"Memory Regression Technique (MRT)

Aaron M. XXXXXXXX

Memory Regression Technique (MRT), involves the process of retrieving past memories, and can assist in the retrieval of repressed material (memories) from the unconscious. MRT understands the process of association in relation to memory and strongly believes that specific memories can be brought to consciousness. Furthermore, MRT assumes to seize (particularly regarding the repressed patient) deep-seated memories and experiences through the aid of association using music.

INTRODUCTION

Memory Regression Technique (MRT), involves the process of retrieving past memories. Memories that are either general or specific in nature. What the technique consists of is regressing one's mind (through age and time). By having individuals retrieve information (memories) from their past using a systematical process, they begin to develop an adaptation to this process. A "familiarity" of retrieving past memories and as this process continues, releasing stored material is made easier by the individual.

Memory Regression Technique can assist in the retrieval of repressed material (memories) from the individual's unconscious. Repressed material or pieces of information can be brought to consciousness through the aid of association. It is certainly probable that specific individual experiences / events were recorded in one's memory through association, particularly with music during a specific "time" or period in one's life. Accordingly, MRT can assist the individual in locating a desired "time episode" of when certain specific events (memories) transpired, that may have been repressed through time.

Why is MRT so unique? MRT understands the process of association in relation to memory. When memory is stored it is essentially always stored in relation to the attainability of one's senses via smell, taste, touch, visual, and through auditory processes.

When individuals tend to remember past experiences it is usually retrieved through related associations (whether it was induced by the color red or from a personal meaningful experience). MRT parallels with that of state-dependent memory. State-dependent memory is an extension of context-dependent memory (information that is better retrieved in the "context" in which it was encoded and stored or learned). It sometimes happens that we retrieve information better when we are in a physiological or emotional state that is similar to the one in which we encoded and stored the information. Our moods may also serve as cues that aid in the retrieval of memories. Emotion influences not only what is stored in memory, but also how easily records can be accessed from memory. Individuals can best retrieve emotional memories by reinstating the emotion they were experiencing at the time they originally stored it, especially if the memory is associated with music.

The objective is to increase the process of retrieval. Knowing that music (a specific song) can elicit a past memory for an individual, MRT realizes this principle: more songs may elicit more memories. MRT is an extensive collection of condensed music from past years to the present in chronological order. MRT is designed for availability to most settings: classical, country, jazz, rhythm and blues, pop, rock and roll, rap, gospel, folk, reggae, etc."

--Mr. Coffee

A subsequent email read:

"John:

I got your name off the mind control forum web page and sent e-mails to all the people who I thought could help me. I had sent you that mail a while ago and a lot has happened since then. Since then I have regained more of my memory. As it turns out I have incredible telekinetic abilities, I can move, levitate and create objects using only my mind. And yes I was one of the superstars at Montauk from 1988-1992. They since have erased my memory of everything and my abilities but I am slowly getting them back.

"The thing is I have remembered that I have a 8 year old son and his mother is my sole mate and the woman I am supposed to marry, both of which they have and are raising my son for their own purposes. I am going to be forced to make a trade with them in exchange for my silence. As you can imagine I cannot discuss the details for many reasons. I cannot go public as the whole affair goes a lot farther than just a simple trade and if I do they will kill them. I have tried to get him before and they simply erased my memory again, this time I am more prepared.

"I have read your articles and must say that you are correct on many accounts and can tell you only that everything Preston Nichols claims happened in his books is all too true.

"I thank you for your concern and reply to my request for help. I hope you understand that things are in a very critical time for me and even writing this letter is extremely dangerous for me. But I will try and keep in touch with you as best as I can.

Thanks again"

--Mr. Coffee

I am currently unaware of Coffee's intentions regarding matters such as public disclosure of what he has been through and what he knows. He has met with Nichols a few times, and with Peter Moon. Nichols informed me that Coffee is "definitely involved" with some recent phase of the Montauk Project, but given the seriousness and sensitivity of the situation (in regards to Coffee's wife and child), Nichols would not discuss it further with me on the phone--which is pretty rare for him (even though he openly acknowledges that his phone line is intensively tapped).

As described earlier, I did meet Coffee in person during my trip to eastern Long Island in the summer of 1998. At that time Nichols indicated to me that he felt Coffee may have been used as a breeder and/or as cloning stock by the secret government, probably due certain racial or bloodline factors. Nichols believed that Coffee had without doubt been subjected to "Montauk Project-related" government mind modification programs and that his alternate identities had been extensively programmed to function as a fearless, "invincible" extremely self confident soldier.

In early September 1998, Mr. Coffee was arrested by local police where he currently resides in New Jersey, at the instigation of the FBI and aided by a complaint against him by a suspiciously eager ex-girlfriend. They had a court order to confiscate a Coffee possessed: though he was compliant in every way with the officers, they found some pretext on which to arrest him and he ended up incarcerated in a psychiatric hospital! Several days before, Coffee had appeared on a Long Island TV talk show in which he aired an extensive account of his involvement in government mind control programs, and the day after the broadcast he was the target of a kidnapping/murder attempt.

>From "Oscar Laurent" (a pseudonym) comes the following testimony, which describes his own childhood induction into a government-run covert mind control program.

"I have very vivid recollection of an episode (beginning midday, summer) from where I was in a van (mini van or other taller vehicle) sitting in the front passenger seat and pulling over at a gate in the fence where the road (perpendicular to highway, dirt) extended for a long distance (miles? Depth perception in arid western lands with only reference as a distant mountain range is quite confusing) from the highway to the mountains in the distance... I believe I've entered within a geomagnetic hot spot. The land around this road is quite arid, plain, no structures rocks or dunes, and only limited plant life (little grass clumps or small bushes) and extremely flat. During this time of transport between the highway and mountains, there is a large missing block of time...

The next memory is entering the wooded area of the mountains, many solid rock faces with steep angles on the sides of the road winding through the forest, and (because I was woke up by the bumpy road) then another lapse of missing time due to sleep...

The next memory is constant till the end.

The arrival (waking now) is to a dirt/gravel parking lot. There in this parking lot was a large house-like structure, wide, typical design of a hotel; large front porch, dumpster and propane tanks outside to right (facing) of building, other cars/small trucks in lot near house, gravel on ground in parking lot, grassy area behind house with wooded area beyond that... all sides of this area are steep hill/mountain sides forming a basin (slightly darker in lighting) where the building was... miscellaneous other little things (trivial)> the interior of this building was house like, we passed by dining and lounge rooms, [boredom eliminated memory of most of the interior, until going downstairs] and finally ended up in the basement of this building...

Stuff in basement was typical of an old building, miscellaneous old junk, whatever, but on the side wall (following a wide path through junk) was a modern and shiny metallic door with digital numeric keypad combination lock on the right side, which the person leading me to it stood in front of and opened <note: perspective is from a 2,3,4 year old looking up at the man; lock at doorknob height, still above head> when door was opened it swung open towards me, and I notice that the side of it is about a foot thick with bolt locks extending from it [similar to bank vault] (might have been the receptacles for locks mounted in the doorframe) all metallic chrome or steel, and a long tunnel extending from it down at a slight angle, and to the right <this in perspective to the building means it was leading beyond the back left corner of the building (facing front) where the rock slope of the mountain extended upwards nearby> this tunnel was well lit at the entrance (white lights as found in office buildings) (similar arrangement of lighting as the interior running lights of an airplane, (long light source in cavity on upper corners of wall, and if I remember correctly, slightly rounded and metal chrome, compliments nicely with the pure white walls and metal flooring (diamond hatch grips on floor)) There was also a chrome handrail extending the length of this hallway, which I would look up at (being what, 3 years old?) and being led by the individual behind me with hand placed on shoulder sometimes for guidance or whatever, but always walking behind... (I do not have recollection of this man's face, as the driver of the van I was in stayed upstairs in the house, and I went with the "owner" of the house down to the basement, etc.) as we progressed down this hallway, it was obviously intended as a light adjustment area so the eyes could slowly adapt from the bright light of upstairs and outside and the entrance to the tunnel to the darkness where this tunnel met up with others in a spur. At this spur (probably 100 feet from entrance <perception of small person>) the lighting was rather dark at the lower level... The tunnel was straight, but the atmosphere and the gentle slope of this tunnel told our senses we were now quite a ways under ground... At the spur intersection at the end of this tunnel (very dark) we turned in some direction (no visual reference) to the left <geography of above ground surface say this would be directly under the large mountain (solid rock) and a ways into the center of it, although no where near the exact center of the mountain, other tunnels went that way> as we continued in the left tunnel we came upon a room...

The tunnel ends in a 45` angle to a squarish room to the right, its farthest two walls of unknown distance (black walls, some chrome, but limited lighting from [it] was not enough to make out anything in the room besides [it]): the simple description: a "iridescent purplish pinkish bluish purple cuboid" <pausing for shivers due to recollection of this... quite powerful emotion>

On the right wall, as you enter the room you will notice a semi- circular table (large) extending from that wall, dark, yet reflective coloration of table, and some chromed metal throughout the "device". I'm having trouble continuing to type... any attempt to describe the thing is practically impossible... (excessively strong emotional response).

I've tried numerous times with multitudes of materials and lighting to try to reproduce something that even somewhat resembles the thing, but haven't been able to even come close to its color, no less its semi-transparent texture and appearance of it... well we will continue to try :) >

Ok... lets start with it. It is a rectangular solid. It is fairly large, probably 2 feet wide, unknown depth. Squarish front face. It is mesmerizing. If you can picture a huge mass of fiber optic material (translucent surface) with infinitive tubules intertwined within it in a rectangular solid shape, with blue, purple, and pink light streaming in high speed bursts throughout this mass, creating a glowing "purplish pinkish bluish purple cuboid" then you are coming close to the reality. You may also define it as similar to the primitive (in comparison), but current attempts to create an optical switching/processing device (computer) by many gov't and private research institutions. Ok. At least I got through that... :) this cuboid was situated slightly lower than the surface of the table, in what appeared to be a indentation (my height was at the table level, or slightly above, so I could see that it went down below the surface of the table, but no idea what it was seated on.) <this thing also had the most powerful aura or "mental energy" or psyche or whatever you want to call it I have ever encountered (I have tried to recreate this feeling with numerous forms of radiation, magnetic and energy fields, large antenna structures connected to my high power amateur radio equipment, etc., the only thing coming close was accidentally bridging a 30+ amp power supply and the extremely painful shock and high energy level in my body at that, instantly created from the discharge [please don't attempt, life threatening])> This aura or whatever it was so intriguing that I was guided by this other individual who led me down there to either stand or sit next to the receptacle (please see drawings) to the thing, and insert my hands and forearms into a rubber like apparatus with metallic contacts for the base of your palm <science knows of a gland in that section of the hand... If you look at the right hand palm up, at the lower left side (top of wrist) is the top of the arm bone or wrist bone, whatever, fairly large... Now go up about a third of the way from this bone to the base of the little finger, there is a large muscle/mushy flesh section on the left 25% of the palm, inside or below this muscle is the gland or nerve endings or whatever was used to interface with the thing.> as I found the metal balls within the rubber interface, I was offered a chair (seen out of corner of eye) by the leading individual, and this scene (vivid mental image of the cuboid to the upper right field of view, the counter to the right, the interface directly in front, some chrome pipes or whatever directly beyond that, darkness in the rest of the room, the front of my body below, and the chair off to my right being placed behind my legs for seating...) this is the last memory I have of the entire event when a "supernatural" feeling swept all of me and I made contact with both hands to the metal receptacles in the interface unit. (previously only touched by fingers, now by that spot on both hands)

Event happened between 1982 and 1984.

Very commonly, as I travel frequently and tend to find tons of interesting things wherever I go, I have recalled these memories spawned by similarities in the environment where I currently am. HOWEVER these things that I see DO NOT in any effect my vision memory of the experience with the thing. The memory is there, it is unchanging and solid, but the resemblance of other things always bring the experience back. For example, I mention the long remote highway, the distant mountains, etc... When visiting New Mexico and Texas and attending a camp in NM (twice), (including travel between the airports (New Mexico) and the camp) I am commonly looking for the view and dirt road which are so vivid in memory along the entire trips, always hoping to see this same scene, or feel the same sensations as we approached the thing facility... Various sci-fi shows, especially Star Trek with the Borg flash back recollections of the "thing" room, especially the interface, although nothing in Star Trek resembles this arrangement of devices. Whenever I pass a wooden post/wire fence, I think of the trip along the highway and the gate we passed through. When wandering around at family friends house in NM or Texas, I think of the view looking out of the van over the fence across the plain to the mountains... Whenever visiting a rocky and mountainous area here in the northeast, whenever we come upon a tall steep rock side of a mountain on a windy road, I think of the views entering the mountains at the facility. The placement of the dumpster and other tanks and vehicles at the kitchen building of a camp I have frequently attended are quite similar to those on the side of the house/hotel building, but even with the excessive number of times I've passed by them, they are never right (the height of the porch is similar, the building construction is similar, but in no way close enough.) Entering well or dimly lit buildings sometimes reminds me of the tunnel, as would a smaller (with same slope) tunnel used to connect the airport to the plane's portal, same grating on the floor in some cases.

NOTHING HAS EVER RECREATED THE EMOTIONAL FEELING OF THE FACILITY, thus I will soon be traveling to Montauk Point, NY where there are other geomagnetic "hot-spots" as it is the closest place to my current location with similar characteristics.

A therapist from New Orleans named Valerie Wolf presented two of her patients to the President's Committee on Human Radiation Experiments on March 15, 1995 in Washington D.C. The two patients, both women, gave bloodcurdling accounts of some of their horrific experiences while being subjected to government-run mind control/modification/ manipulation programming, which included, among other "techniques", use of such tactics as drugs, torture, hypnosis, electroshock, and rape, as well as being exposed to an unspecified or unknown amount of radiation. Much of this was administered by German (ex-Nazi) doctors. Both Wolf and her patients stated they recovered the memories of this CIA program without regression or hypnosis techniques. Incredibly enough, to the best of my knowledge, neither Congress nor any committee thereof nor any element of the "free" press ever followed through and pursued these tremendously serious and well-substantiated allegations to the slightest degree whatsoever.

David E. Rosenbaum, who was at one time employed as an attorney for Atlantic Richfield Co., conducted a nine year investigation (1983-1992) into reports of physical torture and coercive conditioning of numerous employees at an ARCO plant in Monaca, PA. Two of his clients, Jerry L. Dotey and Ann White, though apparently victims of radiation exposure, were also subjected to very severe mind control programming while at the ARCO plant.

Dotey and White were allegedly subjected to torture of many kinds while under drug induced hypnosis as part of this mind control operation, with each one undergoing at least three different "training" programs by plant physicians.

Each victim was trained to enter into a hypnotic state upon the occurrence of specific stimuli, usually involving a "cue" word or phrase and trained to "remember to forget" what transpired in the hypnotic state. They were repeatedly subjected to identical stimulus-response sequences, in order to produce nearly automatic reactions to the particular "trigger". MK-ULTRA veteran Dr. Bernard Diamond, the ubiquitous and odious Dr. Martin Orne and Dr. Josef Mengele regularly visited the ARCO plant, according to Rosenbaum.

Keep in mind that ARCO's advanced projects division was heavily involved in the development of HAARP technology prior to 1994, and the clear existence of a substantial mind/mood control agenda within the fundamental documentation on HAARP can not be forgotten.

HAARP--SON OF PHOENIX

The HAARP Project gives every indication of being the successor to certain aspects of the Montauk Project--particularly the interdimensional and time operations, and to a number of other EM/RF mind control/ manipulation operations as well.

One of the most significant pieces of official, internal covert military documentation regarding HAARP brought to light by Begich and Manning, the authors of Angels Don't Play This HAARP, specifically and precisely described HAARP's ability to actually scan and "INTERROGATE" the minds of targeted individuals by means of certain EM/RF technologies /applications. This is just another way of saying that their minds can be read through "artificial telepathy" or "techno-psychic"(psychotronic) systems.

This is from the military's own internal documents, referring to many years of empirical research and development into these types of "weapons", (in total and unconstitutional secrecy, of course!) and the validated, verified, tried-and-tested results of all these covert endeavors. Naturally, within many of these same internal documents, the main focus of how these weapons would likely be used focused excessively upon domestic uses; again, a concept which right off the bat by it's very definition is absolutely unconstitutional!

Begich and Manning's book makes repeated references to the ubiquitous John Alexander as well; one admittedly small point which kind of made my blood run cold was the fact that this guy is one of the few people in the country (world) who have a doctorate in "thanatology". That is; study and knowledge of ...death. Nice guy.

What jumps out at me from a look at recent history is the fact that the CIA and their spook colleagues in NSA, DIA and other members of the intelligence "alphabet soup" officially farmed out psychic/telekinetic/ telepathic/remote viewing research to the "private sector", a sure sign that the whole shebang has gone completely underground (in one or more possible ways!), and also has been completely shielded from any possibility of (legitimate) governmental review, oversight, interference and what have you. Once it's gone private, anything can "go down".

Which leads to Alexander's domination of the creation of Psy-Tech, the "institute" made (in)famous by Ed Dames, especially via Art Bell's radio programs. I have really never trusted Dames nor anything he said, nor anything any of these avowedly ex-spooky characters will ever utter. I have since noted that most of Dames' utterances have turned out to be hogwash. The cliché "once an agent, always an agent" is in fact very often very true.

Here is the proof, now, that Psy-Tech and other such "private-sector" entities like The Farsight Institute, are in fact creations of the covert intelligence agencies and with certainty are fulfilling certain functions and implementing agendas for said agencies. Such as spewing malicious disinformation and playing on the "New Age" sensibilities of many people by averring that the information being put forth is being received through higher psychic abilities and is literally "infallible" (has Dames considered taking the job of Pope?); guaranteed to be 100 per cent correct (as Dames often referred to his own "predictions" and prognostications--most or all of which have failed to materialize!) What was the agenda for putting out certain concepts and declaring that they are absolutely going to come to pass? An example of this would be Dames' Number 1 biggie--that a plant pathogen from the comet Hale-Bopp would completely devastate all plant life on earth beginning in Africa, as of last fall? Dames stated that this would lead to massive devastation of humanity on an unprecedented scale. (We should all be very badly off right now in Dames' scenario). Dames said over and over, via the mouthpiece of ally Art Bell, that this was absolutely, positively going to happen. No way in hell it was not going to occur.

Well, we're still here, Ed. Personally, I think Dames is full of crap. At this juncture I have to say I've become somewhat skeptical of Mr. Bell also.

John Alexander has been closely tied to HAARP ever since the project's inception under ARCO. Alexander knows the tremendous potential for the technology as a means of global control upon the human race through the major capabilities of HAARP transmissions to very substantially affect and manipulate humanity (and other life forms) physically, emotionally/psychologically and even psychically/spiritually.

I would recommend that readers familiarize themselves as much as possible with the HAARP Project and its many covert agendas, and petition whatever decent elements remain of our government to unilaterally shut down and disband any and all electromagnetic mind/body/mood altering operations at once.

Watch out for HAARP!! Covert and esoteric HAARP operations ("Tesla" EM transmissions) are now unquestionably being conducted on Long Island at Brookhaven Labs and apparently at Montauk Air Force Station/Camp Hero's subterranean installation--one of the earth's primary power points; as well as at a number of other locations worldwide. I think these are significant and unfortunate events and deserve intense scrutiny and investigation. If my gut level hunch is correct, and a linking of HAARP with certain of the Montauk Project technologies and agendas is being contemplated and/or implemented, we of the human race could all be in for a very unpleasant situation.

POSTSCRIPT

WHAT'S TO COME

Keep in mind another very significant factor; the Montauk Project appears to have splintered, with certain aspects such as the interdimensional/time operations and some of the mind manipulation programs being merged or subsumed into HAARP, and other elements of the Project continuing on as shown by the resurgence (indeed, if they ever ceased!) of the hard core,

"Montauk Boys", psychosexual abuse-coupled-with-psychotronic-&-EM/RF mind control activities--which result in dissociative, multiple personality conditions in the targeted subjects, with the alternate personalities being heavily programmed.

There are statements from certain knowledgeable individuals and some outward indications to support same, that such mind control activities--directly linked to the methods and agendas of the Phoenix/Montauk Project--are being implemented in the subterranean installation beneath the grounds of the old Navy submarine base on Fort Pond Bay in Montauk. As I've described, my personal experiences at this location and admittedly subjective analyses of these experiences has led me to conclude that there are some very peculiar surface conditions as well as a noticeably strange "vibe" in the area which would tend to give additional credence to such claims.

Claims have also been made that such unwitting agents of the secret "New World Order" government, with thoroughly programmed alternate identities--many of these also implanted with biologically-based micro transceivers for monitoring, programming and triggering/activation of previous programming--may number well over five million in the United States alone, with more being inducted and initiated daily.

If such numbers are anywhere near correct there is in effect a very dangerous, secret, "sleeper" army which theoretically at least can be called upon by the covert government at any time and deployed to do what would very likely be the most horrific and gruesome tasks imaginable.

This doesn't sound very good to me, and one must hope fervently that one way or another the programming starts to break down and disintegrate for most of these unfortunate people. A more widespread acknowledgement of the actual existence of these wretched operations and certainly a more open and public discussion of the entire topic and its ramifications by our society (media) would be one way to help dissolve the psychological barriers within us that prevent an understanding of the severity of the problem; and most especially those psychological barriers within these "targeted" individuals that prevent conscious awareness on the part of the main, true personality of the means used to shatter their psyches and the resulting alternate, programmed personalities. In other words, overcoming the phenomenon by which any actual concrete, conscious memories of the events surrounding the psychosexual abuse and EM/RF-assisted programming are erased or blanked out of the subjects' minds.

Members of contemporary society, in particular young people, are subjected to a good deal of overt mind manipulation programming by means of the fluff and mind candy disseminated by the mass entertainment corporations and major news media conglomerates; most certainly many of the video and computer games aimed so heavily at children and teenagers have a significant "programming" impact upon participants as well. In addition to that the entire population is to a degree subject to subliminal transmissions, some coupled to commercial broadcasting and others not.

Perhaps the best way to sum all of this up right now is to say that those who cherish, support and will defend human freedom and the right of humanity to fulfill its most positive, most life-affirming, most inclusive, most expansive, most compassionate and most loving destiny: take heed, and take action now, in any way you can, to counteract the influences of those people who wield the technologies described in this report in pursuit of the aims and agendas noted.

The general global situation--in terms of global economics (oppression), ecology/environment (pollution), quality of life and scarcity of resources issues, and additionally the overall "human predicament" in terms of personal fulfillment, higher awareness, human rights, and in terms of having any worthwhile future at all on this planet to hand our children--in many ways have surely never been more precarious: a massive shift of consciousness, and thus of "reality" itself--as shown by premier quantum mathematician /physicist and Phoenix/Montauk Project principal Jan Von Neumann--has never been more urgently needed.
