

Traveling Light's Gemstone Companions

I love gemstones! The consciousness of the gem's deva is always delightful. I completely enjoy co-creating with them. Recently, I started to create gemstone necklaces and bracelets. The Council of Ein Soph directs me in which stones to put together. Following my Spirit, I design the piece. After it is made the Council names and infuses the gem tool. In general, the necklaces are more saturated and intense than the bracelets.

I see these pieces as tools and companions rather than jewelry. I would suggest that you not wear your tool all of the time. Instead, keep it near your head while you sleep. Because they carry so much energy, they are delicate. Please only clean them by placing them on a piece of selenite. This will remove residue and not disturb the programming. Also, some of the stones themselves are delicate.

As tools and co-creative Companions, you do the work and they assist you. The tool will bring up any energies and pictures of reality that oppose the programming that the piece carries. Be prepared to do the work. You will need to use your skills along with each piece: Unified Chakra, Triple Grid, Vow Breaks, Petition for the Highest Possibilities, and Sacred Offering. The Companions work with you, not on you. I have suggested Potions to go with each of the Companions. Crystalline Co-Creation Potion is great with all of them.

There is only a certain small number of each design. Due to the availability of different stones the next group will likely have similar themes, but different designs. Some of the beads are very rare and I never know if I can get them again. These necklaces are $333 and the bracelets are $144. You may also choose to have a Crystalline Companion Attunement Session for $55. This is to attune your specific piece to your energy.

I am also offering necklaces that are uniquely designed and attuned for each person. A Private Consultation is required for these and is included in the price of $555.

If you are interested, call Traveling Light at 503-655-1477 or email me at traveling-light@comcast.net. I hope that you enjoy working with them as much as I enjoyed the co-creation of manifesting them.
