Russian Sable Coat Worth $10,000, a $15,000 Pearl Necklace, and Other Effects Missing.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20.—A sensational discovery was made, says The Call, when the personal effects of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fair arrived from Paris a few days ago. The magnificent Russian sable coat, valued at $10,000, which Mrs. Fair bequeathed in her will to Mrs. Joseph Harvey was missing and a cheap imitation affair, not worth $30, had been substituted in its place. Mrs. Fair's famous pearl necklace of five strings, valued at $15,000, had been tampered with, and instead of real pearls in the necklace cheap imitation gems had been set in their places.

Numbers of articles of jewelry which the Fairs were known to have taken to Europe were missing, and their only effects which were returned through the American Consulate in Paris intact were Mrs. Fair's chinchilla and mink coats and Charles Fair's scarf pins.

The changes were made, it is believed, before the valuables were turned over to the American Consulate. Steps have been taken to attempt to locate the missing articles.
